must always be found, if found at alt. When the war broke out, the military leaders distrusted the volunteer regiments. But those regiments were soon transformed into veterans. Contempt for the volunteers was annihilated on many immortal battlefields. The judgment, however, of military men always inclines to large establishnts. Their professional bias renders their estimates in this particular not altogother trustworthy. To the minds of civ-ilians this proposition is indisputable, that consolidations of economy and republican simplicity require the contraction of the ar my to the lowest boint compatible with the public safety. A PLOT SPOILED. The democrats and conservatives here decoracticitons to bring on a collision bethere nice entering wedge could be made profites an immedicable rupture. They trangely forgot the unqualified declaration of Erical Suffrage should be raised in Tennes livered in the Senate. If a man is known see he, as a citizen of that State, should support it. Coindident with this declaration, is in which the Wisconsin Senator is found is the statement of our telegraphic correspondent at Washington, this morning, that the President, upon the passage of the Suffrage Bill in the House promptly announced in conversation that he should sign it as soon as it should be presented to him. The plot for a quarrel between the President and
