In June last, as is well known, the issue was tried in the District Court of the United States at Williamsport, Pa., whether the company had forfeited its charter by shose or misuse. The verdict of the Juny was that it had not. The agreement of the jury on this verdict was prompt, and arrived at without difficulty. The Court them made the hijunction, which had been granted the year before, restraining the Connellsville and Southern Pennsylvania Railroad Company from interfering with the route or franchises of the Pittaburgh and Connellsville Railroad Company from interfering with the route or franchises of the Pittaburgh and Connellsville Railroad Company south and east of Connells The Had the matter been permitted to rest there, that verdict of a Pennsylvania jury, and that decree of the Court, would have restored to this deeply wronged Company to the farth of the court of the Court restored to this deeply wronged Company to the farth of the court of the court restored to this deeply wronged Company to the farth of the court of the court of the court restored to this deeply wronged Company to the farth of the court of the court restored to this deeply wronged Company to the farth of the court of the court restored to this deeply wronged Company to the franchises, and the work upon this important road, so greatly needed by the peoconfidence in the ultimate justice of the ment, by section 1, act of 9th of April, Legislature of their own State, by prose- 1866, (Purdon, page 553) must be filed ministration of affairs in Pennsylvania uncuting the work during the suspension of within one month after the first Monday of the suspension of within one month after the first Monday of the suspension of the suspension
