MONDAY MORNING, JAN. ——

[Written for the Daily Dispatch.]

LIFE.

"The Word, the Life!" are words
Of sublimest import, as the Gospel shows!
Let us be sincere, nay can we speak
Into the heart whose hardness has been broken
By penitence!—and then, the words just spoken—
Pray!—interesting—they have a sound of heaven!
But nothing less than heavenly words are they—
So, freight with heavenly hope!—as if the breath
Of the all-loving Christ were warm in each,
Of those words yet! Warm with Heaven's hope, they teach
All faith in Him who first the victory won
Over sin in life, and o'er all death in death!
Whereby to all the ages He hath showed
The way of life—and, better still, bestowed
Love's power, hope's patience, and the spirit of faith,
To take at first, and afterwards to keep
This way—as He did, when, from deep to deep
Of a world's sorrows, which had ever flowed
And threatened to o'erwhelm him, he went on—
Went on, nor faltered—though in surging wrath,
The high-priestian waves swept darkly o'er his path;—
Went on, and worked on, too—till he had gone
Their lowest through, and till that work was done,
For our sakes undertaken—that the love
Of God to man might be beyond denial
And man's denial forever! And beyond denial
And doubt forever, God Himself to prove
His life an infinite eternal love,
Triumphant, thus suffered for us in His Son.

Scattered? Good, our Father! when we are
Thy children—for whom it is ours to be, Thou!
What conflicts his! what his humiliation!
What earnest contradiction suffered He!
But I was through suffering all—and through faith's stern
trial—
Through travail of the soul—through world temptation—
Yea, a whole life-long work of service through—
All done too, not as a work of self-denial,
But lovingly, as work that love would do!
Thus beyond doubt, and thus beyond denial,
He proved His love—His Father's and His own!
Proved 'tis unchangeable, immortal love!
—And this He did also, as less in greater prove:
That in the most dangerous hour, when foes are rife
Without—and in the still more dangerous hour,
When, wildly raging, swells the passion strife
Within—thou hast quick and different power
To prove the way of faith the way of life!

Pittsburgh, 1861. [S. M. MACKEE.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

——The English correspondent of Zion's Herald writes that the Presbyterian Free Church of Scotland, which has been in existence for sixteen years, when the disruption of the Church of Scotland occurred, has raised during that time nearly $25,000,000 and has paid her ministers nearly $10,000,000. The original number of ministers was 583, has now swelled to 812. Nearly $600,000 has been given for Home Missions, and $3,500,000 have been expended in the erection of 800 church edifices. Her 565 manses have cost $1,800,000; her schools, colleges and church offices nearly $600,000. Her membership is estimated at rather under a quarter of a million. The minimum salary of a minister of the Free Church is $670, and a house and garden.

——In an editorial of the Advocate and Journal on political campaigns, some interesting statistics of Methodist Episcopal Church are given. We learn the increase of membership in the campaign year of 1848 was 7,608, while the average of the three succeeding years was 27,869, nearly four times as many. The increase during the campaign year of 1852 was 6,896, while the average of the three succeeding years was 16,014. During the Fremont campaign the increase was small, but the average increase for the three succeeding years was 57,973. This increase, other things being equal, was observed to be very nearly proportioned to that religious faithfulness on the part of individuals which both attracted the people and won the approval of God.

——The Old School Synod of Ohio, in its Narrative of the State of Religion, says:

"With pleasure we note the fact that the hearts of the mothers in Israel are being turned toward their children. In many of our churches mothers' prayer meetings and mothers' concerts of prayer for the conversion of their children are maintained. And will the God of love refuse the importunity of a believing mother's pleading? It cannot be.

——An exchange says that ten converted Jews and Jewesses were baptized recently in England. Nineteen of the sponsors were converted Jews.

——The Presbytery of Alleghany of the United Presbyterian Church, met in the First U. P. Church, Alleghany city, on Christmas day. Rev. J. B. Clark was elected Moderator for the ensuing year. Among the items of business transacted was a recommendation to set apart the second week of this month, commencing with Monday 7th, as a season of social prayer, with reference to the distracted state of our country, and the state of living godliness in the church. The 7th day of January, designated by the General Assembly as a day of "Humiliation and Confession of sins," was recommended to be observed instead of the 4th, appointed by the President.

——The Southwestern Baptist thus replies to a question as to whether Baptists tolerate dancing:

"Baptists have never tolerated dancing, and it is to be hoped that they will ever have a sufficient amount of good sense and piety to continue in the repudiation of so senseless and so wicked a thing. It has ever been the usage of Baptists to remonstrate with or arraign such of their members as had been guilty of dancing, and if they persisted they were unhesitatingly expelled."

——The death of Rev. S. W. Sharpe, Presbyterian missionary to Sangora to Bogota, South America, is announced in the Banner of this week. He died of fever, aged twenty-six years.

——The Presbyterian of Penn says that after a sharp and protracted discussion in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, on the question, Whether or not a person should be admitted to the Lord's table without baptism? the General Assembly of 1859 put the matter to rest by "leaving the churches do as they thought proper."

——Gartbaldi replies to the letter of an Irish gentleman, who wrote to explain that it was Popery, and not Ireland, which sent a band of misguided youths to uphold slavery in Italy, as follows:

"We could ever think that your fellow-countrymen were not deceived when they served the cause of the Pope under Lamoriciere? Every one in Italy knows the heavy burden of oppression under which your country as well as ours is still groaning. The offerings of ignorance and imposition—Popery—dwells unfortunately in the powerful with hypocrisy, and in the poor with the concomitant evils, prostitution, degradation, and misery. Albion became great and prosperous when she courageously cut off that cancer. Rome! she ceased to be great, she continued to be prostrate, and still lies in that filthy state, because the Almighty was pleased to visit the scum of the world with that scourge."

——An institution has been formed under the auspices of several titled gentlemen for diffusing evangelical principles in London. It is proposed to stock two carriages with Bibles, accompanied by two men, one to propel and attend the carriage, the other to read in a clear loud voice striking portions of the Scriptures as would be likely to have an immediate and permanent effect upon the persons listening to them.

——Quite an interesting revival spirit prevails in many of the districts in the Island of Jamaica. In some places business is suspended. Restitution of stolen property is not uncommon. Grog shops are closed. Persons who have long lived together in fornication hasten to be united in marriage, while those who have violated the marriage vow anxiously seek the partners whom they had abandoned.

——Rev. S. Ewing and Wife, and Miss Mokeus, (United Presbyterian Mission, arrived safely at Cairo on the 20th of November.

——Rt. Rev. Bishop Whipple, in a morning service which he held in St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, New York, spoke of the Indian Missions in Minnesota, as follows:

"In their schools in St. Paul at present there were one hundred and fifty scholars, eighteen of whom were Ojibbeway and Sioux Indians, training to be teachers among their own people. Twelve young men were being prepared for the ministry, and he trusted that a large number of the boys in the grammar school yet become candidates for the sacred calling. The time had come when it was most necessary that they should build some plain building as a home for their Indian youth, who were being prepared as teachers to spread the Gospel among their eighteen thousand red brethren in that State."

——It is proposed to erect a column to the memory of Wm. Tyndale, the translator of the Bible, who suffered martyrdom near Brussels, in 1555. Nitty Knoll, Gloucester, England, has been selected, near where he was born.

——The Presbyterian gives an interesting interesting incident which occurred at the close of the Tercentenary celebration of the Presbyterians, in Philadelphia. Some person remarked, "That as there were five organizations of the Church, there was some danger of losing the way on so many lines of roads." "There is no danger at all," said the reply; "you will not be lost if you only take care to keep on them; they are all strait!"

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

A compound remedy, designed to be the most effectual Alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Sarsaparilla, and is combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumulous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints:—

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, RHEUMATISM OR THE DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many serious disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

PREPARED BY
DR. J. C. AYER & CO.
LOWELL, MASS.
Price, $1 per Bottle; Six Bottles for $5.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

has won for itself such a renown for the cure of every variety of Throat and Lung Complaint, that it is entirely unnecessary for us to recount the evidence of its virtues, wherever it has been employed. As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all it has ever been found to do.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR THE CURE OF
Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Erysipelas, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a Dinner Pill, and for Purifying the Blood.

They are sugar-coated, so that the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, and they are the best aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with other preparations they make more profit on. Demand AYER'S, and take no others. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.

All our remedies are for sale by
J. A. FAHNESTOCK & CO., Pittsburgh, and Dealers generally. oct14:ly&W7.
