SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1896.

TO YEARLY ADVERTISERS.

Notice to the large amount of advertising matter which we are daily thankful, and the increase of our circulation, as well as the general business of the city, we are compelled to increase our advertising rates, and to make necessary changes for the betterment of our advertising department, and to secure better results in the future.

CATHOLIC PARISH.

Before and during the sitting of the late Plenary Council at Baltimore, considerable speculation has been indulged in regard to its probable action on some important questions of interest both to other religious bodies and the public generally. At the close of the sessions of this august body, on the "Feast of the Maternity of our Lady, October 21st, in the year of our Lord 1896," a Pastoral Letter was issued, which has been the subject of much discussion.

MAIL CLEANINGS.

That there is money in the book is a fact which has been brought to the attention of the public by the late Plenary Council. The fact is, that the book is a profitable one, and that it is a business which is being carried on by many of our countrymen.

THE PASTORAL OPENS.

The pastoral opens with a brief statement of the prerogative of the Plenary Council, and of the authority which it possesses. It then proceeds to discuss the question of the separation of church and state, and the rights of the church in a democratic government.

THE INDEPENDENT FINE COMPANY.

The Independent Fine Company of Columbia, South Carolina, recently issued a circular, in which it announced that it had been organized for the purpose of manufacturing and selling fine goods.

THE BOARD OF POLICE COMMISSIONERS.

The Board of Police Commissioners of Baltimore has given up the subject of the proposed new Board of Police Commissioners, and has decided to continue the present Board.
