U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.—Judges Grier and McCandless on the Bench.

Robert E. Rockmuth vs. The City of Pittsburgh. This case still on trial, and the Court adjourned the jury over till this morning to give the counsel of the parties time to draw up their points in writing before the jury is charged by the Court.

John Campbell vs. Henry Wolfoul. This is an action of debt on a note under seal, given for sheep to a citizen of the State of Vermont; and the defence alleges that the sheep were diseased and the note was obtained by false representations. On trial.

FEDERAL COURT.—Chief Justice Lowrie and Judges Woodward, Thompson, Read and Strong on the Bench.

Wednesday, Nov. 21st, 1860.—Court met at 9 a. m.

John Warren vs. The Commonwealth. Berks. Submitted by Richards, Hennershoby and Wick, nonbery for plaintiff in error, and by Bechtel & Young contra.

Lawrenceville and Sharpsburg Plank Road Company vs. The Citizens Passenger Railway Company. Motion for a Preliminary Injunction. Affidavits read by Marshall for complainants, and by Rippey contra. Motion refused.

Eley & Peterson, Allegheny; D. C. Argued by Hamilton for plaintiff in error, and by D. W. Bell contra.

Eldred vs. Haslett's Administrators. Allegheny; D. C. Argued by G. F. Hamilton for plaintiff in error, and by Shannon, contra.

Court adjourned at 12 o'clock for consultation.

COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS.—Before Judges Mellon, Adams and Parke.

Wednesday, November 21st.—The case of the Commonwealth vs. Mathew Harbison, indicted for embezzlement, on oath of Peter P. Demarest, a commission merchant in New York, was brought to a conclusion about 11½ o'clock, and the jury, after being charged by Judge Mellon, retired.

Com. vs. Wm. Timmy, indicted for illegal liquor selling, on oath of a policeman in the 6th ward. The jury, finding the defendant guilty, the Court imposed a fine of $10 and costs on him.

Com. vs. Charles Dougherty, indicted for larceny, on oath of Margaret Walker. The defendant was accused of stealing some bed clothes worth $8 from the house of the prosecutor, in the 6th ward. The evidence was conclusive as to the prisoner's guilt, and a verdict of guilty was accordingly rendered by the jury.

Com. vs. Michael Keefe, indicted for perjury, on oath of John Woods, a tavern keeper in the 21 ward. The case originated out of a suit which Keefe brought against the prosecutor before Alderman Taylor, charging him with the larceny of some clothing. This Woods denied, and brought the present suit against Keefe for false swearing.

The prosecutor, being sworn, was placed on the stand and testified that Keefe and a woman who had formerly lived with him (prosecutor) as a servant, rented a room from and boarded with him in July last. The woman not paying her rent, he compelled her to leave. In revenge, Keefe went to Aldermat Taylor's and made an information charging him (witness) with the larceny of a lot of clothing belonging to him (Keefe.)

Cross examination.—The witness testified that he kept a tavern on the corner of Grant and Water streets, in the Second ward; defendant left the house on the first of August; on the third day of the same month, witness was sued by Keefe for trover and conversion. The next day witness sued defendant for perjury, before the same Alderman. A policeman arrested Keefe the same evening, and he was sent to jail.

Ald. Taylor was placed on the stand and testified that on the 28th of July, Keefe complained that his landlord, Woods, had clothing of his in his possession, which he (Woods) refused to give up. About a week afterwards, Keefe sued Woods for trover and conversion, before witness.

J. T. Jones was placed on the stand, but his testimony, beyond convulsing the spectators with laughter, at the queer way in which he gave it, was of no account.

No witnesses were produced for the defence but Mr. Franklin. Defendant's counsel addressed the jury at some length, first reading the indictment against his client. Mr. Meredith then closed for the prosecution, after which the jury were charged and retired. They soon returned and brought in a verdict of not guilty.

ALLEGED PICKPOCKETS ARRESTED.—Francis Ward, a stranger in this city, yesterday morning made an information before Mayor Wilson against two men named Edward Moorhead and John Flood, supposed to be pickpockets, charging them with robbing him of $40 on Tuesday night. From the story of Ward, who by the way hails from Ohio, it appears that he met the alleged Chevaliers d' Industrie, on Liberty street, about 12 o'clock that night. Moorhead walked up to him very cheerfully and without an introduction, asked him to go into John Savage's saloon, near the Central Railroad Depot, and "treat." Francis Ward being what our friend (and perhaps his relative) Artemus Ward would call a "talented drinker," consented. They went in and "took a goblet of the rosy" (i. e. cold gin and water.) When the trio came out, the unfortunate Francis Ward found himself minus his pocket book, which contained, according to the information at the Mayor's office, three ten dollar bills on the American Bank of Rhode Island, and two five dollar bills on the Commonwealth Bank of Philadelphia. Looking for his "friends" to tell them of his loss, he found they had vamoosed.

The police receiving a description of the two men, succeeded in arresting them about twelve o'clock yesterday. Moorhead was committed for a hearing this morning, but Floyd gave bail and was discharged. The latter gives the following account of the affair, which, if it can be proved, will at once acquit him of the serious charge that is now against him. He says that that he met Ward at Savage's, and that after a short conversation about card playing in general, and the fascinating game of "poker" in particular, he told him that he had won some forty-three dollars that evening from a man at the "International" saloon, and that he had four hundred dollars more, which he could take if he had any one to assist him. He then proposed to the accused to go with him to the "International;" but it was almost one o'clock, and the latter, on the plea that it was too late, refused. Ward subsequently treated the accused, and while they were drinking Moorhead came in.—The latter and Ward had some conversation, and left soon after, and this was the last the other saw of them.

FLEETANT MUSTERING HIS RECRUITS.—This magnificent engraving, together with the Cosmopolitan Art Journal for a year, a season ticket of admittance to the Gallery of Paintings, and a chance in the drawing for several hundred valuable paintings and works of art, for only three dollars; and for every two dollars additional paid by members of the Cosmopolitan Association entitles them to a beautiful $10 engraving, such as "Shakspeare and his Friends" or the "Village Blacksmith," an additional chance in the drawing and a season ticket of admission to the gallery of paintings. Books are now open for subscriptions, at Hunt & Miner's.

BAYARD TAYLOR.—This well known traveler will deliver one lecture, to-morrow evening, at Concert Hall. He is a keen observer and an impassioned speaker. He usually speaks extemporaneously, and with great effect, sometimes thrilling his audience with a fine poetic description, or startling it by an original thought, always carrying the attention forward with a fervor that no amount of hospitality or sleepiness could resist. We shall be much mistaken if Concert Hall is not filled to its utmost capacity.

TWO HORSES STOLEN.—The Indiana (Penna.) American says:—On the night of the 15th inst., two horses were stolen from Mr. Robt. Phillips, of Centre tp. One is a dark brown horse, six years old, 16 hands, tail a little short, and is a rough trotter; the other is a bright sorrel, six years old, 15 hands high, white face, tail short, and rocks under the saddle. A reward of fifty dollars is offered for the recovery of the horses, and the arrest and detention of the thief or thieves.

ROBBER ARRESTED.—The Central police yesterday arrested the man who robbed the saloon of Sophia Karl, Tuesday night, of two hundred dollars and a gold watch. He was found in Mary Berk's boyse on Elm street, in the Sixth ward, and proved to be a character well known to the police, named Jacob Henry. Most of the missing property was found on him at the time of his arrest. He was committed for a further hearing.

CITY MORTALITY.—The following is the report of Dr. A. G. Murdoch, Physician for the Board of Health, of the mortality in the city from November 5th to November 13th, 1860:

Adults, 1; Children, 7; Males, 3; Females 4; White, 7; Colored, 1; Total, 8.

SURRENDERED.—The work of paving Butler st., Lawrenceville, has been suspended for the season. The street is bouldered now to a point a little beyond the railway passenger station, and will be completed next year.

THEATRE.—"Our American Cousin" and "Our American Cousin at Home, or Lord Dundreary Abroad," will both be performed this evening.

NOTICE.—The Monongahela Insurance Company has declared a dividend of three per cent. on the capital stock, payable to the stockholders or their legal representatives on demand.

OIL INTELLIGENCE.—One-sixth of the Hoover oil wells near Franklin, has been sold for $15,400 to a gentleman from New York. Colonel Hoover refuses to sell his interests at any such rate. The well holds good at from 40 to 50 barrels daily.

We hear it rumored that oil has been discovered at the State Road Ripple, some eight miles above Clarion. The Streatarevillians are in high hopes of finding the grease in paying quantities.

One day last week no less than thirteen hundred barrels of coal oil arrived at the levee, above the St. Clair Suspension Bridge, from the great oil country at the head of the Allegheny. One thousand barrels came down on flats and three hundred by steamer. Four hundred and fifty barrels were sent to Boston and one hundred to Cincinnati.

A new well, opened by a company in Franklin, is producing thirty-three barrels per day.

The great well at Tidioute, Warren county, owned by Hegenbaugh, produces, when pumped, thirty barrels per day. The pump is stopped on Saturday night, and on Sunday it flows all day of its own motion. The oil produced on the Sabbath is donated to a Presbyterian congregation in the vicinity.

The Philadelphia Bulletin of yesterday in speaking of the oil region, says:

Rock oil is now worth about 28 cents per gallon. There is no doubt that this oil business is something real and permanent. Men of capital from the east are coming in with their money, and investing it. Several old time whalemen from New Bedford, Massachusetts, who formerly followed the sea, have recently bought land in the vicinity of Tidioute. The price of lands is held at a high figure, and we believe nothing has occurred to check the tide of success which has attended this great and novel discovery. The oil business will be of immense advantage to Pittsburgh, in a commercial point of view.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—A fireman on a freight train on the Central Pennsylvania Railroad, named John Sloss, was run over and instantly killed this side of Altoona, Tuesday morning, by the express train coming west. Being necessitated to go to one of the rear cars of the train he was on for some purpose, Sloss jumped off the locomotive on the side track. The express train came thundering along on the same track, and before he had time to get out of the way he was knocked down under the wheels and killed. His remains were brought to the city yesterday morning, and taken to his home on Penn street, in the Fifth ward. He leaves a wife and four children.

GONE TO EUROPE.—It is now generally supposed that Bernard Lauth, the young man who shot the notorious Jack Kunsler, last Saturday night, in Birmingham, has left the city and gone to England, where his father is. The police have been unable to discover any trace of him, beyond the fact that he had not left Birmingham up to 6 o'clock Sunday night. Kunsler was buried Tuesday afternoon. His remains were attended to the grave by a large number of his friends.

HEARING.—The counterfeiters who were recently arrested near New Castle, had a hearing yesterday afternoon, about 4 o'clock, before U. S. Commissioner Bailey, the result of which was that the two Cunninghams were committed for trial, and Bannon and the Brighton hotel keeper, the latter charged with "uttering" the spurious notes, were remanded for a further hearing this morning.

CROSS SUITS.—James Laughlin, the puddler in Shoenberger's rolling mill, who sued Christian Snaffer, a Liberty street boarding house keeper, for assault and battery, Tuesday afternoon, had he compliment returned yesterday by the latter, who sued him before Alderman Jones, of the Lawrenceville district, for larceny. Laughlin gave bail and was released.

SHINGLES.—The shingle market is very dull just now, and prices have a declining tendancy. This decline is attributed by a great many to the supply being more than equal to the demand, but the real cause may be found in the fact that the demand is not so great as in former years, shingle roofs not being thought of when "Groggon's celebrated Asphalt Roofing Felt" can be obtained. The agent for this excellent material can be found at his office, Laughlin's building, Canal bank, near the city Water Works.

INFANTILE CORDIAL.—We would request particular attention to the advertisement of Messrs. CRUMB & DUNBAR, addressed to "Mothers." The INFANTILE CORDIAL of Drs. Crumb & Dunbar is a medicine of celebrity, and the standing of its manufacturers will be a sufficient guarantee of its care taken in its preparation, and its unerring purity. The "BLOOD FOOD" is for a class of diseases unfortunately very prevalent in this vicinity, and for which reputable remedies are seldom offered. Wilkinsville (Ohio) Journal.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 21.—Mr. Lincoln was serenaded last night, and made the following speech:

Friends and Fellow Citizens: Please excuse me on this occasion, from making a speech. I thank you, in common with all those who have thought fit, by their votes, to endorse the Republican cause. (Applause.) I rejoice with you in the success which has so far attended that cause. (Applause.) Yet in our rejoicings let us neither express nor cherish any hard feelings towards any citizen who by his vote has differed with us. (Loud cheering.) Let us at all times remember that all American citizens are brothers of a common country, and should dwell together in the bonds of fraternal feeling. (Immense applause.) Let me again beg you to accept my thanks, and to excuse me from further speaking at this time.

Senator Trumbull followed in a long speech, which is taken as a refusal of Lincoln's views. He said Mr. Lincoln, although the candidate of the Republican party, as Chief Magistrate, will neither belong to that or any other party. When inaugurated he will be the President of the country, and of the whole country, and I doubt not will be as ready to defend and protect the State in which he has not received a solitary vote, against any encroachment upon its constitutional rights, as he would the one in which he has received the largest majority. I regard it as extremely fortunate for the peace of the whole country that the triumph upon which the Republicans have been so long and so persistently misrepresented is now to be brought to a practical test and placed beyond the possibility of a doubt. It should be a matter of rejoicing to all true Republicans, that they will now have an opportunity of demonstrating to their political adversaries and to the world that they are not for interfering with the domestic institutions of any of the States, for the advocates of universal equality or of amalgamation, with which political demagogues have so often charged them. Secession is an impracticability; the constitution provides no way by which a State may withdraw from the Union, and so way for the dissolution of the Government it creates. The general government interferes but little with the individual rights of the citizens, except for protection. It is charged with its benefits and its blessings, but its exactions. If every federal officer in South Carolina were to resign, their offices would remain vacant, and its legislature declare the State out of the Union, it would amount to little, except to inconvenience the citizens of the State. So long as the State did not interfere with the collection of the revenue on the seaboard, the people in other portions would not be in the least incommoded.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 21.—The Inquirer publishes an important letter from Gov. Letcher in reply to a letter from John S. Bribble, of Pennsylvania, indicating secession, and stating that 200 Virginians had arrived in the command in which Bribble is serving. The Governor in reply administers a severe rebuke to Northern nullification and shows that the dereliction on the part of the North is the cause of the present trouble. He advises them to correct public sentiment at home, and discharge their constitutional obligations. He indicates his determination to defend the State and stand as mediator—an armed mediator if necessary, between the Southern States and their assailants, come from what quarters they may. The letter created quite a sensation here.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 21.—The Farmers Bank of Virginia suspended specie payment to-day, and resolved to pursue a course of policy to conduce to an early resumption. The other banks of the State will follow the same plan, as a prudential measure during the present pressure.

RICHMOND, Va. Nov. 21.—All the Richmond and Petersburg banks have suspended specie payments.

BOSTON, Nov. 21.—The Faculty of Harvard College suspended nine students of the Sophomore class to-day, for an attack upon two freshmen. Among those suspended are A. G. Hazeltine of Philadelphia, and J. T. Kilbrath, of Cincinnati.

The machine shop of Manchely's cotton factory was burned last night.

A fire at Laconia, N. H., destroyed 25 buildings, including the Cerro Gordo House, the Post-Office, the Telegraph Office and two newspaper offices. Loss $100,000.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—The currency panic to-day is said to be equal to that of 1857. All banks south of Washington are discounted at the rate of 20 and 25 per cent; Illinois and Wisconsin money 15 per cent.

The Evening Post says that the Presidents of the leading banks are discussing a project to relieve the community by issuing scrip based on bills receivable, United States stocks and their approved collaterals to pass the liquidation of bills to each other, the scrip to bear 7 per cent.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Nov. 21.—The conservative sentiment of the South appears to be disgusted at the incressed sectional wranglas which now so seriously disturb the political and commercial States of the country. It considers that the Northern States should promptly disavows their Legislatures and repeal all unfriendly laws on their statute books, and urge a convention of all the States to make a prompt and united effort to preserve the Union and the country from bankruptcy, anarchy and ruin.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Nov. 21.—Both branches of the Georgia legislature have unanimously passed the bill to call a State Convention.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 21.—A meeting of the Bank Presidents of Baltimore was held to-day, and it was resolved to suspend specie payment to-morrow morning.

The steamer, which sailed for Charleston to-day took charge of a large cargo of Baltimore manufactures for the Macon, Georgia fair.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 21.—It is reported that several more banks have suspended to-day.

Meetings are being held in Texas calling on the Governor to convene the legislature to consider the proper method of vindicating the rights and honor of Texas.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 21.—Eleven persons thus far have been ascertained as lost by the burning of the Pacific, mostly boat hands and deck passengers. There were no Northern men among the lost.

OSWEGO, N. Y. Nov. 21.—The Huron flour mill was destroyed by fire last night. Loss 45,000; insurance $20,000.

PROF. WOOD'S

Restorative Cordial AND BLOOD RENOVATOR

IS PRECISELY WHAT ITS NAME INDICATES—for while pleasant to the taste, it is very DYING, exhilarating and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, reinstates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. Scientifically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted to us to act in perfect accordance with the laws of Nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet it is never followed by lassitude or depression and sprits. It is composed entirely of vegetables and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, both by the thoroughly skilled in medical science and also by all who have suffered from debility; for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that debility follows all attacks of disease and lays the wasended system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is constantly liable. Such, for example, as the following: consumption, bronchitis, indigestion, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, faintness, nervous irritability, neuralgia, palpitation of the heart, melancholy hypocondria, night sweats, leucorrhœa, giddiness, and all that class of cases so fearfully fatal if continued to in time, called female weaknesses or irregularities. Also, liver derangements or torpidity, and liver complaints, diseases of the kidneys, scalding or incontinence of the urine, or any general derangement of the urinary organs, pain in the back, side and between the shoulders, predisposition to night colds, hacking and continued cough, sneezing, difficulty of breathing, and indeed we might enumerate many more still, but we have space only to say, it will not only cure the debility following chills and fevers, but prevent all attacks arising from miasmatic influences, and cure the diseases at once, if already attacked. And as it acts directly and persistently upon the biliary system, arousing the liver to action, promoting, in fact, all the secretions and excretions of the system, it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following upon changes of climate and water; hence, all travelers should have a bottle with them, and all should take a table spoonful at least before eating. As it prevents contagious, strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits, students, ministers, literary men. And all ladies not accustomed to much out door exercise should always use it. If they will, they will find an agreeable, pleasant and efficient remedy against those ills which rob them of their beauty—for beauty cannot exist without health, and health cannot exist while the above irregularities remain. Then, again, the Cordial is a perfect stomachic relief. Taken a month or two before the final trial, she will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety. There is no mistake about it—the Cordial is all we claim for it. Ask your friends to try it! And to you we appeal to detect the fitness of things not only in your own case, but in your children's, and also your sons and husbands; for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to premature graves rather than let their condition be known to him, the latter are often so misled up with the excitement of business, that if it were not for you, they too would travel in the same downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal, for we are sure your over-pelling affection will unerringly point you to Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator as the remedy which should be always on hand in time of need.

O. J. WOOD, Proprietor, 444 Broadway, New York; 114 Market street, St. Louis, Mo.; and sold by all good Druggists. Price One Dollar per bottle.
