Quack Nostrums.

THE NEW YORK DAY BOOK says:

"The majority of Hair Washes, Hair Dyes, Whiskerines, Hair Oils, and the numerous preparations which are now before the public under such extravagant, hyperbolical and fantastic titles as we are paraded in show windows, and newspaper advertising columns, as hair preparations, are all humbugs of the first water, their real merit when they possess any is, that they do no harm. HYDE LAND, WHALE OIL, LARD OIL, SWEET OIL, scented and colored, make up, when in beautiful wrappers and with flint glass bottles, the comliest character of Nostrum; and when these costly, are baptised with some trivyllable name, and caught at by verdant young and old of both sexes Such is the character of Professor Wood's Hair Restorative. This gentleman comes before the world without any "high sounding" Diplomatism, or any other astounding and startling extraordinary terms, he simply presents us with a Restoration—what it expresses practically—and as a Restoration it acts. Say Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, as soon as you value your scalp, eye, your very brains, apply nothing else for it may be that you will get some worse substance than nothing, and if so, to your cruelties. Professor Wood's Restorative for the Hair is the best article extant."

It Will, by Nature's own Process, Restore Gray Hair to the Original Color, Will make Hair Grow on Bald Heads, Will restore the Natural Secretions, Will remove at once all Itching, Will prevent all Dandruff, Will cure all sumptions—even Scald Head, Will make the Hair Soft and Glossy, Will make the old Grow young again, Will preserve the Color of Hair to old age, Will always Cure it and stop its Falling, And is one of the best Toilet Articles for the Hair now in use.

Pittsburgh Gazette.

PUBLISHED DAILY AND WEEKLY BY S. HIDDLE & CO., FIFTH STREET, ABOVE SMITHFIELD.

PITTSBURGH:

MONDAY MORNING, MARCH 4.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON CITY, Feb. 28, 1861.

In the House, great interest was manifested on the adoption of a portion of the report of Corwin, from the committee of thirty-three, and it may be doubted if a wilder scene of confusion has been witnessed this session. Stanton, of Ohio, opened his speech in a very conservative tone, which surprised many. His main point was, that the slave States now in the Union were entitled to some protection or guarantee; for if the cotton States could not be brought back without subjugation, he would be disposed to recognize their independence in a year or so. His renewed assertions that the border States are entitled to guarantees, and that his party friends, in refusing it, were making a great mistake, caused a great sensation; in the house and galleries, and elicited thunders of applause.

When he concluded a scene of the wildest confusion followed. Members were mostly out of their seats, and all addressing the Speaker at once. Motions after motions, not entertained by the speaker, was made, while business was entirely suspended amid the excitement.

At last a vote was reached, and the most nervous anxiety was manifested as the roll-call proceeded. The opponents of the Corwin amendment resorted to all methods to defeat it. The vote, as it progressed, was privately reported to members on the floor, and votes were made accordingly.

When the call was finished it was evident that one vote was needed, and everybody was on the tip-toe of expectation, as in the celebrated contest for Speaker, to see where it was coming from, when Aldrich, of Minnesota, arose and voted "aye," thus making the required two-thirds.

When it was announced the floor and galleries rang with applause. All the New York delegation voted for the report against any amendment of the Constitution for interfering with slavery in the states, except Messrs. Carter, Conkling, Duell, Ely, Fenton, McKean, Sedgwick, Spinner and Van Wyck.

Ashley, of Ohio, first raised a question of order that not two-thirds of the House were present; but after debate, the question was withdrawn.—World.

While traitors are turning up daily all over the country, and are either treated with the highest diplomatic consideration by the hands of the several departments, or are not so much as "cashiered" to appear before a general court martial, it seems extraordinary that such a proceeding as I am at liberty to announce should have ever emanated, all the surrounding circumstances considered. It is well known that Capt. John B. Pope, of the Corps of Topographical Engineers of the U. S. Army, was invited with others to accompany Mr. Lincoln from Springfield to Washington. This was not only intended as a compliment to the personal worth of Capt. Pope, but it was in part growing out of the fact that the father of Capt. Pope was a personal friend of Mr. Lincoln's for many years. This morning Capt. Pope received a communication from Adjutant Gen. Cooper, commanding him, by order of the Secretary of War, to proceed at once to Newport Barracks, Ky., to appear before a general Court Martial, which has been ordered to convene there in the 4th of March. The charges against him are the Captain are for passing contemptuous and disrespectful words against the President of the United States." The first specification is, that Capt. Pope did, at Cincinnati, Ohio, on the 9th day of February, 1861, in an address to a literary club in that city, are the following language:

"It is impossible to control the astonishment and indignation which every American must feel when he considers in what a position a few months of the administration of a bad or a weak man have placed this great and prosperous country. If we overcome this danger it will at least serve as a warning, and a most impressive one; to the American people, to be careful for the future in the selection of a Chief Magistrate."

The second specification reiterates the same language, and charges that it was published in the Cincinnati Gazette on the 13th inst.

Major John F. Lee is to be Judge Advocate, and singular to say, Captain George W. Hazard, U. S. A., who was one of Mr. Lincoln's suite, and is now here, has been ordered to proceed to Newport, Ky., as a member of the Court.

One of the extraordinary facts connected with this transaction is, that these two gentlemen should be ordered to leave their present position, to which they have been invited by the President elect, and to engage in the peculiar business alluded to, on the very day that Mr. Lincoln is to be inaugurated. If Captain Pope could not be charged against him, he only expressed an opinion as an American citizen, which right a man is not, or ought not to be deprived of in this country by the fact that he is an officer of the American army.

The Secretary of War is severely censured for pursuing this course against Captain Pope, but many believe that Mr. Holt will in time relieve himself of the responsibility of such an act. The affair is creating quite a breeze.—N. Y. Herald.

The War Department, this morning, is in receipt of dispatches from Major Anderson, which deny that he has been ill, as reported. He was never in better health, or better prepared to meet any emergency. He says the work continues on Cumming's Point is erecting the bomb proof battery, but that, when occasion demands it, he can sweep the whole of it away in a few moments with the guns of Fort Sumter.

A correspondence between Gov. Houston and Gen. Twiggs, which is on the files of the War Department, proves conclusively that the latter was greatly instrumental in bringing about the action of the latter, in the transfer of the Government property in the State of Texas. While professing to play the part of a patriot before the public, he was secretly conniving at this infamous treachery.

What an Good we Did.

The Paris correspondent of the New York Evening Post, speaking of a Court Ball given by the Emperor of the French, says:

If any American seceders had happened to be present at this ball, they would no doubt have been badly shocked to see a stout, burly negro, black as ebony, with the woolliest of hair and whiskers, and the thickest of lips, wearing a magnificent order, and received with the utmost distinction by the Imperial pair and by all the grandees of the court. This sable personage was the son of the ex-Emperor Soulouque, the once high and mighty Duke of Marmalade, received at the Tuileries with all the respect paid in courts to the scions of fallen royalty—white or black.

Americans seem to find it very difficult to accustom themselves to the comparative indifference with which the color of a man's skin is regarded by the more cosmopolitan nations of Europe. A short time ago, the Portuguese Chargé d'Affaires, or any other astounding and startling extravagance he simply presented a Restoration—what it expresses practically—and as a Restoration it acts. Say Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, as soon as you value your scalp, eye, your very brains, apply nothing else for it may be that you will get some worse substance than nothing, and if so, to your cruelties. Professor Wood's Restorative for the Hair is the best article extant."

How the Union Can be Saved.

There is a way to save the Union. A Georgian, in the Augusta Chronicle, tell us what that way is:—

We tell you plainly, that nothing can bring about a reunion but such a revolution as the English revolution of 1688! The genius of the English Constitution was found to be eminently Protestant. Therefore, the patriots of '88 asserted that no Catholic should sit upon the throne of England. James II, who was a Catholic, was dethroned; William of Orange, who was a Protestant, was hailed as the nation's deliverer; and the principle was adopted as part of the organic law of the British Constitution, that no Catholic hereafter should be monarch of Great Britain and Ireland.

The way to save the Union is for the North, in conjunction with the Border States, first, to drive Mr. Lincoln from the Presidential Chair, and then resolve that no opponent of Slavery shall ever again occupy it! The process is a very simple one. Who will commence the revolution?—Albany Journal.

THE FIRST JAPANESE INSULATMENT.—A San Francisco paper reports the arrival at that city of a Japanese merchant, who came to purchase goods to be sold in his own country. This is the first instalment of a traffic which, if it ever will be both extensive and permanent, in spite of the sinister rumors reported. We may add that some reflections cast upon the late Ambassadors, to the effect that they were petty officials, are doubtless untrue. The effect of their reception here will be quite as beneficial as was expected at the time. Mr Sawyer, an American merchant residing at Kanagawa, states that the Japanese are fully cognizant of the events which have recently taken place in China. They know all about the war and the capture of Pekin, heretofore as exclusive to "outside barbarians" as their own Inland Empire, and are not a little disturbed on the subject. They dread the English and French but repose confidence in Americans. We need not say that few of us will shed tears on that account

Attempts on the Life of Mr. Lincoln.

We have already quoted from the Lafayette (Ind.) Journal an account of the timely discovery of an obstruction placed on the Indiana Railroad, with the evident design of throwing off the special train which conveyed Mr. Lincoln's party. The Syracuse Journal of Saturday evening has another development of a similar character. It says:

"We have been informed by gentlemen connected with the party of Mr. Lincoln since he left home for Washington, that there were several attempts to take his life made during the journey through Indiana and Ohio. The one which threatened the most serious consequences took place on the Presidential train leaving Cincinnati, when a crowd of the
