LETTER FROM JUDGE LYON, OF SOUTH CAROLINA, TO A FRIEND IN TEXAS.

The following letter from Judge Robert Lyon, of Abbeville, Court House, South Carolina, speaks for itself:

ABBEVILLE, Court House, }
Thursday, January 24, 1861. }

DEAR SIR:—I desire you to procure for me and send by mail, a Texas Almanac. Six month since, I felt perfectly willing to remain in South Carolina; but I can remain here no longer. At the election of Lincoln we all felt that we must resist. In this move I placed myself amongst the foremost, and am yet determined to resist him to the bitter end. I had my misgivings at first of the idea of separate secession, but thought it would be but for a short time, and at small cost. In this calculations, we have been mistaken. Everything is in the wildest commotion. My bottom land on Long Cane, for which I could have gotten $30 per acre, I now cannot sell at any price. All our young men nearly are in and around Charleston. Thither have we sent many hundreds of our negroes (I have sent twenty) to work. Crops were very short last year, and it does now seem that nothing will be planted this coming season. All are excited to the highest pitch, and not a thought of the future is taken. Messengers are running here and there, with and without the Governor's orders. We have no money. A forced tax is levied upon every man. I have furnished the last surplus dollar I have. I had about $27,000 in bank. At first I gave a check for ten thousand, then five thousand, then the remainder. It is now estimated that we are spending $25,000 per day, and no prospect of getting over these times. It was our full understanding when we went out of the Union, that we would have a new Government of all the Southern States. Our object was to bring about a collision with the authorities at Washington, which all thought would make all join us. Although we have sought such a collision in every way, we have not yet got a fight, and the prospect is very distant.

I want the Almanac, in order to see from it what part of Texas may suit me. I want to raise cotton principally, but must raise corn to do me. I will need about a thousand acres of good land. My force is increasing; many young negroes are coming on. I can send to the field about sixty-five, big and little. I shall make no crop here this year. I shall start my negroes from here to John Brownlee, at Shreveport, about the first of April. I will leave my lands here to grow up in pines. When we all get to Shreveport, John Brownlee says he will go with me all over Texas. I cannot live here, and must get away. Many are leaving now; at least ten thousand negroes have left already, and before long one-third of the wealth of South Carolina will be in the West. I desire you to look around and help me get a home. As ever, yours,

ROBERT LYON.

Affairs at Charleston.

The Charleston Courier states emphatically that there is no difficulty whatever in the way of gentlemen visiting Charleston as the representatives of any decent journal, and that so far from interposing difficulties, Charleston and the south will welcome all who wish to see and learn and report the truth.

The Charleston News publishes an advertisement of the Bank of South Carolina for a loan of $615,000, bearing interest at seven per cent. per annum, to provide funds for the military defence of the State, and to enable her to maintain the position she has assumed. The following is from the Courier of Tuesday:

"Brigadier General Beauregard, in company with his excellency Gov. Pickens, who was accompanied by several of his aids, visited Fort Johnson, Cumming's Point Battery and Morris' Island Battery, on Monday morning. They returned about six in the evening. We learn that Gen. Beauregard was very much struck with the great amount of work that had been done, and the general progress and strength of the fortifications. They did not visit Fort Moultrie, but Gen. Beauregard expressed perfect confidence that Fort Sumter could be reduced, and that it was a question only of time.

"In the Charleston 'Mercury' we find a telegraphic account of the ceremonies of Lincoln's inauguration done up in a style to suit the secessionists. We quote it as a curiosity:

"WASHINGTON, March 4—10 A. M.—The city is all astir and excited concerning the inauguration of Abraham Lincoln, to come off this morning. The scene is a very different one from that presented at all former inaugurations. A deep and general gloom hangs over the city.

"The volunteers seem to feel that they are ordered out to join in the funniest procession of the Union. There are over twelve hundred of Scott's hireling troops under arms, with shotted cannon, closely watching every movement. The citizens are completely overawed.

"Quarter Past Eleven o'clock.—The procession has begun to move from the City Hall. The military escort is a powerful one.

"Scott has hit upon a new 'coup de guerre.' At all principal points along Pennsylvania avenue house tops are covered with Federal soldiers, with their muskets pointing at the crowd. This is a Mexican idea."

The Mercury and Courier both denounce Lincoln's inaugural in violent terms.

ANOTHER CURE BY DR. SCHENCK.—I called on Dr. Schenck some time ago in one of his visits to Pittsburgh, at the office of Dr. Keyser, No. 140 Wood st. He was examining patients with lung disease. One 2 my hearing and the bronchial tubes were thought to be badly diseased. When I coughed I ejectorated blood and matter in large quantities. I had night sweats and a great cough, and was greatly debilitated. Dr. Schenck prescribed for me his "Pulmonic Syrup," "Seaweed Tonic" and "Vegetable Pills," and after taking these one month I have so far recovered that I do not spit any more blood or matter, and the cough has nearly left me. I live in Coshocton county, Unity township, Ohio, where I am well known. You may publish this if you wish.

Pittsburgh, August 27, 1860. MARTIN KOCH.

N. B.—Since the above was written, Mr. Koch has entirely recovered, and continues well, having regained his usual health.

I, WILLIAM W. ALEXANDER, residing on Ohio street, Allegheny city, do hereby testify that I have been afflicted from severe cough and pain in the breast about eight years. During the whole of this time I have had general debility and depression of spirits. I tried every kind of medicine I could get, but nothing took hold of my complaint. I heard of Doctor Schenck's "Pulmonic Syrup," but hesitating as one personally that it had cured, I had declined trying it. In April, 1859, I took a severe cold, accompanied with a violent cough, difficulty of respiration, and night sweats, which so prostrated me that I was confined to my room for two months.

Several of my friends who called to see me, spoke in very high praise, as they knew what it had done. My prostration and debility continued considerably, and I made up my mind to resign to death among the doctors or medicine, but after I had taken three bottles of the "Pulmonic Syrup," my cough became considerably diminished. However, after resting several days I commenced to take the "Seaweed Tonic" and "Vegetable Pills," and I felt inclined to give Dr. Schenck's medicine a fair trial, and by taking it three times daily, I soon found myself gaining in health and strength, and I continued to do so, and I can say, unhesitatingly state that it has made a perfect cure of me. I am a well man, and I attribute my good health and vigor of constitution entirely to Dr. Schenck's medicines. I enjoy better health to-day, Feb. 6th, 1861, than I have done for twenty years past. If persons knew the value of Dr. Schenck's inestimable remedies, they would not hesitate a moment to call on him in his visits to this place. I feel like advising every person to call on him, as I have the utmost confidence in his medicines. Any person wishing to see me at my store stand can call on me at my place of business, on Wm. H. Fahnestock's, in this city, or at my residence, Main street, Allegheny city.
