OUTRAGEOUS CONDUCT.—A CONDUCTOR ON THE MEMPHIS AND OHIO R. R. ARRESTED AND FINED, AND ORDERED TO LEAVE.—The particulars of a proceeding, says the Memphis Avalanche of the 22 ultimo, is one of the many strange occurrences in this city, came to our knowledge last evening. While the freight train over the Memphis and Ohio Railroad was coming in on Saturday evening about half-past six o'clock, it was suddenly stopped by the engineer. The conductor, Mr. Frank Olmstead, jumped off the car he was upon to see what had occurred, when fire men suddenly rushed upon him. He was overpowered in an instant, and the train moved on, leaving him in the hands of his captors. They tied him, and conveyed him to a thicket near by, where a consultation was held as to what should be done with him. Coal oil was poured over his head and face, he was besmeared with tar, and after, a severe beating, he was informed that if he would leave the city in twenty-four hours, his life would be spared. They then left Mr. Olmstead tied to the tree, nearly dead from the effects of his injuries. Some gentlemen, who were hunting, shortly after discovered and released him, when he made the best of his way to the city, arriving at a late hour on Saturday night. He at once went to bed, and last night was suffering severely from his cuts and injuries.

Mr. Olmstead is a stranger, here, we believe, and has been in the employ of the Railroad Company only a few days. The cause of the brutal treatment he received is unknown to him, if we except a circumstance which occurred a few days since, which he was no participator but which we forbear mentioning until the whole matter is sifted, as it might re flect upon innocent persons.

The Avalanche, of the 23d, says in relation to the above, Mr. Olmstead is recovering, and adds:

"No clue to the perpetrators of the outrage has yet been obtained. In another column the Memphis and Ohio Railroad Company offers a reward of $500 for their arrest. We hope that the lawless men may be brought to justice."

BALL ROOM ETIQUETTE IN THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY.—At the dancing room in St George's Square, London, so rigid was the etiquette that no couple could dance, unless each party was provided with a ticket prescribing the precise place in the precise dance. If there was no ticket, the gentleman or lady was dealt with as an intruder, and turned out of the room as the ticket had marked upon it—say for a country dance—the figures 3, 5, this meant that the holder was to place himself in third dance, fifth from the top; and if he were any place else, he was set right or excluded; and the partner's ticket must correspond. Woe to the poor girl, who, with ticket marked 2, 7, was found opposite a youth marked 5, 9. It was flirting without a license, and looked very ill, and would probably be reported by the ticket director of the dance to the mother. Of course, parties or parents who wish to secure dancing for themselves or those they had charge of, provided themselves with correct and corresponding vouchers before the ball day arrived. This could only be accomplished through a director. When parties chose to to take their chance, they might do so; but still, though only obtained in the room, the written permission was necessary; and such a thing as a compact dance by a couple, without official authority, would have been an outrage that could scarcely be contemplated. Tea was sipped in side rooms, and he was a careless beau who did not present his partner with an orange at the end of each dance; and the orange and the tea, like everything else, were under exact and positive regulations.

TREES IN CALIFORNIA.—Nature varies the oak tree in California into a large rang of forms, scrub trees, apple tree oaks, grand masculine structures that hold out their branches properly at right angles, and superb, towering, spreading arching forms that blend with the natural majesty of their stock the grace of the elm. But none of them have the fiber and muscle of the New England oaks. It is said that there is no timber in the State hard enough to make a good ax-handle out of. The most stalwart looking of the structures I am speaking of, if cut down, would be likely to break asunder in half a dozen places by the shock of its fall.

But however "brash" they may be, they are glorious to look at, when every downward branch is decked with delicate pendants of green gray moss. The moss is collected, boiled and dried, to be stuffed into cushions and beds. It is very hard to kill, and requires long cooking in the hot water, and when cured, it comes out black and resembles hair. I saw many a tree whose jesses would furnish ample stock for a bed.—What a couch for a poet!—[Starr King.

☞ TO ADVERTISERS.—The Pittsburgh DAILY GAZETTE has a large circulation among the business men in this and the surrounding cities—among those who see and who study—and among manufacturers and producers. Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

A compound remedy, in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints:—

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIVE AND EFFUSIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NERVOUSNESS OR THE DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND ILL DIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the misfortune of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, purify, enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something is sure to go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has long deserved much the reputation, of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence the sad and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

MOTHERS

Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of

INFANTILE CORDIAL,

and why? because it never fails to afford instantaneous relief when given in time. It acts as if by magic, and one trial alone will convince you that what we say is true. It contains of any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the sufferings of your child, instead of by deadening its sensibility. For this reason, it commends itself as the only reliable preparation now known for CHILDREN TEETHING, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, IRRITATION IN THE BOWELS, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, WIND, COLD IN THE HEAD, and CROUP, also, for relieving the pains, reducing inflammation, regulating the bowels, and relieving pain, it has no equal—being an undisputable fact it is used with unfailing success in all cases of CONFUSION OR OTHER FITS. As you value the life and health of your children, and wish to save them from those and many blighting consequences which are sure to follow, if relief from the use of narcotics, such as "soothing syrups" or infantile Cordials are considered, take none but DR. KATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, the use of which can vary upon. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant. Price, 25 cents. Full directions accompany each bottle. Prepared only by CHURCH & DUPONT, No. 409 Broadway, New York.

ANALYZED

always presents us with the same essential elements, and gives of course the TRUE STANDARD. Analyze the blood of a Person suffering from Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, &c., and we find in every instance certain deficiencies in the red globules of Blood. Supply these deficiencies, and you are made well. The BLOOD FOOD is founded upon this Theory—hence its astonishing success.

To all suffering from CONSUMPTION, Incipient or confirmed, or from debility of any kind, or from mental or nervous prostration, by night or by day, or from scrofulous complaints; or from diseases of the kidneys or bladder; and to ladies suffering any of the many distressing complaints their sex are liable to, we will only engender consumption, the

is offered as a certain and reliable remedy. Differing in every particular from the patent medicines of the day, it is a chemical combination of IRON, NUX-VOMICA, NUX-PHORUS, of very great worth
