COM. vs. Mathew Harbison, indicted for embezzlement, on oath of Peter P. Demarest, a merchant of New York city. This case, of which a history was given in the Gazette of yesterday, occupied the attention of the Court all day. The following is a synopsis of the testimony that has been given:

The first witness called was Thomas C. Coleman, of New York, agent for Mr. Demarest; he testified to the execution of a power of attorney from Mr. Demarest to Mathew Harbison, of Pittsburgh, defendant. Witness also produced a copy of the instrument, taken from a book belonging to Mr. Demarest, in New York. The original document had been transferred to the letter book in the ordinary way.

An objection was raised by the counsel for the defence, that the copy was but a copy of a copy of the original, but the Court refused to sustain the objection, and the instrument was offered in evidence.

The witness continued—In July or August of 1856, Mr. Demarest and myself called upon Mr. Harbison, in this city, and had an interview with him. Having revoked the power of attorney to Mr. Bixbey, in 1855, I placed the farm in Robinson township, two locomotives, one hundred and twenty cars, coal railroad, etc., valued at $30,000, in Mr. Harbison's possession, for safe keeping, until such a time as it could be sold.

Witness produced several letters from Harbison in reply to those he (H.) had received. The correspondence was relative to the sale of certain pit cars, and in answer to some threats witness had made, that he would prosecute him (Harbison) if he did not render an account of a sale he had made. In one letter Harbison told him that he (Harbison) had the proceeds of the sale in bank. This, as it was afterwards ascertained, was false. In another letter Harbison said that, the taxes were all paid up till date, (about the 18th of September, 1856,) and that all the interest due had been paid. Harbison had also charged $60 interest that he never paid, and another $60 that witness had paid himself. As to the taxes, Harbison refused to show witness the receipts, and he (witness) had to apply to the tax collectors himself, and found that the taxes had not been paid.

A copy of the account rendered by the defendant was then handed to the Court by the witness. It was dated Sept. 22d, 1856, and exhibited a balance due of $1,650—witness allowing the defendant double commission—$420 instead of $210. Witness testified that he had never received a cent of the balance, and that Harbison had offered to confess a judgment to Demarest for the amount. He (Harbison) stated that they were only $1,800 against his property. The witness subsequently ascertained that Harbison had previously confessed a judgment to J. H. Phillips, for $5,000, and on mentioning this fact to Harbison, was told by the latter that his judgment to Phillips was "bogus," and that he would not stand in the way of the other. He further stated that the New York men had come down on him so heavily that they had frightened him, and asked Coleman to see Phillips about the matter, and it would be made all right. Witness called to see Phillips, and asked him to postpone his judgment in favor of Demarest, if he (Demarest) took one, but he refused.

J. M'Dermott took the stand and testified that he had rented part of the land from defendant to the beginning of 1860, for which he paid one hundred dollars.

James Kelsey, after being sworn, testified that he cropped the Burnside tract in 1857 and 1859. It was said to belonging to Demarest at that time. Witness gave Harbison 150 bushels of oats in 1859, in the payment of the rent for that year, of the land.

John Edmundson, a tax collector in the same township, was placed on the stand, and testified that he had collected the taxes due on Demarest's land, from the defendant.

J. M'Key, collector of taxes in September of this year, testified to giving a receipt in that month to Harbison for $46 60, for taxes on the property.

Several other witnesses testified to receiving taxes on the same land, from the defendant.

The mortgage given by Harbison to J. H. Phillips, was submitted to the Court, after which the Commonwealth rested and the defence began.

Dr. Simcox testified as follows: Besided near defendant in 1855, and until recently; had written many letters for him; some of which were forwarded to T. J. Coleman; was present at an interview between Harbison and Mr. Coleman; they were making a settlement; it took them nearly half a day; the balance made out was something over $1600; (witness identified the account;) there was a discrepancy of some $10 in the account. Mr. Harbison had not an account of the amount of wheat he had got from Kelsey; he had forgotten the amount and had allowed $24 for it; Coleman wanted to know what amount he should allow Harbison on commission, and finally allowed him ten per cent on the amounts footed in the account; Harbison, at the beginning of the interview, said he had no money, and proposed to give his note, with a good indorser; Coleman was willing; he was to get a mortgage of M'Cormick's release for the remainder, and have a year's time on his note; at the time of the settlement told Coleman that there was no lumber who owned two years rent on property for which Harbison accounted for this to Coleman; Harbison was sick in June or July, 1856; he was not out of bed until about the following September; some pit cars were sold to Mr. John Aiken for about $600; a note was given in payment. In June 1857, witness backed a letter to Coleman at Harbison's request, containing a draft for $400; the letter did not say on what account the money was paid; Harbison at one time sent a letter to Coleman, stating he had been offered from $15 to $20 for a number of pit cars; he wished to know whether he could sell or not, and a reply came back that Demarest valued the cars from $25 to $37, but if he thought the price offered a fair one to take it; Harbison sold the cars; witness wrote all the letters that Coleman received from Harbison; he knew Harbison for a good many years; his character for honesty was very good.

Cross-examined.—The person who bought the cars was John Aiken, a butcher of this city; would not say when I wrote the first letter for Mr. Harbison, the defendant, to Demarest; could not tell when the letter went on concluding formation about the sale of the coal cars. The person who did not pay his rent to Mr. Harbison, the agent, was a man named W. Burroughs; the fact was stated in a letter to Mr. Coleman. I thought the fact that others did not pay their rent was also communicated to Mr. Coleman.

John Aiken being sworn, testified that he bought some "pit cars" from Mr. Harbison in 1856; paid him $20 each for them; did not take the cars away for some time after the purchase.

W. Wood being sworn, testified that he had known Mr. Harbison for many years, and always thought him a character for honesty was good.

Alexander M'Nees being sworn, testified that Harbison and Coleman came to his house one night and he accompanied them to the city. Coleman proposed to witness that $5 would take Harbison's note for $600 or $300, due for rent for the first two years; witness declined to take it would be taken out of the last year, unless it was paid.

John Hodgins, Samuel W. Moore, David L. Anderson, Dr. Geo. L. Hays, Henry Ingram, Col. Carothers and J. P. Ross, all testified to Harbison's good character for honesty.

An objection was raised by prosecutor's counsel and sustained by the Court against J. J. Scobenick proving that the property for which defendant acted as agent did not belong to Demarest but to John C. Coleman, and the witness was accordingly withdrawn.

Resolved, That the Board of Trust be instructed by this convention to enter into no legal obligation with the citizens of Chillicothe until after the endowment fund of ($50,000) is raised. The following persons were appointed a committee to secure said endowment: Revs. J. J. White, J. Hicks, J. M. Johnston, W. Henkle, D. Hissey.

The following resolutions were offered and adopted:

Resolved, That we recommend the organization of Educational Societies in all our churches for the purpose of procuring means to assist poor but worthy young men in preparing for the work of the ministry in the M. P. Church.

Resolved, That Revs. W. Collier, J. Scott, W. Beeves be appointed a committee to prepare a uniform plan for the organization and government of said societies.

The following was adopted:

WHEREAS, The Convention of 1858 did authorize the compiling of a new Hymn Book, which duty was principally performed by Rev Dr. Brown, of which the 3d edition is now being published. Then follow resolutions approving and recommending the book as a suitable one for public and social worship, and requesting the members to purchase copies of the same forthwith.

An interesting and able Sunday School Report was presented and adopted. The report recommended the "Missionary and Sunday School Journal," published and edited by Rev Dr. Collier, as a suitable periodical for the Sunday Schools of the M. P. Church.

Quite a lengthy report on Missions was presented and adopted. The committee recommended an appropriation of $1000 to Nebraska Mission, and that Rev. J. M. Young be continued in the station of the Board. Carried.

The following names were appointed members of the Board of Missions: J. Scott, W. Collier, D. D., W. Cowl, J. D. Herr, H. Lucas, ministers; W. Henderson, W. Miller, J. Redmon, P. A. Rinehart, S. Horner, W. B. English, R. M. Marshall, laymen.

The Committee on the Future Policy of the Church reported, which led to a spirited and protracted discussion. The reports says: Our future policy seems to require the calling of a Convention with full powers to legislate upon the Constitution and Discipline of the Church. It is therefore submitted that this Convention recommend to the Annual Conferences of the M. P. Church Association to concur.

First—In the call of a Convention to meet at Cincinnati (Sixth Street Church) on the first Wednesday of November, 1862, which shall have full power to legislate upon the Constitution and Discipline of the Church.

Second—It is recommended to said Conferences to be governed by the same ratio of representation which constitutes the basis of representation to this body, to wit: one minister and one layman for every 1000 within the District, &c.

Third—Said Convention shall also have power to make any resolutions necessary in relation to the publishing interests at Springfield, O.; and to elect the Editor and Book Agent.

Resolutions, Instructions to Literary and Publishing Society, publication of Minutes, thanks to citizens, officers, &c., were adopted.

Convention continued in session until nearly one o'clock Tuesday morning, when it adjourned sine die.

SHOPLIFTER COMMITTED FOR TRIAL.—Simeon Buckhardt, whose arrest on Monday night, for larceny, we have already mentioned, had a hearing before Mayor Wilson yesterday morning. He acknowledged the theft, and was committed for trial. There have been no less than three additional informations made against him. One by a variety storekeeper on Market st., named John C. M'Collough, charging him with the larceny of 11 cravats, worth $5 50; one from a man named J. W. Carnahan, who keeps a shoe store on the same street, and one from Geo. R. Adams, book keeper for Messrs. Eaton, Cree & M'Crum, on Fifth street, charging him with the larceny of a port monnaie worth 87½ cents.

When Buckhardt was arrested by the officer, which was after a desperate resistance, he said the stolen articles had done him no good, as he had given them all away, as afterwards proved to be. He is the only son of a widowed mother who lives in lower St. Clair st.

LUNACY.—Augustus Decker, the man who was shot in Lawrenceville, last summer, by Mr. Hutchinson, for insulting his family, has, since his recovery, at times shown symptoms of insanity, which lately have alarmed his family very much. Within a few days past he became so violent that it was found necessary to remove him to the Western Hospital, for medical treatment, which was accomplished on Monday afternoon. When policeman Sheffer and Matters undertook to take him to the carriage to convey him there, they met with a desperate resistance, but eventually succeeded in their object.

TAIL SHOOTIG.—We were shown yesterday a small target, 3½ inches in circumference, in which 10 rifle balls had been put, at a distance of 90 yards. The shots were made in Snyder's Hollow, by an engineer on the P. Ft. W. & C. Railroad, with a rifle manufactured in this city. The measurement of the shots, by string measure, was 14 inches; but what makes the matter more marvellous, was the fact, that not one shot missed, each one striking the target, in regular order.

MESSRS. HUNT & MIDDLETON have received Harper's Monthly, for December. "Messrs in Syria" is a comprehensive and graphic narrative. Its pages are full of stirring details of Druse and Turkish warfare against the Christians, and it is also rich in matters concerning the barbarous tribes of fanatical sects of Syria. It is just the book that everybody wants to read at the present time.

The London Quarterly has also been received and is for sale at Hunt & Miner's.

AID FOR THE KANSAS SUFFERERS.—A public meeting, for which a call has been issued, was held at the Board of Trade Rooms on Monday afternoon for the purpose of taking measures in common with other cities in the country for procuring funds for the sufferers by the famine in Kansas.

The meeting was organized by calling Hon. George Wilson to preside, and J. B. Aojter was chosen Secretary.

On motion a committee was appointed, consisting of Messrs. Thomas Bakewell, Josiah King, Joshua Hanna, G. B. Bryan and Aaron Floyd, who are empowered to appoint sub-committees of two for each ward in the two cities, and for the adjoining boroughs, to solicit aid for the relief of the sufferers in Kansas.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—A man named James Laughlin, employed as a rudier in Shoenberger's rolling mill, made an information before Ald Jones, of the Fifth ward, yesterday, against his boarding house keeper, who is a German, named Christian Schaffer, and lives on Liberty street, charging him with knocking him, (Laughlin) down several times with his fist. Defendant was held to answer the charge at Court.

ROBBERY.—A complaint was made at the Mayor's office last evening by Sophia Karl, charging a stranger who had been in in her beer saloon, with the larceny of $200 in gold, from the till, and a gold watch worth $50. The man has not yet been arrested.

INQUEST.—Coroner Bostwick yesterday held an inquest on the remains of the German boy, Ambrose Haun, who was killed Monday afternoon in Hays' Coal Yard, near the canal basin, by a heavy chain falling on his head. The jury examined several witnesses, after which they rendered a verdict of "accidental death."

THEATRE.—Do not fail to witness "Our American Cousin at Home," to night, if you would dispel all care for at least one evening.

AUGUSTA, GA., Nov. 20.—The largest meeting ever held in Green county, Georgia, was convened in the Court House on Friday last. The most influential men participated. Resolutions were adopted by a most unanimous vote of a conservative character. They urge the call of a State Convention of all parties to calmly consider the evils which at present threaten the destruction of the National Union; appeal to the people of the Union to discard the counsels of agitating politicians and demagogues of all sections, and rally to the support of an imperilled government. Politicians, they say, instead of allowing the country to be ruined by their quarrels, must lay aside their private feelings of both sections, and now fall themselves in a fierce controversy which they had no hand in bringing on. A large meeting in Hancock county, in Middle Georgia, adopted resolutions and conservative resolutions, denying that the election of Lincoln was a cause for dissolution, but declaring that the unfriendly legislation of many of the free States was a violation of the compact of the Union, and denounced a resistance.

A majority of the counties have held meetings in favor of secession. Many, however, have been strongly conservative. In favor of retaliatory legislation while all favor a State Convention, and all oppose the coercion of the seceding States.

A meeting held in Bryan co. declared that no northern business men or others should hereafter be permitted to operate in their section and their present business and fishing should be notified to leave.

FORT KEARNEY, Nov. 20.—The coach of the C. C. & P. P. Express, leaving Denver on the morning of the 15th, passed here at noon to-day. Among the passengers is Col. Jo. Boon. By the arrival we have the following:—Denver, 10th, 8 o'clock a. m.—Last week the St. Louis quarts mill took from 4 cords of quarts $987. The quarts was from the Bob Tail Lead. Parties are still leaving this city for the mythical San Juan mines, but the stampede is slight.

Yesterday, about 1 o'clock p. m., the foundation wall in J. B. Doyle & Co.'s large warehouse settled suddenly, causing a general shaking of the upper floors above, and the roof. The crash was a serious one, but fortunately no one was injured.

A correspondent of a personal nature is going on through the Denver press, between Judge Jacob Downing and James T. Colmas, of the Daily Mountaineer. A hostile meeting is expected, but it is hoped that the affair may be settled otherwise.

The message of Gov. Steele to the Provisional Legislature is published in the paper of this city. It recommends, among other things, that the people unite in memorializing Congress for a territorial government.

Snow storms are now of almost daily occurrence and winter has fairly set in in the mountain regions. The weather here is blustering with occasional falls of snow.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—About $100,000 worth of bills were taken to-day by the Bank Committee, who will hold daily sessions until the entire $500,000 are received. The regular drawers rates to-day were 104 @ 106. Heavy discounts were done by the banks to-day, but paper article is still nearly unsaleable.

Nearly full returns from the State show the majority against negro suffrage to be about 112,000.

Mr. J. H. Wade, director of the Western Union Telegraph Company will leave for San Francisco in to-morrow's steamer, to make arrangements for constructing the California end of the Pacific Telegraph line. Two agents have already started for the Plains by a different route to make through surveys. The materials for the line have been purchased, and are now shipping at Boston to go out via Cape Horn. The work on all parts of the route will be vigorously commenced in the spring.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 20.—Three men, named Dr. Martin H. Keadig, Henry L. Keadig and P. A. Fitzgerald, have been arrested on the charge of swindling. They traded under the name of Jas. C. Hutchison & Co., and have flooded the country with circulars, promising a valuable distribution of jewelry for a small amount of money. Their circulars referred to Gov. Packer, Mayor Henry and other distinguished persons, for character. It has been ascertained that they did an extensive business and made a clear profit of all the money coming in.—Mayor Henry is justly indignant at the use of his name, and will deal rigidly with the offenders.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 20.—The steamer Emigrant was burned at Dozier's Landing, in the Missouri river, yesterday morning. The boat and cargo is a total loss. The boat was valued at $10,000; uninsured. The value of the cargo is not ascertained. Private dispatches from Cairo state that the Louisville and New Orleans packet Memphis was burned at Uniontown Sunday evening. Captain Lamb is reported lost. No particulars.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 20.—Gov. Moore will convene the Louisiana Legislature on the 10th of December.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 20.—The river is falling with 7 feet 5 inches water in the Canal.

SHINGLES.—The shingle market is very dull just now, and prices have a declining tendency. This decline is attributed by a great many to the supply being more than equal to the demand, but the real cause may be found in the fact that the demand is not so great as in former years, shingle roofs not being thought of when "Groggon's celebrated Asphalt Roofing Felt" can be obtained. The agent for this excellent material can be found at his office, Laughlin's building, Canal bank, near the City Water Works.

INFANTILE CORDIAL.—We would respectfully call particular attention to the advertisement of Messrs. Cochran & Bro., entitled "a Wonder." The INFANTILE CORDIAL of DR. HAYNE is a medicine of great celebrity, and the standing of its manufacturers will be a sufficient guarantee of the care taken in its preparation, and its unerring purity. The "SLOID FOOD" is for a class of diseases unfortunately very prevalent in this vicinity, and the attention invited should secure a ready sale. Wholesale of (Cochran) Journal.

Sold by all druggists, or may be had of GEO. E. KEYSER Agent, 140 Wood st., Pittsburgh, Pa. Certificates of Agency, and Pamphlets of Properties.

ALL should not fail to read the advertisement of Prof. Wood, in to-day's paper.

[Reported especially for the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

FRIDAY, NOV. 21, 1860.

Business was a little better than on Monday, but it was still languid and inactive and the sales of the week were generally in the small way. This is attributed to a great extent to the excited and unsettled condition of the money market. The general feeling, however, prevailing among our business men is that in the course of a week or two days, a better state of things may be looked for.

BEANS.—Sales of 25 bush Small White at 90c per bush.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

The Money market to-day shows no improvement in paper. Rates are rather higher, and it is just as difficult to make good business. Money-lenders are either hoarding or using their money in stocks; at any rate, they have nearly the greater portion of it locked up somewhere, while borrowers, even the best of them, are compelled to pay from 1 to 2 per cent. per month interest. Prime business paper of short dates have been passed to day at 12 ₰ cent., which is a few points lower than for some days past. Paper, however, of long dates which three months ago would freely sell at 6@7 ₰ cent. are offered without buyers, at 18@21 ₰ cent. On demand, money is 1 ₰ cent., and very scarce.

The Atlantic to-day took $70,000 in California bars for shipment to Europe. This gold was sent to the south, mostly, we understand, to Baltimore. From Boston there are still some moderate amounts coming. Land warrants are very dull and nominally 60@70c per acre. Bounty land is very active, and the rates for Western are high. Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa &c. bank notes are selling at 10 ₰ cent; buying at 9 ₰ cent; Southern 3 to 10 ₰ cent.

The following is a comparative statement of the value of exports from the commencement of the year to Nov. 15:

ST. LOUIS.—per Bostona—87 shs cigars bbls, G N Hough; 37 bars steel, Burke & Brother; 2 crates scraps, Howard section ignorant of the patriotic Conservative, and Catholic feelings of the other. They have been mutually exasperated by the repeated assaults of hungry office-seekers of both sections, and now find themselves in a fierce controversy which they had no hand in bringing on. A large meeting in Hancock county, in Middle Georgia, adopted resolutions and conservative resolutions, denying that the election of Lincoln was a cause for dissolution, but declaring that the unfriendly legislation of many of the free States was a violation of the compact of the Union, and denounced a resistance.

A majority of the counties have held meetings in favor of secession. Many, however, have been strongly conservative. In favor retaliatory legislation while all favor a State Convention, and all oppose the coercion of the seceding States.

A meeting held in Bryan co. declared that no northern business men or others should hereafter be permitted to operate in their section and their present business and fishing should be notified to leave.

FORT KEARNEY, Nov. 20.—The coach of the C. C. & P. P. Express, leaving Denver on the morning of the 15th, passed here at noon to-day. Among the passengers is Col. Jo. Boon. By the arrival we have the following:—Denver, 10th, 8 o'clock a. m.—Last week the St. Louis quarts mill took from 4 cords of quarts $987. The quarts was from the Bob Tail Lead. Parties are still leaving this city for the mythical San Juan mines, but the stampede is slight.

Yesterday, about 1 o'clock p. m., the foundation wall in J. B. Doyle & Co.'s large warehouse settled suddenly, causing a general shaking of the upper floors above, and the roof. The crash was a serious one, but fortunately no one was injured.

A correspondent of a personal nature is going on through the Denver press, between Judge Jacob Downing and James T. Colmas, of the Daily Mountaineer. A hostile meeting is expected, but it is hoped that the affair may be settled otherwise.

The message of Gov. Steele to the Provisional Legislature is published in the paper of this city. It recommends, among other things, that the people unite in memorializing Congress for a territorial government.

Snow storms are now of almost daily occurrence and winter has fairly set in in the mountain regions. The weather here is blustering with occasional falls of snow.

Messrs. Edward Creighton and W. R. Stebbins, general agents respectively of the Pacific and Mississippi Telegraph Companies left here this afternoon for Salt Lake thoroughly and make contracts for the construction of the lines as far as Jalesburg early in the Spring.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—About $100,000 worth of bills were taken to-day by the Bank Committee, who will hold daily sessions until the entire $500,000 are received. The regular drawers rates to-day were 104 @ 106. Heavy discounts were done by the banks to-day, but paper article is still nearly unsaleable.

Nearly full returns from the State show the majority against negro suffrage to be about 112,000.

Mr. J. H. Wade, director of the Western Union Telegraph Company will leave for San Francisco in to-morrow's steamer, to make arrangements for constructing the California end of the Pacific Telegraph line. Two agents have already started for the Plains by a different route to make through surveys. The materials for the line have been purchased, and are now shipping at Boston to go out via Cape Horn. The work on all parts of the route will be vigorously commenced in the spring.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 20.—Three men, named Dr. Martin H. Keadig, Henry L. Keadig and P. A. Fitzgerald, have been arrested on the charge of swindling. They traded under the name of Jas. C. Hutchison & Co., and have flooded the country with circulars, promising a valuable distribution of jewelry for a small amount of money. Their circulars referred to Gov. Packer, Mayor Henry and other distinguished persons, for character. It has been ascertained that they did an extensive business and made a clear profit of all the money coming in.—Mayor Henry is justly indignant at the use of his name, and will deal rigidly with the offenders.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 20.—The steamer Emigrant was burned at Dozier's Landing, in the Missouri river, yesterday morning. The boat and cargo is a total loss. The boat was valued at $10,000; uninsured. The value of the cargo is not ascertained. Private dispatches from Cairo state that the Louisville and New Orleans packet Memphis was burned at Uniontown Sunday evening. Captain Lamb is reported lost. No particulars.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Nov. 20.—A large meeting was held here last night, and strong secession resolutions were unanimously passed. Other counties have also held meetings on the same subject.—Corps of minute men are rapidly forming, and there seems to be but one party here now.

FAYETTEVILLE, Va., Nov. 20.—The Legislature of North Carolina organized yesterday. W. D. Dortch, of Wayne county, was elected Speaker of the House and B. L. Clarke, of Edgworth, Speaker of the Senate. There was no excitement.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 20.—The Commissioners of the sinking fund to-day opened the bids for the sale of $100,000 of the State loan and allotted the whole sum to Charles McAllister the lowest bidder, at 42 to 47.

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 20.—Two or three suspensions of flour and grain firms have occurred here, and business is very dull to-day.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 20.—Gov. Moore will convene the Louisiana Legislature on the 10th of December.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 20.—The river is falling with 7 feet 5 inches water in the Canal.

SHINGLES.—The shingle market is very dull just now, and prices have a declining tendency. This decline is attributed by a great many to the supply being more than equal to the demand, but the real cause may be found in the fact that the demand is not so great as in former years, shingle roofs not being thought of when "Groggon's celebrated Asphalt Roofing Felt" can be obtained. The agent for this excellent material can be found at his office, Laughlin's building, Canal bank, near the City Water Works.

INFANTILE CORDIAL.—We would respectfully call particular attention to the advertisement of Messrs. Cochran & Bro., entitled "a Wonder." The INFANTILE CORDIAL of DR. HAYNE is a medicine of great celebrity, and the standing of its manufacturers will be a sufficient guarantee of the care taken in its preparation, and its unerring purity. The "SLOID FOOD" is for a class of diseases unfortunately very prevalent in this vicinity, and the attention invited should secure a ready sale. Wholesale of (Cochran) Journal.

Sold by all druggists, or may be had of GEO. E. KEYSER Agent, 140 Wood st., Pittsburgh, Pa. Certificates of Agency, and Pamphlets of Properties.

ALL should not fail to read the advertisement of Prof. Wood, in to-day's paper.

PROF. WOOD'S

Restorative Cordial AND BLOOD RENOVATOR

IS PRECISELY WHAT ITS NAME INDICATES.—for while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating and strengthening to the vital power. It also revivifies, refunctates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease.

It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so per
