SATURDAY MORNING, SEPT. 15.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

——The "United Presbyterian" contains a synopsis of Dr Guthrie's sermon and the addresses of the first days proceedings of the celebration of the Tricentenary of the Reformation in Scotland, in the city of Edinburg, on the 24th of August. The following extract from the able and eloquent sermon of Dr. Guthrie, on "The truth shall make you free," will show the character of the discourse:

"By falsehood the world was ruined; by truth the world is to be redeemed. How? Many men think there is little ill in sin, and so they continue in it. This is the devil's chain; but truth comes in and snaps it by showing sin as exceeding sinful, and sure to lead to ruin unless it be fled from, and the mercy of God in Christ be savingly apprehended. Again, some say God will not requite; but truth raises the curtain, and what does the astonished man see? An assembled world, a white throne, an awful judge, and himself a criminal at the bar. Thus the snare is broken and he escapes. Or some say God is merciful; he gave me my appetites; he placed me in circumstances of temptation; it were hard to deal with me strictly. Truth shows that God will neither tempt nor excuse any man, and exhibits the law coming in to take him by the throat, saying, "Pay me that thou owest." Or Satan may try the other tack, and when he cannot detain may strive to deter, urging, "You are too bad, your hope is lost, you can't be saved;" and thus the poor soul, like Peter between the two soldiers, lies hid in darkness, and chained fast in affliction, till the truth, like that celestial angel who visited Peter's cell, strikes off his fetters, bids him arise and come away, and brings him into the liberty of the sons of God."

In the evening the proceedings were resumed—the Lord Provost in the chair, who, after devotional exercises, delivered a brief address. The Report of the Business Committee was then read, after which Dr. Crie, of the English Presbyterian Church, gave an interesting historical sketch—"the Scottish Parliament of 1560"—followed by addresses from Rev. Canon Miller, of Birmingham, on "Rome and the Negative Theology;" Professor Killen on the "Hand of God in the Reformation;" Mr. John M'Gregor, Secretary of the Protestant Alliance, and Rev. Mr. Nolan, of London. The next day, four papers were read by Dr. Lindsey Alexander, of Edinburg, Professor Lorrimer, of London, Dr. Wylie, of Edinburg, and Rev. J. I. Smith. Dr. Alexander's was on the Culdees, Mr. Lorrimer's paper was on four of the precurcers of Knox. A paper was read at the afternoon meeting—"The Church of Scotland as Old as the Church of Rome"—by Rev. Duncan McCullum, of Arisaig, Fort William. The meetings were continued until Friday. Among those who delivered addresses during the convocation were gentlemen from Utrecht, Amsterdam, London, Ireland, Nova Scotia, Australia and India. The American Presbyterian suggests the celebration of this interesting event in America, as all the Presbyterian Churches, proper, in America, trace their pedigree to Scotland. It is further suggested that the Synods might make arrangements this fall, for a celebration, which ought to be, as in Scotland, a union of all Presbyterians.

——The premium of $50, placed in the hands of the Missionary Board of the M. E. Church, for the best original tract of eight pages on the duty of giving money for missionary purposes, and having "one steady, telling, searching point, namely, the absolute spiritual danger of those who neglect to give liberally according to their means," was awarded to Rev. E. A. Johnston, of Meadville, Penna.

——At the Annual State Convention of the Universalists of Vermont, held at Cavendish, last month, a resolution was adopted declaring the Old and New Testaments to be the divinely authorized standard of faith and practice, and requiring each minister to subscribe to this article.

——The London Times has the following paragraph in a leading article:

"Is the whole of the New Testament there is not a word to suggest the idea that the early Church had one yard of landed property, or one drachma of fixed income, or anything but the free-will offerings of the converts from week to week, accepted when offered, otherwise freely dispensed with. As the Church of England still reads the New Testament in the vulgar tongue, and teaches it in schools, it cannot refuse the appeal to a fact which stares us almost every page. * * * * The Archbishop of Canterbury has £15,000 a year, and some of the bishops from £8,000 to £10,000, sums which certainly never entered into the minds of the apostles as necessities for the performance of the duties of the position.

——At a meeting of the Board of the American Bible Society, New York, on the 6th inst., by request of Dr. Dales, the Missionary Society of the United Presbyterian Church received a donation of Arabic Scriptures to the amount of $500, for distribution by their missionaries in Syria and Egypt.

——The Rev. J. C. Nevin and wife, missionaries sent out by the United Presbyterian Church, reached Canton, China, in safety.

——An American Missionary writes from China that Protestant missions were commenced fifty-three years ago by Rev. Dr. Morrison, who arrived at Canton in 1807, from England. Rev. Dr. E. C. Boardman was the pioneer of American missions, arriving in 1830. The number of Protestant missionaries from Europe and America is about ninety, of whom more than one-half are from America.

——A correspondent of the American Presbyterian, writes from Andover, the New England "Hill of Zion," an account of the exhibition of the Theological Seminary, by the students of the graduating class. Referring favorably to the music and declamations, he says:

Some of the sentiments delivered grated very harshly on our Presbyterian ears. For example, "The imputation of sin is responsible, unjust and false." This view was fortified by the passage, "The soul that sinneth, it shall die." Sin is neither imputed, nor transmitted. If infants are sinful, they are answerable for no sin but their own. God has given 25 inclinations which may lead us to sin, but are not in themselves sinful. The doctrine of the imputation of sin, dishonors God. The very commencement of sinful life, is our own act. These are some of the sentences which we wrote down on the spot. All imputation of sin was expressly repudiated, and evidently with the sanction of the professors, who sat benignantly by."

The Advocate and Journal states that at a love feast held at a camp meeting, near Bridgeport, Conn., one hundred and seventy-six spoke within the hour and a half allotted to the exercise.

——The Board of Colporage, says the Presbyterian Banner, of the Synods of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, will hold its semi-annual meeting in the Presbyterian Rooms, Pittsburgh, on the 27th inst.

——About fifty Nazarites (disaffected persons mostly from the M. E. Church) met in Convention in Western New York, on the 22d ult., to organize a "Free Methodist Church" and adopt a Discipline for its government. In the new organization the offices are nearly the same as in the M. E. Church. Mr. B. T. Roberts, an expelled member of the Genesee Conference, was elected to the long-sought for office of "General Superintendent." It is said the conduct at some of the meetings of this free church is highly offensive to good order and well regulated religious meetings.

——The Christian Advocate and Journal says:

"In a recent lecture in London, Rev. Mr. Gangooly, the converted Brahmin, a Unitarian missionary to the 'higher castes' in India, stated that it was no part of the worship for devotees to cast themselves before the car of Juggernaut."

——The Western Theological (Presbyterian) Seminary, Allegheny city, Pa., was opened for the reception of Students on Monday, the tenth. Tuesday, the Faculty and Students, Directors and others convened to hear the opening address, by Prof. Wilson. Prof. Wilson's subject was "Habits of Study," and is reported as being "able, learned, earnest, eloquent." The inauguration of Dr. Paxton, Professor elect to the Fifth Chair, it is expected will come off at an early day.

——At the recent commencement of Washington College, Washington, Pa., the degree of D. D. was conferredon the Rev. John Scott, of Pittsburgh.

——Recent accounts from the Baptist missions in Hayti are encouraging, and indications are apparent that the government is more favorably disposed towards Protestantism than heretofore.

——It is said there are more church members in the British West India Islands, Trinidad excepted, in proportion to the population than any other part of the world. In some of the smaller islands, not a single family neglects public worship.

——The American Congregational Union proposes to raise $50,000 as aid in the consummation of one hundred Congregational Churches in the Northwest.

——At the late session of the Genesee Conference, M. E. Church, Lay Delegates were requested to take part in all discussions, and to vote in all cases where no disciplinary rule would interfere. Thirty-five delegates were in attendance.

——The Missionary of the 13th contains an interesting account of the religious exercises held in the "Old Trappe Church," in the village of Trappe, Montgomery county, Pa., on the reopening of that church, recently put in good repair. The building was erected in 1743 by Henry Melchoir Muhlenberg. The services were opened by a sermon from Rev. Dr. W. A. Muhlenberg, rector of the "Church of the Holy Communion" in New York, a great grandson of the Patriarch, and grandson of Hon. F. A. Muhlenberg, first Speaker of Congress. The exercises continued two days.
