The Pittsburgh Gazette, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1866.

HON. JOHN COVODE. The election of this gentleman, who is known throughout the entire Union as a thorough Radical, in the Twenty-first district, composed of the counties of Indiana, Westmoreland and Fayette, gives us an honorable member of Congress, for Mr. Covode takes the place of the Hon. J. L. Dawson. It is, moreover, the severest blow which has been dealt to the two-time Union men and cowards, by any party of the people of Pennsylvania. Mr. Covode resides in Westmoreland.

The district is closely divided politically. Westmoreland and Fayette have ever been strongholds of the Democracy, and until that party was a party, "old Westmoreland" could roll up majorities of two thousand and upwards, enough to neutralize the vote of Allegheny, and Fayette was not much behind. Now Indiana—the smallest of the three, but as true as Vermont—has to cope with both these old giants. In 1864 she carried within 148 votes of overcoming their united majorities. This year she has done it handily.

When that district was composed of Indiana, Westmoreland and Armstrong, Mr. Covode represented it for four successive terms, so that he is an old stager in two of the counties of the district which has now chosen him. He has never been defeated in the most strenuous efforts were made to defeat Mr. Covode. In no district of the State, probably, was that meant of all party means, prejudice against negroes, so much used or so much relied upon. But it was all to no purpose. The people knew that rebels and copperheads, and not negroes, were the parties in the great struggle, and they were not to be deceived. It was a great triumph. All Indians and yet none the less to those of the other two counties, who are slowly and steadily gaining upon their multitudinous opponents.

MR. MAYOR LOWRY was quoted in the New York Herald as authority for the statement that there were seven hundred changes in this county from the Republican to the Democratic. The returns would indicate that the ex-Mayor was engaged in a common business of counting his chickens before they were hatched.

The Republic yesterday that "there has been detection somewhere among some of those classes who have promised us their support." Just so. The Liquor League, Temperance Society, Coal miners, etc., are going back fearfully on the Republican ticket, and showed their great good sense by so doing.

Covode's District—Disputes from Unionists state that Wm's majority for Congress in Fayette county is less than 800. In Armstrong county it is 1100 and 1300. Indiana gives Covode 2300. He is, therefore, elected easily.

The loss of Mr. Nat. Sawyer, and the dozen or so Republicans who revolted from our party, was that they would take over 1000 Republican votes from the Democratic ranks. What has become of the thousand?

INDIANA.—In the Eighth District, Hon. G. B. Ostrin, who was elected in 1864 by a majority of 1,184 votes, is now re-elected by a 2,007 vote of 871.
