PITTSBURGH:

THURSDAY MORNING, DEC. 6, 1860.

☞ THE REPUBLICAN COUNTY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE will meet at the usual place on SATURDAY, the 8th day of December. Punctual attendance is requested, as business of importance will be submitted. dec24 THOS. M. MARSHALL, Ch'n.

To the Republicans of Allegheny County.

A bold and desperate attempt is now making to induce us to lower the Republican standard to pacify the fire eaters of the South. Already a few timid men grow pale and wince under the southern thunder; and

"——— not a Whig
Felt so much cold as ever shook in snow."

Show tremulousness in the knees and are scared at the menaces of those who, because they cannot rule, threaten to ruin.

Let Allegheny county, with her glorious 10,000 Republican majority, now, at the fitting moment, speak out emphatically. Let us hold up the hands of our Representatives at Washington; and show them, at this crisis, that their constituents are at their backs to sustain them. The Republican platform, in all its integrity, must and shall be recognized as the true exponent of the party creed and the basis of Mr. Lincoln's administration. It is fit that Allegheny county should take the initiative in the work of maintaining it intact.

We notice that the Republican County Committee has been called together. Let it call a Mass Meeting, at once, that will give utterance, in unmistakable tones, to the public sentiment of this locality.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

We publish this document in our paper this morning. That part of it which refers to the secession movement in a portion of the Southern States will attract public attention exclusively. The tone of the message has not the ring of true metal in it, and if any of his countrymen expected from Mr. Buchanan a display of the Jackson energy and spirit in this emergency, they have been sorely disappointed. The author, in its preparation, anxious as he may have been to appear equal to the responsibilities which have devolved upon him, evidently could not divest himself of that fear of the South which has been the cause of all the troubles that have beset him ever since his entrance into the Presidential office. His respect for appearances, and a lingering regard for his public reputation has prompted him to deny the right of secession, but knowing that the enunciation of this doctrine, pure and simple, would draw upon him the censure of the disunionists, he has qualified, or rather neutralized it, with the declaration that there is no power vested in the National Government to prevent a State from seceding from the Confederacy.

Mr. Hale, in the Senate, yesterday morning, truly stated the position of the President when he said he was both for secession and against it in the same message.

The President says that the right of secession is denied to a State by the terms of confederation, but he disputes the power of the government to enforce upon a refractory State the observance of the compact. Feeling the absurdity of this position, if not ashamed of his shameful sacrifice, of what he knows to be right, for what seems to him expedient, he seeks to divert attention from it by taking up the cuckoo cry of the disunion agitators against the Northern personal liberty enactments, which have all been on the statute books of the States long before he was elected to the Presidency. He further evades the great and vital issue, which he ever feels should be met fully and squarely, by indulging in unmeaning platitudes and dolorous jeremiads, in regard to sectional agitation and unfriendly legislation. Is this the feast to which the people have been bidden?

If the government denies the right of seceding to an individual State, it certainly has lodged within it the power to prevent secession. The President rejects this inference. He tells the country in the spirit of piteous remonstrance that he cannot enforce obedience to the laws on South Carolina, because there are no officers to whom the duty could be entrusted. He therefore proclaims his utter helplessness, and in plain language tells the disunionists how far they may go in order to exhaust the power of the national government. What a mockery it is to expect that the message can have the effect to induce secessionists to abandon their plans.

We confess we are not disappointed in the President. His conduct on this occasion is in perfect keeping with his course during his term of office. He is not the man for a crisis like this. Besides being timid and time-serving, he is destitute of that patriotism without which no man can be truly great.

The Chronicle of yesterday morning published a letter purporting to have been written by a member of Mr. Buchanan's cabinet, whom it endorses, without qualification, as a "truly Christian man" and a "tried patriot." So confident was the editor of the Chronicle in the justness of his opinion of the writer, that he considered it his duty (as he informs his readers,) to circulate the precious epistle in company with the President's Message, in order that "it might be the means of accomplishing much good." The letter itself is simply a repetition of the stale and oft refuted misrepresentations of those demagogues of the North and the South, who have for the vilest political purposes charged the people of the North with the design of interfering with slavery where it now has a legal existence. The "pious" writer of the letter must have been aware when he penned it, that whatever cause for apprehension and alarm there may be for the slaveholding States, it must be attributed to the conduct of the Southern politicians themselves. They have declared, without restraint, in the presence of their servile populations, that the Republican party is in favor of negro equality, and that it contemplates an immediate and unconditional emancipation of all the slaves in the country. Their section is now suffering from the effects of these teachings, and the attempt to place the responsibility for this state of things on the people of the North is but another phase of the political demagogism from which the country has already suffered so grievously. We are sick of these "Christian" letter-writers and the ingenious falsehoods which they inflict on the country. A week or ten days ago a citizen of Charleston, South Carolina, endorsed for his "piety" and "wealth," gravely asserted that Mr. Seward had, in a public speech, recommended the invasion of the South by two hundred thousand Wide-Awakes; and a few days after a clergyman of the same city, also commended for his strict piety, urged a crusade against the north by southern citizens, armed with the sword in one hand and the Bible in the other. We repeat that we are sick of these studied efforts to bolster up treason against the government in the sacred name of Christianity, and we shall on no occasion hesitate to express our disgust at the wicked profanation.

It is to be deeply regretted that the Chronicle has withheld the name of the writer of the letter. We confess we feel no little anxiety to know who, of all the individuals who compose Mr. Buchanan's Cabinet, is entitled to rank among the Christians and the patriots of the land. "A truly Christian man," and a patriot whose idea of right and wrong permitted him to acquiesce in the excesses, the corruptions, the invasions of constitutional privileges, the wholesale squandering of the public money, and the hundred other outrages which have marked the era of Buchananism—should be, above all other men, known to his fellow countrymen. He would be a character to contemplate—a veritable rara avis in terra. Will not the Chronicle give the name of the orthodox individual? So brilliant a light should not be placed under a bushel. A truly "Christian man" in the Buchanan Cabinet! We shall soon hear of some "pious" endeavor in the African slave trade. A "united people," indeed! Well that is a position to try a man's patriotism—there is no mistake about that!

Seriously, letters of this character can do no good in the North. The premises on which they are based being false, their publication is only calculated to inflame and irritate the popular mind. The Republicans of the North are not disposed to hear lectures from those who are losing their offices, and have been disappointed in their struggles to keep in power.

COLLEGE HAZING.—The process of "hazing" which the Faculty of Harvard College recently punished by expulsion, is thus described:

"You send your boy of sixteen, seventeen, or eighteen years to college. He enters the Freshman class. Away from home, among strangers perhaps a little home sick he appears 'green' or 'spooney.' But he minds his own business, and knuckles to his tasks. Not so with the impudent fellows of the class above him. These Sophomores immediately conceive the idea of 'putting through' your boy. They have various ways of doing this. They take him of a cold night and put him under the pump, and after he is well wet and chilled, let him go home to his bed and a sore throat; or, perhaps, they will get into a room, and there try to smoke him out, by burning tobacco in the stove and keeping up a continual puffing of cigars and pipes, and when they find him becoming pale and sick, leave him with laughter. Or, if he is a nervous or sensitive boy, they will try to frighten him out of his wits by compelling him to go blindfolded into a darkened room and then show him hideous things. There are various other ways of "hazing," such as ducking in a tub of cold water getting the aviate drunk, etc. If the boy has spirit enough to resist these outrageous insults, he is told that the result of resistance will be discomfort and annoyance during his whole college life, and we have known instances where this was the case.

"You will be likely to ask in what part of the 'joke' the laugh comes in," and your boy, of course, feels inclined to put the same question, and so do we.

"They have carried this thing so far in Harvard College, that in one or two cases lives were endangered, and the students were unable to do any study during a whole term.

"The faculty of the College, therefore, made an example of eight Sophomores who were caught "hazing," some poor Freshman, and gave them leave of absence, for a year, to learn at homeless brutal manners."

TRAGICAL DEATH.—Mrs. Nesbit, widow of James Nesbit, of Sugargrove township, this county, came to a violent death at the hands of her son, Samuel Nesbit, on Tuesday afternoon last. Samuel Nesbit has been insane for a number of years—his insanity having been caused, it is said, by too intense application to study; and he has been living at his mother's. On Tuesday afternoon last, for some reason he became very much enraged at his sister-in-law, who was also residing in the same house. In order to avoid him, she went to a neighbor's a short distance off, and when she returned very shortly afterwards, she found her mother-in-law lying dead, having her skull fractured, one arm broken, and otherwise severely injured. It seems that after the departure of his sister-in-law, he made an attack on his mother with a chair, beating her over the head and body until she was dead. Two chairs were found near her broken to pieces.—Mercer Whig.

FIRES.—The dwelling of Richard Martin, of Jefferson township, with the store house, containing the store of Mr. Swederjer, was burned to the ground on the night of Wednesday last. Mr. Swederjer saved the most of his goods, but Mr. Martin suffered the entire loss of his building and furniture. There was no insurance on the buildings.

The Tavern stand of Capt. John Goff, in Oakland tp., was entirely consumed with all its contents, on Saturday night. The Captain and his family barely escaped with their lives, not even saving their wearing apparel. The building was just new, a fine large frame house; and the Captain had just laid in his winter stock of provisions and liquors. A large sum of money we understand was lost. The house was insured.—Butler Amer.

In some parts of our county the sleighing is good, and by present appearances we are going to have a good season.—Butler Amer.

Coughs and Colds! Coughs and Colds!

REASONS WHY.

Lg no one neglect a cough or cold long enough. Thousands, doing so, have had one cold settle in a member, until the mucous membrane, lining the air passages, has become excessively irritated, and even permanently thickened, and soon chronic cough, chronic pneumonia, and consumption, successively gallop along. The best time to cure all this is when it begins. Yet no are we for ones as to counsel the use of HUMPHREYS' SPECIFIC HOMŒOPATHIC REMEDIES, and if no one, you ought to if once taken Cough Pill, and then two or three pills per day, with care as to renewed exposure, will bring you all right in a day or two.

If your cough has got further along, then more and more precaution no longer a cure, though it is on the same direction. Our advice is to keep the feet warm, the head cool, and take Humphrey's Homœopathic Cough Pills.

Price, 25 cents per box, with directions. Fig boxes, $1.

N. B.—A full set of HUMPHREY'S HOMŒOPATHIC SPECIFICS with Book of Directions, and twenty different Remedies, in large vials, morocco case, price $5; case of fifteen boxes, and Book, $3. Single Boxes, 25 cents and 50 cents.

These Remedies, by the single box or case, are sent by mail or express, free of charge, to any address, on receipt of the price. Address DR. HUMPHREYS & CO.,

Clairvoyant and Healing Medium!

Has been traveling through the United States, ever since she was 11 years of age, and is now stopping at the

SCOTT HOUSE,

In the City of Pittsburgh, where she may be consulted upon all matters pertaining to Life and Health, and

DISEASES OF THE HUMAN SYSTEM.

She has been endowed from her birth with a supernatural gift, to such an astonishing degree that she convinces the most sceptical of her wonderful power; in short, through the assistance of some superior power, she is endowed with the Healing Art.

This young lady is a Physician indeed. She can see and point out the medicine to cure the most obstinate disease; even those that have for years filled the hill of our best physicians, and can direct salves and liniments to be made and used that will cure Old Sores, Fever Sores, Cancers, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sprains, Spinal Affections, Weakness in the Back and Limbs, and other complaints of long standing, and has performed astonishing cures upon those who had long since lost their sight and Hearing, or nearly so, by disease; and all forms of Female Complaints attended with great success. It is hoped that no one will despair of a cure until they have given Miss Claflin's medicine a trial.

During her travels she has cured hundreds who were on the verge of the grave, who are now living and enjoying perfect health through her skill and successful treatment.

Satisfactory references will be cheerfully given when required.

Miss Claflin will guarantee to make permanent cures in all cases she undertakes. Her mode of examination is with a "Clairvoyant eye," when she tells invalids or their disease and its location, with great certainty; and many other test deeds of the past, present and future events of life, of great interest to the inquirer, so much so as to merit and receive the confidence of all who consult her; and through her superior or supernatural power can cause tranquility between man and wife, sad many times, by her directions, prosperity in business matters; she also answers all letters pertaining to life and health, with great satisfaction, and sends medicine by express, when required. She, however, must have a statement of the case; age, month and year when born, and a fee of one dollar. She also gives information of lost or stolen property, absent friends, whether dead or alive, with great certainty and satisfaction. Lawyers, doctors, ministers and many other scientific men, have consulted her upon matters of high importance, and given evidence of their entire satisfaction.

Sole Proprietor of the celebrated

PATENT GAS BURNING AND SMOKE CONSUMING ARRANGEMENT,

(as applied to our COOK STOVES,) the advantages of which are:

1st. A great saving of Fuel.
2d. A much quicker and hotter oven from the same fire.
3d. The preservation of the oven's juices.
4th. Cleanliness, as there is not one-half the soot and dirt that is found in other stoves.
5th. These stoves, and all stoves we ever sold, have a convent of cold air passing between oven and fire-back, which prevents it and adds to the durability of our Stoves, over all others.

Persons wishing the BEST STOVE in the market will find our PATENT "Tropic," "Eureka," or "Arbiter," with DOUBLE TOP, to be the Stove, as hundreds in this city and vicinity can testify.

Would also call particular attention to our stock of Parlor Stoves and Grate Fronts, which, together with our other wares, we will SELL CHEAP.
