At that time we undertook to express our thorough conviction, not only that Mr. Butter was honestly elected, but that he had acted throughout the part of an honest, upright, high-midded and honestle man. The Proverton or Washington Civy.—In spite of the laughter and jeers with which the information was at first received, of a plot on the part of the Scossionists to take possession of Washington City prior to the fourth of March, there remains now no doubt of the existence of such a plot, and but little that a determined attempt to put the plot lab active operation is to be made.

The great hope and aim of the Secertonists is to get possession of Washington City and make it the sease of government of the new Southern Confederacy. They expect to accomplish two purposes by this.—Sist, to give their rebellious movement the spheresce of being a continuation of the present government, and second, to prevent the archives from falling late the hands of the Republicans and of affaithment, and second, to prevent the archives from falling late the hands of the Republicans and of affaithment, and the definition to Major Anderson are included the present of the second of represent the archives from falling late the hands of the Republicans and of the second of represent the archives from falling late the hands of the Republicans and of the second of represent the archives from falling late the hands of the Republicans and of the second of the Republicans and the instructions to Major Anderson are included the present of the fourth of the present of the fourt

It is of as much importance to the Republicans to defeat the communication of this plot, as it is to the Republicans to defeat the communication of this plot, as it is to be remembared that they have all the advantages on their side. To be remembered that they have all the advantages on their side. They are on the spot' in large numbers and can easily be reinforced, whilst the North is slow to more, is not yet fully convinced of the plet, and is doing nothing to prevent its rucess. If the prevent is to be counteracted, it is time that the North should wake to the real.
