THE FIREMAN'S PARADE.—Our firemen made a handsome display on Saturday. The morning opened with a benignant sky, the sun shining cheerily all day, while a succession of little gales kept the weather at an agreeable temperature for walking. About an hour before midday the companies that appeared in the procession had mustered at the usual place on Liberty street, from which they began their route to the following order:

Columbia Hose Company, preceded by the Chief Engineer of the fire department and two Assistants. The former wore a white cape and a white hat, shaped something like a helmet. The hose company numbered 64 men, dressed in yellow capes and dark hats, with four axemen in front.

Eagle: 50 men, attired in green capes and hats, drawing the hose carriage, preceded by the axemen, in red shirts and black pants. The steam engine, which is a beautiful piece of mechanism, was pulled by 6 dark brown horses, managed by riders in jockey costume. Music by Clinton's Band.

Allegheny: Greensburg Martial Band in front, followed by four axemen in red shirts, with blue trimmings; 50 men in red capes and hats drew the hose carriage. Six bay horses were attached to the engine, driven with check reins.

Duquesne: Band in front, followed by 2 torch bearers and 4 axemen, attired in red shirts and black helmet-shaped hats. 45 men in black capes and hats drew the hose carriage, followed by the engine, pulled by six horses. A "Son of the forest," mantled in a leopard skin, with his leggings, eagle feathers and bow and quiver, figured on the gallery of the Duquesne, contributing much to the novelty of the procession.

Neptune: Martial Band, followed by 8 axemen, very handsomely dressed. They wore red shirts, spangled with drops and stars, and finished with blue trimmings. 113 men drew the hose carriage, dressed in blue capes and hats. The engine was drawn by six black horses, driven with check reins.

Niagara: Monongahela City Martial Band in front, followed by 3 axemen, dressed as the balance of the company. The band attracted much attention, as it was composed of juvenile fifers and drummers, wearing a costume of their own. Their sashes were blue and pants white, with black plumes in their caps. The company mustered 87 men, who pulled the hose carriage, followed by the steam engine, to which 6 bays of horses attached, and the old hand engine, drawn also by 6 bay horses, with the inscription on her gallery "Champion of the West." The horses were managed by riders dressed in jockey costume.

Vigilant: Young's Brass Band; followed by 6 axemen in red shirts and black pants. Seventy-five men pulled the hose carriage, on which "our dog Bob" rode on a draped platform erected for his benefit. "Bob" was a fireman's dog of the old school. Some four or five years ago he attached himself to the Vigilant and ever since has been a faithful attendant at fires and around the engine house. He became very popular with the members of the company, and was fed and protected with great care. In June last some malicious person poisoned him. His skin was, however, saved, and Bob received on Saturday probably the highest tribute of respect that was ever paid to any of his race. The engine was drawn by six bay horses of considerable mettle. Blr "Nubians," dressed in white, lined the horses on foot, attracting much observation by their sweet appearance.

Good Intent: Band and 4 axemen with red shirts and black hats in front, the balance of the company following with the hose carriage, wearing black capes and hats. Fifty-six members paraded. The engine was drawn by six bay horses with riders in jockey costume. A little girl sat on the gallery under a canopy of roses and looked very interesting.

Old Columbia Hose Company: 30 men with black capes and hats. Their hose carriage was handsomely decorated.

Relief: Band in front; five wardens wearing red sashes, followed by the axemen in very handsome costume. They wore pink shirts with golden trimmings, white pants and black hats. One hundred men in red shirts, white pants and black caps, drew the hose carriage. The engine was drawn by six horses with riders in jockey costume, and its gallery adorned with an arch of roses rising from each corner, supporting a silver globe.

Young America: This was a company of juvenile firemen. Their apparatus looked tolerably well and their turn out was large. They numbered 25 members, wearing red caps, white shirts and black pants.

The procession drew large crowds to the streets and their costumes were much admired. Though not so gaudy or novel as in many former parades, they were handsome and manly. The manner of marching, also, (four or five abreast) was generally much liked, the impression made by the costumes, when grouped together closely, being much greater than when they are considerably scattered. The hose carriages were all handsomely decorated with flowers and silk canopies surrounding the reel. The engines were all more or less decked with flowers, especially towards the close of the day, when many flowers had been received from the softer sex, who are so skillful at weaving garlands for the festal day. The procession was about half a mile in length and highly creditable to those concerned.

SMOKING SUICIDE.—A German farmer, named Charles Fenner, living in Robinson tp., about 8 miles from the city, committed suicide early on Saturday morning, by hanging himself. He has been acting very strangely for about a month past, and has been frequently heard to say that if he could not raise some money to pay some debts he owed, that it would drive him to self-destruction. Friday night, after he had retired, he got up and dressed, then undressed several times, and finally, by his strange conduct, so alarmed his wife that she also got up and started to the nearest neighbor, who lived nearly a mile distant. Being encinte, she made such slow progress that by the time she got a woman to return with her it was nearly morning. Opening the door, a terrible spectacle met their view. The man had hung himself with a piece of bed cord, by fastening it to a nail over the door, his toes just touching the floor. He was promptly cut down, but the vital spark had fled.

CORONER BOSTWICK was sent for to hold an inquest. The jury, after having heard the testimony of Mrs. Fenner and the woman who accompanied her home, rendered a verdict of—came to his death by hanging himself, while laboring under mental aberration."

PAIN INSTITUTE.—We direct attention to the advertisement of this institution in this morning's paper. It occupies a high position among the educational establishments of our city, and has been in operation a long time. The Principal, Mr. Smith, is a man of great attainments both in English and Classical Literature, and at the same time has earned the reputation of a successful teacher. Experience has given him the faculty of imparting what he knows in an easy and attractive manner to his pupils—which every one will admit is the great desideratum with men of his profession. As good schools are always scarce in every community, even those most blessed with educational privileges, and as it is highly important for the child's welfare that parents select the best, we suggest to those who have no predilections for other institutions to try a session at the Penn Institute.—They will most likely be satisfied with the pupil's progress. The course of tuition is ample, sufficiently so to meet the wants of the most advanced students.

RENEWED.—At a meeting of the Allegheny Wide Awake Club, on Friday night, Wm. Baggley, Esq., resigned his position as President of the Club, and the vacancy was filled by the election of Mr. W. H. Moody. The constitution was so amended as to admit of a remodeling of the Executive Committees, and Messrs. Joseph E. Bohlender, of the First Ward, John Brown, of the Second, Simon Drum, of the Third, and Geo. W. Hubley, of the Fourth, were elected, with Mr. Samuel Riddle, of the First Ward, as chairman. The Chief Marshal and President are ex officio members of the Committee.

BADEN FARM FOR SALE.—Our readers will see by a notice in another column that the proprietors of the Baden Farm, Beaver county, will offer it at public sale on Thursday, Sept. 13. It is in an excellent location, being but 20 miles from Pittsburgh, with rail and river communication. Coal, limestone, potter's clay, cannel coal and oil are found on the place. It will be sold in a body, or divided to suit purchasers.

JOHN G. MECKLENCH, recently connected with the house of R. H. Palmer, in this city, has opened a trimming store in West Greenville, Mercer Co., Penna., by Mr. M. is a young gentleman of much energy, and we have no doubt will do a good business in that thriving borough. At least such is the wish of his numerous friends in this vicinity.

FALL CARPAULOGUES.—By reference to an advertisement in to-day's Gazette it will be seen that the original Carpaulogians, or Swiss Bell Ringers, will give four entertainments in Mozart Hall, commencing on Tuesday evening.

Republican Meetings—The Spirit of the Republicans Aroused.

The Republicans of this county held their meetings on Saturday night, in various parts of the county;—at Brown's Coal Works, above Birmingham; in Lower St. Clair, which was addressed by Messrs. C. B. M. Smith and Bigham; at Griffith's, on the Washington Turnpike, near Jarrett, at which Mr. Howard spoke; at Clinton, Finley township, where Messrs. Kirkpatrick and Moffit spoke; at Manchester, addressed by Messrs. M'Knight and Hampton; in Penn township, at which Messrs. Moorehead and Eaton spoke; in the Seventh Ward, at which speeches were made by Messrs. Woodward and Swarriweider; and meetings were also held in the Fifth Ward, Enis, and Plum townships.

All these meetings were exceedingly well attended, and the sturdy Republicans of the county are at last waking themselves to the solid work of the canvass.

Mr. Woodward, who spoke at the Seventh ward meeting, is a nephew of Judge Woodward, and has been, until recently, an active member of the Democratic party. He made a good speech, and is now warmly enlisted for the campaign.

At the meeting in South Fayette, at Griffin's, an incident transpired which shows what meanthings Douglas men will do. While the Lincoln men were busy raising a beautiful pole, the Douglas men sneaked into the house and stole the flag prepared by the ladies for the pole. Poor fellows! They have a little, miserable pole of their own in the same neighborhood, for which they have no flag, and took this method of making a raise.

ANTIQUE MARBLES.—We saw, on Saturday, a large and beautiful lot of imitation Antique Marbles, manufactured into the shape of Mantles, Arches, Table Tops, Bureau Tops, etc. They are made out of pure slate, and by a complicated chemical process transformed into splendid imitations of the richest and rarest Spanish, Egyptian, Verd Antique, Sienna, Porphyry and Brocatel Marbles. They have been in use in Europe over 50 years, but have only been introduced in this country a short time. These articles belong impervious to oil, acids, &c., which usually corrode and eventually destroy the beauty and finish of the real marbles, and added to the low price at which they are sold make them a very desirable article.

To those of our readers who are in search of something of the kind, we would refer them to Messrs. Weyman & Son, who are the only agents for their sale in this part of the State.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 1st, 1860.

At an informal meeting of a number of citizens of Pittsburgh and vicinity, convened at the Monongahela House, for the purpose of extending an invitation to Lord Renfrew and suite to visit this city, it was

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 1st, 1860

In accordance with the foregoing resolution, all citizens feeling an interest in the subject indicated, will assemble at the time and place above mentioned.

GEO. WILSON, Mayor.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—A man named Richard Berkley made an information before Alderman Donaldson, on Saturday afternoon, charging an Irishwoman named Bridget Murphy with assault and battery. Bridget was arrested, but giving bail to appear for a further hearing, was released.

A man named James Fitzgerald made a complaint before the same magistrate against Wm. Irwin, charging him with committing an assault and battery on him (Fitzgerald) at a political meeting in Pennsylvania, on Thursday night. Defendant gave bail to answer the charge and was released.

PITTSBURGH.—First Ward—L. Selly, John Rodgers

CONVICTED.—Sheriff McGinnis, of Washington county, passed through this city Saturday afternoon, on his way to the Western Penitentiary, taking with him the notorious Dick McCreery, who was convicted in Washington, Penna., last week, of burglary, and sentenced to eight years imprisonment in that institution. This is the second time McCreery has been in the penitentiary, having been convicted in Washington county of a similar offence a couple of years since, and sentenced to solitary imprisonment. Being released about two months since, he returned to his former stamping ground and pursued his old tricks.

SELLING LIQUOR ON SUNDAY.—James Cuthbert made a complaint before Alderman Donaldson, Saturday morning, charging a man named Miles Bartley, who resides on the corner of Exchange alley and Water street in the First ward, with selling liquor on Sunday. Bartley was promptly arrested, but was released on giving bail in $200 to appear and answer the charge at Court. Subsequently an Irishman named Patrick Murphy made a complaint against the same man for selling liquor without license. He gave bail in this case also.

THE BOAT RACE.—The boat race Saturday afternoon, for a purse of $100, between the two row boats "Highland Maid," manned by John and James Hammil, and the "Leader," manned by Fred. Wolf and Mark Campbell, resulted in the victory of the latter by about one length.—Time, 23 minutes. A large number of people were in attendance, and viewed the contest with great interest.

THE Republicans of the Sixth ward raised a very pretty pole on Friday evening last, by moonlight, between Webster and Prospect sts., near Washington street. The pole is about 60 feet high, and has a handsome flag with the names of Lincoln, Hamlin and Curtin inscribed on it. An axe is fixed on a revolving pivot, and looks, as an old lady said who was standing by, "Like a regular rail splitter."

OUTRAGEOUS.—While the Allegheny Wide Awakes were at the Republican meeting in Manchester, Saturday evening, a stone was thrown by some rascal who was among the spectators, which struck one of the Wide Awake carrier of the True Press, named Leander McCandless—on the head, inflicting a very severe wound. The rascal who threw the stone was eagerly sought after, but managed to escape.

LARCENY.—A Mrs. Ellen Jones, Whose husband keeps the Mechanics' Exchange, in the Ninth Ward, made an information before Alderman Jones, of the Fifth Ward, Saturday, charging a man named Jacob Bensinger, with the larceny of a silver castor worth $5.00.

The defendant gave bail for a further hearing Tuesday afternoon.

PETERSON'S PHILADELPHIA DETECTOR, sends us the following description of a new and dangerous $20 altered note on the Columbia Bank, Columbia, Pa.—20s. altered; vig. Female on a rock overlooking a city; steamboat and cars in distance; locomotive and 7 cents on right and; female and twenty 0s left end. This is well done so be on the look out for them.

PARALYSIS.—Dr. E. Warner, of St. Clair st., well known as our citizens as the "Indian Physician," had an attack of paralysis on Saturday night, and now lies in a very critical condition. His right side is entirely paralyzed, and he is unable to speak, or move any of his limbs.

BUTTER.—Wm. Bottles, the man who came near losing his life by suffocation in a well, in Allegheny, in which his brother and two others were killed by foul air, was bothered, by his attending physician, last night, to be in a fair way for recovery.

RETURNED.—Rev. E. M. Van Deusen, Rector of St. Peter's Church, Grant street, returned from the country, where he has been spending a few weeks for the benefit of his health, Saturday afternoon.

OUR DOOR PREACHING.—The Young Men's Christian Association of Allegheny had religious services in the Market Square of that city, yesterday morning and afternoon. The Rev. Mr. M'Cune preached both times.

IMPORTANT TO LIQUOR DEALERS.—Doctor Cox, of Cincinnati, will lecture THIS EVENING, at ½ o'clock, in Dr. Fraser's Church, Allegheny. The Doctor will sample various kinds of liquor, as per card and sold by dealers to this city, in the presence of the audience. Grocers and Druggists are invited to be present. Admission 10 CENTS.

SUNDRIES.—The shingle market is very dull just now, and prices have a declining tendency. This decline is attributed by a great many to the supply being more than equal to the demand, but the real cause may be found in the fact that the demand is not so great as in former years, shingle roofs not being thought of when "Oregon's celebrated Asphalt Roofing Felt" can be obtained. The agent for this excellent material can be found at his office, Laughlin's building, Canal bank, near the city Water Works.

Notice to Builders and Contractors.

THE UNDERSIGNED (formerly Foreman for ROWLAND PARRY,) would respectfully inform those in want of Roofing that he is now prepared to furnish SLATE of different colors (green, blue and purple,) or paint on SLATE ROOFS in the most approved manner. Orders for Roofing or repairing, left with the Agent, Mr. ——, at the office of ALEX. LAUGHLIN, near the Water Works), will be promptly attended to.

THOMAS PARRY.

THE LATEST NEWS.

BY TELEGRAPH.

RECEIVED AT THE DAILY GAZETTE OFFICE.

AUGUSTA, Sept. 1.—An immense audience of ladies and gentlemen attended the meeting this afternoon, in the City Hall Park, to listen to the speech of Mr. Stephens. Mr. Stephens said that he appeared reluctantly before the people, but he could not refuse the invitation of his old constituents. The signs of the times portend evil. Everything seems leading to a national dissolution and general anarchy. Whether the tendency be arrested depends on the virtue, intelligence and patriotic views of the people in all parts of the country in the present crisis of our history. He was for Douglas, as the regular nominee. He said that whether Douglas received two-thirds of the electoral vote or not, according to the usages of the party, he received the vote of two-thirds of the Convention. The two-thirds rule was adopted upon a parliamentary understanding, such as is provided by the constitution to pass a law over the veto of the President, by two-thirds of those present voting in its favor, and any other construction was impracticable. He said the construction enforced at Charleston and Baltimore was an interpolation and a wrong; and whether Douglas got 212 votes, as asserted on the one side, or 151 votes, as alleged on the other, he received more than two-thirds after the Seceder's left. He said he supported the ticket because it was placed on the time-honored platform of non-intervention—the only principle which can preserve the Union.

He said that the objections urged against Douglas by the Seceders were that he refused to say that it was the duty of Congress to do what they would not do themselves. Mr. Douglas refused to say that it was the duty of Congress to pass a law to protect slavery in the Territories and hence they oppose him and refuse to vote for such a law themselves.—Mr. Stephens defended Mr. Douglas against the charge that he would not yield to the decision of the Supreme Court, and said that Mr. Douglas agreed with every principle decided in the Dred Scott case, but insisted that the point now for the Territorial Legislature might constitutionally regulate slavery had not been decided.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—A Sunday paper asserts that Heenan and Morrisey are to fight probably in January, but certainly not later than the 5th of March, for $10,000 a side.

LOUISVILLE, Sept 1.—River 6 feet 6 inches in the canal. Weather clear. Mercury 71°.

THE Douglas State Committee has been in session in this city for two days, and finally adjourned yesterday, to meet again on the call of the Chair. The only business transacted was the election of Dean Richmond as Chairman, and Peter Dogger as Secretary, and the appointment of B Wood, Esq., W. D. Kennedy, Esq., and F. L. Lafin, Esq., as a Committee under the subjoined resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That a Committee of three be appointed by the Chair to confer with any political organization for the purpose of securing the cooperation of all who are opposed to the Republican party.

The letter of Mr. Ottendorfer, withdrawing from the Douglas Electoral Ticket in case any of the other candidates on that ticket are authorized, if elected, to vote for Bell and Everett, was not taken into consideration by the Committee. —N. Y. Trib.

Population of Cincinnati	168,831

CIVIL WAR IN NAPLES.—The women will fight, be they queens or soulless. The ex Queen of Naples and the reigning Queen lately had a scrap on encounter just after a family council. The Queen accused the widow of being the cause of all Neapolitan troubles; the widow retaliated sharply, and finally slapped the younger woman's face for insulting the memory of the late Bombs—says the Paris correspondent of the London Morning Post—who calls the affair a Battle Royal, but does not say which whipped.

MAN FOUND DEAD.—Last Thursday afternoon, August 23d, information was brought to town that a man was lying dead in the road near Nancy Ogden's about a mile and a half east of this place. M. A. Frank, Esq., at once proceeded to the spot and selected a Jury, who ascertained that the deceased was a man named Frederick Schiedel, who, some months since, was employed as a bar keeper at the National Hotel in Tyrone City. The Jury rendered a verdict "that said Frederick Schiedel, in passing along the public highway in Lawrence township, fell dead; that he had no marks of violence appearing upon his body, and died of the visitation of God, in a natural way." Poor Fred! There is no doubt that the demon Alcohol was his destruction.—Clearfield Raftsman.

We call the attention of our readers to an article advertised in another column, called GOOD FOOD. It is an entirely new discovery, and must not be confounded with any of the nostrum patent medicines of the day. It is Food for the Blood already prepared for absorption; pleasant to the taste and natural in action, and as food one gains, he retains. Let all those, in whatever suffering from poverty, impurity or dull decay of blood, consequently with some chronic disease or ailment, take of the Blood Food and be restored to health. We notice that our Druggists have received a supply of this article, and also of the second preparation DR. KEYSER'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, which every mother should have. It contains no paregoric or opiates of any kind whatever, and of course is not to be dreaded for all infantile complaints. It will allay all pain, and set on the gums in process of teething, and at the same time regulate the bowels. Let all mothers and nurses who have teething babies call at once and procure a supply, and be at once relieved.

RIVER NEWS.

The river was receding slowly on Saturday, with less than 4 feet in the channel by the pier mark. The Pomeroy, from Cincinnati, and Minerva, from Wheeling, were the only arrivals from below. The former cleared for Cincinnati in the evening.

The weather continues warm and pleasant.

CINCINNATI.—The Gazette of Saturday says:

The weather continues dry and warm, with indications of rain. The river was sweeping slowly yesterday, and up until evening had risen about 4 inches. Hence to Louisville 7 feet of water is reported in the channel. Business continues dull.—The arrivals yesterday were the Bellaire, for 3 Marietta, Linden, for Pittsburgh, Kanawha Valley No. 2, from Kanawha river. All of the regular packets continue to arrive and depart on time with paying trips and fair cargoes. The Minerva dropped down to the upper landing yesterday, and will receive her new shaft to-day. She will commence loading for New Orleans on Monday.——The principle feature at the levee yesterday was the arrival of the new steamer Lindes, built at Pittsburgh by Capt. Hutson, for the Cincinnati and Pittsburgh trade. She is pretty much light draught in model, and well adapted for the trade. The Linden will have for Pittsburgh on Monday next. Mess. Fulton & Thomas is advertised to sail at Marshall's sale on the 8th inst.——A queer looking craft, called the Anna, dropped down to the wharf yesterday, and is loading for Yazoo river. The Anna very much resembles a large barge, with a cargo box fitted up with machinery to run by steam.——The funeral of the late Jacob Strader took place from his residence yesterday, and was largely attended by the boatmen in port. The steamboats on the wharf displayed their flags at half mast throughout the day.——The new tariff of wages adopted by the engineers at their late convention at Louisville, takes effect to-day, and we learn of quite a number of them having left their boats yesterday, until they get the required advance. The engineers feel confident that the steamboat captains will have to pay the salary demanded
