UNITED PRAYER FOR THE COUNTRY.

THE HOUR OF MEETING CHANGED.

Christians of all denominations meet every AFTERNOON at 4 o'clock, at the Lecture Room of the First Presbyterian Church in this city, to pray for the country and our brave friends who are leaving us every day to defend it in this day of darkness and peril. All are cordially invited to come; for "except the Lord keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain."

Relief for the Families of Volunteers—How to Obtain It.

We hear many complaints made on the part of those families of volunteers who have been left in necessitous circumstances, owing to the fact that they have been unable to get any relief, and in many instances it is alleged that they have met with a flat denial. All this trouble, we apprehend, arises from a want of knowledge on the part of the applicant, of the proper course to be pursued. The funds for their relief are in the hands of a very judicious committee, and they have very properly organized a complete system for the distribution of the moneys entrusted to them. Applicants, in order to get relief, must pursue the proper course, which is as follows:

There are sub-committees of two appointed in each ward, borough and township in the county, whose business it is to attend to all applications made to them for relief. Hence the first business of the applicant is to find one or the other of the members of the district committee. The party applying must give the name, residence and employment of the enlisted member of the family, and the name of the company to which he is attached; the name and residence of the applicant, with the names and ages of the children, what amount of support they have, amount of rent to be paid, etc.

The applicant, upon complying with these rules, is then furnished with a written certificate to the Relief Committee, who apportions the weekly amount of relief, which is promptly paid upon application to the office, No. 33 Market street, near the corner of Second. It may be necessary here to state that relief cannot possibly be obtained from the committee in any other way, and those who refuse to obey these requirements must not expect any aid from that quarter.

The applicant, upon entering with these rules, is then furnished with a written certificate to the Relief Committee, who apportions the weekly amount of relief, which is promptly paid upon application to the office, No. 33 Market street, near the corner of Second. It may be necessary here to state that relief cannot possibly be obtained from the committee in any other way, and those who refuse to obey these requirements must not expect any aid from that quarter.

The Relief Committee has now seventy names upon their books, to whom relief is furnished in amounts generally ranging from $1.50 to $3.00 per week. Those who have rent to pay receive more than those who have houses of their own, and the number of children is always taken into account when making up the weekly allowance.

We make this statement for the benefit of the applicants, and it would be well for the district committees to afford every means in their power to make themselves known to those who may need assistance. We may also remark that, should any applicant be detected in falsehood, in making his or her statement, their certificate will be cancelled, and they need not thereafter expect to share the benefits of the relief fund.

There should be no delicacy on the part of any person in making application, as the fund is set apart as theirs by right, and should not be viewed in the light of a gift or accommodation. If the rules are strictly observed, no trouble whatever need be encountered.

Death of Henry Clay Moorhead.

On Saturday morning, in the District Court, Judge Hampton on the Bench, Judge Shaler announced to the Court the death of Henry C. Moorhead, formerly a member of this bar, and paid an eloquent tribute to the great worth of the deceased.

Eloquent remarks were also made by George F. Hamilton, Esq., who was followed by Hon. A. W. Loomis, cordially endorsing the commendations of the other speakers.

Judge Hampton, in making the following order, spoke very highly of the deceased, as to his professional acquirements and stern integrity.

And now, to wit, the 4th day of May, 1861, it is ordered that this Court has learned with sincere regret the decease of Henry C. Moorhead, late a member of the Pittsburgh Bar, and that in token of their esteem of him while living, and as an appropriate memorial of the sense they entertain for his professional talents and integrity, and sympathy for the extraordinary fortitude with which he bore his protracted suffering, and as a tribute of respect to his genius, this minute be entered upon the records of the District Court.

Upon motion it is further ordered that a copy of the above minute be furnished to the surviving members of the family.

PROCEEDINGS IN THE COMMON PLEAS.

A committee, consisting of Messrs. Robert Robb, A. M. Brown and E. H. Rieves, made the following report in the Court of Common Pleas:

The Pittsburgh Bar has heard with sincere regret of the death of their former associate and fellow member, Henry Clay Moorhead, Esq., Mr. Moorhead, while practicing among us, won the esteem of all his associates, for his ability, amiability and gentlemanly courtesy, and would, under other circumstances, have been eminently successful in his profession. Some fifteen years since he became afflicted with a lingering disease, which baffled all medical skill, and confined him for the remainder of his life to the chamber. While thus situated, and also deprived of his sight, he, through the agency of a most devoted sister, who read to him and wrote for him, was enabled to pursue literary and scientific studies, and contributed largely to our periodical literature. In fact, during his latter years, he became a shining example of what scholarly attainment could accomplish under the most adverse circumstances. He submitted to this long continued confinement and suffering with the resignation of a philosopher, and the patience of the most eminent christian; therefore,

Resolved, That the bar has heard of his death with profound regret, and bear their willing and unanimous testimony to his eminent ability, his gentle, manly courtesy, and all the virtues which adorn the lawyer, the scholar and christian.

Resolved, That a copy of the above proceedings be entered on the minutes of the Court, furnished to the relatives of the deceased, and published in the papers of the city.

The Case of Mr. Shillen—A Correction.

During the excitement which followed the attack on Fort Sumter, and when the union and dissolution lines were being so quickly drawn, we received information to the effect that Mr. Samuel Shillen, of East Tarentum, had been driven away by the people there for uttering treasonable sentiments. He soon after published a card in the Post, denying the allegation, and the correction was made by us at the time. We have since been waited upon by Mr. Shillen, who informs us that the statement has done him great injury abroad, besides causing him annoyance at home. Other papers have copied our article, and are hereby respectfully requested to make a note of the correction. The Greensburg Herald will confer a favor upon Mr. Shillen by publishing this article, as the gentleman is a native of Westmoreland county, and the publication of the first article in that paper has done him much harm. We have undoubted evidence of the fact that the statement, as detailed to us, was wholly false, and was either gotten up as a cruel hoax or a malicious slander. Mr. Shillen is still pursuing his legitimate calling at the place designated, and enjoys the respect and esteem of the entire community. He says he will cheerfully forgive the author of the slander if he will only embolden a musket in defense of the stars and stripes, but he has little hope of this, believing that any one who could thus stab a man's reputation is a coward as well as a KNAVE.

Meeting in Temperanceville.

The citizens of Temperanceville held a meeting on Friday evening, May 3d, the object of which was to appoint Finance, Relief and Collecting Committees, to attend to the distribution of the money appropriated and collected for the support of the families of the volunteers who enlisted from the borough.

The meeting was organized by calling G. R. Cochrane, Esq., to the chair, and appointing S. H. French, Secretary.

On motion, the following persons were appointed Committees:

Finance Committee—Messrs. D. Robinson, Jas. M'Dowell and Jas. M'Bride.

Collecting Committee—Messrs. Dr. W. M. Simcox and J. Smiley, Esq.

Relief Committee—Messrs. H. M'Afee, M. Herchberger and D. Vierheller.

On motion, the goods which have been given to the families of the volunteers be considered as so much drawn upon the Finance Committee of the borough.

On motion, adjourned.

G. R. COCHRANE, Pres't.

S. H. FRENCH, Sec'y.

Encouraging to Volunteers.

It would now seem as if all the volunteer companies organized here will find ample scope for their services, and their eager desire to get into "service" will most likely be gratified at an early day. A gentleman just returned from Harrisburg, states that General Wilson, of Beaver, will, on Monday, introduce a bill in the Legislature authorizing the establishment of three camps for the citizen soldiery,—one at Pittsburgh, one at Reading, and one at Philadelphia—and providing for the support therein of those volunteers now offering themselves until such time as they may be ordered on active service, when they would be entitled to the full pay. The Legislature seems disposed to take every care of the volunteers, and the bill of General Wilson will, in all probability, become a law. This will make ample provision for our citizen soldiery, whom we admire, meanwhile, to keep up their organizations.

Temperanceville Council.

The Council of the borough of Temperanceville held a special meeting on Friday evening, May 3d. Members present, Messrs. Robinson, McDowell, McBride, Explin, Ferguson, and Burgess Cochrane. The object of the meeting was for the purpose of appropriating money for the support of the families of the volunteers from the borough. On motion, the Burgess was authorized to draw six warrants of $100 each, in favor of the finance Committee of the borough of Temperanceville, to be distributed by them to the families of the volunteers as frequently required. On motion, Council adjourned. GEO. R. COCHRANE, Burgess.

S. H. FRENCH, Clerk.

Meeting of the Committee of Public Safety.

The Committee of Public Safety met on Saturday afternoon, at three o'clock, at the Board of Trade Rooms. The Hon. Wm. Wilkins presided.

Dr. Gazzam desired a brief private interview with Judge Wilkins, touching some important information—so important that he had declined accompanying Gov. Curtin to the west, at the Governor's request, that he might be present at this meeting.

Judge Wilkins deemed a private interview superfluous, as all matters of importance would have to come before the general committee. The Safety Committee refused to take a recess that Dr. Gazzam might confer with the honorable gentlemen.

Gen. Cass, of the Executive Committee, on behalf of the Chairman, reported that a special committee had been sent to Harrisburg recently, to induce the Governor to increase the number of volunteer companies from this county in Camp Wilkins. The Committee had secured from the Governor an order for four more companies, and they go into camp conditioned for their maintenance only—not being under pay until finally called into service.

The gentlemen further reported that Gov. Curtin had notified the committee that fifteen regiments would be called into requisition from this State, but even if the Legislature should determine upon this course, Allegheny county would not by any possibility be called upon for more than the regiment now ordered into camp, and hence that all companies now organized and holding together for actual service had better disband.

The Committee further report that they have procured an apartment in the Western Pennsylvania Hospital for the use and accommodation of sick soldiers connected with Camp Wilkins.

A very voluminous opinion, prepared by a subcommittee of the Executive Committee, relative to the shipment of goods contraband of war, was read by the Chairman, Mr. Hutchison.

A very able report, in manuscript, was read by paper, but its great length precludes its publication in our columns.

R. Miller, Jr., Chairman of the Finance Committee, reported that the whole amount received by the Committee, in cash, and orders for fuel and provisions, was $11,374 25, as follows:

Banks, seven in number	$3,000 00
First Ward, Pittsburgh, cash	2,358 00
" " " orders	545 00
Second Ward, Pittsburgh	1,993 00
Fourth Ward, do merchandize	1,000 00
Fifth Ward, do	534 75
Sixth Ward, do	700 00
Eighth Ward, do	150 00
Ninth Ward, do	182 00
" do fuel, etc.	580 00
Birmingham, first precinct	300 00
" second "	311 00
Monongahela borough	170 00
	$11,374 25

Of which amount $1,308.50 were in merchandize, fuel, etc., and $10,065 75 in cash.

The report was accepted, and a motion to have it printed was objected to, as many of the subscribers to the fund had not been called upon, and but few of the collecting committees had reported.

Mr. M'Auley hoped that if Point Breeze Ward did not come up to the work, as soon as the others, no additional time should be granted to her citizens. Let them remain behind.

Col. M'Cullough, of Lawrenceville, objected to the publication. It was too soon.

Hon. W. F. Johnston sanctioned the publication. It would do good, and serve to stir up those who were slow to move.

The motion to print the receipts of the committee was adopted.

Hon. P. C. Shannon, Chairman of the Committee on Home Defence, reported that twenty-six companies of Home Guards, averaging seventy men each, have been enrolled—51 of which have been inspected, 22 furnished with arms, and arms are in readiness for 25 more, so soon as the required bonds are filed. The agent sent out by the Committee has, after careful inspection, purchased 1800 percussion lock muskets, which are expected here during next (this) week. They will be disposed of in compliance with the resolution of the Board, passed when they made the appropriation for their purchase. When these arms arrive, the committee will be able to supply some 28 more companies. The officers and men of the Home Guard merit the thanks of the Committee for the untiring efforts in keeping watch, day and night, over the arms placed in their charge at City Hall. At the Arsenal the Committee have such heavy ordinance, suitable for batteries, as may be wanted, in the charge of their efficient guard in the Allentown fastness leading to the city. By voluntary offer, Capts. McNaut and Brereton and Lieut. Crispin are engaged in making a reconnaissance of the surrounding country, with a view to occupying the best points at which to place batteries, should the exigency of the times warrant the committee in resorting to such works of defence.

Wm. M. Edgar, of the Relief Committee, reported verbally that the affairs of the Committee were not fully organized, and a satisfactory report could not be made. Relief had been afforded to a large number of families, but a fuller report would be made at next meeting.

Dr. Gazzam, Chairman of the Committee on Transit of Munitions of War, etc., read a lengthly report, prefaced by a few words of explanation.

When he had concluded, Dr. M'Cook remarked that the report as read was not the report as signed by the Committee.

Mr. O'Connor stated that the report as read was not the same as agreed upon by the Committee.

It was ascertained upon investigation that the report as read had not been signed at all.

After a spirited discussion, the other report was called for and read by Mr. O'Connor: It contained the same features of Dr. Gazzam, Dr. M'Cook and Mr. O'Connor.

The latter report was accepted, and on motion of General Robinson the Committee was finally discharged.

Dr. Gazzam protested strenuously against this action, alleging that the effect of it was to defeat the object of the Committee for the benefit of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

On motion of Mr. Bingham, Dr. Gazzam had ten minutes to explain, and he proceeded to do so.

Mr. Finney offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That hereafter the duties of the Committee on Transportation of Munitions of War shall in future be discharged by the legal authorities in the same manner as performed at Cincinnati.

The resolution was adopted, and it puts the business in the hands of the United States Marshal and District Attorney for the Western District of Pennsylvania.

On motion, the lot of bacon lately seized was ordered to be sold, and the money deposited, subject to the order of the Committee.

The owners of powder magazines were instructed to report in detail the quantity and character of the powder in their possession, after which the meeting adjourned.

Military Meeting.

A meeting of the Captains of the unaccepted Volunteer Companies was held on Saturday afternoon for the purpose of receiving the election returns for Field Officers. The result was as follows:

Colonel—Alex. Hay.

Lieutenant Colonel—Robert Chester.

Major—Abijah Ferguson.

On motion it was resolved that the Regiment be styled the "CAMERON GUARD," in honor of Hon. Simon Cameron, Secretary of War.

The Captains then drew lots for the positions their respective Companies were to occupy in the Regiment.

A. Penn Light Guards, Capt. Leonard.
B. Penna. Lite Guards, Capt. Williams.
C. Minute Riflemen, Capt. Gibson.
D. Spang Infantry, Capt. Scanlon.
E. Friend Rifle Guards, Capt. Brun.
F. Washington Blues, Capt. Ferguson.
G. Sumter Guards, Capt. Bryson.
H. Jefferson Rifles, Capt. Johnston.
I. Plummer Guards, Capt. Hay.
K. Anderson Infantry, Capt. Scott.
L. Federal Guards, Capt. Hull.
M. Highland Grenadiers, Capt. Chester.
On motion adjourned.

Sword Presentation.

Wm. H. Hope, First Lieutenant of the Charter Valley Guards, has been presented with an elegant sword by Messrs. Geo. R. Cochrane, J. O. Flowers, Wm. Donahoe and others. The presentation speech was made by Mr. Cochrane, and happily responded to by Lieut. Hope, who expressed his hearty determination to wield the glittering gift in defense of the stars and stripes. He is the very man to use a sword with effect, as he has seen sharp work in Mexico, being in one of the first companies which pressed their way into the Halls of the Montezumas. He returned his thanks to the generous donors, promising them that he will never dishonor the sword, though he may perish in the wielding of it.

We clip the following notice of our enterprising agent in that town from the New Castle Courant of this week. We can safely commend "Bob" to our friends in that vicinity as both reliable and prompt:

"Allen.—We ought to have mentioned last week, and intended to, but in the excitement it was forgotten that Allen has the Pittsburgh morning papers here by six o'clock—as early as the people of Pittsburgh generally get them. Allen is wide awake, and deserves credit for his efforts to keep the people supplied with the news. If frequently comes him more than he makes, but rest what it will, nothing but an impossibility prevents Bob from having the papers at the earliest moment."

SHOULDING WHISKY.—John Barry was committed to jail for three days, by Mayor Wilson, for disorderly conduct in smuggling whisky to prisoners in the county jail. He was arrested by a ward constable, and under the operations of the new law prohibiting aldermen to take cognizance of such cases, was taken before Mayor Wilson. Ward constables who may hereafter arrest vagrants, drunkards, or disorderly persons, can receive no fees without they conform to the law by bringing the party so arrested before the Mayor of the city in which he may be found—and the Mayor, for this service, receives no extra fees or costs.

UNUSUAL ATTRACTION, at the Pittsburgh Theatre. Mrs. Waller, one of the very best actresses in the country, certainly second to none, save Charlotte Cushman, in any character; and equal to her in most personations, will appear this evening as "Lady Macbeth," supported by her husband and the stock company of that establishment. Our play-goers, who fail to see her, we pledge them our word will lose a treat such as they can seldom enjoy anywhere. Mr. Henderson deserves ample patronage, while he furnishes such "stars" as Mr. and Mrs. Waller.

PARK RIFLES.—The above corps of young men, bearing the name of our worthy citizen, Jas. Park, Jr., paraded Friday evening, and received their quota of rifles. They turned out nearly one hundred men, and made a very creditable appearance. Their Captain, Charles W. Moore, and First Lieutenant J. G. Waldee, are both members of the Duquesne Greys, consequently this corps will be at no loss for experienced drill masters. The entire Keystone category, and when completed, the Park Rifles will be ready for any emergency at home or abroad.

Camp Wilkins on Sunday—Flag Presentation—Religious Services, etc.

On Sunday afternoon, Camp Wilkins presented a scene of unusual interest. Arrangements had been made for divine service on the camp ground, at half past two o'clock, immediately previous to which it was announced that a flag would be presented to Col. P. Jarrett, Commander of the Camp. It was understood also that the grounds would be open to all gentlemen accompanied by ladies, and the weather being delightful an immense concourse assembled to witness the services.

The military were drawn up and arranged on the race ground, in front of the seats, which were filled by ladies and gentlemen—the right and being occupied by the ladies who prepared the flag, by Judge Wilkins, Col. Jarrett, Col. McLean, Rev. C. A. Holmes, Hon. Wm. F. Johnston, and other eminent gentlemen.

Previous to the hour announced for the presentation, some six or eight volunteer companies, not in the service, arrived at the camp and marched in with drums beating and colors flying. They were assigned a proper position, and served to swell the large congregation.

THE PRESENTATION.

All things being in readiness, Hon. Wm. F. Johnston, on behalf of the fair donors, presented the flag to Col. Jarrett, in the following appropriate words:

"Col. Jarrett, Commandant Camp Wilkins: I am requested by the fair donors to present, in their behalf, a flag for the use of Camp Wilkins. It is the time-honored banner of our common country—the emblem of our Nationality—our civilization, our privileges, our protecting influences here secured to our people a free government, and enlightened and national liberty, a free and perfect Christianity.

"This sacred and hallowed day reminds us of our duty, to appeal to the Lord God of Hosts for aid, that the defenders of the "Stars and Stripes" in all lands, and at all times, now and forever, may be victorious against foreign and domestic foes.

"The preservation, and its preservation, are committed to the volunteer soldiery, in whose keeping it is safe from outrage and insult.

REPLY OF COL. JARRETT.

In receiving the "star spangled banner" from the hands of the pastoral ladies who had so generously tendered it, Col. Jarrett replied in fitting terms, as follows:

"SIR:—It is with profound respect and feelings of the deepest gratitude that I accept from the ladies of Pittsburgh this token of their esteem, their patriotism and generosity.

"I fancy that I see upon its folds the emblem of our country, bearing in its beak a scroll inscribed with the motto "E Pluribus Unum." To us, indeed, it is "E Pluribus Unum," the flag of our country, the most dear to and cherished by us; and should an hostile band attempt to wrest it from us, the battle in its defence shall grow hot "even beyond recognition," that the very ladies in the midst of a piece of silk or canvass, but the remembrance of the givers and the gift, and the emblem of our country are what we most highly prize.

"It has now fallen to our lot to march to the tented field under the star-spangled banner of our country, to guard against invasion, and to chastise the traitors in our country.

"Ladies—You may rest assured that this glorious flag shall never be trailed in the dust, but that in its defence shall be heard the roar of freedom's artillery, and the voice of our men amidst the shout of battle and the shock of arms.

"Ladies—I thank you for this noble token of your esteem and patriotism, and henceforth let our sloga n be—'A union of hands, and a union of States and the Flag of our Union forever.'"

The beautiful flag was now run aloft upon the staff in the front quarters of the Guard, and the band struck up "The Star-Spangled Banner," which was executed with thrilling effect.

ADDRESS OF JUDGE WILKINS.

The venerable Judge Wilkins, in whose honor the camp has been named, arose from his seat, and paid a most beautiful tribute to the glorious banner of our common country. He sketched the history of the flag from the time it was first unfurled by General Washington until it became the proud emblem of the American Union. He alluded in eloquent terms to the fact that it had been carried triumphantly through the Revolution, the War of 1812, and the Mexican War, and under the gallant soldiers were destined to march triumphantly in defence of the principles for which our fathers fought so valiantly. The flag had been trailed in the dust by rebels and traitors, but it had never yet been dishonored in the hands of true and loyal sons of the free. We are not far distant when it would again wave over every fort and arsenal in the whole country.

THE RELIGIOUS EXERCISES.

The religious exercises of the afternoon were opened with prayer by an officer of the Erie Regiment.

The assemblage then joined in singing three stanzas of the hymn commencing

"Am I a soldier of the Cross," etc.

Rev. C. A. Holmes, pastor of Christ M. E. Church, Penn street, then announced to the multitude that, through the kindness of Col. Jarrett, he had been permitted to address the soldiers in camp; and those who had gathered around them. He took for the basis of his remarks, the words: "Acquit yourselves like men." The discourse was well suited to the time and the occasion, and was replete with stirring patriotism. He held his hearers immovable throughout, and the solemnity of the occasion alone prevented frequent outbursts of applause.

After prayer, the benediction was pronounced by Mr. Holmes, and the services closed.

The soldiers demeaned themselves with the strictest decorum, and their excellent behavior was the subject of the universal commendation. After performing a number of evolutions they were withdrawn and disbanded, and the spectators quietly dispersed.

DR. SCHENCK, of PHILADELPHIA.—This gentleman will be in town to-day and to-morrow at the Drug Store of Dr. Keyser, No. 140 Wood street, where he has been visiting his patients for over a year past, and will remain for a few days more. Dr. Schenck is a skilfull physician in Lung and Liver diseases, as evidence of which read the numerous cures published in our paper from time to time. He invites all his former patients to call and see him. Persons desiring a thorough examination of the Lungs will be charged three dollars—all other advice gratis

THE NEW COMET.—The comet just discovered by M. Thatcher, is said to be now plainly visible to the naked eye. Star-gazers will find it in the quadrangle of the "Dipper" in the Great Bear—a little north and west of the first star in the front. A ready shows a tail three degrees long in the telescope. It moves rapidly from the northeast, and in a few days will be conspicuous as a flaming sword from the North advancing into the Southwestern skies. An omen.

MAN MISSING.—On Thursday of last week a man came to Connellsville and stopped at the Pago House, having with him a good sized sorrel mule. On Friday morning he went over the river to New Haven, and afterwards, it is believed, took the 2 p. m., train for Pittsburgh, and nothing has been heard of him since. The horse is now in the hands of Mr. Wilhelm, the proprietor of the hotel, and he desires the owner to come forward and take it away.

CAMP WILKINS.—Four companies were on Friday afternoon designated to go into Camp as follows:

McKeesport Union Guards	Capt Enoch Grass
City Guard, Pittsburgh	Capt Jackson
Anderson Cadets	Capt Anderson
Allegheny Rangers	Capt Fleming

This will make a full regiment from this county the other six companies having been ordered in at the formation of the camp.

PARDONED.—A dispatch was received on Friday announcing that Gov. Curtin had pardoned Mann O'Donnell, convicted of seduction under promise of marriage and sentenced to one year in the Penitentiary. The petitions circulated for O'Donnell contained a proviso that if pardoned he would enlist in the service of the country, but we do not know whether the condition was made in the pardon.

FRIEND RIFLE GUARDS.—This splendid company, under command of Capt. Brunn, attended Christ church, Penn street, yesterday forenoon, and were present at Camp Wilkins during the services of the afternoon. They are fully uniformed, and in every way ready for service. They present a fine, soldierly appearance, and if accepted would do credit to themselves and honor to the State. They meet this evening.

A VETERAN.—Gen. Joseph Markle, of Westmoreland county, now over eighty years old, is commander of the Home Guard organized in West Newton. The brave old general is eager and anxious to take an active part in fighting the Southern traitors. He is hale and vigorous notwithstanding his advanced age, and is as full of patriotic ardor as ever.

WEST LIBERTY HOME GUARDS.—This company was organized by the election of the following officers: Capt Wm Espy; 1st Lieut, G Neal; 2d Jas McDonough; Orderly, Geo Biltshoover. The company numbers over sixty members, and they have applied for arms from the Committee on Home Defense. They will be among the foremost to offer their services when needed.

DUQUESNE GREYS RESERVED CORPS.—At a meeting of the remaining members of the Duquesne Greys, held at the armory Wednesday evening, the following gentlemen were elected officers: President, Wm Little; Secretary, C S Shear; Treasurer, J A Scott. Captain, Wm Little; First Lieut, J C Buffum; Second Lieut, E A Aurentz; Orderly Sergeant, J S Moore.

WE ARE glad to be assured on the most reliable authority, that the rumors which have been circulated here regarding the want of patriotism of Mr. G. M. Watson, are entirely without foundation. Mr. Watson is at present in Washington, Pa., where his parents reside, organizing a volunteer company for the defense of our national flag.

KEEPING A DISORDERLY HOUSE.—Mr. and Mrs. Brawdy, of the Fifth Ward, have again been charged with keeping and maintaining a disorderly house. A warrant has been issued by Mayor Wilson.

THE U. S. DISTRICT COURT, Judge M'Candless presiding, will meet this morning, at 11 o'clock. Several important criminal cases are to be tried, and the session will last about three weeks.

SWORN IN.—Capt. Wm. M. Gormley's company were sworn in on Saturday, by A. Schoyer, Esq., Notary Public, and will be mustered into service, at Camp Wilkins to-day.

LARCENY.—Henry Snyder has been arrested and committed for trial by Mayor Wilson, upon a charge of stealing a carpet sack and clothing from Louis Kaufman.

HUNT'S MERCHANTS' MAGAZINE AND COMMERCIAL REVIEW, for May.—New-York: Wm. B. Dana, Publisher and Proprietor. For sale by Messrs. Hunt & Miner, Pittsburgh.

This valuable magazine has, we perceive, under its new management assumed some features, which we consider likely to render it still more valued by the mercantile community—highly as it has always been prized by the numerous and intelligent class for whom it is specially designed. What we refer to, however, will involve no essential change in the already well-known and established features of the work, but only such additional information as the following:

I. A record of the proceedings of the Chamber of Commerce, New York, and of the Boards of Trade at Boston and Philadelphia.

II. A monthly list of Marine Losses, showing the name of the vessel, where bound, names of owner, captain, &c., and amount of loss, whether total or partial.

III. A copious digest and careful examination of all important decisions, in New York and other States, in reference to Maine, Fire and Life Insurance, Commercial Points, &c.

IV. A monthly letter from London, giving a synopsis of current commercial affairs throughout Great Britain and Europe, with such other information as will render the work acceptable to its readers.

In the able hands of Messrs. Smith Homans and W. B. Dana, the Editors, assisted by such able contributors as George P. Marsh, Lorenzo Sabine, Bronte Mayer, Stephen Colwell, Geo. P. Bissell and others, who write for the Merchants' Magazine, there can be no doubt that it will continue as an influential organ of the business community, and maintain unimpaired a course of well-won and honorable prosperity.

FLAG RAISING.—On Saturday evening, another flag was raised at West Liberty, Lower St. Clair township. It was a handsome affair. The pole was tarred, in gaily lettered, the words, "Long may it wave." Speeches were delivered by Rev. Boyd, N. P. Fetterman Esq., and Capt. Patterson. This is the second large flag raised in the village.

GOV. CURTIN reached the city on Saturday afternoon, from Cleveland, and after paying a hasty visit to Camp Wilkins he took the cars for Harrisburg.

LARGE Flags for poles and houses, can be had at the Pittsburgh Flag Manufactory, opposite the Theatre.

OUR ARMY CORRESPONDENCE.

CAMP SCOTT, YORK, PA., May 3.

MESSRS. EDITORS: Yesterday I could not find time to write you, being entirely occupied in Company and Regimental drill, and testing—the latter being the more agreeable part, and to which we pay marked attention. The entire leisure portion of our time we put in to the best advantage—visiting manufactories and shops with those who can pass the guard are in town hunting something to eat and, particularly, to drink, ogling the pretty girls, &c. The rules of this camp are very strict; only two privates from each company can obtain passes for the day. This, of course, causes a deal of swearing among us volunteers, who have heretofore been in the habit of doing as we pleased. The parade of yesterday was very imposing, the Twelfth and Fifteenth Regiments turning out their full strength, and nearly the whole in uniform. The evolutions called forth the praises of both Generals, Wynkoop and Negley. Some three hours were passed in marching, following squares, receiving charges of cavalry and infantry, interspersed occasionally with an order to lie flat on our bellies on arms to avoid a shower of grape. This was very agreeable after running at double quick time. Our boys are all well, with one exception, the Senator from Barefoot (elected in the Representatives' Hall at Harrisburg) is slightly hoarse, but is on duty all the time. As in a former letter our mess, Artists' Battalion, is the only one that is well messed style. The sketches taken by our artist are magnificent. Perhaps by to-morrow I may be able to send one as a sample Time and paper are both up, and I must bid you adieu. D.

BLOOD FOOD.—Attention is called to this most remarkable and scientific preparation, advertised in another column. It is an entirely new discovery, and must not be contounded with any of the numerous patent medicines of the day. It is a certain remedy for all the diseases specified, and especially those of a chronic nature—of long
