DO YOU WANT WHISKERS? DO YOU WANT WHISKERS? DO YOU WANT A MUSTACHE? DO YOU WANT A MUSTACHE? BELLINGHAM'S CELEBRATED STIMULATING ONGUENT, For the Whiskers and Hair.

The subscribers take pleasure in announcing to the Citizens of the United States, that they have obtained the Agency for, and are now enabled to offer to the American public, the above justly celebrated and world renowned article. THE STIMULATING ONGUENT is prepared by Dr. C. F. BELLINGHAM, an eminent physician of London, and is warranted to bring out a thick set of WHISKERS OR A MUSTACHE in from three to six weeks. This article is the only one of the kind used by the French, and in London and Paris it is in universal use.

It is a beautiful, economical, soothing, yet stimulating compound, acting as if by magic upon the roots, causing a beautiful growth of luxuriant hair. If applied to the scalp, it will cure BALDNESS, and cause to spring up in place of the bald spots a fine growth of new hair. Applied according to directions, it will force red or rusty hair dark, and restore gray hair to the original color, leaving it soft, smooth and flexible. The "ONGUENT" is an indispensable article in every gentleman's toilet, and after one week's use they would not for any consideration be without it.

The subscribers are the only Agents for the article in the United States, to whom all orders must be addressed.

Price One Dollar a box—for sale by all Druggists and Dealers, or a box of the "ONGUENT," warranted to have the desired effect, will be sent to any who desire it, by mail (carefully packed, on receipt of price and postage, $1 and 25 cts. to prepay).

Pittsburgh Gazette.

PUBLISHED DAILY AND WEEKLY BY S. RIDDLE & CO., FIFTH STREET, ABOVE SMITHFIELD.

PITTSBURGH: FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 3.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

[Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, April 29, 1861.

The Fifth Pennsylvania regiment, Col. R. P. McDowell commanding, marched into town on Saturday afternoon last, at twenty minutes past four o'clock. The regiment left Annapolis at seven o'clock on Friday morning, and marched to the Junction, some twenty miles, where it took the cars for this city. In justice to the truth, I must say that the appearance of the soldiers composing this regiment was not quite as elegant as that of the "Seventh," or Sargent's brigade. Several of the State Guards had evidently started on short notice, and without much preparation in the matter of arranging their toilet. The Allegheny Company and the two Pittsburgh Companies, however, presented a fair exterior when compared with the seven other companies composing the regiment, four of which hail from Schuylkill, one from Huntingdon, one from Lebanon, and one from Reading. I will not say they looked positively shabby, as that would not be polite, and might hurt the feelings of the wives, sweethearts, mothers, sisters and brothers left behind them. But this much I will say, however, I hope never to see any more like them. The members of the regiment, and more especially the officers, are loud in their denunciation of Governor Curtin, for ordering them to come away without their uniforms. They were promised their outfit, they said, when they reached Harrisburg. I have just been informed that uniforms for the entire regiment will reach here from Philadelphia, between this and Wednesday, a special messenger having been dispatched by the War Department to that city yesterday, to hurry them up. The ten companies of this regiment number eight hundred men, making the total of Pennsylvania troops here so far, 1,160, and not a uniform among them. The first batch from Pennsylvania, and the first to arrive from any quarter, have neither been uniformed or armed. It is certainly very mortifying to them to be compelled to keep themselves cooped up in their quarters all day long, because they are ashamed to parade the streets with their "cold clothes" on, while the other regiments are luxuriating in grand dress parades on Pennsylvania avenue and quiet strolls over this now beautiful city. The Fifth, on their arrival here, marched to the inauguration ball-room, where they are now quartered, the New York Seventy-first having been transferred from this building to the Treasury building. This ball-room structure affords ample room for the regiment, and no better quarters, in some respects, are shared by any regiment here. As to the living, it is what may be strictly termed "soldier's fare"—consisting of bacon, crackers, coffee, and sugar. At present, the men content themselves with sleeping upon their blankets spread upon the soft side of "plank." I visited the quarters yesterday evening, on invitation of Col. McDowell, and found all in good spirits, and ready for a battle, they said, "at a moment's notice," although they had no uniforms and not much to eat." The Pittsburgh Terror Rifles were amusing themselves with songs and "seven up," while the United States Zouaves were practising gymnastics—tureling, summersaults, wrestling, &c. to the full. Corporal's Guard regiment, Sixty-Ninth from New York city. Col. Butterfield's Twelfth New York regiment arrived last evening at nine o'clock, one thousand strong, and report the track clear from this city to the Junction. By Thursday next General Scott will probably have about thirty thousand troops within call of his voice, and ready to take the field at a moment's notice. I suppose two more Pennsylvania regiments will be among the arrivals this week.

HIGHLY INTERESTING NEWS.

WASHINGTON, April 30, 1861.

The Attitude of the Administration—The New York Committee and the President.

The feeling of Northern people concerning the great question of the day has at last been forcibly and well expressed to the President and Cabinet.

The New York Committee held long interviews yesterday. They stated with great clearness that the people were absolutely determined on maintaining their government, and that the government must assist in the work. The question was no longer one of political parties; the whole North was a unit, irrespective of previous inclinations. Democrats, so called, and Pro-Slavery Democrats even, joined hands and purses with Republicans for the common cause of loyalty, patriotism and the maintenance of the Government. In fine, the alternative was felt by the whole people to be "Government or hopeless anarchy," and their minds were thoroughly decided which it should be. It was for the Administration to become equally settled in its policy and consistently firm in action.

From Virginia, said the Committee, families of men, women and children are each day forced to fly because they declare themselves faithful to their country. No Disunionist, be he ever so cowardly a traitor, is unsafe anywhere. How long, they asked, can this continue.

This and much more was said by the Committee to the President. He, in reply, assured them that the matter should receive his most earnest attention, and the candid consideration of his Cabinet.

I learn that an order has been issued to General Patterson, of Pennsylvania, which will, when acted on, bring the question of the transit of troops to a satisfactory conclusion.

Those who know say that there exists a definite and well considered policy on the part of the Administration with reference to the present posture of affairs, and that the strictly defensive attitude will not be kept forever. So, it seems, we do move.

The Vote in the Virginia Convention.

It is reported on tolerably good authority that the vote against Secession in the Virginia Convention was 50, instead of 16, as given out by the leaders. Every effort has been made to conceal the strength of the opposition, which, there is no doubt, was much more considerable than has been represented.

183,000 Troops.

It is now said that the Government is to accept the services of 25,000 three month's men beyond the original call for 75,000, and that 83,000 will be raised for five years. Thus there will soon be a total force of 183,000 men ready for active service.

Virginia.

Some Virginia papers quietly hint at the formation of a large military camp in the vicinity of the ancient town of Dumfries, near the Potomac, and about twenty-five miles from Alexandria. Many of the military companies which have recently arrived at Alexandria from the interior, are believed to have been transferred thither. This location is below Fort Washington, but on the Virginia shore.

The following significant article appears in the Virginia Sentinel of Saturday:

Our people must rest quiet upon the fact that the military preparations for our defence are under the direction of shrewd, skillful, indefatigable, experienced and patriotic officers. Our commanding general, Robert E. Lee, has long been the pride of the service; and he is supported by subordinates of acknowledged capacity and large experience.

The plans of our government are, of course, not suitable matter of public proclamation. Our military boards keep their own counsels, as it is obviously proper they should do. The people should patriotically abstain from even the attempt to unriddle them, for the wisest plans are often baffled by disclosure, however made. Let us trust with a generous confidence those to whose hands we have committed the conduct of affairs, and prepare ourselves to sustain them with all the power of a united and courageous people.

The Treasury.

The operations of the Treasury for the past few days have been considerably embarrassed on account of the scarcity of coin. It is supposed that there are now more than eight millions of dollars subject to the government draft in the different cities, but owing to the obstruction of the roads by the disunionists, the Secretary of the Treasury has not deemed it advisable to order its transportation hither. The inconveniences will, however, only be temporary.
