THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

VOLUME LXXX.--NO. 123. PITTSBURGH, SATURDAY, MAY 26, 1866. PRICE THREE CENTS.

THE DAILY GAZETTE.

PUBLISHED BY
PENNIMAN, REED & CO.,
No. 86 Fifth Street, Pittsburgh.

TERMS:
PER YEAR, BY MAIL.....$6.00.
PER WEEK, SERVED BY CARRIER.....15.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

SATURDAY, MAY 26, 1866

It is a matter of much importance that the Union Republican primary elections held to-day be well attended. Not more but loyal men be elected as delegates to the forthcoming County Convention. Vote only for those who are known to be true and faithful to the ever living principles of the party. The delegates must be fearless and outspoken men, for they will be called upon to rebuke the members of the party who are assidiously at work endeavoring to weaken and destroy its power in the State. In the gubernatorial election much will depend upon the character of the Convention to which you are now called upon to elect delegates. Do your duty and see that your neighbor forgets not his.

The Fayettville (N. C.) News makes some plain statements of the nature of Southern loyalty, which people who have read President Johnson's and Secretary Seward's inculcations on that subject, will do well to peruse. We quote:

"The men who took these oaths, and who became citizens of the United States, and who have been obedient, and faithful and loyal to the laws, are not at heart friends of the Government of which they are subjects. They were defeated by the United States in an attempt to perfect a long cherished scheme, which must have resulted in the greatest benefit and advantage to themselves. They were human, and they could feel nothing else than bitterness for those whose triumph was in the ruin of their hopes and the blasting and crushing of their aspirations. The do not love the Government of the United States. the "Stars and Stripes", excite no emotions of pride in their bosoms, for they have seen it trailing in defeat too often, as their star-crossed battle flag waved victorious in the Summer sunlight.

They have no veneration for the Government, no love for the flag, no feeling of security for their interests, no very great desire to continue under the Government than necessarily compelled by exigencies. If they had the power to establish a confederacy before they were whipped they would have established it, and it is reasonable to believe that if they could establish it now they would do so but for their oaths of allegiance. These oaths were to the effect that they would support the Constitution, and that they ever be required to do more, or should the Constitution be subverted, these oaths are worth nothing."

Is this genuine loyalty? Are men, in this frame of mind, fitted to take seats in Congress? The President thinks they are. We should be glad to agree with him. But we cannot.

The New York World breaks out in this sort:

The Torture of Jefferson Davis.—It is no longer a matter of newspaper rumor that the treatment which Jefferson Davis has received during his incarceration in Fortress Monroe has been such as to break down his constitution, and to put him, after twelve months of protracted suffering, in imminent peril of death."

If the laws had been duly executed upon Mr. Davis he would have suffered death months ago. Maudlin sentimentality over the suffering of great criminals may be fashionable; but we don't invest largely in it.

Members of the Union League are notified in another column of the Annual Meeting of the State Grand Council of this patriotic order, to be held in this city on the 6th day of June ensuing, occurring immediately after the State Convention of the Soldier's Leagues, which is to be held here on the 5th. There will undoubtedly be a large attendance from all parts of the State. Indeed some of the most prominent men of the State have promised attendance already—including the distinguished President of the Order in this State.

The Republican members of the Senate spent most of the day, yesterday in caucus, with a view to harmonizing views on the Reconstruction Amendment. Mr. Sumner manifests a disposition to the same sort of impracticability by which he defeated the Suffrage Amendment some weeks ago. It would be well for that gentleman to learn a fair deference to the opinions of his associates.

Reports have obtained currency that Mr. C. A. Dana has tendered his resignation as editor of the Chicago Republican, and that establishment is soon to change front and espouse the President's Policy. The latter part of the rumor is denied by the Republican; the former is not.

A Washington special to the Philadelphia Bulletin says:

"The friends of 'My Policy' are not satisfied with the speech of Secretary Stanton. Fearful denunciations of that officer are heard on all sides, while the radical organ here says it is the calm and dignified utterances of a statesman."

The Wheeling Intelligencer, of the 25th inst., says the vote on the Constitutional Amendment, taken the day before, was large, but considerably below the registration and the vote of 1864. The result in no one county had been received.

The Democratic paper of Elk county urges its party friends to unite with the conservative Republicans in supporting Colonel Carlton B. Curtis, of Warren, for Congress, against Mr. Schofield. We guess the Colonel is not that sort of man.

The telegraph again reports that Gov Curtin has been tendered a foreign mission. Much as we should be pleased at such recognition of his services, we think no such offer has ever been made.

The bill equalizing bounties passed the House yesterday by an almost unanimous vote. We congratulate the brave men who are specially interested in this measure on the result so far.

The Third Annual Meeting of the Western Institute of Homeopathy commenced at Cleveland yesterday. Several physicians from Pittsburgh and Allegheny are in attendance.

The Senate yesterday rejected the nomination of Mr. Samuel McKelvy for Marshal of the Western District of Pennsylvania. The government is not exactly a one-man machine.

The chances of Mr. D. A. Finney being the successor of Mr. Culver in Congress are improving.

Election in West Virginia—Large Majorities for the Ratification of the Amendment Disfranchising Rebels.

Wheeling, W. Va., May 25.—The election in West Virginia yesterday, for the ratification or rejection of the Constitutional amendment disfranchising the persons engaged in the rebellion, passed off quietly.

The returns from the interior counties come in very slowly. Full returns received from eleven counties thus far indicate large majorities for the ratification. Wheeling city and Ohio county give three hundred majority for rejection.

Damages Awarded.

Boston, May 25.—In the Superior Court today, in the case of James Mulchean against Dr. Henry J. Prowdita, for damages for illegally branding the plaintiff with the letter D, (deserter,) while examining surgeon in the Provost Marshal's office, the jury returned a verdict of $1,000 for the plaintiff.

CITY ITEMS.

Graduated at Duff's Mercantile College, Pittsburgh, Pa.

J. Ingram, Jr., Burrell, Pa.
E. A. Estep, Allegheny, Pa.
W. B. Godfrey, McConnellsville, Ohio
Wm. P. Godfrey, McConnellsville, Ohio.
J. D. Latimer, Chartiers township, Pa.
J. A. Grove, Jr., St. Clairsville, Ohio.
Samuel Harbison, Bakerstown, Pa.
John M. Gartside, Millvale, Pa.
R. R. Elliott, Newark, Ohio.
P. G. Hays, Newport, Ohio.
Samuel Flint, Bradonville, Pa.
G. W. Davis, Bowling Green, Ind.
R. R. Rea, Newport, Ohio.
J. L. Caid Hamburg, Newwell, Pa.
Harry White, Pittsburgh, Pa.
I. N. Humphrey, Middleport, Ohio.
G. W. Benedict, Rutland, Ohio.
A. B. McCartney, Sharon, Pa.
J. H. Cotton, Marlboro, Ohio.
J. Blair, Pittsburgh, Pa.
John Eberley, Jr., Navarre, Ohio.
Geo. Schaffner, Butler, Pa.
T. H. Kernan, Monongahela City, Pa.
Jas. F. Wilson, Warren, Ohio.
P. S. Cowen, St. Clairsville, Ohio.
Alex. Martin, Allegheny, Pa.
Wm. Trumpeter, Phillipsburg, Pa.
M. C. Grimes, New Matamoras, Ohio.
H. B. Coldsmith, West Newton, Pa
C. R. Johnson, Girard, Ohio.
J. H. Calderhead, New Athens, Ohio.
Daniel Holcomb, Orangeville, Ohio.
C. Christopher, Amboy, Ill.
Jas. Johnson, Allegheny, Pa.
J. M. Humphry, Middleport, Ohio
E. E. Stoops, Newickeryville, Pa
H. H. Steenrod, Union Mills, Pa.
Matthew Moses, Jr., Jeffersonville, Pa.
B. F. Douglas, Shirleysburgh, Pa.
D. M. McFarland, Canal, Lewisville, Ohio.

All of whom passed the usual searching examinations of the College satisfactorily, and who will no doubt hereafter distinguish themselves by an honorable proficiency in business. Each graduate was awarded the beautiful diploma of the College, as a credential of his proficiency in his industry, and of his examinary department during his course of study.

25 Cents, 25 Cents, 25 Cents.

Now open.
Now open.
Now open
Now open

At 65 Fifth street.
At 65 Fifth street.

M. A. Evans & Co
M. A. Evans & Co

Entirely Original.
Entirely original.

Twenty-five Cents.
Twenty-five Cents

Or One Dollar
Or One Dollar

By this arrangement you may get
A Gold Watch for $1 00,
A Silver Watch for $1 00.

A Silver Plated Tea set for $1 00

A Silver Plated Castor, Butter Dish, Ice Pitcher, Goblet, Set of Forks, Cake Basket, Rich Jewelry, Fans, Opera Glasses, Table and Fine Cutlery and a great variety of other goods all to be disposed of at Twenty-five Cents or one Dollar each.

Call and See.
Call and See

What 25 cents will do.
What 25 cents will do.

At 65 Fifth street.
At 65 Fifth street.

A New Tonic and Alterative

It is gratifying to notice the progress which science is making as regards new curative substances. We have in an advertising column a brief description of a new combination, which is, certainly, so far as we can judge, one of great value. It is prepared by regular manufacturing chemists of long established reputation, who have for many years supplied some of the most beautiful chemicals used in medicine and the arts, and therefore are worthy of confidence. At this season of the year almost every one feels the need of some tonic and restorative, some agent capable of eradicating humors from the blood, and re-establishing the tone of the system. What can be better adapted to perform this office than the sarsaparilla and Iodide of Lime. The sarsaparilla breaks up diseased action, the Iodine action upon the liver and kidneys, and the lime restores the waste of bones. It must be a very useful combination.

The Presentation of Flags

At Philadelphia, day after, promises to be a grand affair. Efforts are being made to have our city represented. The 102d regiment, which is left of them, have held a meeting, at which it was decided to go to Pittock's for Albums, Gold Pens, Watches, Knives, &c.

The rush continues for those cheap Albums at Pittock's

Head Centre Stephens—Photos at Pittock's
All the late Books at Pittock's.
Heller, Gallett, Stuart Robson, Ememe Melville, Lotta—Photos at Pittock's.
All the June montlhies at Pittock's.
Young America—Pittock's.
Base Ball Guide at Pittock's.
All the late Dailies and Weeklies at Pittock's.
Ettie Henderson, McDonough, Monk Sisters, Hamill, Hotto, Coggswell—Photos at Pittock's.
Send for catalogue.
Pocket Books at Pittock's.

Fashionable Hats.

No part of a gentleman's dress is more important than a neat-fitting hat, and at no place in the city can he found a larger and better selected stock, than at the extensive and fashionable Hat and Cap House of Wm. Fleming, No. 129 Wood street. In addition to a complete stock of the finer silk and cassimere hats, Mens' and Boys' furnishing woods, Gents, Youths, and Children's plain and fancy straw goods, we have a large stock of all the new styles of Ladies' and Misses' Hats, trimmed and untrimmed.

The Original.

Remember that Dr. Spencer, No. 24 Penn street, the originator of Laughing Gas in Pittsburgh, makes no charge for Nitrous Oxide Gas. This safe and pleasant anæsthetic administered by a physician who makes it his specialty. Extraction of teeth and all other surgical operations performed without pain, perfect safety and no bad effects. Artificial teeth, substantial, lifelike, perfect in fit and finish. Call and examine, No. 24 Penn street; No. 24 Penn street.

Why Don't You Mention It?

A note was left on our desk yesterday signed "Housewife," asking why we had not noticed the ingenious invention for lifting pots, kettles, stove lids, plates, pie pans, &c., &c., now being sold in this city by Mr. C. J. Robinson. "Housewife" is informed that we invested a quarter in a metal, took it home to our "better half," who says she would not be without one one "for the world."

Children Having Worms.

Require immediate attention, as neglect of this frequently causes convulsions and death. Dr. Fahnestock's Vermifuge Comfits are a simple remedy, and will destroy worms without injury to the child.

Sole agent for Pittsburgh, Joseph Fleming, Druggist, No. 84 Market street.

Just Returned

From the Eastern Auctions, with a large stock of extra heavy Black Silks, Shawls, and Fancy Dress Goods, in which we are offering very great bargains. Call soon and see the stock of all kinds of new goods at Shellaby & Bareley's 71 and 73 Market street. Original Bee Hive.

$9 00! $9 00!

Who can beat this? For two weeks only. I am selling a good French calf-skin boot, of my own make, for the small sum of nine dollars, at No. 36 Market street.

Daniel Rhea, Jr.

Household Furniture at Auction.

The furniture at No. 41 Lacock street, First Ward, Allegheny, will be sold on Monday, May 28th, at ten o'clock. A Leggate Auctioneer.

Found.

The place to buy good and neat fitting Gaiters, at McClintock's, 92 Federal street.

Humphrey's Homeopathic

Medicines for sale at Fulton's Drug store, No. 65 Smithfield street.

Every Pair

Of Shoes is warranted at the Opera House Shoe Store, No. 60 Fifth street.

Just the Thing.

Those neat fitting Gaiters, at McClintock's, 92 Federal street.

Fresh Arrivals Every Day

Of Gaiters and Shoes, at McClintock's, 92 Federal street.

Don't Be Humbugged,

But go and see McClintock's stock of Shoes and Gaiters.

At Concert Hall Shoe Store

You get the best goods in the city for the least money.

Good Boots

And Shoes at No. 60 Fifth street,

CITY ITEMS.

T. T. Evans & Co.

Are prepared to receive orders for all Plumbing work and Gas and Steam Fitting. They employ none but the best workmen and all their work is guaranteed to give satisfaction. They have a superior stock of Chandeliers, Pendants and Brackets on hand and for sale at very low prices. They deal in sheet lead, sheet zinc, lead pipes, basins and washstands.

It is Not True.

As reported, that people have to stand on the sidewalk and doorstep at the office of Drs. Sill & Gillespie, unable to gain admittance until others pass out to make room. But it is true that their rooms are crowded daily with persons seeking their services. They extract teeth without the slightest pain, and give beautiful sets of teeth for ten dollars.at White House: 246, 246, 246 Penn street, opposite Christ M. E. Church

Pittsburgh Gas Savings Company.

Capital, $50,000, 500 shares, $100 each. $5 on each of the stock is still open for subscription, and will remain so daily from 10 A. M. to 12 M., when the Books will be closed at the office of the Cash Insurance Company, No. 58 Fourth street.

Wm. K. Nimick,
Wm. Phillips,
James Chalfant,
Jno. W. Chalfant,
Thomas Sterrett,
R. B. Roberts,
Committee on Books.

Goods from the Eastern Auctions.

Just opened at Shellaby & Barclay's.
Three bales of yard wide unbleached Muslin, at 12½ cents.
Two cases of Bleached Muslin, at 12½;
one case of good Dark Ginghams, only 8½ cts.
one case of Prints, at only 12½ cents.
Together with every description of Sounds and Fancy Dress Goods, all from the late auction, and will be sold at the very lowest cash prices at the original Bee Hive Stand, 71 and 73 Market street.

The Primary Meetings—Important Suggestion.

Messrs Editors Gazette:—To-day the Union Republicans will assemble at stated places to elect delegates to the forthcoming County Convention. It is a matter of importance to the entire community that the delegates chosen should place themselves to vote for men who will subserve the interests of the party. Among the many candidates in the field for public favor we might cite a few individuals particularly worthy of support, but we know you deem it keeping neutral grounds till after the nomination shall have been made. However, we feel that you will not object to our calling attention to the superior and just claims upon the public of the old well-known and reliable Boot and Shoe House of Joseph Robinson & Co., 61 Market. He sells boots and shoes of every description and style, which are warranted to satisfy.

Many Voters.

Over Ten Thousand

Persons have had teeth extracted without any pain whatever, on the Steam Dental Establishment of Quincy A. Scott, No. 278 Penn street, within the last seven years, and among the large number there is not one case in which his process has proved injurious. On the contrary, he can produce numbers of his patients who claim to have been benefited by it, as well as in health. So give him a call, and not be afraid to extract your teeth without pain, by a painless process. He has increased his facilities for manufacturing Artificial Teeth, that he can defy competition, both in the style and excellence of the work, and therefore invites the public to call and examine specimens. He offers gum teeth, on vulcanite, for the small sum of eight dollars. Call and examine his specimens, and you will be convinced that he will do as he represents as the advertises, or in other words, that the establishment is running business as carried on at his establishment. The new and improved Inhale Laughing Gas are assured that it can get it perfectly pure, and they will be at all times prepared to administer it. Remember the number, 278 Penn street, third door above Hand.—Pittsburgh Post.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Read the following letter from H. Hamilton, a well known citizen of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith—Gentlemen—During a visit to the west last fall, I was continually asked if fever which brought me to my bed and finally terminated in chills and fever, and confined me to my room for several months. During this sickness I was physically so prostrating my health, having entirely lost my appetite, and was reduced to a mere skeleton, and added to which I was much disturbed with a feeling sensation in my head, and passed many sleepless nights, and from debility, was seemingly prostrate condition, brought about by the fever. At this stage of my condition a friend recommended me to use your celebrated Stomach Bitters, but being morally opposed to using liquor as a medicine, I was reluctant to resort to it, but finally, at first decided, but afterwards yielded to the request, and after taking the medicine for several weeks, as directed, my health returned, and I am rapidly regaining my former strength and flesh. My sleep, from the loss of which I had suffered much, is now better than it is now, and the reeling sensation entirely subsided and I am entirely better now. My bowels, which were much constipated before, are now quite natural, and in fact I am glad to say that I have a new man, and tender you this testimonial of my appreciation. You are now at liberty to refer to me, that others suffering as I have may avail themselves of its virtues, which prejudice prevented me from using for some time, but for a period, I may also add that my physician, a member of the medical school, never knew of my having used it, or he would have recommended it to me. Yours, very respectfully,

H. Hamilton,
No. 6 Market street

Hostetter's Bitters

Are sold wholesale and retail at very low rates at Hostetter & Smith's Patent Medicine Depot, No. 56 Market street, corner of the Diamond and Market, near Fourth street.

What We Say Cuba You

Go to 92 Federal street for Boots, Shoes and Gaiters.

Go and See

McClintock's Gaiters. 92 Federal street

Satisfaction to All.

At 92 Federal street.

Gaiters.

92 Federal street

Story of Deception and Crime—Base Conduct of an Italian Adventurer.

New York, May 25.—The Daily News makes public a story of a most remarkable crime and deception. It appears that when Mr. Lemmi, who is famous as the leader of social and fashionable life in Washington during the administration of President Jackson, became a widower in a foreign land, she returned to this country. Taking up her residence here, she adopted two of her grand-children, a boy and girl, and as they were possessed of property to the amount of $100,000, was living very happily. Enough an Italian adventurer, named Bourgeaud, was employed as a dancing master for the children, and they took such a liking to him that they prevailed upon their grandmother to allow him to be introduced to the house. The result was that he married Mrs. Yates and succeeded eventually in getting possession of all her property. Not did he stop there, but prevailed upon her to place in his charge the property she had set apart for her grand-children, of all of which he had the full use and benefit. He then set at work corrupting the girl, and finally sailed by Europe last Wednesday, taking her with him as his wife. He left a note for Mrs. Eaton, in which he told her he had converted all her property into cash, and would allow her twenty dollars per week if she would keep the matter quiet.

Pennsylvanians in Washington—Lobby Influence for Protection—Cameron the Leader—The Administration and Mexican Affairs—Penian Receipts.

New York, May 25.—Specials to the evening papers say there is a powerful Pennsylvania lobby here to influence legislation in favor of protection. Senator Cameron is the leader.

The policy of the Administration in respect to Mexican affairs is gradually assuming a different shape, and may lead to a Congressional endorsement of the loan, which is being urged under strong pressure.

The Express states that, from January to the time of the Eastport fiasco, one hundred and eighty thousand dollars were received by O'Mahoney, of which fifty thousand had been sent to Ireland, the remaining one hundred and thirty thousand being spent here.

Colored People in Passenger Railway Cars.

Baltimore, May 25.—In the United States District Court to-day, Judge Giles decided a petition for an injunction against a city passenger railroad, for refusing to allow the petitioner, A. A. Bradley, colored, to ride in said cars. The Judge decided that the facts stated in the petition did not present a case for the equitable action of the Court by way of injunction. The petitioner in this case claims to be a lawyer from Boston. The colored people generally protest against the course as an unlawful interference in their behalf.

Woolen and Cotton Mills Damaged.

Philadelphia, May 25.—The large woolen and cotton mills of Simon Lord, at Darley, seven miles from the city, were damaged by fire to the extent of ten thousand dollars to-day. About two thousand hands were employed in these mills. The loss is believed to be fully covered by insurance.

James River Bridge Completed.

Richmond, Va., May 25.—The long bridge across the James river, on the line of the Richmond and Petersburg Railroad, erected in place of the bridge destroyed by fire in April of last year, was completed to-day.

SECOND EDITION.

FOUR O'CLOCK, A. M.

THE LATEST NEWS

BY TELEGRAPH.

SOLDIERS' BOUNTY BILL.

Passed the House by a Unanimous Vote.

CAUCUS ON RECONSTRUCTION.

The Pirate Semmes Seeks an Interview with the President.

EFFORT TO POSTPONE JEFFERSON DAVIS' TRIAL

Washington, May 25.—The Bounty bill passed the House to-day by an almost unanimous vote.

The Republican Senators adjourned at an early hour this afternoon, for the purpose of going into caucus on the reconstruction propositions, instead of continuing the debate on that subject to-day. It was thought that the final result would be facilitated by previous private consultation, instead of relying upon an accommodation of conflicting views in open Senate.

Special to the New York evening papers say that the desperate Semmes arrived in Washington this morning, to have an interview with the President.

An effort is being made, with the consent of all parties, to postpone the trial of Jeff. Davis till the fall. The arrangement seems probable.

GENERAL GRANT SPEAKS OUT.

His Views on the Situation.

New York, May 25.—The Tribune, World, Herald and News are not pleased with the serenade speeches.

The Lewis Post Master Journal gives a report of an hour's conversation between the Editor and General Grant, in which, if the report is correctly given, the Lieutenant General appears to have spoken out more freely than he ever before needed to have done. He declared that there were some parts of the country where the civil authorities had never tried, particularly Texas, where he needed to feel how to bring the offenders of the war to bring their people to a realizing sense of the enormity of their crime and the necessity of a thorough repentance. I find, said he, that those parts of the South which have not felt the war, and particularly those which have been within our lines, and have therefore escaped the rebel conscription and taxes, are inclined to accept the situation in good faith than those portions which have been literally overrun with fire and sword.

Referring to the temper of the Southern people, he remarked that they cannot much longer be restrained from bringing themselves to the proper frame of mind, that they were one year since. A year ago, said he, they were willing to do anything. Now they regard themselves as the victims of injustice. Some of the rebel generals he added, are behaving nobly and manfully, and can do much to induce the people to throw their course to the changed condition of affairs. Lee, Johnston and Buck Taylor, particularly, are exercising a great influence, but, he added, Lee is behaving badly. He is contributing himself very differently from what I had reasonably expected of him. He has not, by any surrender, to suppose he would. No man at the head of an army can do so with part of the influence for good that he can, but in resigning it he is setting an example of forced acquiescence in measures which he disapproves in its effects as to be hardly realized. Lee has resigned his command, his rebel armies, and General Grant, acquiesces in the result more heartily than those who stand at home. The man I am particularly bitter against, he continued, is Governor Letcher, of Virginia. He has been a bitter leading man and not content to get the full benefit of the Surrender, as they term it, and the Southern cause, as they term it, but in politics, in my judgment, and ten years hence I am certain men and certain papers in the North will be found to be as much responsible for keeping the late rebels believe that they are just entitled to assert their rights, as they will be found to call their rights, they will have help from Letcher. He is exhibiting a bitterness of feeling among some classes, and I am satisfied it would have been well for the best leading men had not someone got the start of them in the Surrender. Lee