The Census.—We cautioned our readers, before any of the census returns were published, not to expect too much from them; but, while we thought the increase in our population then dimly indicated would, when made known, disappoint the expectations of our people, we were not ourselves prepared for the low figures finally given by the census takers. Here is the result for the city as given at the Marshal's office:

POPULATION OF PITTSBURGH.

| | 1850. | 1860. | Wards. | 1860. | 1850. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| St. at, | 4312 | 4216 | Sixth, | 7400 | 7285 |
| Second, | 5600 | 4045 | Seventh, | 3131 | 2656 |
| Third, | 4181 | 3067 | Eighth, | 4529 | 4199 |
| Fourth, | 5672 | 4340 | Ninth, | 4325 | 2234 |
| Fifth, | 6719 | 8211 | | | |
| Total population in 1850, | | | | | 46,601 |
| 1860, | | | | | 48,804 |
| Increase | | | | | 2,203 |

It will be of no use, we know, to complain of these figures as incorrect. We will be told that the marshals were competent men, who have done their work well; nevertheless, the figures are incorrect—grossly so, and bear the evidence of it on their face.

The first ward has had an entire square blotted out of it, since 1850, by the Duquesne depot, and the workshops have encroached upon dwellings to considerable extent, while the second ward has not suffered from either such cause; yet the first ward shows a diminution of only 4, and the second of 416. The third ward was a compactly built ward in 1850, and since then a large number of old frame dwellings on the Denny property have been demolished, and no others have been built in their stead, to say nothing of the dwellings displaced by stores on Fifth street; yet it shows an increase of 1,021, while the fourth ward, which is as compactly built and as fully occupied as it ever was before, shows a falling off of 668. The fifth ward, which has been steadily growing and filling up for years, shows only a small increase, and the sixth ward, in which at least 300 new houses have been erected since 1850, upon lots then vacant, has a returned increase of only 116. The number of buildings in the seventh ward has also largely increased since 1850, but the census man could find only 525 more people in it than then. The return of the eighth ward is, however, most preposterous. This ward, has been very largely built up since 1850. Lots were cheap there, and their cheapness has attracted thither many thrifty men of comparatively small means, who have literally built the ward up. In 1850 there were but 350 voters in it; now there are over 600; yet, according to the above-table, there is a falling off in its population of 267! A gentleman who lives in the ward, and who has, as a public officer, the best possible means of knowing, assures us that the increase of population in the ward is not less than 1500.

We have not the exact figures by us, but we know from official data, that over 3000 new buildings have been put up in this city since 1850, of which at least 2000 were upon lots not before occupied. Every one of these new buildings will average at least five inhabitants, and it is not too much to say that our city has increased ten thousand since the period of the last census. If the figure above given have been returned to Washington, they do gross injustice to the city.

The Pennsylvanian publishes the following as an extract from a speech of Carl Schurz:

"There is your Declaration of Independence, a diplomatic dodge, adopted merely for the purpose of cheating the rebellious colonists to be slaves of civilized mankind. There is your Declaration of Independence, no longer the sacred code of the rights of man, but a hypocritical piece of special pleading, drawn up by a batch of artful pettifoggers, who, when speaking of 'the rights of man,' meant but the privileges of a set of aristocratic slaveholders, but styled it 'the rights of man,' in order to throw dust into the eyes of the world, and to inveigle noble-hearted fools into lending them aid and assistance! [Applause.] There are your boasted Revolutionary sires, no longer heroes and sages, but accomplished humbuggers and hypocrites, who said one thing and meant another; who passed counterfeit sentiments as genuine, and obtained arms and money and assistance and sympathy on false pretences! There is your great American Revolution, no longer the great champion of universal principles, but a mean, Yankee trick—[bursts of applause and laughter]—a wooden nutmeg—[renewed cheers]—the most impudent imposition ever practiced upon the whole world!" [Applause.]

We pronounce this a deliberate forgery. Mr. Sharrs never uttered such language. He is a scholar and a gentleman, and one who always speaks his thoughts in clear and eloquent but gentlemanly language. He does not, we know, entertain any sentiments such as the above, and is incapable of uttering them in such language. It is a vile Knorbeck.

Illinois.—The fires are burning brightly in the Prairie State. In the Chicago Press & Tribune before us we have the record of three Republican mass meetings, with headings as follows: "Mass Meeting at Woodstock—12,000 Republicans in council;" "Grand Demonstration at Kankakee—12,000 present;" "Immense Gathering at Peoria—30,000 Republicans out—5,000 Wide Awakes in Procession," &c. Such reports appear every day. The village meetings are never less than 2,000; the county meetings range from 5,000 to 10,000; and the meetings embracing two or three counties from 12,000 to 30,000. It is all up with Douglas in that State.

The Charge Confessed.—The Peoria Democratic Union, a Douglas paper, admits that the offensive language said to have been used by Douglas, in regard to Henry Clay, at Carrollton, Ill., in 1844, is genuine. That journal says:

"Some years ago, Douglas was a candidate for Congress in the Sixth Congressional District of Illinois. Hon. David M. Woodson was his opponent. During the canvass, they spoke at Carrollton, and in his speech at that place, Douglas used the following language:

"Henry Clay is a black hearted traitor, and the only American statesman who ever sold himself for British gold."

The Post will please copy.

Centre County.—The following is the Republican ticket in Centre county:

Assembly—Wm. C. Dunean.
Prothonotary—John T. Johnston.
Register and Recorder—Wm. H. Longwell.
Sheriff—George Alexander.
Commissioner—John McCalmont.
Auditor—Isaac Williams.
Coroner—Jos. Eckert.

The Double Game—Mr. J. C. Porterfield, who was nominated for Assembly by the democrats of Venango county, has declined. Mr. Porterfield is a strong and honest Douglas man; but the leaders of his party, up there, are for Breckinridge: and feeling that he was merely used as a bait to catch Douglas votes at the October election, he has withdrawn from the canvass. He is frank enough, also, to give that as a reason. He says:

"It is known that I have been a friend and supporter of Stephen A. Douglas, and in the main adhered to the doctrines promulgated by him, and would cheerfully give him my support were there a shadow of a chance of his election. By the action of the State Committee at Cresson, on the 9th of August, the last ray of hope has departed. The design of this Committee is evidently to sell the State to Breckinridge and Lane, which sale I cannot lend a hand in bringing about, believing Breckinridge to be the instrument by which disunionists are mainly endeavoring to sever the Union and obliterate the Democratic party. The county organ (Spectator) hoists the name of Judge Douglas, yet has nothing to say in his behalf, nor does it advocate the principles upon which he stands, and for which he claims the highest office in the gift of the people. The course pursued by this organ leads me to believe that after the second Tuesday of October the name of Douglas will be taken down and those of Breckinridge and Lane run up; who are, I think, sectional and less worthy the support of Democrats than Lincoln."

The sentence in italics indicates a fact of great significance to the Douglas men. It would be nothing if it were confined to Venango county; but what is true of that county is true of a great many other counties in this State; and the fact is apparent that a large number of democratic papers throughout the State have raised the name of Douglas, and give him a nominal support, which are really for Breckinridge. The object is to hoodwink the Douglas men for the present, and so reduce them into the support of Foster and the various democratic county tickets; and when they have been milked dry, and everything possible gained out of their votes, haul down the names of Douglas and Johnson and run up those of Breckinridge and Lane. The general stampede of these nominal Douglas papers to Breckinridge, after the October election, is expected to strike terror to the hearts of the Douglas men and carry the fusion electoral ticket by a heavy vote over that of the Douglas straightout ticket.

The Genius of Liberty, at Uniontown, is one of this class of papers. Fayette is a close county, and it is essential to have the votes of the Douglas men for the Breckinridge men who are candidates upon the county ticket. It is therefore for Douglas, now: but when these votes are obtained it will be for Breckinridge. The same is true of the Venango Spectator, the Clarion Democrat, the Brookville Jeffersonian, Chambersburg Valley Spirit, Waynesburg Messenger, Beaver Star, and many other papers in the interior.

We feel reluctant to put the Post, of this city, in this class, but we fear we shall have to do it. It flies the name of Douglas, but fights like a tiger for the humbug Cresson fusion scheme, which was got up solely for the benefit of Breckinridge. The hands are the hands of Esau, but the voice is the voice of Jacob.

This is a very adroit but not very honorable game. Somebody is to be cheated; and if the Douglas men choose to become the victims, they have as good a right to be cheated as any set of men we know of.

Northumberland County.—The Democratic ticket recently nominated is as follows:

Congress—J. J. Reimensnyder, of Milton.
Senator—Wm. T. Forsyth, of Northumberland.
Assembly—Samuel Ent.
Sheriff—David Waldron.
Commissioner—Isaac D. Baker.
Prothonotary—Daniel Brickley.
Auditor—John Hoffa.

The Pennsylvanian says that the charge against Mr Hamlin that he received $7000 as a bribe when Senator, has not been disproved. It has never been proved, nor has any evidence been adduced to support it. Is it usual to ask people to prove a negative?

Mr. Douglas still finds insuperable difficulties in the way of ascertaining the residence of his mother. By some perverse fate, whose untimely interpositions vex us all, he will, doubtless be compelled to visit every principal South-side city and half the towns before he hits upon the northern village where she lives and awaits the return of her absent son. And then he is beleaguered at every point by people, who do not seem so anxious to set him on the right road as to bear him return thanks, and re-announce the filial duty. If he telegraphs to one city of his coming, no one consults the directory, and tells him his mother is not resident there, but they insult his grief with brass bands and aid his search with torchlight processions. It is not certain if Mr. Douglas will ever find his mother. The census takers may aid him; but, judging by the past, even this hope will be denied.

Another so unfortunate man is not in public life. All manner of diseases harass him, and keep him away from civic duties as perversely as the lions of his mother keeps him from filial ones. When the homestead bill passed the Senate, gout seized his legs and held him at the foot of the Capitol hill; when others were paying tribute to the memory of Broderick, a malign pleurisy constricted his trachea; when the Indian resolutions passed, neuralgia had the dyspepsy; when the bill came up in the same body for the admission of Kansas, cancers in the bowels were telegraphed as the new ill his flesh was heir to. And even now, if a pitying country calls him to the presidency, what physician can give the materia, and medicine certain to insure so ill-fated an aspirant against some intersocial affection, in the end, preventing his occupancy of the chair of state.—N. Y. World.

Douglasism North and South.—We perceive by Southern Exchanges that the arguments used on behalf of the Douglas ticket at the South are quite different from those used here.

Here Douglas is represented as at war with the fire eaters and Slavery Extensionists. There he is represented as the candidate who will help them to carry out their aims.

Here his "Popular Sovereignty" is described as an invention which, while it will end sectional quarrels, will practically result in the establishment of Freedom in the Territories. There, on the other hand, it is declared to be a more decisive form of Slavery. The establishment of Slavery under it in New Mexico is triumphantly pointed to as an example.

Here it is contended that Douglas's plan leaves the people of the Territories free to decide as they please. At the South, it is clearly shown that the Dred Scott Decision prevents the people from deciding the matter in any way except in favor of Slavery, and the chief use of "Popular Sovereignty" is claimed to be, that it will enable to grasp Territories which have heretofore been free.

It was for just this double faced service that the "Popular Sovereignty" dodge was invented. It was intended to be represented as a Northern measure to the North, and a Southern measure to the South.

Events in Kansas and in New Mexico, however have revealed its true character. None but those wilfully blind can fail to see that it is the very means of all others to provoke and protract the "agitation" which it assumes to depreciate; and that its sole effect in the Territories is to open a path for Slavery into regions which wise laws had previously made Free Soil.—Alb. Eve. Journal

The Rebellion in China—Terrible Slaughter.—It is estimated that in the capture of the city of Hang Chau, in China, by the rebels, from 50,000 to 80,000 lives were lost. A correspondent of the N. Y. Times, writing of the slaughter, says:

Multitudes committed suicide rather than meet the thickening horrors; or driven to desperation by their terrors, whole families plunged together into ponds, or wells, rather than fall into the hands of the ferocious savages who were plundering and murdering their neighbors. One instance especially has been mentioned to me of a wealthy family who knew that their reputed wealth would draw the banditti to them, and who therefore deliberately resolved to escape or die together. There were twenty-seven persons in all—parents, children, grandchildren, and daughters in-law. When it was found that the slaughter had begun, and that there was no hope of escape, they all leaped into a deep well, and died together. At length, however, these scenes of blood were brought to an end. The rebels found it impossible to storm the Tartar quarter of the city, and hearing of the advance of a large Imperialist force sent to the chief of the city, they abandoned the place and made good their retreat.

A Letter writer in one of our exchanges, describing a doughnut of unusually large proportions, which he purchased in Buffalo, says: "It was one of those stupendous achievements in art which are only attempted in the vicinity of the great works of nature like Niagara Falls."

New Orleans, Sept. 1.—The reported fusion of the Bell, Breckinridge, and Douglas men of this State, for the election of an electoral ticket instructed to cast the vote of the State, so as to defeat the election of the Republican candidate, proves to be unfounded.

Our Less Unfortunate—Gen. Houston has actually withdrawn his name from the Presidential canvass. His "chances of success," he says, "are not so apparent"—as to warrant his continuing a candidate, he probably intended to add. He thinks all the other candidates ought to follow his example, and promptly abandon the field. They have no chance of success, and if they persist in running, the Republican nominee is sure to be elected. He calls upon his countrymen to "forget him," and to forget "the claims of all office seekers." We fear it will be much easier to do the first than the last. If all thoughts of office were laid aside, we suspect there would be very little interest in the election. Patriotism is a very excellent sentiment, —but it leads very few men now-a-days to perform heroic acts of self sacrifice.

Gen. Houston declines to express a preference for any other man. He wants to see a "union of all national minded men." He calls upon all the other candidates to withdraw,—and upon the people at large to abandon "specious dogmas, clap-trap platforms and electioneering cant," and to unite upon—somebody who can beat Lincoln. Modesty probably prevents the General from naming the man.—N. Y. Times.

Potatoes.—The potato crop in this immediate section has been unusually prolific and fine in quality. There is also a large demand for them, one house alone putting up from 250 to 275 bbls per day, with which they have supplied orders to a wide extent of country, embracing the northwest portions of this State, where the crop has been cut off by the drought. The same house has also shipped potatoes to New Mexico, to the gold mines of western Kansas, to Utah, and, during the past week, to Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana and Texas, and even to Indiana.—St. Louis Dem.

Col. Tom Florence Indignant—Will Resign his seat in Congress—Col. Tom Florence, who is in this city, is very much exasperated at the treatment he has received from Buchanan's postmaster and collector in Philadelphia; they have been doing everything to defeat him before the convention as candidate for re-election to the House. Believing that the President is the cause of that unexpected opposition, the colonel will resign his seat in the second session of the present Congress, thus leaving the administration without a single friend in that body.—Wash Cor. of the N. Y. World.

Some ten Hollanders in Grand Haven, heretofore strictly democrats, came out last week and announced themselves henceforth to be firm supporters of Lincoln, Hamlin and freedom. The cause of Douglas' deception and humbuggery is daily losing ground everywhere.

The Rochester N. Y. Express says: Monroe county will outdo all her previous exploits in Whig and Republican majorities. We hear of large accessions which promise to add at least one thousand votes to that given Fremont in 1856.

Frightened.—One L. Carleton Bell, of Somerboro', Ga., advertises "the best plantation in Georgia for sale, because he has no confidence in Southern security under such a leader as Howell Cobb.

The Sunbury Gazette has the complete returns of the census of Northumberland county, which foot up 29,005 inhabitants, an increase of 2733 since 1850, when the population was 23,272.

Fugitive Slaves in Boston.—The Atlas says that two agents of the underground railroad, who reside in Kansas, have recently brought to Boston, from Missouri, 12 slaves.

Piles! Piles! Piles! Piles!

What is it? How Cured?

Thousands of persons have Piles—suffer for years with the disease—yet few know what it is, or how it is cured. Every case of Piles, whether manifested in the form of external tumors, frequent bleedings, or in violent itching and irritation, depends essentially upon congestion of the abdominal venous circulation. This produces the engorgement, dilation of the veins, formation of tumors, hemorrhages, pain and suffering; and the disease can only be fundamentally cured by medicines which, taken internally, relieve the venous congestion. Hence, ointments, washes, and even injections, are so ineffectual.

HUMPHREYS' HOMEOPATHIC PILE SPECIFIC, a simple sugar pill, taken two or three times per day, cures the disease by curing the condition upon which the disease depends. Hundreds have been cured by it, even of the most obstinate cases. All will be promptly benefited by it Price, 50 cents a box.

PROF. WOOD'S

Restorative Cordial
AND BLOOD RENOVATOR

IS PRECISELY WHAT ITS NAME INDICATES—for while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilerating and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revitalizes, refreshes and restores the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system impervious to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. It is chemically and skillfully combined so as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted to as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of Nature, and arouse the latent, remedial forces, and tone up the digestive organs, and all of its actions and other irritation it is also perfectly exhilerating in its effects, and yet it is never followed by lassitude or depression or spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, both by the thoroughly skilled in medical science and also by all who are afflicted from debility, for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that debility follows all attacks of disease, and lays the unguarded system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is constantly liable. Such, for example, as the following: consumption, bronchitis, indigestion, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, faintness, nervous irritability, neuralgia, palpitation of the heart, melancholy, hypocondria, night sweats, languor, giddiness, and all that class of cases so fearfully fatal if inattended to in time called fema's weaknesses or irregularities. Also, liver complaints or torpidity, and liver complaints, diseases of the kidneys, existing or incontinence of the urine, or any general derangement of the urinary organs, pain in the back, side and between the shoulders, predisposition to taking cold, backing and continued cough, emaciation, difficulty of breathing, and indeed we might enumerate many more still, but we have spoken only to say, it will not only cure the debility following chills and fevers, but prevent all attacks arising from miasmatic influences, and cure the disease at once, if attacked. And as it acts directly and persistently upon the biliary system, arousing the liver to action, producing, in fact, all the secretions and excretions of the system, it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following upon change of climate and water; hence, all travelers should have a bottle with them, and all should take a table spoonful at least before eating. As it prevents costiveness, strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits, students, literary men. And all ladies not accustomed to much out door exercise should always use it. If they will they will find an agreeable, pleasant and efficient remedy against those ills which rob them of their beauty—for beauty cannot exist without health, and health cannot exist while the above irregularities continue. Then, again, the Cordial is a perfect mother's relief. Taken a month or two before the final trial, she will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety. There is no mistaken about it, this Cordial is all we claim for it. Mothers, try it! And to you we appeal to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters before it is too late, but also your sons and husbands; for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to premature graves rather than let their condition be known in time, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business, that if it were not for you, they too would travel the same downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal, for we are sure your ever-failing affection will unerringly point you to Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator as the remedy which should be always on hand in time of need.

Dr. J. WOOD, Proprietor, 444 Broadway, New York; 114 Market street, St. Louis, Mo.; and sold by all good Druggists. Price One Dollar per bottle.
