ELECTROPATHY.

PROFESSOR A. S. GREGORY and J. GOUCHER, M. D., have associated themselves together in the practice of their profession, thus uniting Electropathy and Hydropathy with a MEDICAL DEPARTMENT. They have their establishment supplied with a new set of ELECTRIC BATHS, in which we propose to say now in use. The water used is of as high a temperature, and the electric currents are so regulated, that the patients, in receiving the benefits of these remedial agents, are free from no unpleasant sensation. This system of treatment is among the safest, most efficacious, and, at the same time, scientific. It equalizes the circulation, soothes nervous irritation, and restores a healthy action to disordered functions. The medicine prescribed will be compounded from the purest drugs, and with immediate care of Dr. GOUCHER, who has had twenty years experience in treating diseases.

The following are some of the diseases that yield to their treatment:

Palsy or Paralysis, Incipient Consumption, Rheumatism, both Acute and Chronic, Neuralgia, Headache, Torpid Liver, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Kidney Weakness and Overstrain of the Nervous System, Dyspepsia, Inflammation of Paralysis, Hysteria, Diseases of the Kars, Amaurosis, Dumbness, Weak Eyes, Epilepsy or Spasmodic Retention of the Urine, St. Vitus' Dance, Chalic, Soft Rheum, Prolapsus Ani or Piles, Female Weakness, and Irregularities, General Debility, Derangements of the Nervous System, and Diseases of all Disorders of the Bowels, Fever and Ague and Fever, Intermittent, Invariably Cured without the knife.

In addition to this practice, Dr. Goucher, they purpose attending to a GENERAL PRACTICE. They will visit in the city and vicinity receive prompt attention. Letters containing stamp for postage will be attended to immediately, and if treatment is required, FIVE DOLLARS must be enclosed, for which they will send medicine to any part of the United States.

Quack Nostrums.

THE NEW YORK DAY BOOK says: "The majority of Hair Washes, Hair Dyes, Hair Tonics, Hair Oils, and the numberless preparations which are now before the public under such attractive, but hypocritical and fantastic titles as we see paraded in show cards, newspaper headings, or hair preparations, are all humbugs of the first water, and of real merit, when they possess any, is that they do no harm. HOG'S LARD, WHALE OIL, LARD OIL, SWEET OIL, scented and colored, make up, when in beautiful wrappers, and with flint glass bottles, the costliest character of tonics and when this is costly, are baptized with some triplicate name, and caught at by verdant young and old of both sexes by just the character of Professor Wood's Hair Restorative. This gentleman comes before the world without any "high falutin'," Rhododendron, or any other astounding and startling catch-penny humbug, he simply advertises Hair Restorative—what it expresses precisely—and as a Restorative it acts. Buy Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and as you value your scalp, eye, your very brains, apply nothing else; for it may be that you will not some worse substance than perfumed lard oil on your craniums. Remember, Wood's Restorative for lost Hair is the best article extant."

It Will by Nature's own Process, Restore Gray Hair to the Original Color, Will make Hair Grow on Bald Heads, Will restore the Natural Secretions, Will remove at once all Itching, Will remove all Dandruff, Will cure all Diseases of the Scalp, Will prevent the Hair from ever Scald Head, Will make the Hair Soft and Glossy, Will make the Hair fall appear young again, Will preserve the Color of Hair to old age, Will always Fasten it and stop its Falling, And is one of the best Toilet Articles for the Hair now in use.

PITTSBURGH: SATURDAY MORNING, DEC. 8.

A SOUTHERN VIEW OF MR. TRUMBULL'S SPEECH.—The Lexington (Ky.) Observer & Reporter, after recounting the circumstances under which the recess speech of Judge Trumbull was delivered, and attributing to it an authoritative character says:

"With these preliminary remarks, which where necessary to a full understanding of the circumstances under which Mr. Trumbull spoke and the consequent importance of the views enunciated, we desire to say that while there are things in the speech which we do not assent to, the line of policy marked out for Mr. Lincoln is certainly very far from being of that aggressive character which the people of the South have been led to apprehend from his election. If, as Mr. Trumbull declares, Mr. Lincoln, when inaugurated, will, in fact and not in name merely, be the President of the whole country, and not of a section; if he shall see that the laws are faithfully executed, including, of course, the Fugitive Slave Law; if he shall permit no encroachments to be made upon the rights of the South, but, on the contrary, shall feel it his duty to see that those rights are protected from all attempts at injury, come from what quarter or in what form they may, then will the South have a guarantee that his Administration will at least be in no wise different from those of his immediate predecessors, if indeed they are not more assured in the fully perfect security of their constitutional rights than heretofore.

THE EMPRESS OF FRANCE ON HER TRAVELS.—The New York World says: "Her Majesty traveling in the strictest incognita, is said to be on her way to Scotland. As this is the season of the year in which judicious members of the human race, unhappily resident in Scotland, yearn to get away, and in which intelligent tourists would as soon think of visiting Patagonia, this destination of the royal traveler excites the guidnuncs to spasms of ludicrous surmise. It is hinted even that between the fair Eugenie and her inscrutable lord there are frequently what, occurring between the conjugal of another degree, would be termed "spats," and that this sudden caprice is due to one of those mysterious circumstances. There is a vapory theory prevalent, also, that her Majesty's purpose is to consult an eminent medical authority at Edinburgh, who, when recently summoned to Paris by royal command, heroically responded "that he had six hundred patients under his care at Edinburgh and could not leave them." Rumor, hungertongued as usual, also harmonizes that her beautiful Majesty is hopelessly blue, that, after looking into Etna, Sir Charles Coldstream looked into the crater of Vesuvius, she finds, as did that debilitated baronet of the volcano, that there is nothing in it. It will be quite rational to assume that these surmises, one and all, are as empty as the heads which took unnecessary trouble in originating them."

GAME FOR THE MILLION.—Many persons, lately up the Mississippi and the Illinois and down the Mississippi, agree in the statement that this is a wonderful season for game. Some say that they cannot remember ever having seen such vast quantities as now. A large number of St. Louis men are now out, and killing ducks and geese by the "coast load." Mr. Wm. Lewis and Mr. Fink have just returned from the vicinity of New Madrid. The John D. Perry, the boat on which they came up, is garnished all over with the game they killed in two or three days' time. Mr. Alter and company, of seven persons in all, lately arrived from the game locality, having been on a hunting excursion of ten days, living in a tent and sleeping on the ground, wrapped in robes and blankets. The result of their skill and activity, was 900 or 1,000 ducks and 300 geese. The sport is reported as exhilarating and invigorating.—St. Louis Dem

VIRGINIA SLAVE TRADE.—The inter-State trade in negroes, out of which the people of Virginia make millions annually, has entirely ceased, and the value of the produce of every description in the hands of the farmers of that State has already depreciated quite thirty per cent. The seats of affairs in Culpepper county tells the tale forcibly. That county alone exports annually, about one hundred and fifty thousand dollars' worth of slaves—the surplus of its slave population. Not a single negro has been sold from it in the last three weeks, in apprehend, because prices have gone down fifty per centum. Nor can its farmers find a market for the large quantity of wheat they continue to hold, except by taking one dollar per bushel for such as they were getting a dollar and forty cents for a month ago.—Washington Star.

A PALPABLE HIT.—The Vicksburg (Miss.) Whig, quoting the remark of the Democratic papers, that Hannibal Hamlin "has a stain of negro blood in his veins," and that "high-toned, honorable, high-spirited, proud Southern men" ought not to submit to his election, replies thus:

The Democracy first elected him to the House of Representatives, then to the Senate, and he sat there along with the Southern Senators without any person refusing to submit to his election. If some of our excessively sensitive friends would reflect a little, they might probably reflect that such high-strung Southerners as Jefferson Davis have actually been sitting in the United States Senate with him for years. His record attention to the Vice Presidency does not remove his from that body.

A SERIOUS JOKE.—The Natchez Free Trader having proposed as a punishment to the North, that the payment of northern debts be suspended and that the indebtedness be paid into the State treasury, upon which the State should issue bonds, payable when hostilities are over, the Natchez Courier rather jokingly remarks:

"The idea of more Mississippi bonds is rather peculiar. She issued two-cents, and repudiated them both; she was sued in her own courts upon them, after she had invited suit, and judgment rendered against her, and she has repudiated payment of the judgments, and to crown the whole, we understand, after she employed counsel to defend these suits, she repudiated the counsel fees."

A BAD SPEECH.—The Providence Journal is not especially complimentary on Mr. Cushing for his recent speech. It says:

"Mr. Cushing has just been making a very bad speech. Considering the time and the circumstances, and the duty of every man in a position to influence public opinion, it may be called one of the worst speeches ever made to an American audience. It is bad in its style and in its rhetoric, bad in its assumptions of facts, bad in its calumnious inferences, bad in its false logic, bad in its design, which is to insult the North, and exasperate the South, and bad in its main purposes, which is to place Mr. Cushing on the bench of the Supreme Court of the United States."

VERMONT.—Vermont has not refused to repeal the personal liberty law. She has referred the whole subject to the Commissioners on the revision of the laws of the State; with instructions to report whether the present law upon the rendition of fugitives is in conflict with the Constitution of the United States. The commissioners are ex-Judge Mile, L. Bennett, Pierpoint and Isham, and Hon. Andrew Tracy, formerly a member of Congress—all known to be men of strong conservative tendencies. There is little doubt that the legislative action of the state, so far as it has been expressed, will, after due deliberation, be corrected.

THE last number of the Mobile (Ala.) Tribune says:

It is entirely unnecessary to state here what is already known to every man engaged in business requiring the employment of money, that the South is laboring on the very verge of a financial crisis. So far the monetary community has gallantly met the shock, but whether it can weather the gathering storm is quite another affair. Obtaining our information from those presumed to be capable of judging correctly, we do not believe that they can.

DR. PEASLEE.—It has been industriously published throughout the country that the Rev. C. B. Parsons, late, his lamented Methodist Divine, had severed his connection with the Methodist Church, and united with the episcopal Church. We are informed, says the Louisville Journal, that the Doctor has reconsidered his late action, and that he has made formal application for readmission to the Methodist Church. It is necessary to forward the application to the Conference, and some time will elapse ere the result of the application will be announced.

WHEAT.—The show of winter wheat is unusually promising at this time, and if it stands the winter as well as its present condition would lead us to expect, our next crop of this cereal will be larger than our country has produced for some time, although the amount put in is not as large as was formerly the case.—Carrollton (Ill.) Press, 22nd.

THE official vote of Louisiana is, Breckinridge 18,388; Bell 15,940; Douglas 9,040. This is a slight gain over the vote of 1856, when Buchanan got 22,164 and Fillmore 20 709. Douglas seems to have drawn about equally from the two parties.

The Lone Star of the Palmetto Flag to the Secession Leaders.

O why, good friends, remove me from my brothers—
The thirty who around me clustered were!
Why rudely sever me from all the others
Placed sparkling with me in the sunny air!
Perhaps you may be right enough, but then,
I'm very, very lonesome, gentlemen!

I miss the cherry stripes of white and crimson,
That when I shone, shone proudly with me too,
For General George P. Morris to make hymns on—
The Red and White have gone, and left me Blue!
The wrong that we should be coerced, but thee,
I am so very lonesome, gentlemen!

How can you be triumphant and victorious,
When your brave soldiers and your gallant tars
Fight underneath a Single Star inglorious?
How can you make your enemies flee stars?
O, when my brethren shine in fight again,
Let them Count Ma'in, too, good gentlemen!

LET US CLEARLY UNDERSTAND.—The N. Y. Times, commenting on the recent demonstration of the Albany Evening Journal, says:

"Mr. Weed suggests such an amendment of the Fugitive Slave law as shall impose upon any county where a fugitive slave may be rescued, the payment of his value—and a restoration of the Missouri Compromise. The first proposition will meet with more general favor than the last. While the great mass of the people of the North were perfectly contented with the Missouri Compromise while it was suffered to stand, very many of them will hesitate to propose its readoption. If those by whom it was abrogated, and who thus made themselves responsible for the present condition of the country, see fit to present it as the basis of renewed peace, we believe it would be accepted. But we have very serious doubts of their willingness to go further."
