

RECONSTRUCTION.

SPEECH OF HON. THOMAS WILLIAMS, IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, FEBRUARY 19, 1866, ON THE RECONSTRUCTION POLICY OF THE PRESIDENT.

But though we were even less than the claims of justice and the emotions of gratitude, and entirely indifferent to the allegations of the negro race for its own sake, we want their vote for our own protection. Our best security is to be found in the allegiance of the negro race to our government. Our best security is to be found in the allegiance of the negro race to our government. Our best security is to be found in the allegiance of the negro race to our government.

It is not the negro race that is the subject of the President's policy. It is the negro race that is the subject of the President's policy. It is the negro race that is the subject of the President's policy. It is the negro race that is the subject of the President's policy.
