Court of Quarter Sessions.

Before Judges McClure, Parke and Adams.

Tuesday, Jan. 8.—Com. vs. Wm. McCaughan; indictment assault and battery with intent to kill, on oath of Enoch Dias. The parties reside in Elizabeth township, and are both old and gray-headed. They had been drinking whisky at the house of defendant, and as a consequence quarreled without any cause; during an altercation which ensued between them, the prosecutor received several severe though not dangerous wounds with a knife, used by defendant. Verdict, guilty."

Com. vs. James Summers, Robert Mickey and John Campbell. These parties were indicted, on oath of High Constable Hague, for passing and having in their possession counterfeit bills, purporting to be issued by the "State Bank of Ohio, Hocking Valley Branch, Lancaster," on the 19th of September. Christian Umbis, bar-keeper, and Thomas Stone, proprietor of the "Seats' House," testified that defendants passed a $1 note of the description given, at that time.

Charles Goehring, of Birmingham, had a note of the same kind passed upon him, which he believed had been given him by the same parties.

Captain Vierbeller, and Mr. Wagner, his barkeeper, testified that certain parties, whom he believed to be the defendants, passed a $5 note at the Captain's house, and one of the latter redeemed it upon being told it was spurious.

Chief of Police Hague testified that when he arrested defendants, on the steamer Lioness, he found $8 in counterfeit money between the mattresses in Campbell's state room. Mr. Riddle arrested Simmons in another state-room, but found no counterfeit money.

Afternoon Session.—The prosecution in the counterfeit case having closed, the defense called several witnesses testifying to the good character for honesty of Campbell and Summers.

The jury returned a verdict that Summers is not guilty; that Mickey is guilty on the first count, not guilty on the second; that Campbell is guilty on the second count, not guilty on the first.

Com. vs. Warner Powell; indicted for the larceny of some clothing, valued at about $9, from the house of Mr. Robinson Evans, (residing near Sharpsburg,) about a year ago. The defendant is a married man, residing in Hatfield, and alleges that he bought the property, charged to have been stolen, from some rivermen, who sold them to him for $2. George Hoyle, for the defense, testified to the above facts, but his was contradicted by Mrs. Evans, the prosecutrix, who was called for the purpose of rebuttal, and stated that at the time she found the property at Powell's house, Hoyle stated he did not know anything about the affair. Other witnesses testified that Powell had told different stories as to how he obtained possession of the property. The case will go to the jury this morning.

District Court.

Tuesday, Jan. 8.—The jury in the case of Allegheny City vs. Wm. H. Denny, before reported, found a verdict for plaintiff in the sum of $1,524,55—subject to the decision of the Court upon a reserved point, as to the publication of the ordinance by trade.

The next case taken up was that of Cherry, M'Arthur & Co. vs. the Manufacturers Insurance Company. The plaintiffs formerly owned a coal oil work at Darlington station, on the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, which were destroyed by fire some three or four years ago. They held policies of insurance for about $2,500, in five several companies, and now seek to recover the same, with interest. Three of the five companies, it is said, have since become bankrupt.

After an argument upon the pleadings the case was continued and the Court adjourned.

The following eight cases are within reach for to day:

325, Johnston vs. Walter.
349, Karl vs. Black's Executors
330, Scott vs. Cunningham.
331, Maire vs. Taylor.
332, Same.
333, Larimer for use vs. Elder.
335, Ross' Executors vs. Gillett.
337, Nichols vs. Hensel.

Suit for Perjury.

Our readers will remember a singular charge of larceny, preferred some months since, against John Coolhoot and wife, a German couple residing in Ohio township. A peddler, traveling westward, lost a carpet sack on the public highway, containing $250 in money, and the Coolhoots were charged with having found it. A couple of men named George Fox and Wm. Adams, engaged at a new building on the roadside, testified that they saw Coolhoot and wife driving to market in a little wagon, and also saw them with the carpet sack in their possession—they alleging that they had picked it up on the way, but as they did not know the owner they took it along with them. A search warrant was issued, but the police failed to discover any traces of the lost treasure. The Coolhoots denied in toto that they had found the carpet sack, but they were arrested and taken before Mayor Wilson for a hearing. While the investigation was going on, a German came walking into the office and surprised everybody—particularly the owner of the money—by announcing that he had found the sack; and that as soon as he heard of the owner and the circumstances attending the arrest of the Coolhoots, he thought it his duty to make known the truth. The money was all recovered, and the Dispatch and Post were duly informed. The accused were discharged, and thus the matter was thought to be at an end.

The case, however, has been revived by the Coolhoots, who have entered suit against Fox and Adams, charging them with wilful and corrupt perjury, in swearing that the carpet sack had been found by the prosecutors. The parties reside in Ohio township, and are said to be honest and deserving men. They were arrested and taken before Alderman Scott, where they waived a hearing and entered bail for trial.

Hearing Children.

The following rules for rearing children are deserving the attention of every man and woman:

Children should not go to school until six years old.

Should not learn at home during that time more than the alphabet, religious teaching excepted.

Should be fed with plain, substantial food, at regular intervals of; not less than four hours.

Should not be allowed to eat anything within two hours of bed-time.

Should have nothing for supper but a single cup of warm drink, such as very weak tea of some kind, or candied tea, or warm milk and water, with one slice of cold bread and butter—nothing else.

Should sleep in separate beds, on hair mattrasses, without cups, first well warmed by the fire or rubbed with the hands until perfectly dry; extra covering on the lower limbs, but little on the body.

Should be compelled to be out of doors for the greater part of daylight, from after breakfast until half an hour before sundown, unless in damp, raw weather, when they should not be allowed to go outside the door.

Never limit a healthy child as to eating or sleeping, except at supper; but compel regularity as to both; it is of great importance.

Never compel a child to sit still, nor interfere with its enjoyment, as long as it is not actually injurious to persons or property or against good morals.

Never threaten a child; it is cruel, unjust and dangerous. What you have to do, do it, and be done with it.

Never speak harshly or angrily, but mildly, kindly and, when really needed, firmly—no more. By all means arrange it so that the last words between you and your children at bed-time, especially the younger ones, shall be words of unmixed loviugness and affection.

The New County Dial.

The sun dial ordered by the County Commissioners, and for which a stone pedestal has been erected at the left of the entrance to the County Jail, has been finished, and is now in the Commissioners' office. The plate is very handsomely gotten up, and contains the following inscriptions:

"Erected by the County Commissioners for the County of Allegheny. E. H. Hastings, County Surveyor."

"J. H. M'Elheny, Zaccheus Patterson, Jonathan Beaff, County Commissioners, 1860."

The above inscriptions are right and left of the centre, and below them is the following:

"I go by the SUN and you by the Shadow. James Reed & Co., Pittsburgh, Pa."

The pedestal is protected by a neat iron railing, and the entire work is creditably executed. The plate will be adjusted in a day or two, and will prove ornamental as well as useful.

Sentenced to the Penitentiary.

On Monday evening, Mr. Lewis D. Hutchison, a well known and highly respectable citizen, appeared in the Criminal Court, and plead guilty to an assault and battery with intent to kill Augustus Decker. The parties reside in Lawrenceville, and it will be recollected that Decker was shot and severely injured by Mr. Hutchison last summer—it being alleged that the wife of the latter had been grossly insulted by Decker, near her own house, and almost in the presence of her husband. The provocation was said to be great, but the defendant, by the advice of his counsel, put in a plea of guilty; and was sentenced by Judge Mellon to one year and six months in the penitentiary. It is confidently expected that Executive clemency will be extended to the prisoner.

Oil News.

We see it stated that the oil well of Messrs. Patton, Foley, Sugg & Co., at Smith's ferry, on the Ohio river, is now yielding from nine to ten barrels daily. After expending $2,000, the first struck oil in paying quantities on the 28th ult., and during the ensuing week they realized over fifty barrels, which sold at the well at 50 cents per gallon. The owner of the land gets one-fourth of the oil in barrels. Some two months ago the farm on which the well is located was offered at $40,000. Parties now offer $50,000, but the owner holds it at $60,000. Oil operations in that vicinity have received a fresh impetus, and preparations are making for several new wells.

A Husband in Danger.—Bridget Murphy, if her husband Patrick is to be believed, is a very dangerous partner. He appeared before Alderman Donaldson, and made information charging her with assault and battery, and declaring that he is in constant danger from her attacks. A warrant was issued, but Bridget could not be found.

ALLEGHENY ELECTION.

The City Election in Allegheny passed off quietly yesterday. In some of the Wards the contest was quite spirited, owing to the number of "Smooth Bores" in the field.

Mr. Drum has been elected Mayor by a majority of 410, over his competitor, Mr. Mercer.

The following is the vote:

Weighmaster of Markets—James Wright.

CHARGE OF EXTORTION.—Ald. J. H. Rogers and Chief F. E. Finegan, have been held to answer a charge of extortion preferred by Matthew Steel, proprietor of a drinking saloon on Wylie street. Steel alleges that he was some time since arrested upon a charge of keeping a gambling house, and taken before Alderman Rogers, and that officer Flanegin suggested to him that he had better pay the costs and be done with it. He asked what the costs would amount to, and Flanegin told him that he would go down and see the District Attorney about it. He half an hour he returned and said that the fees, costs, etc., would amount to fifteen dollars. Steel then stated that he had not that amount of money about him, but would get it. He afterwards learned that Flanegin had not been to see the District Attorney at all, and after laying the matter before an attorney, was advised to pay over the money to Rogers and Flanegin, and bring suit against both of them for extortion, which he did. The case went up before the Grand Jury yesterday.

GYMNASTIC ASSOCIATION.—The following gentlemen have been chosen as a Board of Managers for the ensuing year:—Robert L. Colliers, George P. Corts, Joseph P. Morrison, Christopher Magee, Evans R Darlington, Jacob S. Reymer, Robert A. McCombe, Wm. B. Neeper, Jacob Slagle. Admission Committee—Wm. D. Cooper, John N. Zeigler.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—A man named Miller brought a complaint before Alderman Scott, on Saturday evening last, against Frank Myers. He is about fourteen years of age, charging him with committing an assault and battery. The parties are employed at the Eagle Cotton Factory, where they had a difficulty, when Myers struck Miller above the left eye with a bobbin, inflicting an ugly wound. The defendant was arrested yesterday and entered bail for his appearance at Court.

WHAT IT IS WORTH.—A Harrisburg paper states that the office of Adjutant General in that State yields but $200 per annum, while in New York the same post is worth $1,500. There were ten applicants for the office, and if the semi-official announcements (which we have already published) be correct, our talented fellow citizen, Gen. J. S. Negley, will be the lucky competitor.

BOLD LARCENY.—On Monday evening some scamp entered the drinking saloon of F. A. Shachleiter, on Fifth street, while the family were at supper, and gaining access to a room in the second story secured about forty dollars worth of jewelry and a lot of clothing.

ACCIDENT.—An old lady named Clark, residing on Webster street, near Gum street, slipped on the ice, yesterday, and in falling fractured her thigh. Dr. McCrickart attended upon her.

ADMITTED.—On motion of Judge Shaler, Henry W. Patterson and Charles F. Dawson, esqrs., of Fayette county, were duly admitted and qualified to practice in the District Court of this county.

IN PARIS.—Among the names of the Americans registered at Paris, Dec. 15th, we notice Mr. John Shipton and Mr. Charles F. Spring and family, of Pittsburgh.

THE Pittsburgh Almanac, for 1861, with Hill's calculations. The edition of this popular almanac is nearly all sold. Dealers wishing them had better order soon.

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

Arrival of the Palestine.

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—The steamship Palestine has arrived with Liverpool advices to Wednesday, Dec. 26th.

The steamship Arabia arrived out on the 23d ult.

Business has been generally suspended since the Australian sailed, on account of the Christmas holidays.

The English papers regard the political crisis in America as more serious than anticipated. The London Times, in its leader, says that the problem of a Democratic Republic may be solved by its overthrow in a few days, owing to the prevailing spirit of folly, selfishness and shortsightedness.

ITALY.—Italian affairs are unchanged. It is reported that the French fleet is about to quit Gaeta. In Paris, however, it is rumored that Russia and France have agreed to support Francis II. in his resistance until spring.

A great desertion in the papal army is reported to exist in the besieged army at Gaeta.

It is stated that a decree was preparing at Naples, ordering an extraordinary levy of men between 18 and 25 years of age.

Placards have been posted at Rome bearing the arms of Victor Emanuel and the words "we desire annexation to Sardinia." They were surrounded with crowds, but there were no arrests made.

The city of Naples is about to give a grand ball to the army.

Austria.—The circular of the Smerberg, detailing the New Austrian reforms has been published. Its provisions generally are very liberal.

China.—The latest advices from China state that the ratification of the treaty of peace with the allies was exchanged by the Convention, and signed at Pekin on the 24th of October.

The English and French Ambazadors took up their residence at Pekin and were to remain till the 9th.

The French army returned from Pekin on the 1st of November, but the English army were to remain till the ambassadors leave.

A large force remains at Tiensin until the treaty conditions are all fulfilled.

The principal clauses of the treaty are: The Emperor to apologize for the Peiho affair last year; the Minister to reside in Pekin; the indemnity fixed to be published; Tiensin to be opened to trade immediately; emigration to be allowed; Cowloon to be ceded to Great Britain; the treaty to be promulgated throughout China; Chessan to be evacuated by the British forces; the allied armies to leave Pekin on the 8th of November.

The Emperor's summer palace had been destroyed by fire.

The bodies of the prisoners who died in the hands of the Chinese had been brought to Pekin and buried.

The Emperor was still in Astary.

The insurgents are still menacing Ning Po.

JACKSON, Miss., January 8.—The Commissioners of South Carolina and Alabama were invited to accept.

A resolution was adopted to amend the Constitution of the State authorizing the borrowing of money for the purpose of a military defense.

The following standing committees were appointed: Federal Jurisdiction, Property, Mississippi Postal affairs, State Constitution, Naval and Military affairs, formation of a Southern Confederacy—to report by ordinance or otherwise.

A resolution of invitation to the judges of the high and circuit courts, to seats, was adopted.

Much of the day was occupied in the discussion of the report of the Convention to amend the Constitution of the State.

A despatch announcing Georgia's determination of secession immediately, was received with applause.

The Convention adjourned till to-morrow.

When the committee on the secession ordinance made their report, the excitement was intense. The galleries were full of ladies.

The military paraded with a flag of fifteen stars and there was mimic warfare with skirmishing. The hotels are thronged with interested citizens from abroad.

WASHINGTON CITY, Jan. 8.—Mr. Thompson to-day resigned to the President; his commission as Secretary of the Interior, on the ground that after the order to reinforce Fort Sumter was countermanded on Dec. 31st, there was a distinct understanding that no troops should be ordered to the South without the subject being considered and decided in the Cabinet. At the Cabinet meeting on the 2d inst. the matter was again debated but not determined. Notwithstanding these facts, the Secretary of War, without the knowledge of Secretary Thompson, sent 250 men in the line of the West, to reinforce Major Anderson. Not learning of this till this morning, he forthwith resigned.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—It is understood that prominent members of the Diplomatic Corps have addressed the government in reference to the commercial interests of their respective countries, in view of the present political troubles, and what degree of protection may be expected, or something to this effect. The government, however, has not replied.

Returns are daily received at the proper office, from the South Carolina postmasters, showing that the business is progressing as heretofore, including the honoring of contractors orders for pay, and the purchase of postage stamps.

Salutes were fired here to-day in honor of the anniversary of the battle of New Orleans.

NASHVILLE, January 7.—The Tennessee Legislature met to-day. The Governor's message was read. It recommends that the question of calling a Convention be left to the people. He says the remedy for the present evils exist only in Constitutional amendments, on refusal of which, Tennessee should maintain her equality in, or independence out of the Union. He recommends the organization of the militia, the purchase of arms, and leaves the Bank suspension penalties to the discretion of the Legislature. It is reported here that S. S. Prentiss and John H. Surge left for Kentucky to fight a duel.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Jan. 8.—Mr. Calhoun, the Commissioner from South Carolina, addressed the convention this morning, and his remarks were well received. Dispatches from the Governor from Virginia, Florida, and Mississippi were read to the convention and created much enthusiasm. MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

MONEY IN CHICAGO.—Under the increasing demand for currency, exchange went down to-day to 3 @ 5 per cent—a fall of 2 per cent since Thursday. This is a very acceptable reduction though it made some of the bankers, who were again caught with a supply, green in spirit. Let the bankers "stand from under." We sympathize with the business public, and say most heartily let the decline go on. We shall be not nearly satisfied to see it go at 5% or one per cent next week. The buying rate to-day is 2 per cent—bankers maintaining a wide margin, being determined not to be caught again if they can help it.

Gold is dull; buying nominally at 2, selling at 3 per cent premium—Tribune, Monday.

BLOOD FOOD.—Attention is called to this great remarkable and scientific preparation, advertised in another column. It is an entirely new discovery, and must not be confounded with any of the numerous patent medicines of the day. It is a certain remedy for all the diseases specified, and especially those of a chronic nature of long standing—of weeks, months and years. Sufferers, try it!

MESSRS. OSBORN & DUPUY, of New York, are the sole agents for it, and also proprietors of the world-renowned Dr. HAYES'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, an article which every Mother should have in her medicine closet in case of need; and containing, as it does, no paregoric or opiate of any kind, it can be relied upon with the utmost confidence, and will be found an invaluable specific in all cases of infantile complaints.—Ohio State Journal, Columbus.
