A Mixed Trouble.
Yesterday morning Eliza Stater, a colored woman, came before Mayor Morrison and made information against Arthur Anderson, a man of about her own hue, charging him with having stolen a valuable gold watch from hor sister, Mrs. Mary Repnolds. A warrant was issued and Andorson arrested by officer Nixon. Shortly aftewards Mrs. Slater appeared again at the office, accompanied by her mother and Mrs. Reynolds. The latter was in a high state of indignation against her sister, charging her with poking her nose into business that in no way concerned her, and business that in no way concerned her, and business that in no way concerned her, and the sister, charging her with poking her nose into business that in no way concerned her, and the sister of the sister with the sister of the sister with the sister of the sister with restaurant of the charge that had been preferred.
