Aldorman Taylor opened his court yester-day morning, and disposed of a variety of cases. First came Poter Shriober who made oath that John Frauenhobz had passed a counterfest note spou him, of the denomination of five dollars, the same being upon the Bank of Chambersburg, and that he believed that Frauenhobz was aware at the time he Bank of Chambersburg, and that he believed that Fraucaliobz, was aware at the time he passed it, that it was a spurious note. The bill was so badly executed that it carried it worthlessness upon its face. A warrant was issued for the arrest of Frauenholz.

The next case was a matrimonial squabble, Daniel Drumon and Faulina Drumon are man and wife, and as such should live together cherishing for each other that affection which is upon the matried start of the matried shappened instantly to belong to the married shappened instantly to belong to the married shappened instantly to belong to the married shappened matring to be the married shappened was the distribution to the reason unknown has become warried of its reasons unknown has become wearled of its reasons here, that is, teed.
