FOUND AT LAST.—FOSTER has been found. Since his mysterious disappearance at Cresson the all-absorbing question has been—Has Foster been found? and we are happy to answer that he has. He is now in Philadelphia, holding close communion with the leaders of the Bell men. Having got the Catholic priests to work for him, he is now busy coalescing with the Know Nothings.

Foster took to the woods at Cresson pretty much after the fashion of the old darkie who was alarmed at the interpretation put upon a passage of Scripture by his preacher. The latter was preaching upon the subject of the broad and strait ways; but in his anxiety to use big words he confounded "damnation" with "salvation," and said, "My breddren, dere am two ways; de one leads to hell and de oder to damnation." The old darkie to whom we have alluded, upon hearing this appalling declaration, exclaimed "Dat be de case, I takes to de woods." So Mr. Foster, viewing the equally fatal result of taking either the Douglas or Breckinridge road, took to the woods.

He is very quiet in Philadelphia, of course, avoiding the Douglas and Breckinridge men with great dexterity. His secret preferences are understood, all round, to be for Breckinridge. The Breckinridgers profess to know this, and it is certain that the Douglasites fear it, if they do not believe it. It will not do for him, however, to come out openly with his preference; so he sings dumb, as between his rival supporters, and reserves all his sweetness and affection for the Bell men.

How this double-faced political hypocrite gets along it is hard to imagine. He must have learned the arts of the magician during his late long residence in the woods. He not only brings the two quarrelling factions of democrats to his support, but he succeeds in uniting Catholic priests and Know Nothing conspirators in the work of supporting him. He must be a wonderful fellow if he succeeds in fusing such incongruous elements. Let him beware. He has too big a job on his hands. Better take to the woods again. Some one of these four divisions of his supporters may become suspicious, and undertake to smoke him out. And what then? He is evidently cheating some of them.

GEN. MOORHEAD AND THE LAW RELATIVE TO THE SUPREME COURT.—The people in this end of the State, and particularly in Allegheny county, were much gratified at the passage, by the last legislature, near the close of the session, of an act to prevent the judges of the Supreme Court from issuing process to take effect outside of the district from which issued. This law, if it had been signed by the Governor, would have effectually prevented that Court from persecuting our public officers by summoning them to Philadelphia, Harrisburg and Lancaster to answer for acts committed here; but Gov. Packer has put the law in his pocket, and will keep it there until the new legislature meets.

Gen. MOORHEAD, our candidate for Congress, is a personal friend of Gov. Packer's, and a few days after the law had passed addressed the following letter to the Governor urging him to sign it. We lay this letter before the public, now, to show that Gen. MOORHEAD not only took an active interest in the bill, but used all his influence to induce the Governor to sign it. Gen. MOORHEAD has always identified himself with the interests of the people of this county, and this letter shows him to be active in promoting them in a case of the utmost importance to them, and at a time when, it was fondly hoped, his appeal to the Governor would prove successful, as we all feel it should have done:

WASHINGTON, April 13th, 1860.

His Excellency, Wm. F. Packer—Dear Governor: My constituents are greatly exercised at the conduct of the Supreme Court in dragging the County Commissioners and members of the City Council to Philadelphia to answer a mandamus, which they believed should have been answered at home. I was glad to read that the Legislature (very properly, in my opinion,) viewed the matter in the same light, and have enacted a law that will prevent such tyrannical action hereafter. If I thought it at all necessary to press upon you the importance and propriety of signing this act, I would do so; but it appears to me to be so plain and just in itself that I will not insult your understanding by making such an appeal to you. I have no doubt about your signing it, and only write you to say, while I approve most heartily of the act, I don't know any who oppose it. Hoping to hear very soon that it has become a law, I remain yours, truly,

J. K. MOORHEAD.

CURTIN DENOUNCED FROM THE PULPIT.—The Catholic priests in Berks and Schuylkill counties have openly denounced Col. CURTIN, our candidate for Governor, from the pulpit, appealing to their hearers to vote against him.

The friends of Mr. FOSTER appear to be growing desperate, as a resort to this extreme measure proves. They have determined to enlist the whole power of the Catholic church in his behalf.

How would they like it if Protestant preachers were to denounce him from the pulpit? We should never hear the last of "priestly dictation," "political preachers," "Union of Church and State," &c. Yet the appeal for Protestant support for CURTIN, from Protestant pulpits, would be just as legitimate as this open enlistment of Catholic priests for FOSTER. The only difference would be that Protestants think and vote for themselves, without regard to their preachers, whilst the Catholics, with few exceptions, do not.

We do not mean to waste many words over this shameless employment of the power of a foreign hierarchy to influence our elections; we are content to call to it the attention of the Protestants and intelligent men of the State.

SNYDER COUNTY.—The Republicans of Snyder county have nominated the following ticket:

Congress—Jno. W. Killinger.
Senate—Israel Gutelius.
Assembly—J. Patterson, W. F. Wagenseller.
Associate Judge—H. C. Houtz.
Commissioner—Geo. Wehr.
Auditor—H. L. Boyer.

BRECKINRIDGE ON THE STUMP.—The friends of Mr. Breckinridge in Kentucky have induced him to take the stump. He speaks at Lexington on Sept. 5th, and the arrangement of his friends is that he shall make five or six speeches in Kentucky during the canvass, probably extending his tour through Tennessee, and perhaps through other States.

HUNTINGDON COUNTY.—The "People's" Convention of Huntingdon county has unanimously nominated Hon. S. S. BLAIR as a candidate for re-election to Congress; and as Blair and Cambria have done likewise, he will be nominated almost unanimously by the Conferees, Somerset county being the only one in the district which has not declared for him.

The Convention also decided in favor of S. S. WHARTON, Esq., for Senate, and the Senatorial Conference has since nominated him unanimously. The district was lately represented by W. P. Schell, a democrat. Mr. Wharton will undoubtedly be elected. He has had legislative experience, is kind, amiable and gentlemanly, and will make an excellent Senator.

The rest of the ticket is as follows:

Assembly—Brice X. Blair.
Prothonotary—William C. Wagoner.
Register and Recorder—Daniel Womelsdorf.
Associate Judge—William B. Lease.
Commissioner—John Cummings.
Director of Poor—Samuel Feightal.
Coroner—Benjamin R. Neff.
Auditor—Horatio G. Fisher.

The Democratic ticket for the same county is as follows:

Assembly—J. Simpson Africa.
Prothonotary—David Caldwell.
Associate Judge—John Long.
Register and Recorder—John B. Hurd.
Commissioner—John Jackson.
Director of Poor—John Eby.
Coroner—H. S. Harvey.
Auditor—Charles C. Ash.

Wm. Lewis, R. Milton Speer and Col. R. F. Haslett were appointed Senatorial Conferees, without instructions. Messrs. Geo. W. Speer, J. S. Seobler and John S. Miller were chosen as Congressional Conferees. The Convention refused to endorse either Douglas, Breckinridge or Foster.

The Beverettis tried to hold a meeting there on the 16th, but it was a fizzle, there being none but locofocos at it, and a few Republican spectators. They had it telegraphed all over the country, however, as a tremendous turn out. They, and the Douglas men, appear to have entire control of the telegraph, and send lying dispatches to the press from every point that suits them. If the reader sees a telegraphic account of a big Beverett meeting anywhere, he may set it down as a whopper, sure.

JNO. BELL AS UNDERSTOOD AT THE SOUTH.—Mr. B. H. HILL, one of the electors at large on the Bell and Everett ticket in Tennessee, says:

"I repeat, we have four candidates in the field, and of these John Bell is the only candidate who has always voted directly against the Wilmot Proviso and squatter sovereignty!

John Bell is the only candidate who has voted directly in favor of protection.' [of Slavery.]

John Bell is the only candidate who has declared that Slavery was the great element of our prosperity, as a nation, and was right according to the laws of God and nature!

John Bell is the only candidate who has declared that humanity to the slave, no less than justice to the master, required the diffusion and extension of Slavery.

What excuse shall a Southern man render his conscience and his country for refusing to vote for John Bell?"

It is not likely that Mr. Hill would misrepresent the position of his leader.

What excuse can a Northern man render for voting for a candidate who is on record in favor of Slavery as "the great element of our prosperity as a Nation?"

DOUGLAS DENOUNCING CLAY.—In his speech at Carrollton, in 1844, Douglas said:

"I denounced him (Clay) in the Congress of the United States, and I now denounce him as a traitor.—AN OLD BLACK HEARTED TRAITOR—the first American statesman who ever attempted to sell his country for British gold!"

The old friends and supporters of Henry Clay are now asked to go into a coalition with those who are trying to elevate the utterer of this tirade to the Presidency!

THE VALUE OF A LONDON DUST HEAP.—In an article on the London poor the Quarterly Review quotes the following extract from a book entitled "The Blessing Link," showing the amount of valuable material is sometimes hidden in the refuse of a great city:

The contents of every dust-bin in this vast London are carried away periodically.—The dustman receives a small gratuity from each householder, and when he has collected a cart load, he hands another shilling at the gate of the Paddington wharves, as he deposits it with in their precincts. A dust heap is very valuable to the contractor, and a large one is said to be worth four or five thousand pounds. It has to be sifted, sorted, and disposed of we can give but a slight idea of its miscellaneous contents. Its chief constituent element is ashes, mixed with bits of coal, from the carelessness or waste of thousands of servants, which the searchers pick out of the heap to be sold forthwith. The largest and best of the cinders are also selected for sale, and hundreds and braziers, whose purpose they answer better than coke. The far greater remainder is called breeze, because it is the portion left after the wind has blown the cinder dust from it, through large upright iron sieves, held and shaken elbow high by the coal-whippers as the heap, whilst others throw up the stuff into the sieves. The breeze and ashes also are sold, to brickmakers, the ashes are mixed with the clay of the bricks, and the breeze is used as fuel to burn between their layers.

But the heap likewise includes soft ware and hardware. The former includes all vegetable and animal matter—all that will to decompose. All these are carried off to be employed as manure. Stale fish and dead cats come into this list —the skins of the latter being stripped off by the cat's meat men, who sell them for 4d. or 6d., according to their color, white being most in request. The "hard ware" does not merely mean broken pottery, though of this there is great abundance. Part of the pottery is matched and mended by the women who find it, and becomes their parquisite; the rest, with the oyster shells, is sold to make new roads. But hard ware in the dust heaps means rags, which go to the paper-makers; bones, which go to the bone-boilers; old iron, brass, and lead, to salesmen of those metals; broken glass, to old glass shops; old carpets, old mattresses, old boxes, old pails, old baskets, broken tea boards, candlesticks, fenders, old silk bandkerchiefs, knives and salts, cellars—not forgetting old shoes, which go in baskets to the translators, who turn old shoes into new; everything, in short, that the housekeeper has thought not worth mending, besides many a wasteful addition which the masters never knew, from nameless where recklessness and extravagance bear rule.

"Some of the contents are the sifter's perquisite—a certain amount of cinders and so much paper and wood as they can carry, and corks of bottles, by which alone some bonat they can find themselves in shoe-leather; pill boxes also and gallipots are their lawful property. Jewelry, silver forks, spoons, and money are occasionally found, and too often appropriated by the finder. One day a check for a considerable sum was discovered among the waste paper."

PRINCE NAPOLEON is of the opinion of Plato, or somebody else, who, on his death-bed said that he only regretted two actions of his life—and one was that he had made a journey by sea when he could go by land. It appears that at Cherbourg, the Prince recently embarked in his yacht Canard, to sail to Havre, by way of experiment, before he ventured on his trip to this country. He had settled himself comfortably on board, with some of his favorite friends, when lo! just as they had seated themselves at table, such a very strange sky—such a very queer wind—such a wonderous sea swell—all his Imperial Highness, mindful of Falstaff's logic, quietly slipped on board the boat, and came back to the hotel at Cherbourg, followed soon after by his friends and the whole battalion of cooks, bringing with them the battery from which he never flies, and the night was finished comfortably on shore, while the Canard toiled and labored against wind and sea to make very little way, and to arrive at Havre amid much labor and distress, several hours later, than she could have done.

MR. SMITH, Chairman of the late Republican State Convention in New York, made a good hit in his speech on taking the Chair as follows:

Let the Democrats and Americans unite, and inscribe on their banners the motto "Erin go Unum E Pluribus Bragh." [Loud laughter and cheers,] and we will scatter the coalition to the winds.

The motto, it will be remembered, was that which an Irishman, wishing to compromise between Ireland and America, constructed to adorn the sign of his coffee-house.

MORE OF THE "BARBARISM OF SLAVERY."—The Augusta (Ga.) Dispatch, of the 11th inst., publishes the following as an ordinary item of news:

"The Burning of a Negro.—We learn this morning that a negro boy, who had killed a white man, was burnt at the stake, at Station No. 11, on the Southwestern Railroad.

Twelve persons took him from the Sheriff's custody, tying bonds for his re-delivery, after which they tried, sentenced and executed the murderer, returning his ashes to the ofiicer."

THE marriage of M'lle Piccolhomini with the Duke of Gaeta[illegible] has taken place at Siena.

ANOTHER RECRUIT.—J. H Tyler, Esq., an old and prominent Democrat of Napoleon, is among the Republican accession in Henry county. We have known Mr. T. for 16 years as an earnest and active Democrat, who never wavered in his attachment to that party, until it had abandoned every semblage of its original faith.—Toledo Blade.

THE Boston Post says the Douglas post masters withhold it from its subscribers. Good! It can now sympathise with Republican editors whose papers are sometimes withheld by both Douglas and Breckinridge postmasters. Let our friend of the Post have patience. These rascals will all be turned out of office next year. Mr. Lincoln won't have any of them under him.—Alb. Eve. Jour.

Piles! Piles! Piles! Piles!
What is it? How Cured?

Thousands of persons have Piles—suffer for years with the disease—yet few know what it is, or how it is cured. Every case of Piles, whether manifested in the form of external tumors, frequent bleedings, or in violent itching and irritation, depends essentially upon congestion of the abdominal venous circulation. This produces the engorgement, dilation of the veins, formation of tumors, hemorrhages, pain and suffering; and the disease can only be fundamentally cured by medicines which, taken internally, relieve this venous congestion. Hence, ointments, washes, and even injections, are so ineffectual.

HUMPHREYS' HOMEOPATHIC PILE SPECIFIC, a simple sugar pill, taken two or three times per day, cures the disease by curing the condition upon which the disease depends. Hundreds have been cured by it, even of the most obstinate cases. All will be promptly benefited by it Price, 50 cents a box.

N. B—A full set of HUMPHREY'S HOMEOPATHIC SPECIFICS with Book of Directions, and twenty different Remedies, in large vials, morocco case, $5; ditto, in plain case, $4; case of fifteen bottles, and Book, $2. Single boxes, 25 cents and 50 cents.

These Remedies, by the single box or case, are sent by mail or express, free of charge, to any address, on receipt of the price. Address Dr. F. HUMPHREYS & CO.,

THE
WORTHY OF ANY CONFIDENCE FOR RESTORING
The Bald and Gray.

Many, since the Great Discovery of Prof. WOOD, have attempted not only to imitate his Restorative, but profess to have discovered something that will produce results identical; but they have all come and gone, being carried away by the wonderful results of Prof. WOOD'S preparation, and have been forced to leave the field to its ressalious sway. Read the following:

PROF. O. J. WOOD & CO.: Gents—The letter I wrote you in 1858, concerning your wonderful Hair Restorative, and which you have published in that unsightly and startling form, has given rise to numerous inquiries touching the facts in the case. The inquiries are first, is it a fact or my imitation and name, as stated in the communication; second, is it true of all therein contained; third, does my hair still continue in good order and of natural color? To all I can and do answer invariably, yes. My hair is even better than in any stage of my life for forty years past, more soft, thrifty and fine colored; the same in form of my whiskers, and the only cause why it is not generally true, is that the substance is washed off by frequent ablutions of the face, when it care were used by wiping the face to close contact with the whiskers, the same result will follow as the hair. I have been in the receipt of a great number of letters from all parts of New England, asking me if my hair still continues to be good, as there is so much fraud in the manufacture and sale of various compounds as well as this, that no doubt, been badly imitated as I have used not only without any good effect, but absolute injury. I have not used any of your Restorative of any account for some months, and yet my hair is as good as ever, and therefore have attended it with surprise, as I was one of your earliest and most a gray hair in my head or on my face, and to prove this fact, I send you a lock of my hair taken off the past week. I received your favor of two quart bottles last summer, for which I am very grateful; I gave it to my friends and thereby restored them to my society, who were skeptical until after trial and then purchased and used it with universal success. I will ask as a favor, that you send me a trial by which I can discover fraud in the Restorative, sold by many, I fear, without authority from you. A pure article will insure success, and I believe where good effects do not follow, the failure is caused by the impure article, which curses the inventor of the good. I deem it my duty, as a christian, to keep you apprised of the continued effect on my hair, as I assure all who inquire of me of my unbiased opinion of its valuable results. I remain, dear sir, yours,
A. O. SAUNDERS.
ALTON'S RUN, Ky., Nov. 10, 1859.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: Dear Sir—I would certainly be doing you and the public injustice not to make known to the world the wonderful as well as the unexpected result I have experienced from using one bottle of your Hair Restorative. After I had taken every kind of Restorative extant, but without success, and finding my head nearly destitute of hair, I was finally induced to try a bottle of your Hair Restorative. Now, candor and justice compel me to pronounce to what every may read this, that I now possess a new and beautiful growth of hair, which I pronounce richer and handsomer than the old last was. I will therefore take pleasure in recommend this invaluable remedy to it, who may feel the necessity of it. Respectfully yours, Rev. J. ADAMS TAYLOR.
P. S. This testimonial of my approbation for your valuable Restorative you are welcome to use as you think proper, but if you think it worthy a place among the rest, insert it; if you wish—it not, destroy, and say nothing. Yours, &c. J. A. T.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium and small; the small holds half a pint and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.
