NURSES VS.

Since every man, for every talent given,
Is charged, and held accountable to Heaven,
For more important than the amount thou gainst
Of capital at first, it what then netted
Upon that capital—the amount thou addest
To credit side of the account thereof.
Don't say, then, "The more capital the better!"
That want apply to every man that lives!
Some have done well, whom capital was small,
While some, who seemed to have larger capital,
Could not have done much worse, with none at all!

But since each has what God has given to each,
And since the Giver knows to whom He gives
'Tis wise to think that each has got enough.
So, when you hear men say "The more the bet'er!"
Just think (for they're not thinking) that the greater
The debt in the more chargeable the debtor!
—But ach, Who said it? ... Echo answers, "Who?"
For those that say it, will not say they do!

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

The able English correspondent of the "Presbyterian Banner," gives in the last issue of that paper, an interesting account of the proceedings of the annual meeting of the Evangelical Alliance, recently held at Nottingham, England. The report of the year referred especially to the success attending the religious meetings held in London, in the houses of noblemen and others, and it was asserted that these conferences had done more than anything else to advance the interests of the Church of Christ and the cause of God on the Continent of Europe. Reference was also made to the progress of religious liberty in Turkey, notwithstanding the difficulties existing. An evening's session was given to the discussion of means for the advancement of Evangical Christianity in Italy. Sir C. E. Eardley delivered an admirable address on this topic. The Dean of Carliale (Dr. Close) proposed the following resolution bearing on the changes in Italy:

That this Conference regards the state of Italy as one of singular and unprecedented importance to the interests of religion. It cannot behold without awe, the wonderful movement by which God seems to be undermining that great enemy to the faith of Jesus, the Papacy, nor can it help recognizing with gratitude the readiness with which, in many places, the population is listening to the truth and receiving grace; ask that under these circumstances, it could not become the Evangelical Alliance to stand indifferent to what is passing before us; understanding that there are committees in France, Switzerland and Italy, desires that the Council should maintain brotherly communion with these bodies, with a view to aid their operation, leaves it to the Council to devise such means for raising funds in the country, and applying them to the benefit of Italy as they may deem expedient.

The Dean also delivered an address on the second day, very Catholic in its spirit, and indicating marked spiritual progress. Considerable prominence was given to accounts of revival influence in Ireland, Scotland and Wales. Dr. Brown, of Aberdeen, read a paper on "united and universal prayer throughout the entire Church," and intimated that the second week in January, 1861, had been set apart by the Alliance for that purpose.

——The publication Society in Wurtemburg, Germany, under the direction of Dr. Barth, is printing school-books of every discription, all consonant with the Bible. The Bible History has been published in not fower than fifty-three different languages, and circulated to the enormous amount of 762,000 copies in Germany, 25,000 in England, 45,000 in Swedea, and 40,000 in China; in all, 1,100,000. It is an admirable outline, adapted to the capacity of the youth, of the histories in the Old and New Testament, in fifty-two sections from each Testament.

——Dr. McClintock, pastor of the American Protestant Chapel, in Paris, says in a late communication to the "Methodist:"

Is the present aspects of French Protestantism there are many very encouraging facts. It is believed that there are now about one million six hundred thousand Protestants in France, an increase of perhaps half a million since 1800. This increase is largely made up of converts from Romanism.—Pastor Boscher states that some time since, at the opening of a new chapel, he detained the people after service, and asked them individually, whether they were born Romanists or Protestants. Out of two hundred and forty-seven communicants present, only forty-three were born Protestants; all the rest were converts. There has been a great change in the attitude of the literary men of France toward Protestantism within the last few years.

——There are seventeen synagogues in New York city. The first was erected in 1729.

——The Sabbath Schools of the Reformed and United Presbyterian churches of Pittsburgh, held their Fourth Annual Thanksgiving celebration in the First United Presbyterian Church of this city, on Thursday the 29th ult., Dr. Douglas presiding. Addresses were delivered by Revs. Matthew McBride and John McMillan and Dr. James Prestley.

——The Presbytery of Allegheny (United Presbyterian) will meet in the First Church, Allegheny city, Christmas day at 7. P. M.

——H. Grattan Guinness in a reply to the statement that he had "joined the Plymouth brethren," says:

It is true that after a careful study of the doctrine of believers' baptism, I was convinced of its scripturalness, and have been accordingly baptized; but so far from my baptism having united me to any denomination, by its mode it left me (and purposely so) on the perfectly unsectarian ground I have hitherto occupied. I maintain this position in order that I may freely preach the gospel among Christians of all denominations willing to receive me for the Lord's sake.

The editor of the American Presbyterian asks the following questions:

Dear Mr. Guinness: Is the statement that he was baptized by Lord Congleton, a layman, and one of the Plymouth brethren?

If he was, did he not thereby ignore the existence of the ministry as a distinct order of men?

Did not his going to the Plymouth brethren for baptism endorse their disorganizing creed?

Is charity promoted by ignoring and contravening the order of all religious denominations?

——It is reported that 25,156 copies of the Holy Scriptures were sold last year in Constantinople, which was more than double the number sold there in the preceding year.

——The seventh anniversary of the "Christian Medical Association of London" was celebrated at Freeman's Hall by appropriate and interesting services. Already much good has been accomplished by this society among medical students.

——Applications to the American Tract Society, New York, are frequent and pressing from India, Turkey, Germany and Italy, for aid. The committee recently donated three hundred copies of "Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress," in Italian to Italy, and a gentleman donated two hundred more to go out in the same vessel.

——Several distinguished clergymen of New York have consented to lead the prayer meetings of the Young Men's Christian Association, on Wednesday and Saturday evenings.

——The trains of the Harlem Railway, New York have ceased running on Sunday to the Central Park.

——According to the Amer. Presbyterian there are no less than one thousand Union Prayer Meetings in the United States, and eight hundred in England and Wales.

——The English correspondent of Zion Herald writes the following:

Days of Pentecost appear to be drawing nearer and nearer to England. Prayer meetings are multiplying and becoming increasingly popular, and special revival services are being resorted to by all Evangelical Churches—Presbyterians, Episcopalians and the other Methodist bodies taking the foremost place in the revival campaign.

——The Rose Street Methodist Episcopal Church, Pittsburgh, was formally dedicated to the service of Almighty God on Sabbath, 2d inst., with appropriate religious services. Bishop Simpson preached in the afternoon, and Rev. I. C. Fernhing, President of the Pittsburgh Female College, in the evening.

——Religious gambling is recommended by the Protestant's Journal editorially, according to the following:

The beautiful Cameo, presented by his Holiness, the Pope, for the charities of the Sisters of Mercy, will be drawn on the 24 of December, at the Convent of Mercy, in Houston street, New York. The manner of drawing will be arranged by a Committee of gentlemen. Tickets for the Cameo may be had at the Convent.

——Rev. Samuel Fulton, pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian Church, says the Presbyterian Banner, has settled the congregation of his desire to be released from existing bonds. He has had the care of that church for eighteen years.

——The Rev. J. V. Hines, of Boston, looks for the end of the world sometime between 1865 and 1868. Dr. Cumming, of London, has fixed 1867.

——A correspondent of the London Record, says:

"Every day you see cases in Spain of persecution on religious matters. Not less than fifteen persons have been locked up in Granada, and the Court of that city has issued warrants against as many on the ground that they were in connection with the Rev. Mr. Reid, a Presbyterian clergyman of Gibralter, they having committed the "gross crime" of receiving some Bibles from him.

——A Union Prayer meeting of the Baptist Churches of New York City, has just been inaugurated—to be held weekly on Wednesday afternoon.

——The following choice bit should be read (twice by those who are addressed:

Wanted—A species of gum shoes and umbrellas that will stand the Sunday rain or Sunday mud of this latitude.

I know a preparation which I think will fully answer the purpose; and as no patent has been taken out (the demand being very small,) every one is at liberty to try the experiment:

Put in common gum shoes a scout thoroughly saturated with Divine love, and they will stand any mud that ever lay in the path of duty.

An excellent umbralla may be prepared in the following manner:

Take for the stock a firm determination for the performance of duty; to this, and radiating from it on all sides, attach strong desires to do good. These must be braced, and kept in their proper place by many short, unyielding prayers, well secured by the rivets of faith. Over the whole spread a covering of grace, well oiled with self-denial. Instead of the last named article, some use the spirit of impulse, which answers for a little while, but will soon wear out.

This umbrella will not only stand rains, but during the heat of summer will answer equally well for a parasol. Those desirous of supplying themselves with these invaluable articles, would do well to make immediate application to Him "who giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not."

Scrofula, or King's Evil, is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth, and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and the many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed, of all the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invited for this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in — the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this evil. Wherever prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only Scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as Eruptive and Skin Diseases, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Blains and Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Rheumatism, Syphilitic and Mercurial Diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia; Debility, and, indeed, all Complaints arising from Vitiated or Impure Blood. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

AYER'S
Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC, are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache arising from disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF
Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.
