

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

THURSDAY, JULY 12, 1886.

THE INTERSTATE BUREAU BILL, which was the signature of the President, is intended to reduce the tax on foreign-made goods.

Mr. Daniel Rice, of Ohio, has formally accepted the nomination for Governor of that State in the late election.

The Finance party of the 18th, 19th and 20th wards, of the City of Pittsburgh, met on Tuesday last, at the Hotel P. Spalding, and unanimously nominated:

Some admirers of Mr. James P. Kelly, in Philadelphia, presented him with a Saturday evening, a stippled with and claim as a testimonial of regard for his services as a member of the State Legislature.

The Democratic party of the 18th, 19th and 20th wards, of the City of Pittsburgh, met on Tuesday last, at the Hotel P. Spalding, and unanimously nominated:
