

THE CLIMAX.

From Friday afternoon until Sunday our country was kept in most perplexing anxiety and excitement by the extraordinary and often contradictory and absurd accounts of the bombardment of Fort Sumter...

For enthusiastic details we must wait for official and military reports. In the mean time it is to be hoped that judgment should be suspended upon the conduct of the rebels...

It is the duty of the patriot to be true to his country. He who is not true to his country is not true to himself...

Every man who is brought up to the standard of the popular enthusiasm throughout the North and West, will only add intensity to the feeling here...

This is a fearful ordeal for a great nation to pass through; but fearful as it is, we find no cause to be alarmed...

Our friends will bear in mind that we have not heard from our own people in any extraordinary terms from the present popular prophets of the South...

SUBJECTS OF NEWS.

At Charleston, a large guard has been formed for city protection. War is to be declared by the Confederate Congress against the Government...

THE WAR FEELS. The war feeling in our city is intense. The news of the capture of Fort Sumter, though distant, has had the effect of consolidating all parties...

JUDICIAL NEWS. We never feel so proud of our State and country as we do at this moment...

LOOK OUT FOR SECESSION. In this time of peril a moment which is at hand, the Capital is threatened, and the very existence of this government is at stake...

A Silence Awaits. A correspondent of the New York Courier and Enquirer thus alludes to the proposed peace...

THE REBELLION OF THE SOUTHERN STATES. The rebellion of the Southern States is a rebellion against the Union...

What Virginia Thinks. If the National Convention is authorized to speak for Virginia, it is authorized to speak for the Union...

Special Dispositions. We desire to extend our private letters upon our readers, to be drawn into any statements which might be made...

Our friends will bear in mind that we have not heard from our own people in any extraordinary terms from the present popular prophets of the South...
