THE Conservatives are having a hard time of it. The Nord, the Russian organ at St Brussels, published a telegram from St Petersburg, of the 22d ultimo, announcing the abolition of slavery in Tashkent—capital of the new Russian province of Tourkistan at the request of the Emperor Alexander II. All the slaves, mostly obtained by barth, have been liberated and the new power of the Czar in these remote Asiatic provinces has been inaugurated with the blessings of all. This event is one of great importance to the civilization of this province, and is auspicious for Russian domination in the east generally. As the Muscovite troops now advance toward the mountains of Thibet and the strongholds of Hindostan, they will be hailed as liberators of the masses of those empires. Freedom becomes not only Russia's highest claims of affection upon her new Asiatic subjects, but also the surest principle for the extension of her power.

THE Norfolk Old Dominion sharply rebukes the Northern Democratic journals who abuse Congress and clamor for South ern representation. "The people of Virginia are to-day in the enjoyment of more freedom than they have possessed since the spring of 1861. Every man can go about his business, make money, enjoy the fruits of his labor, rest secure in his house, express his opinion, vote as often and as early as he pleases, and read what newspaper he chooses to buy. We don't really see that we are ground down, in the dust by the tyranny of anybody or the wealth-like lives of slaves. True we have not got and ay in Congress to vote for the Secession Ordinance of and any one there were one Representative not look up the Yeas and Nays of the year 1861."

IT is confidently predicted that Mr SUMNER is the only radical in either House who will oppose the Congressional plan of reconstruction. We do not believe he will oppose. He may desire more than this scheme provides, but we think so far it will go he will support it.

THE Democratic press gives Mr Seward that the President and Congress are likely to harmonize. On the Philadelphia question reported by the committee to the House of Representatives it is generally admitted the most favorable to be wished.

THE people of East Tennessee are moving with great energy and unanimity for the purpose of securing a separation from West Tennessee, and the organization of a new State government.

TO-DAY PROBST the murderer of the DEARING family at Philadelphia will be hung up for sentence. Seldom has a criminal excited less sympathy than the miser who strangled.

THE CONTESTANTS for the United States Senatorship from Connecticut are the present incumbent Mr. Foster, Governor Buckingham, and General Orris Ferry.

IN Michigan the county conventions heard from are Republicans. Same majority as last year. Action of Democratic Legislature. That does not look like obstruction.

The County Superintendency

PITTSBURGH, April 28, 1866.

EDITOR GAZETTE:—A Friend of Peace and Progress, in his Monday's Gazette, wishes to promote the utmost harmony, in the matter of the County Superintendency, and suggests that we wait with expectant hope, the advent of Gilmore, and of Mr Dickey, to save Pittsburgh from its present storm. Mr Gilmore ought to have been living at the period of the outbreak of the rebellion, as I still believe and trust, to save the Union. I do not propose to yield in this matter. The contest is largely one of principles and not of individuals. Mr Burtt is hereby informed that I have no objections to his character, either as a man or a teacher, and that I have no personal feeling in the matter. His qualifications for the office may not be complete or sufficient, but I do not say, neither are they positively objectionable to pay for any article until you know what you are to receive. To the Debilitated and the Decrepid.

For general debility and exhaustion of the powers of nature, whether occasioned by sickness, fear, fasting, constitutional decay, old age or any other physical or mental cause, the one thing needful and indispensable is Hostetter's celebrated Stomach Bitters. When the fire of life seems to be absolutely dying out in the system, and the mind, sympathizing with the body, is reduced almost to a state of imbecility this mighty Restorative seems, as it were, to lift the sufferer out of the slough of despondency and recruit and reinvigorate both the frame and the intellect. An old farmer in the Valley of the Monongahela writes thus to Dr. Hostetter: "I can compare the operation of your Bitters upon me to nothing but the effect of a rain after a long dry spell in the fall of the year. The rain falling on the meadow starts the second crop of grass, and your wholesome medicine seems to have started a second crop of life and spirits in me." And this is truly the effect of this grateful and powerful preparation. Ladies of weak constitution, or whose strength has been impaired by sickness or age, find it a speedy and delightful Tonic, and it is administered with great success in cases of wasting of the body, to young children. In fact, it is a much safer and surer medicine for the nursery than anything advertised specially for that purpose.

Hostetter's Bitters

Are sold wholesale and retail at Forty-one Fifth avenue, Deming's Drug and Patent Medicine Depot, No. 41 Market street, corner of the Diamond, and Market, near Fourth.

FOR the Pittsburgh Gazette.

Removal of Mr. Von Bonnhorst.

We should fail of our duty as a friend of the President and as a fair journalist speaking of public events, did we not say that the removal of Mr. Von Bonnhorst was in every view a serious mistake.—Commercial, April 2.

The above is the conclusion of a sickly protest put forth by the Commercial, after several days' time for reflection, against the removal of Mr Von Bonnhorst.

What the Commercial calls a serious mistake every true Union man, in this community calls a flagrant outrage.

It was no mistake of the President. He did it willfully and deliberately, for it is but little over a month since he gave Mr. Von Bonnhorst his commission; and now without cause or reason, other than the representations of such men as S. P. Sawyer and Samuel McKelvey the President removes Mr. Von Bonnhorst, and the Commercial, as the friend of the President, and our journalist, makes a very feeble attempt, indeed, to look the stable after the horse is gone, and thinks it can throw dust in the eyes of the people by speaking favorably of Mr. Von Bonnhorst. It no doubt believes what it says about him, but it is too late. It is well known that Sawyer, McKelvey & Co. have been well fortified in their appeals to the President by the palpable leaning of the Commercial towards the President's policy. This, in connection with the fact that one of so near the throne of the Commercial as to be considered the supreme dictator over its affairs, is strong evidence that the Commercial was of great service to the "Summers" in their peregrinations to Washington.

ROBERTS WARD.

EDITOR GAZETTE:—An article appeared in the Evening Curbside of Monday, signed by W. W. Dickson, on the County Superintendency, at the close of which he enters his protest against the personalities used by the friends of Mr. Doutlett in various articles which have appeared in his defense. Now I, as an outsider, does the gentleman suppose the public are ignorant of the fact that he, or some of his partners, has indulged in the meanest personalities of any one who has entered the arena of this controversy. I refer particularly to an article in Saturday's Dispatch, signed "Director," of the publication, if he did not write it. This article contained personalities of the lowest grade, of which we have any conception, one in this controversy—another against the Superintendent. This gentleman refers to certain statements, made by the County Superintendent, in regard to Mr. Burtt, which he says "that gentleman so triumphantly stated." Mr. Doutlett says that "the only person who keeps a Normal school," &c

Now we know no reason why any one, who understands the English language, could fail to understand this sentence; yet Mr. Burtt says on Goff, Stevenson, and Munro taught Normal School; and Mr. Burtt thinks, that because they were in normal teachers once they them has been a book agent for near two years, and another a Professor in the Western University for about the same time. Here we recognize the difference between the Present and Past tenses. But allowing the gentleman to mix his tenses to suit himself, we will endeavor, Mr. Burtt admits pupils into his school of five dollars for tuition. Messrs. Goff, Munro and Stevenson taught those of their own convictered teachers of Normal Schools, then every one of the six hundred teachers of Allegheny County may be designated as Normal School teachers. As to the examples cited by Mr. Dickson, to prove the partiality of Mr. Doutlett for Mr. Curry's pupils, we do not know nothing of the parties spoken of; but as we are satisfied that fully nine-tenths of all the reports in circulation concerning the Superintendent are false, we shall receive this one with all due allowance. Having succeeded by our former article, in drawing the gentleman out over his own signature, we hope in this to at least demanish him of the assumed dignity which he gratuitously appropriates to himself, when he assumes to be one in the Profession, who enters his protest against personalities.

NEW YORK, April 30.—The British steamer Hibernian, from Liverpool on the 12th via Queenstown on the 13th, has arrived to-day. She has 200 cabin passengers on board.

Satterthwaite's circular says large transactions in American securities for German account are reported. The market closed on the 14th at 89¾ Illinois central 86 and 54.

LONDON, April 12.—Despatches from Berlin say Bismarck advises Austria to be more conciliating, and there was a growing belief in peace.

A Vienna telegram of the 11th says Bavaria, Wirtenburg, Saxony, Baden and Darmstadt are quite united on the German and Federal question. Should war ensue they would all be on the side of Austria. Their agreement encourages the hope that the peace will not be disturbed. Peace meetings continued to be held in the large towns throughout Prussia.

The tenure by the Prussian reply to the Austrian despatch of the 7th instant, is published. It dwells especially on the admitted movement of the Austrian troops on the Prussian frontier, by which Prussia was led to take defensive measures, and says that if Count Mensdorff, after the Emperor had passed his word that no aggression was intended by Austria, still continues military preparations, it can hardly be expected that Prussia will give an equally clear denial of hostile intentions, having been given by the King, and she should relinquish those defensive measures which were called forth by the attitude of Austria.

Prussia's answer to the counter-representations against her armaments does not ask an oath of Austria, but will take her word as sufficient. Prussia wishes to assure the Duchies, and Germany generally, that she supports the rights of the Schleswig-Holstein people. She will not lift the sufferer out of the slough of despondency and recruit and reinvigorate both the frame and the intellect. An old farmer in the Valley of the Monongahela writes thus to Dr. Hostetter: "I can compare the operation of your Bitters upon me to nothing but the effect of a rain after a long dry spell in the fall of the year.
