THURSDAY MORNING, SEPT. 20.

MY WIFE IS THE CAUSE OF IT.—It is now more than forty years ago that Mr. L——— called at the house of Dr. B———, one very cold morning on his way to H———.

"Sir," said the doctor, "the weather is very frosty—will you not take something to drink, before you start?"

In that early day, ardent spirits were deemed indispensable to warmth in winter. When commencing a journey, and at every stopping place along the road, the traveler always used intoxicating drinks to keep him warm.

"No," said Mr. L———, "I never touch anything of that kind; and I will tell you the reason, my wife is the cause of it."

I had been in the habit of meeting some of our neighbors every evening for the purpose of playing cards. We assembled at each other's shops, and liquors were introduced. After a while we met, not so much for playing as drinking, and I used to return home late in the evening more or less intoxicated. My wife always met me at the door affectionately, and when I chided her for sitting up so late for me, she kindly replied,

'I prefer doing so, for I cannot sleep when you are out.'

This always troubled me. I wished in my heart she would only begin to scold me, for then I could have retorted, and relieved my conscience. But she always met me with the same gentle and loving spirit.

Things passed on thus for months; when I at last resolved that I would, by returning much intoxicated, provoke her displeasure so much as to cause her to lecture me, when I meant to answer her with severity, and thus, by creating another issue between us, unburthen my bosom of its present trouble.

"I returned in such a plight about four o'clock in the morning. She met me at the door with her usual tenderness, and said,

'Come in, husband; I have just been making a warm fire for you, because I knew you would be cold. Take off your boots and warm your feet, and here is a cup of hot coffee.'

Doctor, that was too much. I could not endure it any longer, and I resolved that moment, that I would never touch another drop while I lived, and I never will!"

He never did. He lived and died practicing total abstinence from intoxicating drinks, in a village where intemperance has ravaged as much as any other in the State.

That man was my father, and that woman my mother. The fact above related I received from the doctor himself, on a visit to my native village, not long since.

EXPOUNDING THE BIBLE.—A learned pedagogue at Nantucket, used every morning to read passages in the Bible, and expound the same as he proceeded, in order that by asking questions as to how much they remembered of this comment, he might ascertain who were the bright boys of the school. On one occasion he read from the book of Job thus:—

"There was a man in the land of Uz, and his name was Job, who feared God and eschewed evil, that is, he eschewed evil as I do tobacco, he would have nothing to do with it."

With this very clear and forcible elucidation of the word "eschew," he proceeded, and a number of verses were read and commented on in a similar clear and intelligible manner.

After a long interval, when the young mind had time to digest its food, the pedagogue called upon one of the youngest boys, and the following dialogue ensued:—

"Who was the man who lived in Uz?"

"Job."

"Was he a good man?"

"Yes."

"What did he do?"

"He chewed tobacco when nobody else would have anything to do with it" was Bob Holmes answer.

The boy was permitted to take his seat.

GREAT CANAL PROJECT IN ILLINOIS.—While Virginia is about to push to its consummation, upon a grand scale, the James River and Kanawha canal, perceive that the enterprising people of Illinois have in contemplation the great project of connecting the waters of Lake Michigan with those of the Gulf of Mexico, by an uninterrupted channel for steamboat navigation! The citizens of Chicago have revived the original scheme of the Illinois and Michigan canal, which comprises a ship canal of sufficient capacity to float the largest class of vessels that could navigate the Illinois river, but which was given up for want of means, after a considerable portion of the work had been constructed upon that plan, and completed for ordinary canal boats only. The probable cost is estimated at from ten to twenty millions of dollars.

DOUBTFUL COMPLIMENT.—An action was brought in Bristol County Court a few weeks ago to recover the value of two casks of herrings, supplied in 1854, and on the Judge asking the reason of the unusual delay, the plaintiff said he had lost sight of the defendant for some time, and when he did find him he could get no settlement. He repeatedly asked defendant for payment, and the latter at length told him to "go to the devil," upon which he said, "I thought it was high time to come to your honor;" a remark which was received with roars of laughter, in which the learned Judge joined.

D. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS OF IRON.

AN APERIENT AND STOMACHIC Preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by Attraction to Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexion indicate its necessity in almost every concievable case. Ionot one in all maladies in which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Jaundice, Dropsy, Scrofulous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Mismenstruation, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, &c.

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible—Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly re-appeared in the busy world as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant land. In every special instance of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, complete exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In affections of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old outside, it is purely tonic, without being exciting and nevertheless, and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, inasmuch as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often suffered for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked Diarhœa, even when advanced to Dysentery, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and resultant inertic, which generally indicate in ulcers Consumption, its remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrofulous Tuberculosis, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of Iodine, without any of their well known liabilities.

The attention of families cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been particularly well reported. both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In intermittent Fevers it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative efforts. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unnatural disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills; price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to
