WIT AND SENTIMENT.

"WHERE THE TREASURE IS, THERE WILL THE HEART BE ALSO."—This is a statement that conveys to us a most important truth. What we value, we pursue; what we appreciate, we endeavor to secure; what we esteem, attracts us; that which to us is the most important and the most loved, will attach the heart in all its devotion and honor, become an influencing, guiding, governing principles of life; and this fact furnishes one of the most powerful arguments—enforcing the necessity of a great radical thorough, and permanent spiritual resumption. Our treasure is not where it should be—where it is important and necessary that we are to live so as to prepare for a blessed immortality in the future condition. It is on earth, and it makes us earthly.

Christian, though the chip is bitter, yet it is put into your hand by your Father; yet be that has laid it on your shoulders will bear the heaviest end of it himself; and why then should you murmur?

Those two lovers; grace and assurance, are not by God so nearly joined together but that they may, by sin on our side and justice on God's be put asunder.

Grace does not destroy nature, but rather perfect it. Grace is of a noble offspring; it neither turns men into stocks nor into stones.

JIMMY O'KEEFE AND THE LITTLE GIANT.—Jimmy O'Keefe is the jolley janitor of the United States court rooms and other Federal offices. Jimmy is an ardent Dimmycrat—has as much faith in the Little Giant as he has in the Pope and that's immense. Jimmy was a Clerk in McLeans office yesterday "dusting up things. McLean being a friend to the fine arts keeps the busts of several distinguished statesmen in the office to gratify his tastes. Jimmy saw they needed his feathers yesterday, and began to brush them. That of Clay was soon as bright as when it came from the mould. Webster was next in file. Jimmy presuming from the prodigious brain development that it must be his political idol, stepped back a moment and surveying it with evident admiration. The Little Giant are yees? quoth Jimmy, "sure an' ye're a fine one, Arrah, ye divle ye," continued Jimmy affectionately, dipping his feathers lightly into the dusty frothiplace of the busted statesman, "Yees down a little bit now, sure but ye never wind a bit; sure an' yees' ill be after bein' up again soon, good luck to yees, and ye will—bad ness to the likes o' them that don't love yees"—and Jimmy with affectionate tenderness brushed lightly the grand nose of the sage of Marshfield until no speck remained to mar its grand proportions.—[Cincinnati Commercial.

HABIT.—"I trust everything under God," said Lord Brougham, "to habit, upon which, in all ages the lawgiver, as the schoolmaster, has mainly placed his reliance, habit, which makes everything easy, and casts all difficulties upon the deviation from a wonted course. Make sobriety a habit, and reckless profligacy will be as contrary to the nature of a child as to any of your lordships. Give a child the habit of carefully regarding the truth; of carefully respecting property of others; of scrupously abstaining from all acts of improvidence which can involve in distress, he will just as likely think of rushing into an element in which he cannot breathe, as of lying, cheating, or stealing."

"SPEAKING TO" THEM.—A man who had never seen the inside of a court house until he was introduced as a witness in a case pending in one of our District Courts, having just Fall in the northern part of the State, being sworn, took a position with his back to the jury, and began telling his story to the Judge. Judge B——n, in his bland and courteous manner, said —"Address yourself to the jury, sir!" The man made a short pause; but not comprehending what was said to him, continued his narrative. His Honor was then more explicit, and said to him, "Speak to the jury, sir—the men sitting behind you, on the benches." The witness then turned around and making an awkward bow said, with great gravity of manner, "Good morning, gentlemen!"

A young lady in Berlin, having got hold of a challenge addressed to her lover, dressed herself in male apparel, met the challenger, fought and "winged him on the shoulder. As he had not seen his intended antagonist but once, and that in the night, he did not discover the substitution but was fully satisfied."

DURING an examination, a medical student being asked the question: When does mortification ensue? replied: When you pop the question and are answered No!

THE barber who dressed the head of Baron Rouiere for the Academy Ball, saved the hair out from the Princely head, and has refused several offers of a high price for them.

CALOMEL GIVEN TO COWS.—A correspondent of some Virginia paper says: "I wish you would say to your readers, that calomel in one ounce doses, will cure a cow of almost any disease. At least let me give my experience.—I have two fine, valuable cows; they have had, it seems to me, some of the worst diseases that prevail—tongue murrain, &c, and when I saw they were dying, I mixed one ounce of calomel in dry corn meal, which they lick up, and it has never failed to cure.

DR. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS OF IRON.

AN APERIENT AND STOMACHIC Preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it for restoration of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions, lassitude its unsteady to stomach every concoction, &c. INDIGESTION in all its shapes it has been tried, & has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholic and Spasmodic pains, Scrofulous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Rheumatism, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaint, Chronic Headache, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, &c.

In cases of Chronic Debility, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids in long bed-confine as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly re-appeared in the busy world as if just returns from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very slight instance of this kind are attended of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent consumption, nervousness exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic ailments to air and exercise for which the physician has no means.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds, and no reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old ordeal, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and overheating and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it no remarkably effectual and permanent remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, Incontinence are its concomitants, a single box of these (small) beads Pills has often suffered for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked Diarrhœa, even when advanced to Dysentery, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and resistant lassitude, which generally indicates its slightest Consumption, this remedy has seized the slaves of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrofulous Tuberculosis, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well known liabilities.

The attention of families cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been extensively well reported both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In Intermittent Fevers it cannot reasonably be a speedy remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and truly restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills; price 50 cents, post paid, for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, &c., should be addressed to

is a Constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vice, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the curse of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, it termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently, vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed, of all the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every where prevailing disease. Each bottle is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and SKIN DISEASES, ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, ROSE, or ERYSIPELAS, PIMPLES, PUSTULES, BLOTCHES, BLAINS and BOILS, TUMORS, TETTER and SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RHEUMATISM, SYPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITIATED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

AYER'S

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC,

are so compound that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting the disordered action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and lovable.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache arising from disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice; and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body, or obstruction of its functions.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitates what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While manufacturers remedies thrust upon the community have fallen and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.
