The Devoport Gazette expresses fear that the Iowa Republican State Convention, soon to assemble, will be decidedly democratic. It is not, however, without ground upon which to entertain such an opinion.

The President had a lengthy interview with a Democratic Congressional Committee, consisting of Messrs. Guthrie, Hendricks, Randall and Hagan. The latter claimed to be entirely satisfied with the President's handling of the situation.

With a few exceptions, the President has not received the same amount of gratitude and admiration which would be accorded him were he a common man.
