A Good Joke on a Soldier. A young man from Temperanceville came to the city on business, and among other things requiring attention was an aching toots, and so repaired to the office of Dr. Sill, and with apparentistrypticism inquired if this trouble-some member could be taken out, without pain or injurions effects to himself. Having received a satisfactory answer, the laughing reaswas administered, and the tooth extraction. It is moment or two after, he raised not. as was administered, and the tooth extract

I am sorry"-and threw him-self back fa the chair, to show what a man who had seen service could do, and, with de-zermination, said: "I will have it out anyhow. I have, heep, a solder; certainly I can bear Phat," The Dector Informed him he could do had more with the tooth. At this the young man concluded, as there was blood in his mouth, that there had been a trial made, and thrust his tongue into the cavity to see what had been done, and to list delight and astonish ment the fetch was rome.

A Point ou Which all Physicians Agree. Defint on Which all Physicians Agree. Out of ten thousand regular physicians you cannot find one who will not any that stimulants and invigorants are absolutely necessary in medical practicle. And yet in bygone years sumane practitioners have hesitated to all minister them, because the flendish ingenuity of writches who make merchandise of hurran infirmities had so polluted and deteriorated them that the remedy was deemed as dangerous as the disease. This perplexity is impossible of the highest continuous as the disease. This perplexity is impossible on away with. Physicians know, because the first analytical chemists of the age have demonstrated the fact, that Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Ritters are absolutely and entirely free from all psynicious elements. Hence they have been introduced into the United States Army, and are accepted, wherever the teatimony of the wise, the in lwherever the testimony of the wise, the in lingent and the philanthropic is rated at its at value, as the best protective against and quire for all diseases arising from impurity in the air or other unhealthy climate influences the air or other unhealthy climate innuences, that has ever been tested by experience. A Bill has been passed by the House, whole were married.

A Bitt has been passed by the House, which hooks to the prevention of parties returning their incomes on a "gold basis." It would seem that this practice has been largely adulted in, and the Treasury has been a severe sufferer thereby. The bill side composts parties owning faright stocks or railroad bends abroad to return the value of the same on a currency basis.

The Other Farner says the dairymen who have been prospecting for cows for next accounties. In the same prices. Any little scrub of a helfer coming a prices. Any little scrub of a helfer coming in the spring, will command 40, fawlie fair cows figure up to $20 and $70 each. Farmers have plenty of feed and great fath in the future of the dairy business.
