Pittsburgh Gazette. PUBLISHED DAILY AND WEEKLY BY R. B. BROWN & CO. THURSDAY MORNING, SEPT. 27.

It has been said that no great work in literature or science was ever wrought by a man who did not love solitude. We may lay it down as an elementary principle of religion, that no large growth in holiness was ever produced by one who did not take time to be often and alone with God.

THE CHERRY WARFARE.—Among the prisoners taken captive at the battle of Waterbury, there was a Highland piper. Napoleon struck with his moustache down, and water-lily, which he wore so indignantly in the glass and mountains of Scotland.
