into words, after the same manner that a compositor pick up and arranges his types for printing. The leading idea is to combine amusement with instruction, thereby increasing the ardiculative of the pupil, and diminishing the arduous delips of the teacher. The invention strikes us as admirably suited to the sed in view, and we would extractly commend it to teachers and the public generally, set its equally adapted to schools and to the family circle.

Owing to the lateness of the hour, the members postponed remarks upon the invention until their next meeting after which the Association adjourned:

The Grand Jury at the Penitentiary.

The presentment of the late Grand Jury, as our readers will resollect, gave a slap at the Warden of shown them upon the occasion of their visit, and hence they were unable to say what was the condition of the inputation. This grambling has provoked a counter statement, in which it is pratty clearly set forth that the Grand Jary, as an official body, has no care or consern over the State prison, and hence they had no right to complain if they were not efforded an opportunity to inspect and report. The law for the government of the pasilocation, it regard to whiters, provides as follows:

"No person who is not an official whiter of the prisons, or who has not a written permission according to sinh rules as the inspectors may adopt as colorested, shall be allowed to visit the same; the hillial visitors are the Governor, Speaker and memors of the House of Representatives, the Secretary of the Commonwealth, the Jadges of the Supreme Court, the Attornal General and his deputies, the President
