ELECTROPATHY

PROFESSOR A. S. GREGORY and J. GOUCHER, M. D., have associated themselves together in the practice of their profession, thus uniting Electropathy and Hydropathy with MEDICAL DEPARTMENT.
They have their establishment supplied with a new set of ELECTRIC BATHS, which are superior to any now in use. The water used is of such a temperature, and the electric fluid so regulated, that the patient, in receiving the benefits of these remedial agents, experience no unpleasant sensation. This system of treatment is among the safest, most effectual and agreeable, available in equalizing the circulation, soothes nervous irritation, and restores a healthy balance to disordered functions. The medicine prescribed will be compounded and put up at their office under the immediate care of Dr. GOUCHER, who has had twenty years experience in curing disease.
The following are some of the diseases that yield to their treatment:
Palsy or Paralysis, Incipient Consumption, Rheumatism, both Acute and Chronic; Neuralgia, Headache, Torpid Liver, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, Weakness and Overtaxure of the Spine, Scrofula, Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Nervousness by Paralysis, Ringing in the Ears, Amaurosis, Cataracts, Weak Eyes, Erysipelas, Spasmodic Retention of the Urine, St. Vitus' Dance, Chafes, Salt Rheum, Prolapsus Uteri or Piles, Female Weakness and Irregularities, General Debility, Derangements of the Nervous System, Stiff Joints, all Diseases of the Bowels, Fever and Ague, and Fistula, generally, Cured without the knife.
In addition to their office treatment, they purpose attending to a GENERAL PRACTICE. All calls in the city and vicinity receive prompt attention. Letters containing stamp for postage will be attended to immediately, and if treatment is required, FIVE DOLLARS must be sent, for which they will send an index very part of the United States.
OFFICE HOURS, FROM 7 A. M. TO 9 P. M.
OFFICE—No. 85 GRANT STREET,

Quack Nostrums.

THE NEW YORK DAY BOOK says:
"The majority of Hair Washes, Hair Dyes, Hair Tonics, Hair Oils, and the numberless preparations which are now before the public under such a flourishing, hyperbolical and fantastic titles as we see paraded in show cards, and newspaper headings, as hair preparations, are all humbugs of the first water, their real merit, when they possess any, is, that they do no harm. MOSS'S LARD OIL, LARD OIL, SPERM OIL, scented and colored, make up, when in beautiful wrappers and white flint glass bottles, the costliest character of tonics; and when thus costly, are boasted of as the triphlelic nerve, and sought at by verdant young and old of both sexes. Such is not the character of Professor Wood's Hair Restorative. This gentleman comes before the world without any "high falutin" Rhophlorism, or any other astounding and startling catchpenny terms; he simply advertises a Hair Restorative—what it restores precisely—and as a Restorative it acts. Buy Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and as you value your scalp, eyes, your very brains, apply nothing else; for it may be that you will get some poisonous substance thus performed lard oil on your premises. Remember, Wood's Restorative for the Hair is the best article extant."

It Will, by Nature's own Process,
Restore Gray Hair to the Original Color,
Will make Hair Grow on Bald Heads,
Will restore the Natural Secretions,
Will remove all Dandruff,
Will cure all eruptions—even Scald Head,
Will make the Hair Soft and Glossy,
Will make the old appear young again,
Will preserve the Color of Hair to old age,
Will always restore it and keep it Fast,
And is one of the best Toilet Articles for the Hair now in use.

Manufactured by O. J. WOOD & CO., and sold Wholesale and Retail, at 444 Broadway, New York, and 114 Market st., St. Louis, Mo.

Sold in Pittsburgh by Dr. GEO. H. KEYSER, S. S. FAHNESTOCK & CO., and all Druggists. (sm6dly)

PITTSBURGH:
SATURDAY MORNING, NOV. 24.

AN HOUR WITH ABRAHAM LINCOLN.—The New York Post has a letter from the home of Mr. Lincoln, which it commends as containing the fullest utterance upon public affairs that Mr. Lincoln has indulged in since his election. The writer says:

It was my good fortune to talk with him an hour yesterday, in relation to this secession movement; and, though he makes no concealment of the uneasiness which the contemplated treason gives him, he is not a bit alarmed by the aspect of affairs, nor is he at all inclined to yield an inch to the well intended but mistaken solicitations of his friends. He believes that his success is only a public pretext for what has been long preparing; that his position on all questions of public concern—all which affect the slavery question, nearly or remotely—is so well known that no declaration of his would change treasonable purposes already announced; and that a reiteration of views which are patent to all men who have sought to know them, would be an avoidance of timidity which he does not feel, and of which he would have no man suspect him. He is cautious, discreet and wise in his replies to questions as to what may or will be done. But those who know the steadfastness of purpose and the conscientious firmness which are his distinguishing characteristics, have no doubt that he will adopt that policy, when President, which a proper regard for the whole country dictates; and that he will pursue it firmly, persistently, and, if necessary, obdurately, to the end. "I know," said he, "the justness of my intentions, and this utter groundlessness of the pretended fears of the men who are filling the country with their clamor. If I go into the Presidency, they will find me as I am on record —nothing less, nothing more. My declarations have been made to the world without reservation. They have been often repeated; and now self respect demands of me, and of the party that elected me, that when threatened I should be silent." While he holds this language in relation to a public letter, he does not hesitate in his private letters to the South, (he has already a large correspondence in that section) and in conversation with his visitors, to answer to proper inquiries, to give any assurances which are consistent with his views heretofore expressed, and the party platform on which he stands.

I found Mr. Lincoln when I called upon him engaged in reading up anew the history of the attempted nullification of 1832, including the discussions on the celebrated "Force bill;" and General Jackson's more celebrated proclamation. I am debarred from saying what comments these documents provoked; but Mr. Lincoln's friends may be assured that, while he has no disposition to be an imitator of the old Chief, nature has endowed him with the capacity, honesty and firmness which made Old Hickory's the most eminently successful and honorable administration known to the republic.

I mentioned that Mr. Lincoln had already quite a large correspondence with the South. There are many of his letters from that quarter which the country ought to see. Missives which no decent man could write are abundant. Unfortunately the ear-marks of some of them show that their writers are not devoid of education, if destitute of decency.

The rush for office has already commenced. While I was with Mr. Lincoln he handed me a note from a gentleman from an adjoining State who was exceedingly importunate for the promise of a certain place as a specimen of many which he would invite attention to, if receiving, acting, in the GAS FIXTURE or PITTING line BRASS CASTING, PLUMBING, &c., promptly done.

The English bill, passed by Congress and signed by President Buchanan, provided that when the territory of Kansas should possess a population of 93,000 souls it might be entitled to admission into the Union as a State. Since that period a national census has been taken, and the returns in detail were published giving Kansas, within the limits of the State as prescribed in the Wyandot constitution, 109,401 inhabitants.

A WINDFALL FOR THE SULTAN.—The news from Constantinople is that the harem or haroum (lady treasurer) of the imperial palace has just expired, leaving a fortune of 150 million piastres, the whole of which goes to the Sultan. Although a slave, she possessed great influence in the palace, and her name has often been mixed up with ministerial intrigues. Her fortune is quite a godsend to the Sultan, who was on the point of sending his plate to the mint.

It is understood that a raid will shortly be made upon the gambling establishments in Washington, upwards of fifty of which have been brushed up and reopened ready for the Winter. One of the gentlemen, named Marcus, has already been sent to the penitentiary for three years, for keeping a place of gambling resort.
