ONLY ONE DAY LEFT.

The contest is drawing to a close. But one day is left for work. Improve it. Let the active Republicans pass through their districts today, stirring up the sluggish and seeing to it that every thing is got ready for the morrow. Whatever remains to be done must be done today. Every vote must be got out, to-morrow, and if any preparation is lacking, to that end, see to it, at once. Get the voting lists ready. Select your challengers. Apportion the duties you wish the Wide Awakes to perform. Hunt up your block committee men, and see that they are all ready. The enemy is counting a great deal upon our apathy, and we must show him that we are not idle because we are quiet. Allegheny stands pledged for 10,000 majority for Lincoln, and we must redeem the pledge. We must be the banner county of the Union; and the only way to attain that proud eminence is to Work! Work! WORK!

"CAPITAL SHOULD OWN LABOR!"

Mr. H. V. Johnson, the author of this infamous sentiment, said in his speech in this city that the Republican laborers in our workshops were slaves, driven to the polls by their masters and compelled to vote, as commanded. This atrocious libel our workingmen resented by rolling up an unprecedented majority for Curtin; and as the direct result of the victory achieved by their aid, we find the locofoco capitalists in New Jersey and New York very much alarmed at the prospect of Lincoln's election, and that they have resorted to the very coarse and vulgar charge upon our manufacturers by Mr. Johnson. The manufacturers of Newark and New York, engaged in the Southern trade, have notified their workingmen that unless they vote the fusion ticket they can get no more work. They have placed circulars in the hands of their workmen, intimating to them that they must vote against LINCOLN, or be discharged! No Republican manufacturer has ever acted so. It remained for the enemies of Lincoln to attempt the practical exemplification of the theory that Capital should own Labor, and to boast, as they have done, that this course of coercion was good for ten thousand votes against Lincoln!

THE NEW YORK Commercial, in an article on the recent efforts of the members of the present Cabinet and the government organ to depreciate public credit for the purpose of making party capital, says:

"Fifty years hence, it will be difficult to credit some of the events of to-day—that a political party, organized to resist the most flagrant aggressions on the liberties of the country, and proposing to restore the policy which characterized our national government during the first three score years of its existence, should be denounced as sectional and fanatical; that another great party should demand Congressional protection to slavery in all the United States' territories, under threats of dissolving the Union; that these menaces should not only be listened to, but endorsed and almost forced down the throats of their neighbors, by free Northern citizens; that in the attempts to do so, conspiracies should be entered into against the public credit by officers and organs of the Federal Government; that efforts should even be made to create a panic, followed by a financial crisis, like that of 1857, stopping the wheels of industry and throwing hundreds of thousands out of employment; that all these should be patiently borne by the people of the United States, we say, will be almost too difficult of belief by 1910, and yet the facts are indisputable."

As a fitting commentary on the liberal professions of the democratic party, the fact should be mentioned that the editor of the Constitution who labored so hard to convince the public that our government was in such a hopeless condition that it was no longer safe to invest money in its bonds, is a scion of the British nobility, and a comparative stranger in the country. He not long since boasted that he "was born a gentleman"—a circumstance which we presume endears him to the eminent flunkey who now fills the Presidential chair. Of the attempt itself to injure the credit of the country, the Albany Evening Journal, very truly remarks that "in any other country but this, the officials guilty of complicity in this plot would be arraigned and punished for treason. Here they will incur nothing more than a deserved odium that will attach to them all their lives. Those Northern statesmen who made the mistake, fifty years ago, of becoming involved in the Hartford Convention, found that they had committed an act which even years of faithful and patriotic public services could not induce the country to forget. The odium of it followed them to their graves. So it will be with the public men who deliberately or unthinkingly join the Disunion Panic Movement of 1860. This is going to be the last of these movements and it will be remembered and recorded in History. There are public men, this day, uttering threats and panic-predictions, which five years hence they would give their right hands to have unsaid."

WHY WE WANT A TARIFF.—The effect of the free trade policy of the Democratic party is shown by the fact that during the past ten years we have imported of foreign merchandize to the amount of $2,862,781,764. To pay for this we have exported in specie the sum of $485,666,277. The balance has been paid by exports of our agricultural products. Think of the immense advantage to our country of retaining this enormous sum here, and of giving employment to our own workmen in manufacturing these important fabrics for which we now pay nearly three billions of dollars. Yet the Democratic party again asks the suffrages of the people, and threatens disunion if they are not vouchsafed.

GIVE THEM A CHANCE TO VOTE.—The manufacturers of this city were all very kind, at the October election, and allowed the men in their employ ample time to vote. We trust they will arrange to-day (if they have not already done so) to extend the same privilege to them to-morrow, and let them off an hour or two, or even half a day earlier than usual, so that they may all get to the polls in good season.

SINGULAR BUT SIGNIFICANT.—Kentucky and Oregon have repudiated Breckinridge and Lane, and while Maine has indorsed Hamlin by 20,000 majority, Illinois will, without doubt, repudiate Douglas, and Georgia will go against Johnson. Everett will be repudiated by Massachusetts, and probably Bell by Tennessee. Thus Lincoln and Hamlin are the only candidates likely to be indorsed by their neighbors.

"BID FOR THE FIRST SHOT AT SOUTH CAROLINA.—The Selma (Ala.) Sentinel, of the 20th, has the following:

"We heard a gentleman from the Canebrake, Mr. B., who resides near Price, and a better man than Price is, tell a crowd of Breckinridge sympathizers yesterday that if South Carolina attempted to dissolve the Union, he would give a thousand dollars to fire the first gun at her. He is one of the most wealthy men of the Canebrake, and we can assure the dissolutionists he is not alone in entertaining that sentiment."

ST. JOSEPH, Nov. 2.—A destructive fire is raging on Main street, between Jules and Felix. The whole block will be swept away. Vigorous efforts are being made to confine it to that locality, and succeed, at the writing (5 o'clock).

Effects of the Disunion Cry.

The efforts of Southern politicians to coerce the judgment of Northern men by threats of dissolving the Union, and the subsequent passage of non-intercourse resolutions, in case the Republican party should be successful at the polls next Tuesday, must certainly be based on very false and degrading estimates of the manhood and morals which have control of public action in the Free States. For only too much of the contempt in which it is held by Southern leaders, for us to blame its own previous and most pernicious folly in the selection of unworthy representatives. We have invited the contempt of the South for years by sending politicians of the inveterate class to represent us at Washington—men who had not moral courage enough to stand up in the dignity of their constituents and speak out the honest sentiments of those who sent them. It is for these offences—in great part the sins of our fathers—that we, their children, are now compelled to endure the daily insult of secession threats. This is our appointed penance for so long having allowed a class of supple and time-serving place hunters to misrepresent our opinions and cast suspicions on our manhood, in both Houses of Congress, and all the other branches of public life having access to the Southern ear.

But all the experiences of life go to prove that complaisance which fails to receive appreciation at its true worth in certain, at one time or other, to become soured at its source, and curdle into a brief but peremptory demand for equal and exact justice. When the prophet, who speaks only smooth things from a courteous desire to avoid offence, once learns that his hearers regard him as a coward who dare not truly reveal the disastrous and boding visions which flash before his sight, the chances are a thousand to one, if he be a man of human passions, that he will shake off the galling chains of politeness, place his tongue in full communication with his brain, and allow the stern figures of his prophetic insight to stalk abroad in the dismal garniture of congenial language. Thus it is with the Northern mind in its observance of Southern institutions. We have not wished to shock our pleasant brethren of the South by revealing the hideous omens which have long been visible to every intelligent eye in the Free States, when contemplating the effect which disunion could not fail to produce upon the South. It has been the sinners wish of our good feeling that they should never realize the dangers hovering over them, nor be taught how entirely they are dependent both for safety and prosperity upon their alliance with the North.

But it seems from latest accounts that our politeness has been mistaken for poltroonery, our courteousness for a lack of moral courage, our true fraternal affection for a sordid and unscrupulous spirit of gain. Proud of that "chivalry," which was for the most part a complimentary endowment, made by Northern orators, the ambitious men of secession have finally come to believe that it is but for them to threaten and for us to fall—for them to stamp their feet at a given point, and for us to retreat precipitately, forgetful of our rights, while cowering under the fury of their clamorous fiances. This has been when this calculation would have proved correct, but that time has passed. The boldness of Southern menace, and the audacity of Southern insult, conspire to leave us no peg of courtesy on which to hang the pretence of a graceful yielding. We are face to face with a direct and haughty attempt to domineer by terror over the Northern mind; and for prompt resistance to such presumed ascendency; all the instincts of Northern manhood for the first time are aroused and cry aloud. If they make the issue of secession on a candidate legally elected by a majority of the electoral colleges, we stand prepared to meet it. There are points at which concession becomes disgrace; and sad as will be the alternative of offending our brethren of the South, it would be a less evil than the voluntary surrender of our rights and our liberties to the coercion of Southern slaveholders. The North will elect Abraham Lincoln.—New York Times.

WONDERFUL CHANGE OF SENTIMENT.—About eighteen years ago, John Quincy, Adams presented a petition to the House of Representatives, praying for a peaceable dissolution of the Union, and proposed its reference to a Special Committee, with instructions to report against the object of the petitioners. This petition was received by the South with a storm of indignant denunciation, and Henry A. Wise was foremost in insisting upon the censure of the venerable patriot and friend of Union, for, simply, out of mere reverence for the right of petition, offering such an insult, as he regarded it, to the Nation. This occurred at a time when Slavery was excluded from nearly all the Territories of the Union by act of Congress, and when not even Mr. Wise proposed or dreamed of repeal. The same Mr. Wise now insists that the Union shall be dissolved because a man is about to be elected to the Presidency, who insists that that act of Slavery restriction was constitutional.

Moral.—Mr. Wise has joined the Democratic Party.—N. Y. Times.

A distinguished clergyman of Brooklyn, whose reputation for benevolence is as great as that for eloquence, received, a few days since, a letter from a responsible Southern gentleman, stating that he had thirty-five slaves whose market value was $30,000, but which he would sell to this clergyman for $20,000, pocketing the loss cheerfully. Circumstances render an early sale to some one extent public motion, imperative, and rather than have his servants parted and their family ties destroyed, he would make the necessary sacrifice by selling them cheap to any party desiring to make them free.—N. Y. Times.

THE CENSUS OF THE NORTHWEST.—The census returns are now so nearly completed that we can approximate closely to the population of the Northwest. It will stand about as follows:

Ohio	2,500,000
Indiana	1,400 000
Illinois	1,600,000
Wisconsin	900,000
Michigan	750,000
Iowa	700,000
Minnesota	180,000
Total	8,030,000

This is equal to the white population of the fifteen slave States. More than one quarter of the population of the United States is now in the Northwest. Its population is nearly equal to New York, Pennsylvania and New England combined!

A TIMELY SUGGESTION.—An exchange says that if you will stand on tiptoe when cannon are firing, the concussion will not shock the nerves. What a relief such a plan will be for the Democratic next week, when they will hear the loud and more than thunder tread of guns, accompanied with which those that swallowed Alice Kendall's babies were bat pistols. Let every Democrat commence the tip-toe exercise at once.—Toledo Blade.

The Sisters Sitten.

The New York Trading Politicians who have been laboring to create a disunion panic, are getting caught in their own trap. In knocking stocks down, they damaged chiefly the capitalists of their own party, and cut off the source of prospective "contributions for the Fusion Ticket."

But this is not all. The South Carolinians, hearing the disunion cry raised in New York, have come to the additional belief that will scare anything but pleasantly in the ears of "Merchants in the Southern Trade." They proclaim as one great advantage of disunion, that it will enable Southerners to repudiate all the debts they owe to the North! Says one Charleston journal:

"At present, by the Constitution of the United States, the citizens of the Northern States can enforce the collection of debts due to them by the citizens of Southern States, in all our courts of justice. But the compact of the Constitution being sealed, the citizens of the Northern States are aliens—foreigners—with no power to use our Courts of justice, to enforce the payment of debts due them from citizens of the Southern States. If the Northern States attempt force—make war upon us—forthwith all debts between the warring States are expunged, and, unless revived by treaty, will be obliterated forever. Each state suspends all Northern debts and war extinguishes them."

Poor encouragement this for the Committee of fifteen, the Fifth avenue Democracy, the Journal of Commerce, Herald & Co., and other laborers in the disunion field! The brunt of the disaster with which they threaten the country, bids fair to fall on their own shoulders, and there only! When they find the question is one that concerns their own pockets, we suspect they will discover the Union is not in such great danger after all.

But it serves them right that their attempt to serve their Southern masters by treason against the Government, should meet with just this ungrateful reward.—Alb. Eve. Jour.

MR. H. V. JOHNSON ON FREE LABORERS!

"LOOK AT THE SLAVES IN YOUR OWN WORKSHOPS! THEY ARE DRIVEN TO THE POLLS AT THE BECK OF THEIR MASTERS, UNDER PENALTY OF BEING DISCHARGED!"—Speech of H. V. Johnson, (Democratic Candidate for Vice President,) at Pittsburgh, Sept. 22.

THE Boston Journal says: We learn that over a million of dollars has been invested in real estate in the last few months, within a few days, by parties in Boston, who took advantage of the panic got up by Secretary Cobb and his confederates. The result of this desperate political game, on the part of political gamblers, will be that some of the shrewd Yankees whom they have so heartily will pocket a cool hundred thousand or two of dollars. Try again gentlemen.

THE Sheridan Knowles who was lost on the steamer Arctic lately, and who some of our neighbors persist in believing to have been James Sheridan Knowles, the dramatist, was a worthy mechanic of Philadelphia, where he left a wife and four children. He was sent to Virginia lately, along with others, by the American Bank Note Company, to attend to some work of theirs.—Phila. Bulletin.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—A young man named Jacob Lenhart, attempted suicide, by shooting himself, on Friday last, in West Brownsville, where he was keeping a grocery. The ball entered his left side, just above the hip, and passed up to or near his shoulder. When we last heard from him he was alive, with, however, but faint hopes of recovery. No cause is assigned for the act.—Uniontown Genius.

ALARM IN THE CABINET.—The President, in the event of the election of Lincoln, intends to deprive the latter of all credit for devotion to the Union by taking strong Union ground in his message. Both Cobb and Thompson are greatly alarmed at the oysterlike silence of the O. P. F., and may resign before two weeks have rolled by.—Phil. Press.

Eruptions! Salt Rheum! Erysipelas!

It is now generally admitted that all eruptive diseases depend upon some internal or constitutional cause, and that to use washes or ointments for them is a mere way to injure the system, and only to drive in, not to cure the disease. But HUMPHREYS' SPECIFIC HOMŒOPATHIC SALT RHEUM PILLS are a true specific for all such diseases. They cure Salt Rheum, Barber's Itch, Erysipelas, Pimples on the Face, Ringworm, and Nettle Rash, by curing the cause upon which they depend, and by restoring the skin to the state of health and purity. Thus, not only is the disease cured, but the softness and beauty of the complexion restored.

Price, 25 cents per box, with directions. Six boxes, $1.

N. B.—A full set of HUMPHREY'S HOMŒOPATHIC SPECIFICS, with Book of Directions, and twenty different Remedies, in large vials, morocco case, $5; ditto, in plain case, $3; case of fifteen boxes, and Book, $2. Single boxes, 25 cents and 50 cents.

These Remedies, by the single box or case, are sent by mail or express, free of charge, to any address, on receipt of the price. Address Dr. W. HUMPHREYS & CO.,
