FINANCE AND TRADE.

SATURDAY, April 7, 1866.

From the Chicago Tribune of Friday, we find the following additional details in regard to the late failure in that city.

The case of B. H. Badger, the details of which we published yesterday, continues to engage the attention of financial circles; but to-day the discussion seems to hinge more on the connection which A. J. Badger & Co. had with the transactions, than with the performances of B. H. Badger. The question comes up—has A. J. Badger & Co. any right to keep in their vaults $25,612.80 which B. H. Badger procured from the Second and the Merchants National Banks, under false representations? Had Mr. B. H. Badger, instead of doing what he did, carried an express or bank messenger and stolen from him $25,000 in money, and afterwards deposited said money in the bank of A. J. Badger & Co., could the latter have retained of the stolen money, even though B. H. Badger owed the bank of A. C. Badger & Co. that amount? But it may be said that the cases we cite are not parallel. So far as B. H. Badger is concerned, they are not; but how is it with A. C. Badger & Co.? They have received from B. H. Badger $25,612.80 which clearly belongs to the Second, and the Merchants National Banks, and it makes no difference, in moral law, whether B. H. Badger parroted or deceived those bankers in order to obtain from them the money—so long as it was obtained wrongfully. We said yesterday that it was not necessary to believe that A. C. Badger & Co. were accomplices with B. H. Badger in playing the "nice little game," but if they refuse to give up the money to its lawful owners, after they have fully ascertained the facts in the case, then they become "accessaries after the act." At any rate such are the sentiments freely expressed on the street, and we question whether A. C. Badger & Co. can long withstand the pressure.

Since writing the above, we are informed that B. H. Badger has been arrested on a criminal charge, at the instance of the cashier of the Merchants National Bank. A. C. Badger and John C. Hilton became his bondsmen, to the extent of $12,000. It is also rumored that suits will be brought in the civil courts against A. C. Badger & Co.

—The Cincinnati Gazette says:

"There is a mystery about Mr. McCulloch's management of the public debt. During the month just retired $2,500,000 of the 5 per cent bonds, and $2,000,000 of the compound interest notes, and increased the 5-20 bonds, which bear a 6 per cent gold interest, $2,952,500, and the temporary loan $3,173,061. By this arrangement the interest has been increased considerably. The public have not known the why of course, as to how the transfers were made, or as to the rate. These privileged monetary operations are beginning to tell upon the market for the bonds.

—The Chicago Republican of Friday says:

The shippers of grain in this city have been vexed with a notice that they must pay to the Assessor of Internal Revenue one dollar on every one thousand dollars worth of grain shipped East during the year 1865. This notice created a good deal of excitement among them yesterday among shippers, and resulted in a call of the shippers of grain at the Board of Trade rooms to take into consideration the subject matter. The Assessor of Internal Revenue construes the law to the effect, viz. that the dealer is to pay one-tenth, and the broker one-eighth of one per cent on all sales. The shipper here is in the dilemma under this construction, and the consignee at Buffalo or New York is the broker. Shippers here have already paid the one-eighth of one per cent to their sales at Buffalo or New York, and the Assessor now calls upon them for the one-tenth, or one dollar on every one thousand dollars of their shipments.

—We are glad to learn, says the New York Post, that Mr. Clarke the Comptroller of the Currency, denies the allegation made yesterday in the morning papers, that he had refused to lend a letter to the Finance Committee of the Senate, proposing to add one hundred millions to the authorized currency of the national banks.

Finance and Trade in New York.

MONEY AND STOCKS.

NEW YORK, April 7—Gold closed steady at 143@143¼. The Money Market was easier, call loans at 5 to 6 per cent. The Stock Market was firm, but closed heavy. Government bonds were dull and unchanged. Railroad shares were active and generally lower. The latest open board sales: Chicago and Rock Island, 103½; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago, 97½; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, 63½; Cleveland and Toledo, 103½; Michigan Southern guaranteed, 83½; Michigan Southern and Northern Indiana, 57½; Illinois Central, 116; Reading, 101¾; Michigan Central, 109; Northwestern preferred, 55¾; Fort Wayne, 97½.

The Commercial says the stock market continues strong on the railroad list, peculations for the moment centering in Erie, for the purpose apparently being to corner the shorts on that stock, among whom the principal one is supposed to be Gen. Spalding Erie, who has recently suffered at the hands of the Richmond Southern clique. A similar movement is in operation in Reading, and Cleveland and Pittsburgh. The mending up of the Michigan southern corner without any serious outcroppings to bring acts as a relief of the apprehensions entertained a few days ago, and tends to encourage speculation in other stocks. The miscellaneous list is dull and weak, and stocks are lower. Governments are quiet, and exhibit a decided weakness. The price opened at 127⅞, and fell steadily to 127, at 12:30 p. m. Large amounts were offered, but few buyers were on hand. There is a perceptible disposition to discount the effect of the payment of the May compound, which, in connection with the low price of exchange, is steadily bearing down the premium. Money is in ample supply notwithstanding the withdrawal of deposits by country bankers, and the rate is easier at 5@6 per cent. The Change, however, is perhaps nothing beyond the usual Saturday's ease. Discounts are moderately active at 7@9 per cent. for prime paper; 9@10 per cent. for foreign exchange on merely nominal prime bankers. Sterling is quiet at 109¾@ 109¾, but as usual on Saturday there are no transactions.

DRY GOODS.

The market is quiet It is a question of doubt whether the late advance can be sustained. Foreign goods are dull and somewhat lower than last week. Every one in the trade is wishing for a steady market The following are the quotations at the New York Dry Goods Exchange, jobbers prices: Brown Sheetings—Atlanta A 29; Nashua extra 22. Pepperell R 25; Pepperell R 28; Pepperell Q 21. Bleached Shirtings—Masonville 27. Amoskeag Manufacturing Company 2; Stark 29; Palmer River 24; Palermo 19. Prints—Merrimack D 21, Merrimack D 24, American 19, Allen 18, Garner & Co. 29. Stripes—Amoskeag 37½; American 22; Everett 27½; Whittenden A 34; Whittenden C 27½. Denims—Amoskeag 37½; Boston Manufacturing Company 37½; Manchester 37½; Pearl River 30; Wide World 35. Hoop Skirts—Fair demand.

WEEKLY REPORT.

There has been no improvement in the wholesale market during the week. Most articles were firm, with the exception of cotton.

The market for fresh Flour has been quite active and prices advanced; common grades are dull and rates have gradually declined with gold. Pork has been active with variable prices, and the market closed dull and unchanged. There has been a moderate demand for Prime Mess, and prices are firm. Beef is in considerable request, but prices are without change. Cut Meats have been active and are offered more freely at full prices. Lard has declined and closed heavy. The demand for Coffee has been moderate; poorer grades are lower, and prime qualities are firm. There has been a fair inquiry for cotton from shippers, but owing to the liberal arrivals and unfavorable news from Europe, prices have declined, closing at 36@36½ for Middling. There has been a slight decline in Petroleum and the market closed heavy. Whisky firm at 42½. Total importations during the week $7,472,30, dry goods, $4,265,20.

PETROLEUM AND GOLD.

Petroleum and Gold Mining Stocks, dull: Boles, 2,00; Ivanhoe, 2,80; Pithole, 3,20, Centegra, 18,00; Downie'ville, 3,50; Funnell, 1,30; Smith & Parmlee, 2,25

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, April 7, 1866.

CRUDE.—The Crude market continues dull and unsettled, and with buyers and sellers apart in their views and feeling, we have but comparatively few transactions to record.
