FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Wednesday, Dec. 19, 1860.—
The speech of Gov. Johnson of Tennessee, in the Senate, yesterday, was a long and powerful one, and has excited much interest. He has been denounced by the Republican and Democratic newspapers, and is said to have been the cause of the late quarrel between the President and the South. He is reported to have been the cause of the late quarrel between the President and the South. He is reported to have been the cause of the late quarrel between the President and the South.

THE SOUTHERN QUESTION.

Mr. Buchanan received a hard hit, by being reminded of his celebrated Ocala manifesto. He argued with him that his present position is not only a retreat, but a complete abandonment of his former position. He is reported to have been the cause of the late quarrel between the President and the South.
