PITTSBURGH:

FRIDAY MORNING, DEC. 7, 1860.

☞ THE REPUBLICAN COUNTY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE will meet at the usual place on SATURDAY, the 8th day of December. Punctual attendance is requested, as business of importance will be submitted. dec7 THOS. M. MARSHALL, Ch'n.

SETTLING THE SLAVERY QUESTION.—The time was when the messages of our Presidents were of a higher order than that of a common stump speech. The great men who wrote them were content to lay before the representatives of the people a statement of the condition of public affairs, without falsifying the truth, or unworthily appealing to popular prejudice or passion. But that time has passed away. Within the last eight years, these documents, which above all others, should be grave and dignified State papers, have been but the mere reflection of the sentiments and language of cross-road demagogues and bar-room declaimers. If any one of our readers supposes that we have strived at a sensational not justified by facts, let him peruse either or all of the annual messages that have emanated from Pierce or Buchanan, and more especially let him refer to the opening paragraphs in the last message to Congress, and we are certain that he will agree with us. The wise and deliberate misrepresentations of the views and purposes of a party composed of nearly two millions of intelligent and patriotic citizens, therein contained, are not only unworthy of the President of the United States, but would be disgraceful in any individual who has sufficient capacity to comprehend the history of his country.

The Republican platform adopted at Chicago declares that the Republican party does not recognize the right of Congress, under the Constitution, to interfere with Slavery as it exists in the States. This doctrine has been promulgated by the party, through its orators and presses, and has been confirmed by thousands of State, county and district meetings. And yet in the face of this incontrovertible fact, President Buchanan has the effrontery to say:

"How easy would it be for the American people to settle the Slavery question forever, and to restore peace and harmony to this distracted country.

They, and they alone, can do it. All that is necessary to accomplish the object, and all for which the Slave States have ever contended, is to be let alone, and permitted to manage their domestic institutions in their own way. As sovereign States, they, and they alone, are responsible before God and the world for the Slavery existing among them. For this, the people of the North are not responsible, and have no more right to interfere, than with similar institutions in Russia or in Brazil. Upon their good sense and patriotic forbearance I confess I still greatly rely. Without their aid, it is beyond the power of any President, no matter what may be his own political proclivities, to restore peace and harmony among the States. Wisely limited and restrained as is his power, under our Constitution and laws, he alone can accomplish but little, for good or evil, on such a momentous question."

The President is not only aware that the ruling party in the North concede to the Southern people the right to manage their domestic affairs in their own way, but he is fully cognizant of the fact that the South demands more than this from the North. He knows that the South insists upon the surrender of the entire national domain to slavery—that it desires that the revenue laws should be enacted for its especial benefit, without regard to the interests of the other section of the confederacy—that it urges that an odious system of espionage should be adopted in our postal arrangements—and that it contemplates other equally serious innovations on the principles of the government.

Mr. Buchanan should know all this, because he has been, unfortunately for his reputation, the chosen instrument to prescents these unreasonable demands. We will here give two prominent instances of his complicity with the slave interest in the contemplated aggressions: That interest last year demanded a slave code for the territories, and required its immediate application to Kansas. Mr. Buchanan at once adopted the idea, and to give it practical effect urged all his patronage, both legitimate and illegitimate, besides quarrelling with Douglas and his associates. The South saw proper to forbid the enactment of a protective tariff. Mr. Buchanan, although pledged in favor of that measure, not only abstained from exercising any influence in the matter, but placed at the head of the Treasury Department an open and avowed advocate of free trade. And now, the President declares that all the South asks is to be let alone!

☞ A WORD FROM POOR PIERCE.—The temptation to add still more to his weight of infamy, which these stirring times offer, seems to have been too great for "Poor Pierce" to resist, and he has accordingly appeared before the public in a letter. The contents of the letter may be easily guessed at. Of course he thinks "in the case of secession all the country would be involved in common embarrassment and ruin"—and of course he is apprehensive that "the people do not realize the extent of the danger which is at hand"—and of course the personal liberty bills come in for their share of denunciation. All these declarations, it will be noted, are purely original, and shew that the individual who was eclipsed by Mr. Buchanan, is a "Second Daniel" on the Judgment seat. The following extract from his letter will convince the reader that the Ex-President, in his retirement, has not permitted his stock of impudence to become diminished:

"I agree with you that madness has ruled the hour in pushing forward a line of aggressions upon the South, but I will not despair of returning reason, and of a re-awakened sense of constitutional right and duty. I will still look with earnest hope for the full and speedy vindication of the equal rights and coequal obligations of these States, and for restored fraternity under the present Constitution—fraternity restored by following the example of the fathers of the Republic—fraternity based upon admission and cheerful maintenance of all the provisions and requirements of the sacred instrument under which they and their children have been so signally blessed. When that hope shall perish, if perish it must, life itself, my friend, will lose its value for you and me."

This from Pierce! He does not allude to his own "madness" in using all the patronage and power of his administration to destroy the Missouri Compromise. To that event, which has been truly pronounced a crime and a blunder, we may trace all the troubles that now exist in the country. It will also be seen that he says not a word in denunciation of the South Carolina secessionists. It is against his own immediate fellow citizens of the North he plants his batteries. Poor Pierce! Indeed.

☞ THE VOTE ON BOTELER'S RESOLUTION.—The following is a list of the yeas and nays on the resolution offered by Mr. Boteler, of Virginia, on Tuesday last, to appoint a committee, consisting of one member from each State, to take into consideration the present condition of the country:

YEAS—Messrs. Adams, of Mass., Adams of Ky., Adrian, Allaire, Allen, Anderson of Mo., Anderson of Ky., Avery, Babbitt, Barr, Barrett, Bocock, Boteler, Bouligny, Branch, Brayton, Briggs, Brinkerhoff, Burch, Burnett, Campbell, Carter, Horace F. Clark, Clark of Mo., Cobb, John Cochrane, Colfax, Conkling, Corwin, Covode, Cox, Curtis, Davidson of Maryland, Davis of Ind., Davis of Miss., Delaware, Dodson, Dodd, Dunn, Edmundson, Elliott, Ely, English, Etheridge, Ferry, Florence, Foster, Fouke, Franchot, Gilmore, Gooch, Graham, Gurley, Hale, Hall, Hardman, Harris, of Md., Harris of Va., Hatton, Haskins, Hill, Hoard, Hopkins, Horton, Howard, of Ohio, Hughes, Humphrey, Ingalls, Jenkins, Kellogg of Ill., Kenyon, Kilgore, Killinger, Knapp, Lamar, Lamb, Leach, Leake, Longnecker, Low, Lovejoy, Martin of Ohio, Martin of Va., Maynard, McClernand, McCurdy, McPherson, Millson, Moore, of Ky., Morrill, Morris, of Pa., Morris of Ill., Nelson, Nixon, Noell, Palmer, Parker, Pendleton, Pettit, Poyton, Pholps, Porter, Pryor, Quarles, Reynolds, Rice, Riggs, Robinson of Ill., Rogers, Rust, Sickles, Smith of Va., Smith of N. C., Spaulding, Spinner, Stephenson, Stewart of Md., Stewart of Pa., Stokes, Strait, Tavlor, Thayer, Thomas, Tompkins, Train, Trimble, Valandigham, Vance, Vandever, Vernon, Walton, Wanklyn, Washburn of Me., Washburn of Ill., Watson, Wheeler, Whiteley, Wood, Woodruff—145.

NAYS.—Messrs. Ashley, Bads, Bingham, Blair, Blake, Bullington, Buttinguam, Burlingame, Carey, Case, Edgerton, Foster, Grow, Hutchinson, Howard of Michigan, Hutchins, Irvine, Kellogg of Michigan, Lee, Loomis, Lovejoy, McKean, McKnight, Morse, Perry, Potter, Potts, Royce, Sherman, Stanton, Stephens, Tappan, Thompson, Wade, Washburne of Wis., Washburne of Illinois, Wilson—45.

ABSENT OR NOT VOTING.—Messrs. Ahl, Arnold, Barbeiido, Bennett, Boyce, Bristow, Butterfield, Chamberlain, Clemens, Clark, B. G. Cochrane, Craig of Mo., Craig of N. C., Crawford, Curry, Dawkins, Dean, Dimmick, Edwards, Farnsworth, Gilman, Gartrell, Hamilton, Hawkins, Hindman, Horton, Kelly, Lamar, Leiter, Letcher, Maclay, Mallory, Marshall, Millward, Mitchell, Montgomery, Moore of Ala., Olin, Peck, Reagan, Ritchie, Robinson, Ruffin, Sandidge, Scott, Shaffer, Shanklin, Sherman, Underwood, Van Wyck, Waldron, Wilson, Winslow, Wright—73.

VIRGINIA.—The footings of the official returns of the votes for President in the State of Virginia, exclusive of the information which caused a division of the electoral college, are as follows:

Mr. Bell	74,681
Mr. Breckinridge	74,323
Mr. Douglas	16,875
Mr. Lincoln	1,929

The six Breckinridge electors declared by the Governor's proclamation to be elected, have declined, upon the ground that although nominally chosen, they were not really so, their apparent majority being the result of the blunders of the returning officers. The nine Bell electors, therefore, would doubtless choose their six colleagues to fill the vacancies, and so give the electoral vote of the State to Bell.

MORTON MCMICHAEL, Esq.—We have received from Philadelphia a circular signed by a very large number of the most respectable citizens of Philadelphia, presenting the name of Morton McMichael as a candidate for the United States Senate. This is a home endorsement of that gentleman of which he may well feel proud.

RELIEF FOR KANSAS.—The Mayor yesterday sent forward to Kansas $300, the amount so far contributed by our citizens for the relief of the starving people of that State. Several of the churches which took up collections on Thanksgiving day have forwarded to their religious friends there about an equal amount.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, Dec. 4, 1860.—The South Carolina delegation state that they do not desire to provoke any exciting controversy, but will withdraw quietly at the proper time.

Mr. Bonham, who resigned his seat, is here.

It is not intended to hold a Republican caucus concerning the present difficulties, as all such conferences are only calculated to intensify excitement, without attaining any practical result.

No Speech from Mr. Seward as Reported.—Mr. Seward will make no speech immediately, and will submit no proposition. All rumors to the contrary are entirely unfounded. He is in no manner or form responsible for the various suggestions recently put forward in different newspapers, which have been supposed to reflect his views, and was not consulted concerning, or in any way privy to, their publication. His policy is to watch the development of events, and to direct them wisely at the proper time for peace and the preservation of the Union.

Mr. Trescott, Assistant Secretary of State, has gone to South Carolina with a view of urging a postponement of any hostile demonstration against forts and other public property, until after the close of Mr. Buchanan's term. The commission here is anxious to transfer all responsibility to Mr. Lincoln, and maintain matters until the 4th of March. Mr. Trescott's mission will not produce much affect in the present temper there.

Mr. Butler's object in refusing to serve on the Special Committee was to have Mr. Wilson appointed, whom he supposed would exert more influence in effecting a settlement.

The more conservative wing of the Southern Democracy propose, as a basis of adjustment, the extension of the Missouri Compromise to the Pacific; the recognition of the right to carry and hold slaves south of it, with protection, if necessary, until State governments be formed; and the declaration that the power of Congress to regulate commerce shall not be construed to authorize the abolition of the slave trade between the States. They give assurances that such a compromise would hold all the Southern States but South Carolina, and her secession would be reconsidered.

All the Opposition members from Maryland, Tennessee, Kentucky, North Carolina, and Louisiana, with many of the Democrats from those States, are earnestly desirous of effecting some such arrangement. The Gulf States are really desirous of seceding, and of involving the whole South in the movement. Hence, they interpose obstacles to every scheme which is suggested.

The comparison of opinions between Southern members thus far shows that no plan yet suggested covers the points of embarrassment practically.—N. Y. Trib.

From the Federal Capital.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, Dec. 4.—Throughout that portion of the Message relating to Slavery in the Territories, is seen the crafty hand of Jeff Davis, of Mississippi. He is known to have been in communication with the President lately. Leading men say they know he is the originator of the President's proposition for a Slave code. This divided his party in the late canvass and he knows a majority of the party are against his policy. He retires to meet Douglas' proposition to bury animosities and meet on common compromise ground. Douglas and his friends, of course, repudiate the President's proposition, and cannot accede to it.

Davis and Clingman seem bent on driving off conservative men and preventing a compromise.

Senator Crittenden's rebuke to Clingman's frivolous treatment of the disunion question is pronounced eloquent, and warmly applauded.

The Message is being boldly by cross fires from all parties—no one approving, and not condemning it in severe terms. Some of the conservatives say they admire its tone and temper, but regret its logical and legal contradictions.

The truth is, the Message is only laughed at by all parties. It raps them all over the knuckles, and then tries to pacify them. The Southern Senators are particularly severe in criticisms—while the Democrats in the House only ridicule it. Its contradictions are attributed to the fact of several parties being engaged at different times in patching it up to suit all sides. In spite of the ridicule, however, the Union feeling is evidently gaining ground; and the Select Committee, it is confidently believed will be able to produce a plan which will be successful in restoring quiet to all the States but Carolina. The Union men are busily at work this evening, seeing and conversing with all the different delegations. Joshua R. Hill, of Georgia, tells me he feels confident that all will yet be well. The Virginia members also think all difficulties will be healed.

Phelps and others from Missouri say that all depends upon the Border States as to the preservation of the remainder of the Union. The Cotton States secede. The sentiment they think generally in favor of remaining with the North.

It is rumored that Millson, of Virginia, will be chairman of the Committee of thirty-one appointed to-day. It is not positive, however. He is conservative, and if the report be true, it indicates the character of the Committee.—N. Y. Times.

The Treasury Suspends Payment.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—The Treasury has suspended payment. Its funds are exhausted, and Government officers and employees are unpaid. Contractors for the mail carriage and other purposes are included in the general bankruptcy. They can get no money.

It is probable that some plan will be immediately matured and introduced in Congress for raising money and replenishing the Treasury. The project most talked of is to order a new issue of Treasury notes, and a bill for this purpose will be forthwith submitted in the House.

The effect of this state of affairs is depressing. The disunionists exult as they predict the ruin of the Government, and pronounce its inability to go on successfully.

The conservatives and Union men are discouraged, and take a gloomy view of public matters. They see no relief in the future.

The Republican members and politicians will keep quiet. They will support any measure which is calculated to restore confidence, and give a brighter aspect to affairs.

The Democracy having bankrupted the Treasury, will have to call on the Opposition to sustain the Administration.—N. Y. Com Adv.

Interesting from Albany.

ALBANY, Tuesday, Dec. 4.—The Electors organized at 4 o'clock this afternoon—Ex Governor King being elected President. Every Elector answered to his name. After organizing, the College adjourned until 10 o'clock to-morrow morning, when the vote of the State will be officially declared, and certified copies forwarded to Washington by special messenger.

There has been a protracted discussion among those assembled here of the concessions proposed by the Albany Evening Journal. Without a single exception, the policy of the Journal is condemned or dissented from. Among those with whom I have talked who disagree with Mr. Weed are the State officers, Hon. Chas. Cooke, Geo. W. Patterson, Gov. King, Senators Lapham and Ramsay, Ex-Senator Dimmick, and James Wadsworth. Every member of the Electoral College Judge Hogeboom, Ex Senator R. B. Stanton, Mr. Clapp of the Buffalo Express, Allen of Rochester Democrat, Peck of the Auburn Advertiser, Hon. Thos. Clowes, Hallis White, Senator V. W. Smith, Geo. Opdyke, Signeon Draper, Ex-Senator Carroll, Senator Freeman, and Black, of the Watertown Journal. Mr. Weed to day told a friend that he had not received the approval of any one prominent member of the Republican Party, and this evening's Journal almost entirely recedes from its first proposition. There are a number of gentlemen here obtaining indorsements of their political service and recommendations of their claims upon the incoming Administration.—N. Y. Times.

BAD FOR MEMPHIS.—Gad ol' our Commission merchants received an order yesterday from a Memphis House, said to be one of the strongest in the entire South, for one thousand barrels of flour, and five hundred barrels of provisions, with instructions to draw on the Memphis House at sixty days. The Chicago merchant was quite willing to fill the order; provided the Memphis paper could be negotiated. Making the round of the principal banks of the city, he found that this could not be done at any rate of discount, and he had no alternative but to write to the Memphis House that the only conditions on which he could fill the order would be for cash in hand. The Southern people cannot live without eating, and they are fast learning the only terms on which they can supply their wants in this respect.—Chicago Press

Coughs and Colds! Coughs and Colds!

ESSENTIAL ADVICE.

Let no one neglect a cold or a slight cough. Thousands, doing so, have had one cold added to another, until the mucous membrane, lining the air passages, has become excessively irritated, and even permanently thickened, and such chronic cough, chronic pneumonia, and consumption, too-coursively gallop along. The best time to cure all this is when it begins. You are so fortunate as to possess a case of HUMPHREYS' SPECIFIC HOMEOPATHIC REMEDIES, and if you do not, you ought to at once take a Cough Pill, and then two or three pills per day, with care as to renewed exposure, will bring you all right in a day or two.

If your cough has got further along, that is more care and more powder is necessary for a cure, though it lies in the same direction. Our advice is, to keep the feet warm, the head cool, and take Humphreys' Homeopathic Cough Pills.

Price, 25 cents per box; with directions. Six boxes, $1. N. B.—A full set of HUMPHREYS' HOMEOPATHIC Specifics with Book of Directions, and twenty different Remedies, in large vials, morocco case, $5; ditto, in plain case, $4; case of fifteen boxes, and book, $2. Single boxes, 25 cents and 50 cents.

These Remedies, by the single box or case, are sent by mail or express, free of charge, to any address, on receipt of the price. Address HUMPHREYS & CO.,

SANDS' SARSAPARILLA.—A plentiful supply of pure blood is an essential to animal life as light, heat and genial showers are to the vegetable kingdom. When the proper circulation of the vital fluid is impeded, sickness is the inevitable consequence. The arteries become unhealthy, the liver is more clogged with impure bile, which, forced into the system, ramifies and finds a home in blood, engendering scrofula, cutaneous eruptions, liver complaint, fever, sores, dyspepsia, consumption, etc. To purify the blood and hopefully cure the above-named disease, nothing has ever equalled SANDS' SARSAPARILLA.

Prepared and sold by A. B. & D. SANDS, Druggists, 100 Fulton street, New York.

Sold also by H. A. FAHNESTOCK & CO., Pittsburgh, Pa. de6:6t:wtf

ETNA STOVE WORKS.

A. BRADLEY

Manufacturer of every variety of

COOK, PARLOR AND HEATING

STOVES,

GRATE FRONTS, FENDERS,

&c. &c. &c.

Sole Proprietor of the celebrated

PATENT GAS BURNING AND SMOKE CONSUMING ARRANGEMENTS,

(as applied to our Cook Stoves,) the advantages of which are:

1st, A great saving of Fuel.

2d, A much quicker and better oven, from the same fire.

3d, The preservation of the centre piece.

4th, Cleanliness, as there is not one-half the soot and dirt that is found in other stoves.

5th, These stoves, and all stoves we ever sold, have a current of cold air passing between oven and fire back, which preserves it and adds to the durability of our Stoves, over all others.

Persons wishing the BEST STOVE in the market will find our Patent "Tropic," "Eureka," or "Arbiter," with DOUBLE TOP, to be the Stove, as hundreds in this city and vicinity can testify.

Would also call particular attention to our stock of Parlor Stoves and Grate Fronts, which, together with our other wares, we will SELL CHEAP.
