Quack Nostrums.

THE NEW YORK DAY BOOK says: "The majority of Hair Dyes, Hair Tonics, Hair Oils, and the numberless preparations which are now before the public under such extravagant, hyperbolical and fantastic titles as we few years back to associate with dog cakes, and newspaper headlines, as their preparations, are all humbugs of the first water, their real merit, when they possess any, is, that they do no harm. HOPE'S LAND, WHALE OIL, LARD OIL, SWEET OIL, scented and colored, make up, when in bottles, a beautiful wrapper and white flint glass bottles, the comical character of tonics and when these qualities, combined with some intelligible terms, and caught at by verdant young and old of both sexes. Such is not the character of Professor Wood's Hair Restorative. This gentleman comes before the world without any "high falutin" Xilophelotorium, or any other astounding and startling catchpenny terms; he simply advertises a Hair Restorative—what it supposes precisely—and as a Restorative it acts. Say Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and as you raise your scalp, sir, your very brains, apply nothing else; for it may be that you will get some sores subsequent upon perfumes, and of course you will get no hair. Wood's Restorative for the Hair is the best article extant."

It Will, by Nature's own Process, Restore Gray Hair to the Original Color, Will make Hair Grow on Bald Heads, Will restore the Natural Secretions, Will root out and expel Dandruff, Will remove all Impurities, Will cure all Humors on the Scalp and Head, Will make the Hair Soft and Glossy, Will make the old appear Young Again, Will preserve the Color of Hair Long, Will always Restore it after it has Fallen, And is one of the best Toilet Articles for the Hair now in use.

PITTSBURGH: THURSDAY MORNING, DEC. 13.

Insanity in New Orleans.

A gentleman of Chicago, direct from New Orleans, where he has been spending a short time for commercial purposes, tells us that we of the North can form no adequate idea of the blind, unreasoning passion and insensate fury by which the people of that city and the extreme South are animated. To be suspected of Republicanism is the signal for a warning, to be convicted of it is to be driven off. The moveable police force is the mob under the name of vigilance committees, and these the better class of citizens are powerless to restrain. There is in fact throughout all the Cotton States an undignified Reign of Terror.

The St. Charles Hotel is the centre of the excitement. That house is the common resort of the most violent of the fanatics, who between their cups and their cursings amuse themselves with hunting up, insulting and driving off Northern men because they are Northern men. When our friend left the city, the ruffians had made a clean sweep; and that caravansary was without a resident of any of the free States within its walls. They had all been compelled to leave—some to quit the city and their business, others to look up more decent quarters—where violence and ruffianism are not the rule. One evening in the reading room of that establishment, the crowd was assembled as usual, and as usual the Abolitionists were the theme. Becoming excited, one man said to be wealthy and influential, pulled out his pocket book, and said, "Here are $5,000 which I will subscribe to a fund to procure the assassination of Lincoln and Hamlin. Who'll swell the pile?" In ten minutes or less, more than $40,000 had been offered for this infamous purpose, and the names of the subscribers were taken down. The witness of this transaction is far from believing that this was mere gasconade.

We are told further that masters of vessels and steamboats, if suspected of free soil proclivities, are not safe. Only a few days ago, a captain and the clerk of a river steamer were taken off their boat and forced, by threats of hanging to make their way North by the most expeditious route. It was said they had voted for Lincoln. Every day ship-captains are subjected to wanton abuse and threats of violence, not because they are known to be Republicans; but because they are suspected of believing that buying and selling men is not pure democracy and the highest evidence of Christianity. New Orleans is certainly a miniature Pandemonium.

Our informant says that on his way through Southern Mississippi by coach, (the railroad track being washed away for many miles,) he saw the dead bodies of two men suspended by the neck from trees by the roadside. In answer to the inquiry, "For what where these men hung?" he was told, "because they were d——ned Abolitionists!" and the excuse for the barbarity displayed in permitting them to remain, rotting in the sun and rain, was "Abolitionists would not polute the State by having d——ned Abolitionists buried in the soil." This fact, says our informant, displays as forcibly, as anything else, the temper by which the extremists of that section of the country are impelled. In further proof of the insanity he relates the escape of Professor Mitchell, the well known astronomer of Cincinnati. He was on the cars going South, and when near Jackson, Miss., a man somewhat inflamed with liquor, but more with pro-slavery fanaticism, entered into conversation with him on political subjects. The Professor was cautious and reserved; but ventured to say he thought Mr. Lincoln was a conservative man and would not do injustice to the South, his pro-slavery friend was greatly incensed; and when the train halted at Jackson, jumped to the platform and shouted to the crowd about the station, "There's a d——ned abolitionist on the train! Lynch him! Lynch him!" Instantly at least fifty men jumped on and commenced a search for the offensive specimen of Northern opinion; but before the Professor could be pointed out, the conductor seeing the danger, pulled his bell cord and the cars moved off, and with them the Professor with a whole skin.

We have not been told a fourth that has been related to us of the state of opinion in the South; but we have given enough to satisfy all parties that when men of the North talk about conciliating such ruffians by Compromise, they are fooling their time away. They mean revolution. —Chicago Press.

STRANGE ILLNESS OF THE EMPRESS EUGENIE—She becomes a Hypochondriac.—On the subject of the visit of the Empress Eugenie to Scotland the close gossiping Paris correspondent of the Court Journal says:—

"Ever since the death of her sister, the Duchess d'Alba, the Empress has been laboring under the most terrible depression of spirits, and has given herself up entirely to the sad thoughts inspired by her bereavement. The doctors have been called in one after the other, but without avail. Masses and requiems were alone capable of giving a moment's calm to Her Majesty's constant excitement, amounting almost to despair. Her Majesty is evidently suffering from that peculiar state of mind known in France as the imagination fixe, a state which, in England, is treated energetically, by shower baths, change of scene, opposition, sometimes by downright coercion but which in France meets with indulgence and sympathy, with the humoring of relatives, and the cossing and watchful eagerness of dependants (all bad methods of treatment according to English ideas,) and is therefore suffered to acquire the proportion of a formidable disease, instead of slipped in the bud, as it is with us. The conviction which has induced this state of mind with the Empress is, that of being doomed to perish like her sister, and of the same painful and lingering complaint, of which, with true hypochondriacal delusion, she is beginning to experience every symptom as prompted by imagination suffering, the pain and weariness in reality, while the disease is only imaginary. Travelling alone has long since been pronounced the only cure for this state of mind, and the doctors had all agreed that nothing but a visit to the South could restore her to her usual state of health."

THE PRINCE OF WALES AT MOUNT VERNON.—The London Globe makes some appropriate remarks on the visit of the Prince of Wales to Mount Vernon, during his visit to the United States. We quote:

A Prince of Wales in the capital of the United States is a great fact; but greater by far is a Prince of Wales bareheaded at the grave of George Washington. We reciprocate the hearty enthusiasm of the New Yorkers
