SLAVES AS PROPERTY.—The argument, so often repeated that it has become threadbare, advanced by the advocates of slavery extension, that slaves should be classed with that which is recognized as property by the local laws of the Northern States—or in other words, that the Southern negro, who is represented as a "person" in Congress, should be classed with the live stock of a Northern farm yard, in order to secure his admission into a territory—is so fallacious that we are surprised that even Southern men have the effrontry to advance it. And yet it is the foundation of the slave code idea, and is urged with a pertinacity that seems like fanaticism, not only by slaveholders, but by men in the North who call themselves "democrats" and "conservatives." There is not a day passes that we do not find some demagogue contending, with apparent earnestness, that the owners of slaves should be placed, in this respect on an equal footing with the owners of horses, oxen and sheep. As this class of individuals generally receive with great deference the opinions on the subject of slavery advanced on the South side of Mason and Dixon's line, we beg leave to direct their attention to the following extract from an article written by a Virginia editor—a Mr. PARKER, of Charlestown—who, although he supports Breckinridge, has some misgivings as to the stability of his platform. He proposes in this article to abandon the slave code, and compromise the vexed question by dividing the national domain equally between the slave and free States for future settlement and occupation. The portion of the article, however, which has attracted our attention is that which draws the line of distinction between the different species of property, and which, in our opinion, refutes the position of the slavery propagandists in the North and the South on this subject:

"The Breckinridge party rests its claim upon general principles of equality and the Dred Scott decision. They say it is unequal for the North to be allowed to carry and protect by the arm of the Federal Government, if necessary, all their property in the Territories, and for the South to be refused like privileges. This, as a naked proposition, is certainly correct. But how is it when you come to look at the concomitants of each species of property. Slaves are men. Men affect the order of civilization. The North has as much interest in the order of civilization as the South. An order of civilization is as dear to a people as property, and indeed, essentially affects its value. The rights of an order of civilization are as sacred and as much the engagement to protect as rights of property. The Southern order of civilization displaces the Northern as effectually as a Wilmot proviso does the Southern. The two orders cannot co-exist upon the same soil, any more than a State can be at the same time a slave State and a free State. Besides, the legislation of slavery in a Territory makes it as fully and thoroughly a slave Territory as if there were a multitude of slaves therein. It is this legal character of the Territories that is looked to and that all this contention is about.—The question is, shall the legal status and character of all the Territories be free or slave? The Lincoln men assert that they will pass the Wilmot proviso, and make them all legally free; the Breckinridge men, on the contrary, assert they will, by the Dred Scott decision, make them all legally slave. This view of the Dred Scott decision looks an unjust and unequal to the North as Lincoln's to the South. The Dred Scott decision seems to be confined to property, and takes no account of persons and orders of civilization. A decision covering the whole ground, it would seem, should apply to all. Again, are there not principles of common law which nigh modify this particular decision? Though, as a general rule, there is a right to carry into any of the Territories all sorts of property common to any of the States, yet common law, principles pertaining to nuisances and injurious species of property might possibly apply. For illustration—lead manufactories are property in the States; might they therefore be carried into any of the Territories and placed in any of the towns, and constitutional protection claimed and commanded by principles of law, for no other reason that they were property, though spreading poisonous fumes abroad? Perhaps, if slaves require slavery, as is a fact, and slavery excludes the free order of civilization—which is Northern society—and thereby prevents the North from their rightful and equal participation in the Territories, some application to it of these common-law principles might be just."

Here follows the proposition to appropriate equal portions of the public domain to freedom and slavery—a compromise which of course will find no favor with the Republicans, who are in principle opposed to any measure which would contemplate the further extension of slavery.

INDIANA.—The Republican blood is up in Indiana. The recent gathering at Indianapolis was an immense one—literally an outpouring of the people. The railroads carried 30,000 to it, and those who came in by other conveyances swelled the number to over 40,000. The procession was very long; in it were some eight thousand Wide Awakes, fifteen bands of music, and a wagon drawn by forty-three yoke of oxen with several large new logs, with men splitting rails and distributing them along the way.

The speaking took place at Military Park, near the city. There was speaking from four different stands by Hon. Tom. Corwin, Hon. P. F. Brunton, of Ohio, F. P. Blair, of Missouri, Mr. Underwood, of Virginia, Henry S. Lane, and P. Morton, candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor, and others.

In the evening many buildings were brilliantly illuminated, one of the largest Wide Awake torch light processions ever witnessed, paraded the streets in uniform, and speeches were made by several gentlemen. The enthusiasm, which was at the highest pitch all day, was kept up till a late hour in the night.

The reports that come to us from Indiana are that the Hoosier State may be safely relied on for Lincoln and Hamlin.

CHICAGO PRESS AND TRIBUNE.—We are glad to find in the columns of this sterling paper the following announcement: "The readers of the Press and Tribune, who freely and warmly expressed their sympathy for us, when a year ago last November we were obliged to ask an extension on a large amount of debt, will be glad to know that the last dollar of that debt was paid in its full, principal and interest, last week; and that beyond the ordinary current accounts, paid monthly, of an establishment doing a business of $175,000 per annum, the Press and Tribune Company owe no man a dollar."

CATHOLIC DENUNCIATIONS OF CURTIN.—We stated on Tuesday last that Catholic priests in Berks and Schuylkill counties had denounced Col. CURTIN, our candidate for Governor, from their pulpits. The Pittsburgh Catholic undertakes to deny our statement, and demands our authority.

The Catholic volunteers this denial without knowing anything about the facts. Because its editor cannot believe the statement to be true, therefore it cannot be true. Sound logic.

We derived our information from gentlemen living in those counties, who know the facts to be as stated by us. They are gentlemen of unimpeachable integrity, whose word is worthy of credence under all circumstances, and feeling the utmost confidence in the truth of their statements, we made publication of the facts accordingly.

We give no heed to the impudent demand of the Catholic for the names of our informants. When they choose to volunteer them we will publish them; not before. As to the names of the priests who indulged in these denunciations, we did not stop to inquire. A Catholic priest is a "priest" and nothing more; the world knows very few of them by any other cognomen.

If, however, the Catholic is very anxious on the subject, Berks and Schuylkill are not very far from here, and it can inquire for itself.

As a confirmation of our statement, we copy the following from the Harrisburg Telegraph, published in that region:

"The Catholic Priests along the Schuylkill and in the mining districts generally, are openly denouncing Andrew G. Curtin from their pulpits, and calling on their congregations to oppose him with all the power in their possession. Let it be distinctly understood that this opposition is waged simply because the Republican candidate for Governor is a Protestant American citizen. They do not denounce him because he lacks ability. Their opposition is not excited because he is dishonest. Their hatred and malevolence spring from the bitter prejudices of their superstition and holy horror for the freedom and forms of Protestantism."

BALTIMORE.—A correspondent of the Cumberland (Md.) Civilian, writes as follows from Baltimore:

"Republican Clubs.—The Republicans are making headway in forming Ward Clubs. Certain rowdies went to break up a meeting of sixty or more, a few nights ago, but when they saw that one of the most prominent Plug Uglies was amongst the Republicans, and heard him tell them to be off or they would suffer, the assailants disappeared in hurry. It is pretty well ascertained that the Old American club element is with the Lincoln men, and this fact is working wonders in causing them to be respected.

POLITICAL ITEMS.

THE following is the full State ticket nominated by the Massachusetts Republican State Convention:

For Governor—John A Andrew, of Boston.
For Lieutenant Governor—John Z. Goodrich, of Stockbridge.
For Secretary of State—Oliver Warner, of Northampton.
For Treasurer—Henry K Oliver, of Lawrence.
For Auditor—Levi Reed, of Abington.
For Attorney General—Dwight Foster, of Worcester.
For Electors at Large—George Morey, of Boston; Reuben A Chapman, of Springfield.

THE BRECKINRIDGERITE COUNCIL.—The friends of Breckinridge and Lane in this county met in Convention at Ebensburg on Tuesday, forty-seven delegates being present from twenty four districts. (Six delegates elected from this Borough did not think it necessary to attend.) The Convention was called to order by James Burk of Summerhill—upon whose motion Judge Kinkead of Carrolltown was chosen President. B. B. M'Cormick, Esq., and Thomas M'Connell, Esq., were appointed Secretaries. The following ticket was selected with but slight opposition

Assembly—Michael Dan Magehan, Ebensburg.
Register & Rec.—H. M. Gregg, Johnstown.
Commissioner—William Gill, Chest.
Poor Director—Henry Hobbie, Carroll Tp.
Auditor—Jacob B. Stanily, Susquehanna.

Mr. Hobbie is the only candidate nominated whose name is also upon the ticket framed in July last. He is a Breckinridge Democrat, and was placed on the July ticket by mistake. The Convention passed a series of resolutions declaring Douglas to be a disorganizer, and bitterly denunciatory of George N. Smith. A County Committee was appointed, of which Augustin Darbin was Chairman. Mr. Darbin was the regular Democratic candidate for the State Senate in this district last fall, and was Chairman of the Democratic County Committee in 1856. The journal of the Democrat & Sentinel was endorsed by the Convention which nominated Messrs. C. M'Cormick, C. D. Murray, and George Walters as appointed Congressional Conferees.

As an evidence of the strength of the Breckinridge party in this county, we may state that at the election on Saturday 100 votes were polled in Cleariield township and forty in Ebensburg. The Breckinridgers are determined to "wipe out" the Douglasites in Little Cambria, and we believe they can do it.—Cambria Trib.

GIVING UP THE RUSE.—The Richmond Whig (Bell) organ, is disconsolate. It contends that: "To support Breckinridge at the South is to encourage the friends of Breckinridge at the North to continue Breckinridge electoral tickets in the field in that section; and to continue Breckinridge electoral tickets in the field of Northern States is, in all probability, to insure the election of Lincoln."

The Whig concedes too much or too little—too much, if its only hope for the Bell ticket is in the withdrawal of Breckinridge; too little, if it thinks the withdrawal of Breckinridge would weaken the chances of Lincoln's election. It virtually, however, gives up the ship, and has no heart to battle against destiny. Its tone is lachrymose and its fears potent. The symptoms of the party it represents are equally bad, and nothing but a stiff speech from Gov. Hunt will be able to restore its drooping energies.—N. Y. Times.

OUR Illustrious Senator Bigler, it appears, not satisfied with regulating the affairs of the Democracy of Pennsylvania, has undertaken to do the same for the Democracy of New York. The New York News, of yesterday, says:

"Senator Bigler of Pennsylvania, is in town, and had interviews yesterday with several members of the Democratic State Committee. He is very solicitous, we understand, that one of the Breckinridge men should be placed on the Democratic electoral ticket. What disposition will be made of that subject, should it be presented for the consideration of the committee, cannot, of course, now be known. Up to a late hour last evening no person authorized to speak for the Breckinridge people had made himself apparent at the rooms of the committee. In fact, nobody appeared to know anything about him."

A GENTLEMAN with Southern feelings, who recently traveled by steamer from this city to Savannah, writes to a friend in this city the following incident of the voyage: "On the Augusta an election was taken, which showed Breckinridge 30, Douglas 12, Bell 12, and (mirabile dictu!) Lincoln 4!!! The excitement consequent thereon was considerable, and two of the obnoxious individuals—brothers who had gone to Macon to do business—were 'spotted.' It was considered a case worthy of attention, and had it been so that they could not have got out of the city at once, that night, it is very doubtful whether they would have been allowed to go further than Savannah. As it is, they will be looked after. The other two are not known, so that it rests upon every community in our State to consider the question, 'Have we a Lincolnite among us?'"—N.Y. Trib.

A UNION TICKET.—The Republicans and a portion of the Democrats of the new county of Cameron have united in the nomination of the following local ticket: Associate Judges—James Bailey, Democrat, and Merrick Housler, Republican. Sheriff—John Eldred, Dem., Treasurer—Washington Brooks, Republican. Prothonotary—Isaac Ramsey, Democrat. Commissioners—C. H. Large, George Vosburg, Republican; James Schaffer, Democrat. Auditors—Joseph Housler, Frederick Sizer, L. Mosier Republican. Surveyor—Edward Vosburg, Republican. Coroner—Wm. Floyd, Democrat. This singular "fusion," embracing all the Republicans, and a large portion of the Democrats, cannot fail to result in the election of the ticket.

COL. SHARP, Democratic candidate for Governor of Maine in a recent journey, took his seat by the driver on a stage box. The driver's talk indicated that he did not know he was carrying the Democratic candidate. In order to let him know that he "carried Cæsar and his fortunes," the Colonel looked the driver full in the face and said, "Sir, do you know who you are riding with?" The driver confessed his ignorance. Said the Colonel, "You are riding with the next Governor of Maine!" The driver dropped his whip, grasped the Colonel's hand, and gave it a real Republican grip, exclaiming, "How do you do? How do you do, Mr. Washburne.

A LARGE and enthusiastic meeting of Republicans was held in Bridgeport, Madison County, New York, on Saturday evening last. This place has been a stronghold of Americanism, and at first the majority of the people were disposed in favor of Bell and Everett; but after the late fusion of the Douglas and Bell parties at Syracuse the tide has changed. The speeches of George Terwilliger of New York, and Alfred H. Hovey of Syracuse, were effective, inducing many who were heretofore Bell men and Douglas men, to join the Republican Club. About three hundred names were added to the Republican roll.

ANOTHER STRONG ACCESSION.—William E. Dodge, Esq., of New York, one of the most esteemed and honorable merchants of that city, of the old and well known house of Dodge, Dodge & Co., and who was one of the Vice Presidents at the Bell-Everett Ratification Meeting held in New York on the 8th of June last, repudiates the Syracuse juggle, and has declared for Lincoln and Hamlin.

A PROPHET.—Rev. H. Clay Dean, a Douglas man, said in a speech at Keokuk, Iowa, that the fame and memory of Washington would endure "long after every black hearted republican was dead, damned, and forgotten, and the worms had devoured their heart strings, and were fighting for their eye balls, and their children had squandered their estates, and the devil had got their souls."

THE DISPUTE SETTLED.—There has been considerable contention between the two factions of the Democratic party in Wisconsin, as to which particular branch Judge Cate belongs. The question has finally been settled—we trust in a manner satisfactory to both—by the announcement in the Waushara Argus that Judge Cate will vote for Lincoln and Hamlin.

JOHN VAN BUREN says that Cagger & Co. committed "the great blunder of the age, when they fused with the Know-Nothings, the most violent enemies the Democratic party ever had." He also says he "will be much surprised if Douglas carries more than a single State." What State that will be, John does not mention.

MINNESOTA.—Miner Porter, Esq., of South Bend, Mankato County; last year Chairman of the County Central Democratic Committee, has declared for Lincoln and Hamlin. Many other Democrats in the same region have taken the same step.

BRECKINRIDGE IN A DILEMMA.—The same questions which were asked at Norfolk of Mr. Douglas, will be put next week at Lexington to Mr. Breckinridge; if he answers "no," he loses the secession vote; if "yes," then he will be decided the disunion candidate.

MILLSON OATES, AND DECLARES FOR DOUGLAS.—Hon. John Millson, of the Norfolk district, Va., has canvas in, in consequence of Douglas's speech, and declared for the little giant. He is a man of influence among the conservative portion of the east Virginia democracy.

A flourishing Lincoln Club has been formed at Ironton, Mo., in a place where two years ago there was not an avowed Republican, but which now will give 200 votes to Lincoln.

THE Chicago Journal wants to know if the union of "Sam" with Douglas is the "Constitutional Union" we have heard so much about?

WITHIN the past fortnight, the State of Maine has been blessed with frequent and bountiful rains. The rivers and streams are rapidly rising and the mills are everywhere in operation. Within the next few weeks millions of lumber will be cut up and prepared for market, making business lively, and money plenty in the State. Fields parched up by the severe drought now begin to look fresh and green, promising to afford abundance of fall feed for stock.

SPAIN AS A FIRST CLASS POWER.—A Paris correspondent says that the opposition of England to the admission of Spain as a first class European Power has, for the present, put a stop to the movement. The ground of the British objection to Spain is that she is a notorious slaveholding and slave trading State, and as such ought not to be admitted to the councils of the Great Power.

HORRIBLE FUNERAL PYRE.—Accounts from Africa state that the King of Dahomey is about to make an immense sacrifice of human life to the memory of his late father. A great pit has been dug, and in this pit two thousand persons will be sacrificed. He has sent out an expedition to capture prisoners, the younger portion of whom will be sold on the coast to slavers, while the old will be thrown into the pit to appease the manes of the deceased king.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Troy Arena says that among the visitors at Saratoga Springs is a runaway nun. Sick and tired of confined life, she ran away from the cloister, and is now here with her friends, recuperating by a healthy exercise which must be sorely felt. Her face is really beautiful, and she attracts no little attention by her modest, unassuming behaviour.

THE Opinione Nationale publishes, authentically, a statement of three subalterns of the first foreign battalion of the Holy See, declaring that their superior officers have advised them not to desert, promising that on the slightest rising of the population which might occur at Perugia, they would allow them to sack the town.

THE London Times says that there can be no doubt of the injury done to the hops by the unusual weather, and the intelligence of each day confirms the opinion that in many districts they will prove a total failure.

IF you put two persons in the same bedroom, one of whom has the toothache and the other is in love, you will find that the person who has the toothache will go to sleep first.

THE Columbia Journal states that the State House artesian well is four feet deeper than half a mile. The auger is in sandstone rock, but no water.

Piles! Piles! Piles! Piles!
What is it? How Cured?

Thousands of persons have Piles—suffer, for years with the disease—yet few know what it is, or how it is cured. Every case of Piles, whether manifested in the form of external tumors, frequent bleedings, or in violent itching and irritation, depends essentially upon one condition of the abdominal venous circulation. This produces the engorgement, dilation of—in many cases, formation of tumors, hemorrhages, pain and suffering; and the disease can only be fundamentally cured by medicines which, taken internally, relieve this venous congestion. Hence, ointments, washes, and even injections, are so far distrust.

HUMPHREYS' HOMŒOPATHIC PILE SPECIFIC, a simple sugar pill, taken two or three times per day, cures the disease by curing the condition upon which the disease depends. Hundreds have been cured by it, even of the most obstinate cases. All will be promptly benefited by it Price, 50 cents a box.

N. B.—A full set of HUMPHREY'S HOMŒOPATHIC SPECIFICS with Book of Directions, and twenty different Remedies, in large vials, morocco case, $5; ditto, in plain case, $4; case of fifteen boxes, and book, $2. Single boxes, 25 cents and 10 cents.

ETNA STOVE WORKS.

A. BRADLEY
Manufacturer every variety of
COOK, PARLOR AND HEATING
STOVES,
GRATE FRONTS, FENDERS,
&c. &c. &c.
Sole Proprietor of the celebrated
PATENT GAS BURNING AND SMOKE CONSUMING ARRANGEMENT,
(as applied to our COOK STOVE,) the advantages of which are:
1st. A great saving of Fuel.
2d. A much quicker and hotter oven, from the same fire.
3d. The preservation of the entire place.
4th. Cleanliness, as there is not one-half the dust and dirt that is found in other stoves.
5th. These stoves, and all stoves we ever sold, have a copper of cold air passing between oven and fire-back, which preserves it and adds to the durability of our Stoves, over all others.

Persons wishing the BEST STOVE in the market will find our PATENT "Tropic," "Eureka," or "Arbiter," with DOUBLE TOP, to be the Stove, as hundreds in this city and vicinity can testify

Would also call particular attention to our stock of Parlor Stoves and Grate Fronts; which, together with our other wares, we will SELL CHEAP.

PROF. WOOD'S
Restorative Cordial
AND BLOOD RENOVATOR
IS PECULIARLY WHAT ITS NAME INDICATES—for while pleasant to the taste, it is very tiying, exhilarating and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, reinstates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form as to be within the reach of all. Perfectly safe and admirably constituted as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted to act in perfect accordance with the laws of Nature, and hence on the weakest stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and all of them, and no other invigorating tonic is at once perfectly salutarating in its effects, and yet it is never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of roots, herbs and barks, thus thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, both by the truly roughly skilled in medical science and also by all who have suffered from debility; for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that debility follows all attacks of ills we are apt to have the human system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is constantly liable. Such, for example, as the following: consumption, scrofula, ills, indigestion, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, faintness, nervous irritability, neuralgia, palpitation of the heart, melancholy hypochondria, night sweats, liver complaint, and all functions of cases so fatally fatal if unattended to in time called bone's weakness, or prostration from any cause, and hence many suffer needlessly. Also, liver derangements or torpidity, and liver complaints, diseases of the kidneys, scalding or inflammation of the urine, or any general derangement of the urinary organs, pain in the back, and weak between the shoulders, predisposition to night sweats, barking and coughing, hectic flushes, sense of sinking or breathing, and indeed we might enumerate many more still, but we have said enough, for any, it will not only cure the debility following the ills and fevers, but prevents all attacks arising from it. Thousands have been cured by it, and can be, if only ready attacked. And as it acts directly and persistently upon the kidney system, allowing the liver to action, promptly, in fact all the secretions and excretions of the system, it will infallibly prevent any disease to come nigh you, following upon the use of cleanse and water. In fact, all we have should have a bottle with them, and all should take a table spoonful at least before eating. As it prevents constipation, strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits, students, ministers, literary men. And all ladies may be assured that one door exercise should always use it. If they will, they will find an agreeable, pleasant and efficient remedy against the ills which rob them of their beauty—for beauty can not exist without health, and health cannot exist while the above irregularities continue. Then, again, the Cordial is a potent mother's cordial. Takes a small quantity before the child is all we claim for it. Mothers, try it! And to you we appeal to detect the illness of darlings before it is too late. Many a mother has to mourn over some and husbands; for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to premature graves rather than let their condition be known to him, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business, and the cares of a family, that too much suffering is the same downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal, for we are sure your wonderful affection will mercifully point you to Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator as the remedy which should be always on hand in time of need.
O. J. WOOD, Proprietor, 444 Broadway, New York; 114 Market street, St. Louis, Mo., and sold by all good Druggists. Price One Dollar per bottle.
