What is to be the end of this state of things. Shall Baltim ore and it he State of Maryland be given up to anaroby and the domination of the mob? Such a thing is not for a moment to be thought of. It would be a disgrace to the age and its civilization to permit it. Maryland does not want to go out of the Union; but there are voltent men in her midst who will certainly drag her out if, they are not put down. Mr. Lincoln has enough to do just now to protect the Capital; but in another week he will have abundance of force to enable him to leave a few murderous ruffians who have with desperate murderous ruffians who have with desperate energy attempted to block the way between the constitution and Union, is intolerable.
