OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

FRIDAY MORNING, OCT. 19, 1860.

CITY AFFAIRS.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.—Judge McCandless on the bench.

This court was engaged yesterday in trying the case of the United States vs. Ross; action brought to recover $90, which it is alleged he owed the government at the time he was removed from his position as postmaster at Conemaugh. Verdict for plaintiff for full amount claimed.

There being no cases ready for trial the Court then adjourned until to day.

PUTNAMS COURT—Chief Justice Lowrie and Judgie Woodward, Thompson and Strong on the Bench.

Thursday, Oct. 18th.—The following judgments were entered per curiam:

Carr vs. Hemligh; Jefferson county. Judgment and execution affirmed.

Cole's Adm'rs. vs. Cole; Crawford co. Judgment reversed and new trial awarded.

Commonwealth Insurance Co. vs. Sennett et al. Argued by Galbraith for plaintiff in error, and by Church contra.

Carland & Berce vs. Cunningham; Crawford. Argued by Church for plaintiff in error, and by D. M. Farrelly contra.

Summerville vs. Wann; Jefferson. Argued by Lease for plaintiff in error.

COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS—Before Judges M'Clure, Adams and Parke.

Thursday, Oct 18th.—The trial of Thomas McMichael, indicted for obtaining money under false pretenses from a countryman named Philip Taylor, commenced Wednesday afternoon, was concluded yesterday noon. When the case was called up for trial on Wednesday, Fred. H. Collier, Esq., who appeared for the defence, asked that the indictment be quashed, on the ground that it was defective, inasmuch as no offence was charged; the charge of false pretences must be based upon a warranty, and this case did not come within the statute. The point was argued by the counsel for the prosecution, (Messrs. Hampton and Lucas) The court sustained them in their objections, refusing to quash the indictment, as the case was a novel one and the arguments had been based upon some alterations in the new penal code. The trial then proceeded, the first witness called being the prosecutor, who testified to the horse being sold to him for $175, upon the above representations, namely, that the animal was young and sound, and that afterwards, finding the animal was not sound, he had offered McMichael $10 to take him back, which the latter had refused to do.

An objection was here raised on some technical point in the indictment, by Mr. Hampton, which the Court sustained, and a verdict of not guilty was rendered by the jury.

Com. vs. J. Phillips and Catharine Beach, indicted for larceny on oath of John Gardiner. The case was simply this: that the defendant being in arrears with his rent to his landlady, Mrs. Beach. She had his household goods seized by Phillips, (who is a constable), for security. The District Attorney entered a nolle prosequi.

Com. vs. Margaret Fagan, indicted for assault and battery on oath of Margaret McSwigen. The case originated in a fight between two boys in the 8th Ward in which the women took opposite sides, and the defendant beat the prosecutrix on the head with a broom stick. A verdict of guilty was rendered by the jury. The Court thereupon sentenced the defendant to pay a fine of $1 00, and the costs of prosecution.

Com. vs James McLeese, indicted for assault and battery on oath of John McQueen. The prosecutor was a ferryman at Elizabeth, and carried the defendant last August across the Monongahela river, for which he demanded 10 cents, the regular price. This amount McLeese would not give, but told him that six cents was enough. The prosecutor who is an old man then seized hold of the bridle of the defendant's horse, declaring that he should not leave the boat until the ten cents were paid. McLeese knocked him down and brutally kicked him in the face several times, cutting his lip badly, &c. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.

Com. vs. Jeremiah Brieseland. There were two indictments against him—one for obstructing an officer in the discharge of his duty, and another for assault and battery with intent to kill. Our readers will doubtless recollect an account which appeared in our columns some days since, in which the above defendant knocked down a policeman in the employ of the Central R. R. Co. named Robert Johnson, with a slung shot, for trying to arrest him for annoying passengers at the Central depot. The case was handed to to the Grand Jury, and by them returned to Court. On trial.

HAMBURGH is coming!

THE LIBERTY STREET EXPLOSION FUND.—The total amount raised is $1,506 06. Yesterday, the committee charged with the collection and distribution of the fund concluded their labors by distributing the whole amount. The circumstances of the different families claiming relief were closely inquired into, and such sums awarded each as their wants seemed to demand. At first it was the intention of the committee to make the report public, but they have, wisely, we think, refrained doing so, from motives of delicacy. The whole affair, from the liberality of our citizens, in contributing, to the good management of the committee, demand the highest commendation.

THE Ostorom and Miss Kimberly's Benefit we feel confident that the old Pittsburg Theatre will be filled to-night to its utmost capacity, it being Miss Kimberly's benefit night. No better evidence of the great popularity of the play bred is given than the fact that every evening it has been performed in this city the Old Drury has been filled to overflowing. Remember the Saturday afternoon performance.

HAMBURGH the wizard!

LARCENY.—A German, hailing from Baltimore, was caught by a shoemaker on Smithfield street named Kinsey, yesterday, in the act of stealing a pair of shoes from his shop door. A complaint was made against the thief, at the Mayor's office and he was promptly arrested. The matter was compromised, however, by the Teutonic gentleman's paying for the stolen articles, and he was released.

DIRECTORS ELECTED.—The Washington Building and Loan Association have elected the following officers to serve for the ensuing year:—President, Samuel McLean, Jr.; Directors, Daniel Negley, Thos. Brown, Samuel M'Clurken, John Wilson, William Phillips, B. H. Succop and R. J. Thomas.

HAMBURGH and Kossuth!

The Valley Sentinel, a paper newly started at Monongahela City, has made its appearance. Typographically, the Sentinel presents a very neat appearance. It is edited by R. F. Cooper, Esq., a ready and elegant writer, who has had considerable of experience as an editor.

WIFE BEATER.—A man, or rather brute, named James McKee, was committed to prison by Ald. Rogers, in default of $200 bail, yesterday, to answer a charge of assault and battery, preferred against him by his wife, Ann McKee. The parties reside in the Seventh ward.

POLICE ITEMS.—The number of commitments to the county jail yesterday was 14—of these, 6 were for drunkenness, 3 for disorderly conduct, 2 for vagrancy, 1 for assault and battery and 1 for larceny.

THE Wizard is coming!

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—Alderman Rodgers, of the Sixth Ward, yesterday committed a man named Frank Long to the county prison to await his trial for assaulting a neighbor named Cupples.

SHINGLES.—The shingle market is very dull just now, and prices have a declining tendency. This decline is attributed by a great many to the supply being more than equal to the demand, but the real cause may be found in the fact that the demand is not so great as in former years, shingle roofs not being thought of when "Gregson's celebrated Asphalt Roofing Felt" can be obtained. The agent for this excellent material can be found at his office, Langhlin's building, Canal bank, near the city Water Works.

MEDALS, breast pins, pocket-pieces, Republican song books, Life of Abraham Lincoln, in cloth or paper; portraits of Lincoln and Hamlin, will be sold at greatly reduced prices at Hunt & Miners.—Call and see them. All the new books; late magazines and newspapers can be had at Hunt & Miners, Nos. 71 and 73 Fifth street, next door to the Post Office.

☞ We call the attention of our readers to an article advertised in another column, called BLOOD FOOD. It is an entirely new discovery, and must not be confounded with any of the numerous patent medicines of the day. It is Food for the Blood already prepared for absorption, without the aid of the stomach and natural functions, and thus gains, he retains. Let all those, then, who are troubled with poor blood, impurity or deficiency of blood, and consequently with some chronic disease or ailment, take of this Blood Food, and be restored to health. We notice that our Druggists have received a supply of this article, and also of the world renowned DR. HATONE'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, which every mother should have. It contains no poisonous substance of any kind whatever, and of course must be invaluable for all infantile complaints. It will allay all pain, and cure all grams in process of teething, as it thoroughly regulates the bowels. Let all mothers and nurses who have children suffering from sickness and worms, use these valuable articles, and be at once relieved. Sold by all Druggists & Grocers in the United States.

Immense Republican Demonstration!

Torchlight Procession!!!

2,500 WIDE AWAKES IN LINE!

REJOICINGS OF THE LINCOLN MEN!

The city was in a perfect blaze of enthusiasm last evening, on the occasion of the Grand Democratic demonstration commemorative of the Republican victories in October, and their rejoicings over the promised triumph of the principles of the Republican party in November. At an early hour the streets were thronged with a curious and enthusiastic mass of human beings, eager to witness the magnificent cortege as it traversed the route. The buildings along the line were beautifully illuminated, and with the Roman candles, rockets and other fireworks displayed during the passage of the interminable stream of torches, combined to make the scene one long to be remembered.

The whole affair was conducted, as usual, in the most orderly manner possible under the circumstances, and while it was void of all offense to such of our citizens as differ with the Republican party, evinced the unbounded gladness of the Friends of Freedom at the result of the political contest which ended in the emphatic declaration of the people of Pennsylvania in favor of Abraham Lincoln as their choice for President, and their adherence to the principles proclaimed by the Chicago Convention of Free Soil, Free Homes, Free Speech, Free Men, and Protection to American Industry. It demonstrated the fact that the people have arisen from their slumbers and intend to proclaim henceforth in favor of the doctrines of the Fathers of the Republic.

The procession commenced forming on Liberty the right resting on Fourth street, at about 7½ o'clock. In the course of an hour the procession began to move. The following was the route of procession:

Up Fourth from Liberty to Wood street; down Wood to Water, up Water to Smithfield, up Smithfield to Third, up Third to Ross, up Ross to Fifth; down Fifth to Wood, up Wood to Liberty, up Liberty to Stanwix, down Penn to Penn, up Penn to Mechanic, down Mechanic to Bridge, across Bridge to Chesnut, up Chesnut to Ohio, down Ohio to Federal, down Federal to Bridge, across Bridge to St. Clair, along St. Clair to Penn, down Penn to Marbury, and countermarch up Penn to Stanwix street, and dismissed.

The procession passed the Gazette office to the following order:

Major Alexander Hay, Grand Marshal of the County with his aids.

Central Wide-Awake Club of Pittsburgh with its divisions.

Birmingham Wide-Awakes.

South Pittsburgh Wide Awakes.

Mansfield-Wide Awakes.

The coup d'œil presented along the route of the procession was magnificent. At the Republican County Head Quarters, on Lafayette Hall, the windows were lighted with thousands of lights; those in the main building being behind red, white and blue glass.

The music with some trifling exceptions was delicious. The Duquesne Grays Brass Band was with the Central Club as usual. The Citizen's Brass Band was with the 3d and 9th Ward Pittsburgh Clubs and played splendidly, charming every person who heard them.

The procession was half an hour in passing a given point. They marched in quick time. It is estimated that there were over two thousand five hundred torches in line.

☞ A SUSPECTED HORSE THIEF COMMITTED!—Yesterday, a man, giving his name as William Elder, stopped at the Union Drove yard, and sold a horse to George Kelsy, of West Wheeling, for $31. The horse was worth about one hundred dollars. Elder told various contradictory stories about the horse, and seemed to be in rather too much haste for an honest man. Officer Pender arrested the man, and took him before Alderman Dully, who upon being advised of the circumstances of the case, committed him to jail to await further examination.—Wheeling Intelligencer.

PITTSBURGH, FRIDAY, Oct. 19, 1860.

REMARKS.—The business transacted during the week which has just closed has not been very heavy, by any means, but we think, however, that it is improving slowly, and after the excitement created by the approaching Presidential election, which will soon be over, has subsided, a good business may be confidently anticipated.
