PITTSBURGH:

MONDAY MORNING, FEB. 18, 1861

COOL.—VERY!—A Dis-unionist in a communication to the Philadelphia Pennsylvanian writes:

"Mr. Editor: Should Mr. Lincoln pass through Philadelphia, might I not in imitation of the example he recently set, ask a few simple questions in turn, to wit:—Would it be considered courteous to unfurl before His Excellency elect, the Star Spangled Banner having about one-fourth less stars in it than it had before his election, with another fourth ready to fly off on his inauguration?

"Would it be considered insolent or impertinent to ask why, at this time, the Old Keystone State is called on to foot up for the use of what shall be left of the Federal Government, about three millions of dollars, to impoverish the Pennsylvania Treasury, and increase thereby the taxes of her citizens?"

This fellow's assurance is equal to that of his co laborers in South Carolina and Louisiana. The Old Keystone has been called on to foot a bill contracted by the traitors who now have control of the government. The embarrassments of the National Treasury are owing entirely to the corruption and extravagance of the Buchanan administration, many of the members of which attempted to deplete it by a system of wholesale fraud and peculation. Mr. Lincoln and his party, as every man of sense must know, are not yet in power, and of course cannot be held responsible for the rascality of those who are.

If any questions are propounded on the occasion referred to in the foregoing quotation, on this subject, they should be addressed to Mr. Buchanan, on his homeward journey from Washington. He should be asked to explain to the people whom he has deceived and betrayed, why the country which he found on his entrance into office, united and prosperous, is now disturbed and distracted by unpunished traitors. He should be asked why he counselled with and encouraged those traitors, entered into treaties with them, and yielded to their threats—why the credit of the nation is destroyed, and the public funds squandered by defaulters and thieves, whom he placed in responsible positions.

12th February, 1754.

Yesterday was the one hundred and seventh anniversary of the first assembling of Captain William Trent, Captain Christopher Gist and their followers at this point to build the first little fort here.

A letter from Trent and Gist to Major George Washington, dated "Feb. 19th, 1754, at Youghaganey Big Bottom," says: "The 17th Mr. Trent arrived at the Forks of the Monongahela and with Mr. Gist and several others. In two or three days, they expected down all the people, and as soon as they came were to lay the foundation of the Fort, expecting to make out for that purpose seventy or eighty men."

Just two months later, Monsieur Contrecœur arrived here and compelled Ensign Ward to surrender the little Fort, and thus commenced that war which resulted in the expulsion of the French from the American Continent. In the Pittsburgh Gazette's New Years' Address, January 1st, 1830, the event is thus noticed—

"Then here began that fatal war, which cost
The lily banner many a bloody stain.
In which a wide empire was won and lost,
And Wolf and Montcalm fell on Abraham's plain."

Final Passage of the Sunbury and Erie Bill.

The bill to change the name of the Sunbury and Erie Railroad was passed finally on Saturday morning in the House of Representatives, by the following vote, viz:

YEAS—Messrs. Abbott, Acker, Anderson, Armstrong, Ashcom, Attella, Ball, Barnsley, Bartholomew, Biest, Blair, Boyer, Brenizer, Brewster, Butler, (Carbon,) Butler, (Crawford,) Byrne, Caldwell, Collins, Cowden, Craig, Dougless, Dalfield, Duncan, Dunlap, Ellenberger, Gaskill, Graham, Happer, Harvey, Hayes, Hillman, Hood, Hopkins, Hutchison, Keck, Lawrence, Leisenring, Lowmiller, Marshall, M'Cullagh, Marshall, Moore, Morrison, Mullin, Obet, Osterhout, Patton, Preston, Pringle, Randall, Reilly, Rhoads, Ridgway, Robinson, Roller, Schrock, Seltzer, Shafer, Sheppard, Smith, (Berks,) Smith, (Philadelphia,) Stickman, Strang, Taylor, Thomas, Walker, White, Wildey and Davis, Speaker—72.

NAYS—Messrs. Alexander, Bixler, Blanchard, Bliss, Brodhead, Burns, Clark, Cope, Dimmick, Dock, Fetterman, Fry, Gilboony, Goehring, Hack, Hill, Irvin, Lichtenwaliner, Myers, Patterson, Reiff, Stoneback, Taylor, Tracy, Williams and Wilson—25.

Politically, eighteen Democrats voted for the bill and ten against it. The others voting were all Republicans.

Bill for the Commutation of Tonnage Duties.

The bill commuting the Tonnage duties on the Pennsylvania Railroad passed final-reading in the House of Representatives Saturday morning, and will now go to the Senate, where it will no doubt be properly examined at an early day and finally disposed of. The vote on final passage was as follows:

YEAS—Messrs. Abbott, Acker, Aschom, Attella, Ball Bartholomew, Blair, Brenizer, Brewster, Burns, Butler, (Carbon,) Butler, (Crawford,) Byrne, Caldwell, Craig, Douglass Dalfield, Duncan, Dunlap, Ellenberger, Gaskill, Graham, Happer, Harvey, Hayes, Hillman, Hood, Hutchison, Hyndman, Keck, Lawrence, Leisenring, Lowmiller, Marshall, M'Cullagh, Marshall, Moore, Morrison, Mullin, Obet, Osterhout, Patton, Preston, Pringle, Randall, Reilly, Rhoads, Ridgway, Robinson, Roller, Schrock, Seltzer, Shafer, Sheppard, Smith, (Berks,) Smith, (Philadelphia,) Stickman, Strang, Taylor, Thomas, Walker, White, Wildey and Davis, Speaker—73.

NAYS—Messrs. Alexander, Armstrong, Barnsley, Biest, Bixler, Blanchard, Bliss, Boyer, Brodhead, Clark, Collins, Cope, Dimmick, Dunlap, Elliott, Fenner, Happer, Hayes, Hack, Hill, Hood, Irvin, Kline, Lichtenwaliner, Manchester, Myers, Patterson, Reiff, Rhoads, Schrock, Smith, (Berks,) Stickman, Stoneback, Strang, Tracy, Williams, and Wilson—33.

PRESIDENT BUCHANAN'S retirement from office will be hailed with joy by all who love their country. Even the secessionists despise him for his imbecility, while they use him to carry out their purposes. Destitute of patriotism, and wholly selfish, he is willing to sacrifice any public interest, so that he may avoid the assumption of any responsibility during the remainder of his term. In reference to this administration of the public affairs, the New York Evening Post says:

"There is something almost ludicrous in the imbecility of the administration of the U. S. government. Over the door of the White House should be written, "Insolvent received here." Senators of seceding States cannot conceal their contempt of the government they repudiate, and take leave of Congress with an insolence which would be insupportable, even if it came from the lips of spotless honesty and loyalty. I am constantly reminded of the story of the rough teamster, whose cart was followed by a weak old man, commanding him to stop—a command to which the whistling teamster paid no heed. "Who is that old man?" inquired a passer-by. "Oh," said the driver, "that's father." "Why don't you obey him?" "Well," drawled out the other, "that's a good joke. None of us at home care anything for what he says. Mother don't, and I don't, and Jake don't, we've s'eemed taught the dog not to mind him!"

In the ignoble art of bringing government itself into contempt no other man ever equalled James Buchanan. Even Florida is not afraid of him or of what he represents. Wellington said that Napoleon's presence in the French army was equivalent to 40,000 soldiers. Gen. Jackson in the White House gave some such increase of vigor to the U. S. government; and what Gen. Jackson's presence gave, James Buchanan's absence would give."

VIRGINIA ELECTION.—The majority in one hundred and three cities and counties in favor of referring the action of the Convention to the vote of the people, is 39,408! The Staunton Spectator says of this vote:

"The best test furnished by the recent election of the comparative strength of the Union men and Secessionists consists in the vote for and against referring—the Union men as a general thing voted for referring, and the Secessionists voting against referring. We are not enabled yet to state by what majority the Union sentiment prevailed as shown by this test, but it is not less, we suppose, than forty thousand. The result of that election was as surprising as it was gratifying to us. We did not anticipate such a glorious victory."

WASHINGTON CITY, Feb. 16.—According to rumor, the debate to-day in the Peace Conference was of an exciting character among the Southern and Northern extremists. Another ineffectual effort was made to admit the reporters of the press, that the public might be kept informed of the progress made by the Conference.

CLEVELAND, Feb. 16.—Mr. Lincoln and party left the Weddell House at 8:30 this morning. He was escorted to the depot by the military and an immense concourse of citizens. The train left the depot at 9 o'clock. Mr. Lincoln bowed adieu from the rear end of the rear car amidst vociferous cheering.

LETTER FROM HARRISBURG.

[Special Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.]

HARRISBURG, Feb. 15, 1861.

EDS. GAZETTE: In the House, on Wednesday, Mr. Happer offered a resolution to pay our Peace Commissioners to Washington, $6 per day and mileage, from Feb. 5. The House took it up, 72 to 12. The resolution was amended so as to make the pay $8, and pending a proposition to pay the Clerk of the Commissioners, the resolution was postponed, 51 to 26.

Mr. Williams' bill, "Supplement to the acts relating to internal railroads," was reported from Committee of the Whole with amendment, but the House refused to proceed further with it at that time.

"A supplement to the Act regulating boroughs was negatived, and a supplement to the Penal Code was postponed till Friday.

An Act for the suppression of fortune telling was amended, so as to include spirit-rapping, and passed.

In the Senate, on Wednesday, Mr. Lawrence read in his place a bill authorizing the Commissioners of Washington county to compromise with the Hempfield Railroad bondholders. Referred.

Mr. Lawrence's bill relative to certain military companies in Washington Co., came up on final passage and passed, 19 to 3.

Supplement to the act to incorporate St. Mary's Cemetery was called up by Mr. Penney, and passed finally.

A bill to enable manufacturing companies organized under the act of June 16th, 1836, to renew their charters for 25 years, by filing an acceptance of the same, passed second reading and was postponed for the present.

In the House, yesterday, Mr. Marshall introduced a bill to change the place of holding elections in Fine Tp., Allegheny Co., was taken up and passed.

Senate bill supplement to the act incorporating the Greensburg Gas and Water Co., was passed and goes to the Governor.

A resolution to hold three sessions on Friday and one on Saturday to consider the Sunbury and Erie and Tonnage Tax bills was passed, 55 to 39, after a very gallant and protracted fight by the minority. This is considered a test vote by some, but I do not so regard it.

Senate bill, supplement to the act relative to suits against Sheriffs, &c., and extending the same to Mercer and other counties, passed and goes to the Governor.

The bill supplementary to the act regulating schools, and establishing radical changes in the school system, was variously amended on second reading and finally postponed.

The bill to provide arms and ammunition for the military companies of the State, came up in order, but the House (the marrow of whose back is thoroughly softened) refused to proceed to its consideration.

The remaining bills on the public calendar, viz.: An act prohibiting bankers and brokers from allowing interest on deposits;

An act concerning pumpike and plank road company;

An act relating to executions;

An act supplementary to an act regulating the compensation of Associate Judges; were severally negatived.

In the Senate, Mr. Finney presented the petition of sundry members of Congress from Pennsylvania praying for an appropriation to provide for the collection of the early records of the State.

Mr. Penney called up an act to incorporate the Petroleum Company, of Pittsburgh, and the first section was negatived in Committee of the Whole.

Mr. Hall took the ground that this killed the bill, but the Speaker overruled the point, and the report of the Committee being negatived, the bill came up on second reading, and was postponed for the present.

The House is just now taking up the Sunbury and Erie bill, which will occupy the day. E.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 15th, 1861.

EDS. GAZETTE: In the Senate to-day Mr Penney called up House bill authorizing the election of an additional Supervisor in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, which passed and goes to the Governor.

Mr. Meredith called up the House bill relative to an Auctioneer in Armstrong county, which at his request was negatived.

Mr. Fuller called up House bill relative to the pay of the Commissioners of Fayette county, which was amended in the title and gone back to the House, where the amendment will be concurred in.

He also called up House bill to authorize a congregation of Friends in Fayette county to sell certain real estate, which passed and goes to the Governor.

He also called up House bill to authorize the election of additional Supervisors in certain townships in Westmoreland county, which was amended in its phraseology and passed and goes back to the House.

The Senate adopted a resolution to adjourn till Monday.

Mr. Robinson called up House bill to lay out a State Road in Clarion and Venango counties, which was amended and passed. The House will concur.

Mr. Finney presented a letter from the President elect, Hon. A. Lincoln, accepting the legislative invitation to visit Harrisburg.

In the House the Sunbury and Erie bill have occupied the day, so far. Several test votes were taken, all showing a vote of 69 to 24, and the bill will go through to-day under the pressure of this two-thirds majority. E.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 15, 1861.

Eds. Gazette: The Sunbury and Erie bill passed second reading, this evening, by a vote of 69 to 24, and was laid aside for final passage to-morrow.

The Tonnage Tax bill was immediately taken up, and has been under discussion ever since. The third session of the House to-day is now in progress, and speech making is in full blast. It will be put through its second reading to-night, and both bills will pass to-morrow.

The vote is about the same on both bills. Mr. Williams has made able speeches against both, and his constitutional argument against the Tonnage Tax bill is spoken of by many as unanswerable. On the incidental questions our members have, generally, voted with the friends of the bill, excepting Mr. Williams. On one or two questions they were divided. E.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14, 1861.

Mr. Howard presented the report from the special Committee in regard to the secret organization in this District. In order to make it unanimous, the Republican members waived several points which would have been pressed under other circumstances, and there was no disagreement when it was submitted to Committee. Much surprise was, therefore, felt when Mr. Branch offered a minority statement to-day, accompanied by a resolution recommending the withdrawal of troops from the capital, because the secession of six States, is fifty-four of which the Republicans are just one-half, leaving the casting vote with the Vice-President. Douglas, it is understood, will never vote for Pettit, and this would defeat the confirmation, if all the Republicans were present, as it requires an affirmative majority. If Pettit shall be fastened for life as a judicial incubus upon Kansas, by the absence of a Republican Senator at the critical moment, the public will hold such Senators responsible.

Plans have been organized here to re-enforce Fort Sumter whenever it may be deemed necessary, but, under the present phase of Southern affairs, this contingency will probably not arise soon. It is known positively that Jefferson Davis has recently stated that Forts Pickens and Sumter were not worth the loss of life that must be incurred before the most favorable circumstances, even if the attacks succeed. South Carolina has her point of honor relieved by the action of the Montgomery Convention, so demonstration is expected, and Major Anderson feels no apprehension whatever. He is fully prepared, and is now abundantly supplied with provisions.

A large list of patents have been issued this week showing, to that extent, that political troubles are not affecting the interests of the country. The number issued compares favorably with the best days of the patent office. Three of the patents granted this week are to inventors in seceded States. Protests continue to be received from the West against an extension of the McCormick patent.

Letters received by the post office department from postmasters in South Carolina, and other seceded States, give woful accounts of the condition of things in their respective sections, arising out of the secession movement. They all avow their allegiance to the government, and state that they look anxiously forward to the day when the work of reconstruction shall take place.

Guy. Floyd will be here in a few days to make arrangements for his trial, and will endeavor, as it is alleged, to remove some odious characteristics of the case, as well as of his conduct in regard to the late startling fraud upon the government. Russell and Bailey are still out on bail, visiting Congress, and promenading the street daily.

The Right of Secession and the Peace Congress.

A Washington correspondent of the Charleston Courier writes thus concerning the object and probable result of the Peace Congress now in session at Washington:

"Their most important office, as it appears to me, is to prepare the way for a peaceful dissolution of the Union, by the Slave and non-Slaveholding States. To prepare the way for this practical and desirable measure, they will, of course, recommend that all the States shall declare against coercion, or any semi-coercion, and that the Federal Government shall not interfere with the seceding States in any measure that the latter may adopt, in regard to revenue or the occupations of forts, arsenals, &c. Finally, this Peace Congress is expected to recommend to all the States the call of a National Convention, which will provide for the peaceful separation of the States, by mutual recognition, and after a fair division of the Federal property and Federal debts.

The South might, after uniting under a new Confederacy, treat the disorganized and demoralized Northern States as insurgents, and deny them recognition. But if peaceful division ensues, the South, after taking the Federal Capital and archives, and being recognized by all foreign Powers, as the Government de facto, can, if they see proper, recognize the Northern Confederacy, or Confederacies, and enter into treaty stipulations with them. Were this not done, it would be difficult for the Northern States to take a place among nations, and their flag would not be respected nor recognized."

This is a most excellent plot. It illustrates the extreme of lunacy to which the secession movement has reduced the average minds of those engaged in it. After the South has taken the Federal Capital, by force—(and it will never, under any circumstances, take it in any other way,)—and been recognized by all the Foreign Powers, it will be time enough to define its relations with the North.

For Sore, Weak, Inflamed Eyes and Eye Lids.

A true specific and invaluable remedy has been at last discovered. Dr Humphreys argues that these affections invariably result from a constitutional disease, of which the local affection is only the outward manifestation. Hence, HUMPHREYS' SPECIFIC HOMŒOPATHIC OPHTHALMY PILLS are only taken internally, and yet cure the worst forms of obstinate Sore Eyes and Eyelids, which have resisted all other treatment. All cases of Sore and Inflamed Eyes and Eyelids, or Failing, Weak or Defective Sight, will be promptly benefited, and the cure of the worst cases is only a question of time.

Price 50 cents, with directions.

N. B.—A full set of HUMPHREY'S HOMŒOPATHIC SPECIFICS, with Book of Directions, and twenty different Remedies, in large vials, morocco case, $5; ditto, in plain case, $4; case of fifteen boxes, and Book, $2. Single boxes, 25 cents and 50 cents.

These Remedies, by the single box or case, are sent by mail or express, free of charge, to any address, on receipt of the price. Address Dr. F. HUMPHREYS & CO., No. 562 Broadway, New York

WOULD call the attention of the Public to their superior facilities for the manufacture and insertion of all kinds of ARTIFICIAL TEETH, and for the performance of all other branches of DENTISTRY.

Without making a speciality of any one style they still recommend the VULCANITE PLATE TEETH as the most Healthy, Durable and Comfortable Substitute for the Natural Teeth. They are guaranteed to be superior in every respect to the best Metallic Plate Teeth, whether mounted on gold or any of the baser metals, and can be furnished at a cost considerably less.

Those having imperfectly fitting Gold Sets, can have them replaced with the VULCANITA, at a small additional expense above the value of the old Plate. ma6d1yd

TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAIN,

BY THE USE OF AN APPARATUS WHEREBY NO DRUGS OR GALVANIC BATTERY ARE USED.

Cold weather is the time when the apparatus can be used to its best advantage.

Medical gentlemen and their families had their teeth extracted by my process, and are ready to testify as to the painless as well as the safety of the operation—whatever has been said by persons interested in asserting the contrary, as having no knowledge of my process.

ARTIFICIAL TEETH inserted in every style.

THE FAMINE IN KANSAS.

Appeal for the Destitute from the New York City Committee.

WM. C BRYANT, Chairman. J. M. WILLIAMS Treasurer.
Chas G. Marshall, Beth B. Hunt, R. H. McCurdy,
Morris Ketchum, G. G. Bronson, Chas. W. Elliott,
Daniel Lord, Daniel Drew, J. F. Wadsworth.

It has been to our imperative duty to urge upon the public attention the fact—that over 40,000 of our fellow citizens in Kansas are now in imminent danger of starving. We have the evidence from all sources—from Gen. Pomeroy, Chairman of the Territorial Relief Committee, from the columns of nearly every newspaper there, of all shades of politics—from our own reliable agent who has just returned. There was no doubt of the misery, terrible, widespread, destructive.

We have evidence that whole families have already died of starvation; and that thousands more must lie down discouraged, and die of want and disease consequent upon it, unless prompt and thorough relief is at once supplied. Congress is now attempting to sustain the starving Indians, but our 40,000 fellow-countrymen—men, women and children—can neither get away from the desolation, nor borrow, nor beg. Their only dependence is upon us, who have never known hunger.

They MUST be sustained. Will you help us to help them?

To secure you that whatever you do will reach them, we state that in every destitute township is a Relief Committee—these are all represented by the Territorial Committee, follows:

Territorial Committee—S C POMEROY, Atchison; W W Guthrie, Brown County; J L M'Dowell, Leavenworth; Rev S Dayton, Lawrence; Rev L Bowell, Topeka; Dr S Ayres
