Library of Valuable Books this Evening.
An unusually large and yaluable collection of elegant Literature, Theology, &c., will be sold by catalogue this evening, on the second floor of McIlwaine's auction rooms. This exclusively choice gathering of Books has been carefully made with excellent taste, and comprehends the entire stopp of English Literature. So gengral a collection of the best authors, on all subjects, is seldom churneed in one catalogue. The Books are now on public view, and catalogues ready at the Austion Booms.

Have a Good Square Meal.

Our readers should not fail calling at the hoppilar Continental Saloon, next door to the Postoffice, in the basement, on Fifth street, for a dinner or a meal at for a king. Mr. Holtzheimer, the proprietor, has long enjoyed a high reputation in his business, and having established a first class line of custom, he endeavors to sustain his reputation by giving strict and careful attention to his business. This is, without exception, the best managed saloon or dining room in Pittsburgh.
