—The officers of some of the National Banks in the west are considerably exercised about that portion of Mr. McCulloch's report, which purposes they shall make arrangements for the redemption of their notes in New York or some other convenient centre. Against this they protest, and they lites say that if the South is to have $25,000,000 more of banking capital, it should be substracted from its excess of the New England banks, who have more than their quota now. In the various propositions on the subject it is quite proba-PITTSBURGH MARKTES. OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, Dec. 4, 1866. Tusspar, Dec. 4, 1888. 5
There is no improvement to note in the tone of the produce markets, either as regards demands or prices, and the indications at present are not favorable for such a desirable event occurring very soon.
