ALL THE VIRTUES OF ELECTRICITY AND WATER COMBINED.

DR. W. W. KARSHNER'S ELECTRIC BATHS PATENTED JAN 25 1859

Fig. 2. Fig. 3.

THE above cut is a representation of DR. KARSHNER'S POSITIVE AND NEGATIVE ELECTRO-THERAPEUTIC BATHS, for which he has obtained letters patent from the Patent Office of the United States. These Baths have been in successful operation for the last two years, in many of our principal towns and cities, during which time hundreds of patients have tested their astonishing powers with signal success. Dr. K. challenges the entire medical world to produce any one system or combined series of systems, that will cure as many diseases, and in so short a time, as his Electric Baths alone, when rightly administered. The scientific minds of all professions are cordially invited to call, examine and test for themselves

The duration of each Bath, the temperature of the water, and the strength of the electric current, are varied according to the disease, the condition of the patient at the time, and the effects desired. The water is about blood heat, and the electricity so graduated as to produce nothing but pleasurable sensations.

There is no class of Diseases, either Acute or Chronic, to which they are not adapted—which do not yield at once to their all pervading and health-restoring influences The aged and decrepid have been led, voluntarily, to testify that they felt many years younger, and slept better than they had done for years. Others have been cured of painful diseases in a few Baths.

Nor do their healthful effects seem to be confined solely to the physical man; they have an equally happy influence upon the mental faculties, making them a most efficient means in the treatment of insanity and all abnormal mental conditions.

Among the diseases successfully treated by Dr. K.'s Baths are: Incipient Consumption, Scrofula, Paralysis, Epilepsy, (Fits,) Insanity, Delicate Females, St. Vitus' Dance, Obstructure of the Spine, Rheumatism, Mercurial Diseases, Weakness in the Back and Joints, Nervousness, Nervous Head Ache, Asthma, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Weak Eyes, Partial Deafness, Dyspepsia, Gravel and other Urinary and Genital Diseases, Falling of the Womb, Leucorrhea, and other Female Derangements, Fever, Fever and Ague, etc. etc.

These Baths are in successful operation at

THE NEW YORK DAY BOOK says:

"The majority of Hair Washes, Hair Dyes, Hair Tonics, Hair Oils, and the numberless preparations which are daily brought before the public under such extravagant, superlatival and fantastic titles as we see paraded in show window cards, and newspaper headings, as hair preparations, are all humbugs of the first water, their sole merit, when they possess any, is, that they do no harm. BOGY'S LARD, WHALE OIL, LAVENDER WATER, SWEET OIL, scented and colored, make up, when in beautiful wrappers and white flint glass bottles, the costliest character of tonics; and when this costly, new bauble with some fetching name, and caught at by verdant young and old of both sexes. Such is not the character of Professor Wood's Hair Restorative This gentleman comes before the world without any "high falutin" Xilophiladelphon, or any other astounding and startling catchpenny name, to be simply called a Hair Restorative—what it expresses precisely—and as a tonic for strengthening, and promoting the growth of the hair. Do not delude your scalp, nay, your very brains, apply nothing else; for it may be that you will get some worse substance than perfume's lard oil on your cranium. Remember, Wood's Restorative is the best if it be the 1 st article extant."

It Will, by Nature's own Process, Restore Gray Hair to the Original Color,

Will make Hair Grow on Bald Heads,

Will restore the Natural Secretions,

Will remove at once all Itching,

Will remove all Dandruff,

Will cure all eruptions—even Scald Head,

Will make the Hair Soft, and Glossy,

Will make the old appear young again,

Will prevent the Hair from Falling Off,

And will always Fasten it and stop its Falling.

And is one of the best Toilet Articles for the Hair now in use.

A Valuable Witness.

We observe that some of our cotemporaries of the democratic and Bell-Everett stripe are vainly endeavoring to get up an alarm about the safety of the Union, by parading violent extracts from such papers as the Charleston Mercury, which have always been in favor of disunion, without reference to the current of events. We might rely upon the notorious character of such prints as the best commentary upon their idle threats. But lest some uniformed persons might be misled, we beg leave to cite for general information the annexed editorial extract from the Alexandria, Va., Gazette, an old, able and influential newspaper, published in a slaveholding State, and earnestly engaged in the support of Bell and Everett:

"The truth of the matter, is, and everybody knows it, that the politicians of the South Carolinian nullification school have been 'ready and anxious to break up the government and dissolve the Union for twenty years past. Fortunately, they have been comparatively few in numbers, and could not force the conservative portion of the Southern people to follow their lead."

This covers the whole ground, and states the exact nature of the case so clearly that we need hardly add a word. As an organ of the general sentiment of the south the Charleston Mercury has absolutely no weight, and the papers which we affiliate with it are in the same condition. The election of Bell, Douglas or Breckinridge would not satisfy these malcontents. They are disunionists at heart, and are looking to the success of their schemes at all times, whether they have their way or not. To show the utterly unreasonable and impracticable character of this class of newspapers and politicians, we extract from the Charleston Mercury the following of a leading editorial article:

"If Mr. Lincoln were to come out and declare that he held sacred every right of the south, with respect to African slavery, no one should believe him: and, if he was believed, his professions should not have the least influence on the course of the south."

No concession could satisfy such blind unreasoning fanaticism as this. It must be met and combated and this the loyal people of the south are energetically engaged in doing. The more valor we attach to the threats of the disunionists the more we weaken the hands of these noble men all over the south who have raised the banner of devotion to the Union, and are fighting for it everywhere in the planting States. This is not the first time that the treasonable faction of which the Mercury is the organ, has found arrayed against it a firm, compact and unconquerable body of southern men. In 1850 the battle was fought and won against them in every southern State. The abolitionists made open war then, and in each particular State had to succumb. So it will be now.—Phil. N. Amer.

Who will Hold Office under Lincoln in the South?

It has been a favorite saying with some of our opponents, that if Lincoln should be elected the south would refuse to hold office under him. We have the best of evidence to show that this is baseless. Mr. Yancey, of Alabama, says:

"There are men in the southern States who would take office under Lincoln, and they would of course be the nearest sympathizing with him in his rule. I tell you it would not take long for them to sympathize entirely with him—at least so entirely as to be able to keep the office."

The Knoxville, Tenn., Whig, a well known and influential organ of southern opinion, takes the following view of the case:

"Will democrats in the south, hold on? Who that knows them can doubt? Not one in a thousand will resign and go out of office. Oh no; they will be glad to serve under Lincoln and thus save the country! They will get up outside pressures, and procure letters to be written urging the importance of continuing them in office. Postmasters, pension agents, District Attorneys, Marshals, route agents and all, will intrigue and scheme, to be retained under even Lincoln. We challenge the world to point to a man who will resign. Lincoln's greatest trouble at the south will be to find offices enough to meet the clamorous demands of Breckinridge democrats."

The Washington Constitution, the organ of the Buchanan administration, also bears witness on the subject thus:

"If rumors are to be believed, it is not alone in Wheeling that mercenary politicians are shaping their sails to catch a favorite breeze from black Republican quarters. Such elements are so worthless, however, that the party which acquires them have no more cause of congratulation than the other for regret. They turn for interest they will turn again. Such men are worth barely their own votes, for they have no influence else. If the black Republican party can afford to reward such characters with office to the exclusion of their own undoubtedly sincere partisans, they are stronger than we think they are."

This denunciation and abuse is extorted by the knowledge that the south is breaking loose from the control of the designing knaves who make merchandise of the Union. But it is hardly worth while to devote any further attention to the subject. Mr. Lincoln, we have no doubt, is already deluged with applications for office from the south.—Phil. N. Amer.

THE HOUSE THAT SAM BUILT.—The following is a capital parody on "The House that Jack Built." As's "Rumor of the Campaign," we have seen nothing better:

THE WHITE HOUSE—This is the house that Sam built.

$100,000,000—This is the malt that lay in the house that Sam built.

JAMES BUCHANAN—This is the rat, that ate the malt that lay in the house that Sam built.

S. A DOUGLAS—This is the cat that killed the rat, that ate the malt that lay in the house that Sam built.

BRECKINRIDGE—This is the dog, that worried the cat, that killed the rat, that ate the malt, &c

BELL EVERETT—This is the cow with a crumpled horn, that tossed the dog, that worried the cat, &c.

N. Y. EXPRESS—This is the maiden, all forlorn, that milked the cow with crumpled horn, that, &c.

JOURNAL OF COMMERCE—This is the man, all tattered and torn, that kissed the maiden all forlorn, &c.

N. Y. OBSERVER—This is the priest, all shaven and shorn, that married the man all tattered and torn, unto the maiden all forlorn, that, &c.

INDEPENDENT—This is the cock, that crowed in the morn, to waken the priest, all shaven and shorn, that married the man all tattered and torn, &c.

ABE LINCOLN—This is the hunter with trumpet and horn, that owned the cock that crowed in the morn, to waken the priest all shaven and shorn, that married the man all tattered and torn, unto the maiden all forlorn, that milked the cow with crumpled horn, that tossed the dog, that worried the cat, that killed the rat, that ate the malt, that lay in the house that Sam built.

MR H. V. JOHNSON ON FREE LABORERS!

"LOOK AT THE SLAVES IN YOUR OWN WORKSHOPS! THEY ARE DRIVEN TO THE POLLS AT THE BECK OF THEIR MASTERS, UNDER PENALTY OF BEING DISCHARGED!"—Speech of H. V. Johnson, (Democratic Candidate for Vice President,) at Pittsburgh, Sept. 22.
