SATURDAY MORNING, DEC. 1.

[Written for the Daily Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WORLDWARD.

BY ROBERT — NO. VI.

Yet here, to-day, before thou goest forth
From that Old Homestead, where leave passed the years
Of Childhood and of Youth—years which have been
So pure and so happy!—it were worth
Thy while, bashful, to associate with the scenes
Once further friendly word; which yet may come
Of use to thy memory with thoughts of home
In after years—when ev'ry thy friend shall be
Only a shadowy form, faint to thy memory:
A warning word—as cautious as the fears
Of love itself—for when reflection's eye
Views life, not faster is it filled with tears
Than is the heart filled with anxiety.

To this accept thy full prerogative
Of living!—have as work and work to live!
Then 'tis live! Then work; by working thou shalt live;
By working—ere thy life is more—to find
Thy work right early if thou canst—and give
Not only strength and effort of thy hand,
But all the strength and effort of thy mind
And heart—all the resource that canst hand
For serviceable help, at care command.
To form—in time—and suffer—time to stand
Watching for orders, like reserves, behind!

Pittsburgh, 1860. [J. M. MAGAUN.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

A committee of the Episcopal Diocese of Virginia, on the religious condition of the colored population, assigns as a reason of the partiality of the colored people for the Baptists and Methodists, that the "privileges of christian fellowship" are greater in those denominations. The following plan is proposed to secure a larger attendance, which we condense from the report: 1. The formation into separate congregations. 2. Providing suitable places of worship. 3. Having a certain number of communicants to assist the minister in the affairs of the congregation. 4 Minister to be a clergyman of the Diocese of Virginia.

——The annual meeting of the General Missionary Committee of the Methodist Episcopal Church, was held recently—closing on the 19th ult—at New York. According to the Treasurer's Report, the total amount of receipts for the year has been $281,602 74. The appropriations for the ensuing year amount to $305,400. The distribution of this amount was arranged as follows: Foreign Missions, $119,994; Domestic Missions, $276,729; Contingent fund, incidental expenses, &c., $28,671. Total, $305,400. On the evening of the 19th ult., a meeting was held in St. Paul's M. E. Church, to respond to the appropriations of the year by the General Board—the senior Bishop (Morris) presiding. Bishop Ames conducted the opening exercises, after which brief addresses were delivered by Bishops Simpson, Scott, Janes, Drs. Durbin, Power and others. Bishop Simpson closed his address as follows:

"In Norway and Sweden the subject of Sabbath observance is occupying considerable attention, and an effort is being made in the former to have a law encted to prohibit all fishing on any part of the Sabbath.

"True, there may be difficulties in the way arising from the financial embarrassments of the times.—These test the faith of the Church, but should not discourage us.—He saw the dark clouds hovering about the commercial firmament; but he saw the mountains rising above them, and they were full of the chariots of the horsemen of God; and above all he saw the Divine glory resting upon and crowning the Church as she moved on to the conquest of the world."

——Dr. Tying, of New York, in an article in the "Protestant Churchman" on the corrupt tendencies of modern society, says:

Is it not true that these scenes are frequented by multitudes professedly the followers of Christ? Is it not true that both the costume and the dances at these scenes are utterly unbecoming a Christian? Very many of the modern dances are grossly indecent, sensual and degrading. We have often been amazed that any parent of pure moral taste could allow a daughter to mingle in such dances under any possible pretext. We will not describe them. They are too well known to require it. That they are disgusting, and tend to gross moral corruption, cannot be successfully denied. And yet Christians, at least in name, are found to countenance them by their presence, and sometimes—we are ashamed to write it—even by their own participation. And even those who do not attend such places and amusements themselves, do not hesitate to send their children to the dancing school, to learn and to acquire the taste that can only be gratified in after life in these ungodly and corrupting pleasures.

——The Wesleyans in England have day schools under the direction of the Conference, that have a four fold distinction between other day schools. 1. As to their method of training. The main feature in the system of education in Methodist schools, is the cultivation of the mind rather than the useless loading of the memory. 2 They employ none but converted persons as teachers. 3. Bible lessons are given systematically, thoroughly and continuously. 4. They are essentially schools for the poor.

——At a late meeting of the Presbyterian Synod of Kentucky, (O. S.) the question of the private administration of the Lord's Supper was largely discussed. Resolutions were passed condemning the course, but left the question unsettled as to what may be regarded as a private administration of the ordinance.

——A correspondent of the Recorder gives an account of the Western Convocation of the Diocese (Episcopal) of Pennsylvania recently held. He says:

The needs and necessities of this portion of the Diocese were freely discussed, and the matter of having evangelists, as well as pastors and teachers, was strongly urged, from the very nature of the field.—A missionary Ministry this is what we want, and what has been urged of late upon us from various quarters. The Bishop spoke of the distinctness of the Church to come into such a system, and of the revolution it is supposed in the habits of the clergy, and the whole subject was adjourned for the present with the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Rev. David Page, D. D., the Rev. Jabal Hodges, and the Rev. Robert Oliver, be a committee to prepare a paper upon the whole subject of itinerancy, and make report to this body at its next session, with a view of laying said paper before the Board of Missions.

——The Anniversary of the Tract Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church will be held at Rochester, N. Y., February 10th and 11th, 1861. Bishop Janes is expected to preside.

——The new Synod of Sandusky, created by the last General Assembly of the (O. S.) Presbyterian Church held its first session at Cleveland recently. It comprises 80 ministers, 60 churches, and 3,000 members, mainly the growth of the last ten years.

——Rev. G. Alord, a French Baptist minister, formerly a Jesuit, has been appointed missionary to the French population of Philadelphia.

——The Secretary of the American Congregational Union gives the statistical strength of the Presbyterians, Old and New School, and Congregationalists in the ten States and Territories of the West as follows: Old School Presbyterians, 459 ministers, 700 churches and 35,249 communicants. New School Presbyterians, 467 ministers, 566 churches, 29,514 communicants. Congregationalists, 646 ministers, 789 churches and 38,866 communicants.

——Bishop Simpson, at the last session of Ohio Conference, remarked that the Conference was getting too full of married preachers. He said to the young men:

Though you may be surrounded by angels, don't fear but all the angels shall have left the earth by the end of four years.

——At Spalow, in the district of Semille, Austria, forty-seven persons embraced Protestantism in one day.

——The third Annual Convention of the National Union Prayer meetings will be held in Washington City, D. C., commencing December, 11th instant.

——It is proposed by the British Evangelical Alliance that "the whole Church of God throughout the world" set apart a week for special prayer and supplication; and eight days from Sabbath, January 6th, to Sabbath 13th, inclusive, 1861, is named as the time. The following subjects are suggested, for thought, prayer and exhortation, day by day: (condensed) Sabbath, January 6th. The promise of the Holy Spirit. Monday. Blessing on the services of the week and promotion of brotherly kindness. Tuesday. Higher standard of holiness. Wednesday. Increase of true conversions. Thursday. Free circulation of the Word of God. Friday. Outpouring of the Holy Spirit as ministers, institutions of learning and benevolent objects.—Saturday. Overthrow of false religions. Sunday. Thanksgiving for past revival and enforcement of duties devolving on the Christian.

——Rev. John C. Truesdale has been invited by a unanimous call to become the pastor of the First United Presbyterian Church of this city.

——The United Presbyterian of the 28th ult. contains a sermon of Rev. D. Proudy to the students of the Theological Seminary of the First U. P. Synod, delivered at the opening of the session, 5th November. It occupies seven printed columns.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

A compound remedy, designed to be the most effectual Alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints:—

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, RHEUMATALGIA OR THE DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, EXTERNAL RISE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do it through the natural channels of the body, by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all will be well; but with this fountain of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtues that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla, which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

PREPARED BY
DR. J. C. AYER & CO.
LOWELL, MASS.
Price, $1 per bottle; Six Bottles for $5.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

has won for itself such a renown for the cure of every variety of Throat and Lung Complaint, that it is entirely unnecessary for us to recount the evidence of its virtues. Its reputation is world-wide. As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all it has ever been found to do.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR THE CURE OF
Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Irregularities, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a Dinner Pill, and for Purifying the Blood.

They are sugar-coated, so that the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, and they are the best aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic.

Price 25 cents per Box; Five boxes for $1.00.

Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen, and eminent personages, have lent their names to certify the unparalleled usefulness of these remedies, but our space here will not permit the insertion of them. The Agents below named furnish gratis our AMERICAN ALMANAC in which they are given; with also full descriptions of the above complaints, and the treatment that should be followed for their cure.

☞ Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with other preparations they make more profit on. Demand AYER'S, and take no others. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.
