A COWARD AND A BEAR.—In Wilson's Summer Rambles in the Himalayas we find this story:

A man residing in one of the villages near Mussoorie had turned shikaree and bought a single barrel gun to shoot pheasants and partridges for sale in the station. While on a visit to his wife's parents, who resided further in the interior, he went out one day to shoot pheasants in a jungle near the village. Hearing something move in the bushes, he crept towards the place, but instead of a bird, as he expected, it was a large, bear, and it so sooner saw than it rushed at him. Instead of saluting it with a charge of shot, which at such closequarters would probably have killed or at least turned it, he threw himself down with his face to the ground, and suffered the bear to bite him severely in several places. It then left him, and when it had got a little distance he got up and started to run. The bear immediately turned and gave chase, and the man, perfectly paralyzed with fear, again threw himself down with his face to the ground, but this time the bear turned him over and took his face completely away, cheeks, nose, lips, and one eye, leaving him a frightening and sickening object. The man is still alive, and with his skeleton features concealed in a large cotton wrapper, he follows his usual avocations. Fearing that his young wife would decline to live with such an ogre as he now was, he gave some hints of an intention to cut off her nose, and by thus spoiling her beauty prevent any one else from taking her, which so frightened the poor girl that she never would go near him afterward, though declaring she would otherwise have remained with and done all in her power to console him in his affliction.

A FAST YOUNG WOMAN.—For a number of days past the attention of the police has been attracted to a well dressed and rather fastidious appearing young gentleman, who has been stopping at one of our principal hotels for a number of weeks. His peculiar feminine features and walk however caused suspicion, until it was quite a common talk among the police and a few knowing ones. The occupation of the young man as ascertained by the police has been that of a gambler and "sport" around town visiting the race course during the past week, betting freely, and generally the winner, as it well posted. The suspicions of the police were so well confirmed last evening, as to cause the party to be taken in charge by officers Colter and Willett. On arriving at the jail, their suspicions were fully verified by the party's confessing to the charge, stating that it was a woman who stood before them. The assumed name given was that of Charles Halcomb, Jr., she having passed about the town as the son of Charles Halcomb, Esq., the owner of the celebrated race horse "Ethan Allen," and stating that she had been stopping here in the company of Mr. Halcomb ever since the County Fair. A forfeit of $100 was put up for the appearance of the party in court this morning, when further disclosures will doubtless be made. —[Memphis Enquirer.

IODINE A CURE FOR THE BITE OF A RATTLESNAKE.—Judge W. F. M. Arny, who, in connection with his son, had been engaged for the Smithsonian Institute, has written a letter, recommending iodine as a certain cure for the bite of a rattlesnake. He says:

I have usually used a dose of four or five drops upon a lump of sugar, to be taken inwardly by the person bitten—then given a slight cut with a knife or lancet at the place bitten, and saturate it thoroughly with the iodine—and have never known it to fail. The only use for alcoholic liquors, in my estimation, is to preserve them.

☞To Advertisers.—The Pittsburgh DAILY GAZETTE has a large circulation among the business men in this and the surrounding cities—among those who BUY and who SELL—and many manufacturers are to be found in nearly all the counting rooms, store houses, banking houses, hotels, factories and commission houses in the two cities, where it is read and carried home to the families for perusal. As a medium for advertising, therefore, it offers inducements which no other paper in Western Pennsylvania can offer, to all who desire to reach this large class of our citizens. The WEEKLY GAZETTE at the time has a much larger circulation in Western Pennsylvania, Ohio and Virginia, several substantial farmers and merchants than any other secular paper in this section of the State.

☞THE DAILY GAZETTE is the oldest Newspaper in the West, and having an extensive circulation amongst the business men, and reaching all classes, it offers inducements to advertisers as the best medium through which to reach the public.

☞THE WEEKLY GAZETTE is issued every Wednesday and Saturday, on a large blanket sheet, and contains in addition to the news of the week, a carefully prepared and reliable report of the Markets, commercial and monetary affairs—making it the best Commercial Newspaper in the West

DR. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS OF IRON.

AN APERIENT AND STOMACHIC Preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combination in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of iron can be compared with its. Incentives of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and others as sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Immediate in all maladies in which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Incipient Consumption, Scrofulous Tuberculous, Salt Rheum, Blisters—Ulceration, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, &c.

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute diseases or of the confinement of the sick room, or of habitual or irregular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this remedy will be proved successful to an extent which description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have reappeared in the busy world as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic stenzion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds, now so common familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old ordes, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and overheating; and gently, regularly specific, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

In this latter property, among others, which make it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often suffered for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked Diarhœa, even when advanced to Dysentery confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and resultant debility, so frequently indicate the incipient Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarmed friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrofulous Tuberculosis, this medicated iron has had far more than the usual success of the most highly advanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well known liabilities.

The attention of families cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both in alleviating pain and reducing the swelling and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In Intermittent Fevers it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and confidence.

No remedy has ever been discovered in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and truly curative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills; price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation; indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently, vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed, of all the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. Yet eleanse it from the system, we must eradicate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every where prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as Eruptive and Skin Diseases, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Blains and Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Rheumatism, Syphilitic and Mercurial Diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Debility, and, indeed, all Complaints arising from Vitiated or Impure Blood. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC,

are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache arising from disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.
