It is no longer fashionable "to count" in the official announcement of the death of Gen. Case, speaks as "a patriot and a true friend of his country."

It is the 21st District of this State three Republican candidates for Congress—Weston, Mr. J. W. Taylor, and in Fayette, Dr. Smith Fuller. Fortunately, no competitor has been entered between these gentlemen of their friends. From the fact, we incline to believe that Mr. Taylor will have the best chance of success in this district. Dr. Smith Fuller failing to make out a case.

The Boston Globe, the principal organ of the Irish Catholics in the United States, has recently been converted to the Fenian opinion. It now says that the Canadian expedition shows the latter enemy of the Irish against England. It warns the Canadians against thinking that they put them to death, a work of retaliation will be commenced that will cause the most bitter hostility.

When Captain Hatch, of Reading, was in this city attending the Southern States Convention, he was asked by a "Shaky" if it seems probable the discipline to which he was subjected did him good. His paper is now doing service as a book of general utility.

It is a fact that the Democrats of this State have nominated Dr. H. C. Brown for Governor. Whether the claim is true or false will help Mr. Taylor for his kindred vote.

An industrial and respectable laboring man was murdered in this city on the 18th inst. His name was John J. ...
